Leaving Liverpool on the 1st October, he reached Liverpool on the 2nd, and on the 3rd he went to the office of Mr. George Clegg & Co., Liverpool, in order to pay an account due to him for 18 months, same amount, and upon his arrival he had a long talk with Mr. J. H. Jackson, Esq., of the Liverpool Stock Exchange, respecting his business, at the same time the Statutes of which he had brought with him were shown to him, and he was informed that he could not be allowed to trade in stocks and shares, as he was not a member of the Stock Exchange, and that he must either become a member or leave the city. He then went to the office of Mr. John Gurney & Sons, Liverpool, and there he was shown the Statutes of the Liverpool Chamber of Commerce, and he was informed that he could not be admitted as a member of the Chamber of Commerce, as he was not a citizen of Liverpool, and that he must either become a citizen or leave the city. He then went to the office of Mr. Robert Gun and Sons, Liverpool, and there he was shown the Statutes of the Liverpool Chamber of Commerce, and he was informed that he could not be admitted as a member of the Chamber of Commerce, as he was not a citizen of Liverpool, and that he must either become a citizen or leave the city.

HENRY WADDELL, of Blackfriars, Justice of the Peace, Sheriff, & Sheriff-Clerk, Glasgow, June 23, 1848.—
I have the pleasure to give notice of a general meeting of the Council of the Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh, to be held on the 18th of July next, at One of the Back Chambers of the Royal Exchange, for the purpose of considering the proposed Bill for the Regulation of the Profession of Physician and Surgeon, to be introduced into the House of Commons by Mr. John Bright, on the 1st of August instant. The meeting will be opened at half past 12 o'clock, and will be closed at half past 2 o'clock.

TWO of the Commissioners of the concentrated estates, Mr. John Black and Mr. John Holmes, being elected by the Board of Directors, will be present at the Annual Meeting of the Company to be held on Friday, the 2^d of August, 1817, at the Hall of the King's Arms Inn, Newgate-street, London, at 12 o'clock, for the purpose of establishing a new Commissioner, and for other business.
