A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS We have thought fit to order that certain pieces of gold money should be coined, which should be called "sovereigns or twenty shilling pieces," each of which should be of the value of twenty shillings, and that each piece should be of the weight of five pennyweights three grains $\frac{2,740}{10,000}$ troy weight of standard gold, according to the weights approved of and confirmed by Us in Council, in pursuance of an Act made in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for regulating and ascertaining the weights to be made use of in weighing the gold and silver coin of this kingdom;" and We have further thought fit to order that every such piece of gold money, so ordered to be coined as aforesaid, shall have for the obverse impression the head of His Majesty, with the inscription "Georgius III. D. G: Britanniar. Rex. F. D." and the date of the year; and for the reverse the image of St. George armed sitting on horseback encountering the dragon with a spear, the said device being placed within the enobled Garter, bearing the motto "Honi soit qui mal y pense," with a newly invented graining on the edge of the piece: and whereas pieces of gold money of the above description have been coined at His Majesty's Mint, and will be coined there, in pursuance of Orders which We have given for that purpose: We have therefore, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, thought fit to issue this Proclamation; and We do hereby, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, ordain, declare, and command, that the said pieces of gold money so coined, and to be coined as aforesaid, shall be current and lawful money of the kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and shall be called "sovereigns or twenty shilling pieces," and shall pass and be received as current and lawful money of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; and every of such pieces shall pass and be received as of the value of twenty shillings of lawful money of Great Britain and Ireland in all payments whatsoever.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS it has been represented unto Us, that great quantities of the gold coin of this realm, deficient in weight, are now in circulation, contrary to the tenour of His Majesty's Proclamations of the twelfth of April one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, and twenty-first of September one thousand seven hundred eighty-even; and there being reason to believe that due attention is not paid to the weighing of the said gold coin, and to the directions given in the Acts of Parliament now in force with respect to the cutting, breaking, or defacing of such pieces thereof as are found to be of less weight than those declared and allowed by His Majesty's said Proclamations to be current and pass in payment: We do, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, by this Our royal Proclamation declare and command, in like manner as was declared and commanded in His Majesty's before-mentioned Proclamations of the twelfth of April one thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, and twenty-first of September one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, that all guineas, half guineas, quarter guineas, more deficient in weight than the rates specified in the table following;

Guineas, five pennyweights eight grains;

Half guineas, two pennyweights sixteen grains;

Quarter guineas, one pennyweight eight grains;

and that the seven shillings gold pieces, and the gold pieces called sovereigns or twenty shilling pieces, more deficient in weight than the rates hereafter specified, viz.;

Seven shilling pieces, one pennyweight eighteen grains;

Sovereigns, or twenty shilling pieces, five pennyweights two grains three quarters;

be not allowed to be current or pass in any payment whatsoever: and We do hereby strictly require and command all His Majesty's loving subjects, and particularly all the officers, collectors, and receivers of His Majesty's revenues, strictly to conform to the orders hereby given, and to the directions and regulations enacted and established in the several Acts of Parliament now in force with respect to the cutting, breaking, and defacing such pieces of the said gold coin as shall be found deficient in weight: and We do hereby further ordain, declare, and command, that the guineas, half guineas, quarter guineas, seven shilling pieces, and sovereigns, of the weights above described, shall pass and be received as current and lawful money of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in all payments whatsoever.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, in the fifty-seventh year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 31st of May 1817.

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by the forty-third section of His Majesty's Order in Council, of the fifth of April one thousand eight hundred and five, it is ordered, that all ships and vessels arriving in the ports of Great Britain, or the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, having come from or through the Mediterranean, or from the West Barbary on the Atlantic Ocean, which with their officers, crews, passengers, and cargoes, shall have previously performed quarantine in the lazaret at Malta, Ancona, Venice, Messina, Leghorn, Genoa, or Marseilles, shall, upon their arrival, be put under quarantine in some of the ports or places hereinbefore appointed for the performance of quarantine, until the Commander, Master, or other person having the charge of such ship or vessel shall have produced to the Superintendent of Quarantine, or his Assistant, or to the Principal or other Officer of the Customs authorised to act in that behalf, the proper documents to prove that such ship or vessel, and the officers, crew, passengers, and cargo on board the same, have duly performed quarantine in one of the lazarets last mentioned, and upon so producing such documents, the said ship or vessel shall not be obliged to perform quarantine, but shall be forthwith admitted to report, and all goods, wares, and merchandize on board thereof, not hereinbefore enumerated in the first class before stated, shall be admitted to entry; but all goods, wares, and merchandizes on board any such ship or vessel, which are enumerated in the first class before stated, shall in such case perform a further quarantine of fifteen days, at some of the ports or places hereinbefore appointed for that purpose, in such manner as has been heretofore practised: and whereas information has been received, that the establishment of the lazaret at Trieste is conducted upon the same plan as that of Venice, and that consequently no danger is to be apprehended from admitting ships, vessels, or cargoes arriving from Trieste, having previously performed quarantine at that place, to all the indulgences granted by the before-mentioned Order, His Royal Highness the Prince Regent is thereupon pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that all ships and vessels arriving in the ports of Great Britain, or the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, having come from or through the Mediterranean, or from the West Barbary on the Atlantic Ocean, which with their officers, crews, passengers, and cargoes shall have previously performed quarantine in the lazaret at Trieste, shall be subject only to the rules and regulations prescribed by the forty-third section of His Majesty's Order in Council, of the fifth of April one thousand eight hundred and five, with respect to vessels arriving from Malta, Ancona, Venice, Messina, Leghorn, Genoa, or Marseilles;

PROCLAMATION

FOR PARDONING DESERTERS FROM HIS MAJESTY'S REGULAR LAND FORCES.

War-Office, June 18, 1817.

WHEREAS it has been represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that there are at this time several deserters from the different regular corps in His Majesty's land service, who might be induced to return to their duty by an offer of His Royal Highness's gracious pardon, and that such an instance of His Royal Highness's clemency might have a due influence upon their future behaviour, His Royal Highness has been graciously pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to grant His free pardon to all deserters from His Majesty's regular land forces, who, not having been previously apprehended, shall surrender themselves on or before the 18th day of August next, to the Commanding Officer of any regiment, or to any of the Inspecting Field Officers of the Recruiting Service, whose stations are mentioned in the margin hereof, or to the Commandant of Albany barracks, in the Isle of Wight, or to the Commandant of the cavalry barracks at Maidstone, or to any of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace in Great Britain.

Such deserters, if able-bodied men, and fit for service, shall be sent to the regiments from which they respectively deserted, or be appointed to such regiments in the United Kingdom as His Royal Highness may be pleased to command; and when so placed shall not be liable to be claimed by any other corps to which they may formerly have belonged.

And whereas many of the said deserters may have enlisted into other regular corps, and may now be serving therein, His Royal Highness is graciously pleased to extend to such deserters the benefit of this pardon, and to direct, that they shall continue to serve in the corps wherein they now are; upon declaring themselves to their respective Commanding Officers, on or before the said 18th day of August next, to be deserters; and, after having so declared themselves, they shall not be liable, at any future time, to be claimed by the regiments from which they had formerly deserted.

The Magistrate to whom any deserter from His Majesty's regular forces shall surrender himself, is authorised and required to certify the day on which such deserter surrendered; which certificate is to be delivered to the deserter, to continue in force until the arrival of the deserter at the head-quarters of the nearest military post, provided he proceed at the rate of ten miles a day, unless prevented by sickness; such sickness to be certified by some medical practitioner, on the back of the Magistrate's certificate; or to be otherwise proved, to the satisfaction of the Officer commanding at such military post.

And His Royal Highness having further commanded, that the greatest exertions shall be used, for the future apprehension of all deserters, every soldier now serving ought to be deeply impressed with a sense of the danger to which he will expose himself if he should be guilty of the crime of des-section; and all those who have already committed that offence, ought to feel that they will render themselves liable to the severest punishment, if they do not immediately avail themselves of the pardon held out in this His Royal Highness's most gracious Proclamation.

Any soldier who may desert after these His Royal Highness's gracious intentions are made public, shall not be included in the above pardon, but be proceeded against with the utmost severity.

By command of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty. PALMERSTON.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting certain goods imported into Great Britain, to be secured in warehouse without payment of duty," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees, of any of the goods, wares or merchandise enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed marked (E); and which shall have been legally imported or brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure in a warehouse or warehouses to be provided for that purpose, any such goods, wares, or merchandise, under the joint locks of the Crown and the merchant, without payment, at the time of the first entry, of the duties of customs due on the importation thereof; and it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them, shall deem it expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to any goods, wares, and merchandise not enumerated or described in either of the tables annexed thereto, and should cause a list of such goods, wares, and merchandise to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend to such goods, wares and merchandise, in every respect, in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said tables respectively, at the time of the passing the said Act:

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the powers vested in us in and by the said Act, do hereby declare, that it appears to us expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to the article legally imported or brought into the port of London (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies); and that such amber beads should be added to the list of goods, wares, and merchandise enumerated and described in the table annexed to the said recited Act marked E; and that such amber beads should be lodged and secured at or in such warehouse or warehouses, under the regulations and directions of the said Act: and we do further declare, that from and after the publication of this our certificate in the London Gazette, conformable to the directions of the said Act, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend, and be construed to extend, to all such amber beads in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the table annexed to the said Act marked E. at the time of the passing the same Act.

Amber Beads,
