Published by Authority.

From Monday June 5. to Thursday June 8. 1682.

Turin, May 23.

ALl things are preparing for the Duke of Savoy's Voyage to Portugal, where his Highness proposes to be about the end of August.

Genova, May 27. Yesterday Monsieur de St. Olen, Envoye Extraordinary from the most Christian King, had his Audience of this Senate, to which he was not only accompanied by all the French in Town, but likewise by the Genoefes that have any Lands in Montferrat, (he having let them know that he expected it of them, as being Subjects to the King his Master.) The Smirna Merchant is here, taking in Fine Goods for Cadiz. From Alicant we have Advice, that Admiral Herbert was there.

Vienna, May 23. Our Letters from Hungary do not of late speak so much of the preparations of the Turks as they did formerly, so that the apprehensions we had of a War on that side, do very much lessen; but when we have an account of Count Caprara's arrival at Constantinople, and of his Reception by the Grand Vizier, and the other Ministers of that Court, we shall be able to make a better judgment of things. The Duke of Lorraine recovers, but very slowly.

Frankfort, June 3. The dispute concerning the Language (the Imperialists insisting to have the French give in their Memorials in Latine) is not yet determined; in the mean time the Emperors Ambassadors, and the Deputies of the Empire are often together; they have made a Relation of all that has passed here, between them and the French Ambassadors, and have sent it to the Dyet at Ratisbonne. The Emperor has ordered Six Regiments of Foot, and two of Horse (which together make up 16000 Men) to march towards Swabia; and that they may not incommode any of the States of the Empire by their March, they are to pass by, the way of Tyrol, and the Lac de Constance.

Cologne, June 6. From Lorraine we have an Account, that the French will very quickly have 20000 Men in the neighborhood of Metz, and on the Saarl. And from Strasbourg they write, that they are likewise drawing their Forces together in Alsace. These Motions of the French, and the preparations which on the other side, the Emperor, and many of the Princes of the Empire, are making, gives occasion to many to believe that things will not remain in the state they are in; especially seeing the Conferences at Frankfort are not more successful than hitherto they have been.

Ligue, June 9. Our last Letters from Hamburg left them there in an expectation of an Interview between the King of Denmark and the Elector of Brandenburg; and in an opinion that these Princes, who seem to have espoused one and the same Interest, do not meet out of a Compliment, but to concert the Measures they design to pursue in the present conjuncture of Affairs. The States of Holland intend to separate in few days, not having any business of moment now before them.

Paris, June 13. The 9th instant the Sieur de La Barre (whom the King has now made Governor of New France) parted from hence for Rochelle, where he will Embark in order to his passing to his Government. The Protestants of this Kingdom continue to suffer under great severities: The King has now published a Declaration forbidding all Seamen and Handicrafts-men to go and settle with their Families in any Foreign Country, on pain that the chief of the Families be condemned to the Gallies for ever, and that all such Persons as shall be convicted of having contributed to their going away, by persuation or otherwise, be punished by Arbitrary Fines, the least whereof not to be less than 3000 Livres, and with Corporal punishment, in case they offend again.

Windsor, June 6. His Majesty is very much satisfied with the Loyal Addresses that are daily presented to His Majesty. Those from the County and Burrough of Lancaster were presented by his Grace the Duke of Albemarle; and His Majesty was pleased to receive them, and the rest that follow, very Graciously.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty.

VVE your Majesties most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Benchers, Barristers, and Students of the Society of Lincolns-Inn, whose Names are hereunto subscribed; Observing your Majesties unparalleled Justice, Mercy and Goodness; and being Partakers of that great Liberty, Peace and Happiness which your Majesties Subjects have always enjoyed since your Majesties happy Rejuvenation; the like whereof no People in the World did ever pretend, or can hope to enjoy; And also remembering that great and particular Honour your Majesty was pleas'd to do our Society by your gracious Condescension in Recording your Royal Name amongst us: We of all People did think our selves under such high Obligations of Loyalty, Duty and Obedience, that to make any publick Profession thereof might give an unnecessary trouble to your Majesty, and seem in some measure to draw into question that which we thought no Person could doubt: But being convinced (by that Reasonable Paper, and Heinous Project of Rebellion lately produced at this proceeding against the Earl of Shaftsbury, a Member of this Society, and which was then, by good, and unquestionable Witnesses positively sworn to be found in his Handwritings Closet) that no Obligations can be sufficient to keep, and detain some Men in their Duties: We therefore humbly crave leave to assure your Majesty, that we utterly Abhor, Detest and Abominate all such Base Ingratitude, and Killianous Treasons, resolving to Defend your most Sacred Majesty and your most Excellent Government as it is now Establish'd, your Heirs and Lawfull Successors, with our Lives and Fortunes against all such Conspiracies and Associations, the Contrivers and Abettors of the same.

T_C

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of the Lord Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, and Grand Jury for the County of Wiltmorland, at an Adjournment of the General Quarter-Sessions from Appleby to Shapp, the 10th day of May 1682.

Great SIR,

Since under Your Majesties most Merciful and just Government we have enjoyed all the Felicity Mankind is capable of, we should of all People be the most grateful. If we should seek for security any where but under Your Majesties most Gracious Protection: And as we do with all the sense of Gratitude imaginable acknowledge the Benefits we enjoy, so we most humbly take leave to assure Your Majesty, that we do detest and abominate all Associations, whereof Your Majesty is not the sole Head and Author. And whenever Your Majesty shall be pleased to call together Your Great Council the Parliament, we will effectually endeavour to chase such Men as shall shew all that Care of Your Majesties Person and Government, Your Lawful Heirs and Successors, and the Protestant Religion, as becomes the most Loyal and most obliged Subjects.

To the Kings Most Excellent Majesty,

The Humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Corporation of Kendall in the County of Wiltmorland.

Dread Sovereign,

When we reflect upon the late intended Association, (which by Your Majesties great Wisdom was so timely discovered and prevented) we can never sufficiently detest and abhor the pernicious Designs of those Cut-throats who were the Authors or Abettors of that Conspiracy, wherein it is apparent, that the Dethroning of Your Majesties Sacred Person, and Posterity, and the Subversion of the present Government, was the only Object of that Fanatick fury, which heretofore could not be appeased, but by the Bloody Sacrifice of Your Royal Father of blessed Memory, and by turning the best of Monarchies into Confusion and Anarchy: And though an Ignominious Jury would make us believe, that this Monster had its Birth and Being from some Votes in Parliament, we are so far from having so dishonourable a thought of that Wise and Great Council of the Nation, that we hope (when Your Majesty in Your great Judgment shall think fit to call a Parliament) that it will be the great Concern and Care of that most Honourable Assembly to find out and punish the Contrivers and Promoters of so Rebellious and Treasonable Designs and Practices; And were we capable of sending Representatives to Parliament, it should be the first good Service we should desire of them; We cannot but admire and dread those restless Men, who when they had imbrued their hands in the Blood of their Sovereign, and thousands of his Loyal Subjects; had robbed and defaced the Church; had enriched themselves with the Spoils of their fellow Subjects, and after all these Villanies committed, did peaceably and quietly Enjoy their forfeited Lives, and ill-gotten Estates under Your Majesties most Gracious Act of Oblivion; yet are still attempting to act the same Tragedy over again, under the same painted Scenes of Petitions and Associations, Leagues and Covenants, behind which is nothing but Blackest Treason and Rebellion; for however Liberty of Conscience (a Liberty which themselves would never allow to others) and Reformation of Religion may be pretended, there is nothing more certain than that the Royal Martyr well observed, and by sad experience found, "That the Devil of Rebellion doth commonly turn himself into an Angel of Reformation; And as we do here declare our perfect hatred and abhorrence not only of this, but of all other Associations and Confederacies whatsoever made without Your Majesties Consent, so we will be ready with our Lives and Fortunes to defend and maintain Your Majesties Sacred Person and Prerogative, and the Established Government in Church and State, and the Succession and Descent of the Crown in its Right and due Course against all Associating Factious Persons whatsoever. In Witness whereof we have caused the Common Seal of this Your Majesties Corporation to be set hereunto the Sixth day of May, in the Four and thirtieth Year of Your Majesties most happy Reign.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty.

WE Your Majesties Loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Common-Council, and other Members of your Majesties ancient Burrough of Appleby, in the County of Wiltmorland, being truly sensible of the many and great Blessings this your Kingdom has all along enjoyed by your Majesties most Gracious Reign over us, by which we, amongst the rest of your Majesties Loyal Subjects, have so liberally tasted, and comfortably experienced the fruits of Peace and Tranquillity: and finding the wicked Artifices of too many disaffected Persons, who labour to disturb your Majesties Government; a plain instance whereof we have met with, in that most Seditious and Traiterous Paper of Association. We do in all humble Loyalty Declare our perfect Abhorrence and Detestation thereof, and all other Associations that shall be entered into, without your Majesties Authority; and that we shall be always ready with our Lives and Fortunes to secure your Majesties Sacred Person, and lawful Successors, against all wicked Contrivances whatsoever, as shall any way tend to the Subversion of your Majesties Government, or Alteration of Religion, as it is now established in the Church of England: and do humbly give your Majesty this assurance, that whensoever it shall please your Majesty again to meet your People in Parliament, that we shall be careful to send up such Representatives, who will very well evidence their Loyalty to your Sacred Majesty and Government in Church and State, and abandon all those evil Principles, that have been so much proposed, and too much magnified by those that do not love the Peace of Sion.

In Testimony whereof we have Subscribed our Names, and Affixed our Common-Seal, at the Grand Court held for the said Burrough, the Third day of May, in the Thirty fourth year of Your Majesties most Gracious Reign, Annoq; Dom. 1682.

To the Kings Most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of us Your Majesties Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Officers of Your Militia, and Freeholders of Your County Palatine of Lancaster, April the 21. 1682.

As outward Complements are the usual Covers of inward Dissimulation, so Generous and Down-right Declarations, and Promises from Men of Honour, do not only beget Belief and Credit from those to whom they are made, but are strong Obligations for future Performance upon the Makers: And such we Beg Your Majesty will look upon these which we throw at Your feet, and to judge of us accordingly hereafter.

We do therefore, Dread Sovereign, Declare our most Abhorrence of the Traiterous Association found in the Lord Shaftsbury's Closet, and look upon it as no other other than that Old Detestable Covenant, Cast in a New Mould, Dress'd with a New Name, but Level'd at the Old End of Destroying Your Sacred Person, the Establish'd Religion, and Most Glorious Government, And as we are heartily sorry to see there are means found to Secure such Traiterous Contrivances from the Hand of Justice; So we hope, Your Majesty will never be persuaded to leave off the Prosecution of this New, and Unheard-of Way of Protecting Treason and Rebellion; a Proceeding, that Beards the Regal Power, Outfaces the Law, and establishes a few depraved Men, Masters of the Lives and Fortunes of your best of Subjects; for that Seared Conscience, which can acquit so palpable and Notorious a Guilt, will make no difficulty of bringing the most Innocent to the slaughter. In this therefore so Important an Affair, we beg the Assistance of the Great God of Justice to Strengthen your Majesty against the Bold-fac'd Endeavors of that sort of Men, who think they can, by sleights, subtle and wicked Contrivances, Over-power the Best of Causes, and Enthrall your Majesty, the best of Princes.

We do next Declare, We look on it as a great Blessing to your Sacred Majesty, and all your honest Subjects, that you have Recal'd your Royal Brother to Your Presence; A Prince, attended by so continued a Progress of Happiness, and Good Fortune, that no Action ever mis'd of a Prosperous Event, when he was present; which sole consideration hath rais'd him the utmost envy of all the Ill Men who ever feared the success of their dark Machinations, whilst he was near to your Person.

After these Declarations, give us leave to promise you, that our Lives and Fortunes shall ever be at your Majesties Service, that we will never give our Votes for Electing any Member in Parliament, we have the least apprehension is the Favourer of that Curs'd ASSOCIATION, and Unnatural Bill of Exclusion: And we beg, that this Address may remain with you as a Record, to condemn us of eternal Infamy, if ever we swerve from these Principles, or be other than firm Adherers to the Church of England Establish'd by Law, And

Your Most Obedient,
Faithful and Loyal Subjects.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bayliffs, and Council of Your Majesties ancient Burrough of Lancaster.

Great SIR,

Rescu'd from the Confusions of Anarchy, and invested in your ancient Rights and Properties, by your Majesties Blessed Restoration, and still guarded from Violence and Injury, by due Administration of just and equal Laws; exempted from the needless fears, and jealousies of Arbitrary Power and Government, by your Majesties Royal and Repeated Promises and Assurances, secur'd in the Profession and Exercise of our Holy Religion, by wholesome established Laws, and animated therein by your Majesties Royal Example, the true Defender thereof, and influenc'd with the Blessings of Peace and Plenty, deriv'd to us by your Majesties most Gracious and gentle Reign over us: We your Majesties most Loyal and Obedient Subjects, deeply sensible of the Premises, cannot but express our bounden Duty to your Sacred Majesty; Protesting and Declaring with all Sincerity and Integrity, that we (as in Duty and Allegiance we ought) shall never esteem our Lives or Fortunes dear to us, in Defence and Preservation of your Majesties Sacred Person, and lawful Successor, Prerogative-Royal, and established Government, and that with utmost Abhorrence we do detest and abominate all Traiterous Associations, Leagues, and Combinations whatsoever, tending to your Majesties Disquiet, the disturbance of the Peace and Tranquility of our Nation, the propagating of Faction, Sedition and Schism; and at length, the Subversion of your Majesties welfare, and of the whole frame of Government, both in Church and State by open Rebellion, as being (in our Account) the pernicious Artifices and Engines of turbulent, Republican and Antimonarchical Spirits.

That the most high God wou'd vouchsafe your Majesty a long and happy Reign, repleat with Honor and Tryumph, and succeeded by a glorious and unbounded Felicity, is, and shall be the constant and unanimous Prayer of

Your Majesties most Loyal and Devoted Subjects and Servants.

May it please Your Sacred Majesty,

WE the Mayor, Recorder, Magistrates, and such Freemen and Inhabitants of your Majesties Burrough of East-Loe in Cornwall, who earnestly desire the continuance of the Government as it is now Established in Church and State, (being highly sensible of the happiness we have enjoyed by Your Majesties most Gracious Administration of it since Your happy Restauration) do prostrate our selves before Your Sacred Majesty, humbly imploring your Princely Pardon for not joining with the earliest of your Loyal Subjects in their Dutiful Addresses and earnest Expressions of their Thanks, for having in Your Princely Wisdom by the Dissolution of the two last Parliaments broken the Designs of all ill-minded Persons whatsoever, who under the pretences of endeavouring the Establishment of our Religion and Liberties, seem'd apparently to design nothing less than the Subversion of them, faithfully assuring your Majesty that it was not the want of an equal Vigour and Resolution for your Service with the earliest and truest of your Subjects, which obstructed the shewing of our Duty therein, but that out of an humble Confidence that having not offered any Violence to your Regal Authority, by prescribing to your Majesty the Times and Reasons of Convening Parliaments, (the determination of which belongs to your Majesty as well in respect of your Royal Wisdom as Prerogative) we persuaded our selves that we needed not interrupt your most weighty Affairs by shewing our Abhorrence of such unlawful and unwarrantable Principles, as detestable to us as the very Subversion of our real Liberties and Properties: But having since with dread and amazement perused the Copy of an Hellish ASSOCIATION found among the Papers in the Earl of Shrewsbury's Closet, the Scheme of a form'd Rebellion, of an Army to be rais'd, and a War to be levied, and that under the pretences of the Law, and Justification of the Government, which if it had taken effect, must necessarily have subverted the ancient and flourishing Monarchy of this Kingdom, we could not but conclude our selves unpardonable, even by your Majesties Clemency, which hath extended it self to the highest Delinquents, did not we declare our abhorrence of the Designs therein intended, and our Resolution to oppose them, and all Persons who shall hereafter maintain them; even with the loss of our Lives, Fortunes, and Estates: We should look upon our selves as infamous to our Countrey and Posterity, if having felt the intolerable Evils of a Solemn League and Covenant, we did not oblige our selves to obstruct by all possible means, a more dangerous and damnable Association.

Upon these serious Considerations, Dread Sir, we throw our selves at your Majesties Feet, imploring your Gracious Acceptance of this our unfeigned Protestation, That we will always be ready to defend with the expences of our Lives and Estates your Majesties Sacred Person, and the ancient Monarchy in its Lineal and Lawful Succession, and the Government of the Church as it is now Established, purged of all Positions destructive of the Civil Magistracy, and free from all the King-killing Doctrines which have been practis'd by the Popish on the one hand, and miserable, in the Kingdom by the Phanatick Dissenters on the other; humbly assuring your Majesty, that whensoever it shall please you, out of your sole Princely Wisdom, to Assemble a Parliament, we will make choice of such Persons to be Members thereof for this place, as we shall know to be of true and Loyal Principles, who shall Represent us in nothing more than in a ready Obedience to your Majesty, and an earnest desire to promote the good and happiness of the Established Government.

Given under our Hands; and the Common Seal of our said Burrough, at our Law-Court and Sessions of the Peace held at the Guildhall in our said Burrough, on Tuesday the 9th day of May, Anno Regni Domini nostri Caroli Secundi, Dei Gratia Angliæ, Scotiæ, Franciæ, & Hiberniæ, Regis Fidei Defensoris, &c. Franciscus Quaer.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty.

Dread Sovereign,

WE Your Majesties most Dutiful and Obedient Subjects, the Mayor, Burgeses, and other the Inhabitants of your Majesties most ancient Burrough of Downton, in your County of Wilts, (whose Names are hereunto subscribed) do humbly acknowledge the great Happiness we enjoy under Your Princely Government, notwithstanding the restless Attempts of ill Men, who daily endeavour to make Your Majesty obnoxious, and Kings useless in the Eyes of Your People, as the many Plots and Conspiracies against Your Life and Honour, the great scandal and apparent injuries cast on Your Royal Brother, do sufficiently manifest, (whose good success in Scotland, and safe arrival here we most heartily congratulate) and not being content with this, they have proceeded in a far more impudent and devilish manner, than the Rebels of Forty One did at first dare avow, (though we verily believe their Designs are Coyn'd with one and the same Stamp) as we are deeply sensible by that Traiterous Scheme of an Association, lately found and produced at the proceedings against Anthony Earl of Shaftesbury; wherein we are bound to swear Obedience to the Arbitrary Laws of a pack of our fellow-Subjects, to prosecute and destroy, not only Papists, but even all those that withstand their Hellish Principles, by asserting their Zeal for the true Religion and Your Regal Dignity: And a few cannot but admire Your Majesties Goodness and Clemency, not only in Pardoning, but even in advancing some of them to the highest Employments of Trust and Honor; whose unparallel'd Ingratitude for Your Majesties Gracious Favours, we do from our Hearts and Souls (as we do both the Author and Abettors of that Impious and Seditious Model) utterly disown and detest; and shall be ready upon all occasions, with our Lives and Fortunes to Serve Your most Sacred Person, and to Maintain and Defend the Rights of Your Majesties Prerogative, and of Your Royal Successors, and all the just Rights both of the Church and State, as now by Law established, against all Secret and Rebellious Practices whatsoever.

GOD Almighty (Great SIR) increase the number of Your Loyal Cavalier Subjects; Clothe Your Whiggish Enemies with Shame and Dishonor, and upon Your Sacred Head and Royal Line, let the Crown for ever flourish.

At the General Sessions of the Peace held for the Burrough of Tonnes, in the County of Devon, the Ninth of May, in the Four and thirtieth year of the Reign of our most Gracious Sovereign Lord, King Charles the Second.

WE the Grand Inquest for your Majesties ancient Corporation and Burrough of Totnes in the County of Devon, and your Majesties most Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, being now at your Majesties publick Service, think it our Duty to offer unto your Majesty, our most humble acknowledgments for the great Benefits we daily enjoy under your most Gracious Government; And do solemnly Declare and Testifie to your Majesty, and to this Court, and to all the World, our utter Abhorrence and Detestation of all Seditious and Traiterous Conspiracies; and do protest against all new Models of Government in Church and State; and now more particularly, against that Association and treasonable Model, published at the Old Bailey, in the proceedings against the Earl of Shaftesbury, which seems to our eye all Treasonable Inventions, even that barbarous Vote of non-Adresse to your Majesties Father of ever Blessed Memory We do humbly beg leave hereby also to Declare to your most Gracious Majesty, and to the World, our Detestation of all abominable Tenets, which induce Mens Consciences to dispence with Oaths; and that we will upon all occasions, with our Lives and Fortunes, be ready to manifest the same, which by our Religion and Allegiance is our Duty. That your Majesties Life and Reign may be long and prosperous, that your lawful Successors may never be wanting in this Realm, and that all Arbitrary Associations may ever be infatuated, is, and shall be the continual Prayers of,

Dread SIR,

Your Majesties most Loyal, and most Obedient Subjects,

We the Mayor, Justices of the Peace, Deputy-Recorder, Aldermen, and Town-Clerk, with the rest of the Inhabitants, whose Names are Subscribed, do heartily concur with the Grand-Jury in their Declaration.

Windsor, June 6. The County and City of Corke, the County and City of Londonderry, the County of Donegall, and the Burrough of Lisford in the said County; the County of Westmeath, the County of Fermanagh, the County of Cavan, the County of Down, the County of Mayo, the City of Kilkenny, the City of Limerick, the Town of Monaghan, and the Burrough of Strabane, in Ireland, have by their humble Addresses to His Majesty, Declared their Detestation and Abhorrence of the late designed Traiterous Association, which His Majesty received very Graciously.
