Chetwynd.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT

The humble and loyal Address of His Majesty's Council and the House of Assembly of the Province of Nova Scotia.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most affectionate subjects, the Members of His Majesty's Council, and the Representatives of His dutiful and loyal subjects, the people of Nova Scotia, in our legislative capacity assembled, beg leave to approach the Throne with sentiments of the most sincere and lively affection, and from this distant part of the British dominions humbly to offer our most cordial congratulations to your Royal Highness on the marriage of your illustrious daughter, the Princess Charlotte of Wales, with His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg, which joyful event has taken place since our last meeting in General Assembly.

We beg leave to assure your Royal Highness, that no part of His Majesty's extensive dominions more warmly participates in the patriotic feeling and personal joy which your Royal Highness must experience on this illustrious union, than this faithful and loyal province.

In the illustrious alliance of the Presumptive Heiress of the British Throne with a Prince of a family long distinguished for its adherence to the Protestant cause, we recognise the strongest proof of your royal care for the permanent welfare of His Majesty's dominions; and we the more highly value this joyful event, as it affords an additional security to the Protestant succession, and the hope of continuing to a free and happy people, the paternal and mild sway of your Royal House.

His Majesty's faithful subjects in this part of His dominions humbly assure your Royal Highness, that they also with great joy participate in the general felicity occasioned by the recent nuptials of Her Royal Highness the Princess Mary to His Royal Highness William Frederick Duke of Gloucester; and that every event which may tend to the happiness of their illustrious parents, and every branch of the Royal Family, will be received by the people of Nova Scotia with the most sincere and ardent joy.

We request your Royal Highness to be assured, that nothing is deemed by us of more vital importance to the nation at large, than the extending and strengthening the Royal and August Family from which we proudly hail your descent; and that your Royal Highness may long enjoy the felicity of beholding every happiness and prosperity succeeding these illustrious events, will ever be our most earnest and fervent prayer.

S. S. Blowers, President of the Council.
S. B. Robie, Speaker of the Assembly.

Halifax, Nova Scotia, April 2, 1817.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble, dutiful, and loyal Address of the Governor and Council, the Mayor and Aldermen, the European and Native Freeholders, and the other Inhabitants of His Majesty's Colony of Sierra Leone.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Governor and Council, the Mayor and Aldermen, the European and Native Freeholders, and the other Inhabitants of the Colony of Sierra Leone, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with our humble, dutiful, and loyal address, on the occasion of the happy union of Her Royal Highness your august daughter, the Princess Charlotte, with His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg, and to add the congratulations of this His Majesty's colony on the auspicious event, which has fulfilled the hopes and wishes of the British empire.

It is with heartfelt pleasure we anticipate the mutual happiness which must result from the union of such excellent and virtuous qualities as they possess, an union which, under the blessings of Divine Providence, will, we confidently hope, promote the felicity of the Royal Pair, and preserve to the British empire the blessings of our happy Constitution.

Though inconsiderable amongst His Majesty's colonial possessions, our loyalty as subjects, and our attachment (from affection) to the Royal Family, cannot be exceeded by the richest or proudest dependency of the British empire. This infant colony with joy recognises its future kind protectors and benefactors in their Royal and Serene Highnesses; and, in Sierra Leone, a colony devoted to the cause of freedom, from their past sufferings in unjust and unnatural slavery, the grateful natives of Africa, freed from their fetters by British benevolence and fellow-feeling, exultingly claim their right to admission as adopted sons and subjects, of the British empire, proud of their privileges, and desirous, on all occasions, of evincing their joy in the prosperity of your Royal Family.

We confidently hope that in a very few years, when Christian education and religion shall have taught that part of the inhabitants of our colony lately emancipated from bondage, the connection between their Faith and duty to their Sovereign, that they will most ardently join us on a proper occasion in a dutiful address to your Royal Highness.

We humbly beg your Royal Highness to accept these our humble, but sincere congratulations on an occasion which has filled every heart with joy and promise of future good. This little spot, selected and marked out from the immense and yet benighted Continent of Africa, as the point from which civilization and the concomitant virtues are to proceed, wishes not to be behind in offering its tribute. Long, long may their Royal and Serene Highnesses enjoy the blessings of this life; may happiness pour forth her richest stores upon them; may their path of life be strewn with flowers; and from them descend a race of British Princes, worthy of bearing your illustrious name, and emulous of transmitting to each other, unimpaired, the invaluable benefits of our Constitution to the latest posterity.

By the desire of the Council, Mayor and Aldermen, European and Native Freeholders, and other Inhabitants of Sierra Leone,

C. MacCarthy, Governor.

Court-House, Freetown, Sierra Leone,
March 5, 1817.

PROCLAMATION

FOR PARDONING DESERTERS FROM HIS MAJESTY'S REGULAR LAND FORCES.

War-Office, June 18, 1817.

WHEREAS it has been represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that there are at this time several deserters from the different regular corps in His Majesty's land service, who might be induced to return to their duty by an offer of His Royal Highness's gracious pardon, and that such an instance of His Royal Highness's clemency might have a due influence upon their future behaviour, His Royal Highness has been graciously pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to grant His free pardon to all deserters from His Majesty's regular land forces, who, not having been previously apprehended, shall surrender themselves on or before the 18th day of August next, to the Commanding Officer of any regiment, or to any of the Inspecting Field Officers of the Recruiting Service, whose stations are mentioned in the margin hereof, or to the Leeds. Commandant of Albany barracks, in the Coventry. Isle of Wight, or to the Commandant

Liverpool. of the cavalry barracks at Maidstone, or Bristol. to any of His Majesty's Justices of the London. Peace in Great Britain.

Glasgow. Such deserters, if able-bodied men, and fit for service, shall be sent to the regiments from which they respectively deserted, or be appointed to such regiments in the United Kingdom as His Royal Highness may be pleased to command; and when so placed shall not be liable to be claimed by any other corps to which they may formerly have belonged.

And whereas many of the said deserters may have enlisted into other regular corps, and may now be serving therein, His Royal Highness is graciously pleased to extend to such deserters the benefit of this pardon, and to direct, that they shall continue to serve in the corps wherein they now are, upon declaring themselves to their respective Commanding Officers, on or before the said 18th day of August next, to be deserters; and, after having so declared themselves, they shall not be liable, at any future time, to be claimed by the regiments from which they had formerly deserted.

The Magistrate to whom any deserter from His Majesty's regular forces shall surrender himself, is authorised and required to certify the day on which such deserter surrendered; which certificate is to be delivered to the deserter, to continue in force until the arrival of the deserter at the head-quarters of the nearest military post, provided he proceed at the rate of ten miles a day, unless prevented by sickness; such sickness to be certified by some medical practitioner, on the back of the Magistrate's certificate; or to be otherwise proved, to the satisfaction of the Officer commanding at such military post.

And His Royal Highness having further commanded, that the greatest exertions shall be used, for the future apprehension of all deserters, every soldier now serving ought to be deeply impressed with a sense of the danger to which he will expose himself if he should be guilty of the crime of desertion; and all those who have already committed that offence, ought to feel that they will render themselves liable to the severest punishment if they do not immediately avail themselves of the pardon held out in this His Royal Highness's most gracious Proclamation.

Any soldier who may desert after these His Royal Highness's gracious intentions are made public, shall not be included in the above pardon, but be proceeded against with the utmost severity.

By command of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty.
