SUPREME COURT OF JUDICATURE, AT FORT WILLIAM, IN BENGAL.

Pursuant to a Decree of the Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William, in Bengal, bearing date the 20 day of November in the year of our Lord 1816, and made in a Cause wherein Edward Strettell, Esq. Advocate-General of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, at their residency of Fort William in Bengal, at the relation of John Martin Wickins is informant, and John Palmer and Jean Jacques Deverinne, Executors of Major-General Claud Martin, deceased, are defendants. Notice is hereby given, that all the Creditors and Legatees of the said Testator Claude Martin are at liberty to come before the Master of this Honourable Court, at his Office in the Court-House, and prove and establish their debts and legacies respectively, on or before the 2d day of November, which will be in the year of our Lord 1818, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Supreme Court of Judicature, at Fort William, in Bengal.

Between Edward Strettell, Esq. Advocate-General, at the relation of John Martin Wickins, and John Palmer and John Jacques Deverinne, Executors of Major-General Claud Martin, deceased.

Whereas, in pursuance of a Decretal Order of the said Supreme Court, bearing date the 2d day of November which was in the year of our Lord 1816, and made in the above-mentioned cause, a Commission issued under the seal of the said Supreme Court, on the 11th day of December in the aforesaid year 1816, and directed to us the undersigned James Taylor, Richard Campbell Bazett, Henry Traff, Alexander Fraser, and John Innes, Esqrs., whereby the said Supreme Court gave unto us, and unto any one, or either of us full power and authority to receive the claims of such Creditors and Legatees of the Testator, the said Claud Martin, as may be adduced before us on or before the 2d day of November which will be in the year of our Lord 1818, by any person or persons being inhabitants of or residing within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or within the Kingdom of France, and to administer oaths to all and every such person or persons in support, verification and proof of such claims as may be adduced before us within the period before-mentioned, pursuant to advertisements to be made and published to that effect. Therefore notice is hereby given to all and every person or persons resident within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland or within the Kingdom of France, whom it doth, shall, or may concern as Creditors or
