SATURDAY, AUGUST 2, 1817.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES; REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS it hath been represented unto Us, that divers misguided persons, in some of the midland counties of England, have of late years committed various acts of outrage, in breaking and destroying frames used in making stockings, lace, and other articles in the frame-worked-knitted manufactory, and that, among other instances of such outrages, a most heinous one was committed on the night of the twenty-eighth day of June one thousand eight hundred and sixteen, at Loughborough, when a large number of such frames was broken, and an attempt was made to murder one of the persons entrusted with the care of them; and whereas it hath been further represented unto Us, that such outrages have for the most part been prompted by a desire, on the part of the journey-men employed in the said manufactory, to dictate to their masters the terms on which the manufactory should be carried on, or the prices at which work should be done, which dictation is utterly inconsistent with the principles of justice, and destructive of the freedom and prosperity of trade; and whereas measures have been taken by the wisdom of His Majesty's Parliament for repressing such outrages in future, by increasing the punishment for the same; and in the hope that such measures will effectually deter persons from the future commission of such offences, We are desirous of extending His Majesty's most gracious pardon to all those who have hitherto offended herein, except as hereinafter is mentioned: We have therefore thought fit, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to issue this Proclamation, and in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, We do hereby promise and declare, that every person who hath committed any offence against the form of the Statute made in the fifty-fourth year of His Majesty's reign, for the punishment of persons destroying stocking or lace frames, but hath not yet been charged therewith, and who shall, previous to the first day of September next ensuing, appear before some Justice of the Peace or Magistrate, and declare such his offence, and when, where, and by whom the same was committed, shall receive His Majesty's most gracious pardon for such offence, and that no confession so made by any such person shall be given in evidence in any Court or in any case whatever; provided nevertheless that nothing herein contained shall extend to the offence so committed at Loughborough as aforesaid, nor to any other offence, except such as may have been committed contrary to the said Statute made in the fifty-fourth year aforesaid.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the fifteenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, in the fifty-seventh year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 15th of July 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, cap. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend training, and to regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewartry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewartry or stewartries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, speci-fed in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia, to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas it is deemed expedient that such training and exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended, and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

Chetwynd.

At the Court at Carlton House, July 26, 1817.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, Sovereign of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, has been pleased, by letters patent under the sign manual of His Royal Highness and the great seal of the Order, to dispense, in virtue of the power for that purpose inherent in the Sovereign, with all the statutes and regulations usually observed in regard to installation, and to give and grant unto the Right Honourable Henry Earl Bathurst, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, Knight Elect of the Order, full power and authority to exercise all rights and privileges belonging to a Knight Companion of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, as if his Lordship had been formally installed, any decree, rule, or usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

PROCLAMATION

FOR PARDONING DESERTERS FROM HIS MAJESTY'S REGULAR LAND FORCES.

War-Office, June 18, 1817.

WHEREAS it has been represented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that there are at this time several deserters from the different regular corps in His Majesty's land service, who might be induced to return to their duty by an offer of His Royal Highness's gracious pardon, and that such an instance of His Royal Highness's clemency might have a due influence upon their future behaviour, His Royal Highness has been graciously pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to grant His free pardon to all deserters from His Majesty's regular land forces, who, not having been previously apprehended, shall surrender themselves on or before the 18th day of August next, to the Commanding Officer of any regiment, or to any of the Inspecting Field Officers of the Recruiting Service, whose stations are mentioned in the margin hereof, or to the Commandant of Albany barracks, in the Leeds. Isle of Wight, or to the Commandant of Coventry. of the cavalry barracks at Maidstone, or Liverpool. or to any of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace in Great Britain. Bristol. London. Glasgow. Such deserters, if able-bodied men, and fit for service, shall be sent to the regiments from which they respectively deserted, or be appointed to such regiments in the United Kingdom as His Royal Highness may be pleased to command; and when so placed shall not be liable to be claimed by any other corps to which they may formerly have belonged.

And whereas many of the said deserters may have enlisted into other regular corps, and may now be serving therein, His Royal Highness is graciously pleased to extend to such deserters the benefit of this pardon, and to direct, that they shall continue to serve in the corps wherein they now are, upon declaring themselves to their respective Commanding Officers, on or before the said 18th day of August next, to be deserters; and, after having so declared themselves, they shall not be liable, at any future time, to be claimed by the regiments from which they had formerly deserted:

The Magistrate to whom any deserter from His Majesty's regular forces shall surrender himself, is authorised and required to certify the day on which such deserter surrendered; which certificate is to be delivered to the deserter, to continue in force until the arrival of the deserter at the head-quarters of the nearest military post, provided he proceed at the rate of ten miles a day, unless prevented by sickness; such sickness to be certified by some medical practitioner, on the back of the Magistrate's certificate; or to be otherwise proved, to the satisfaction of the Officer commanding at such military post.

And His Royal Highness having further commanded, that the greatest exertions shall be used, for the future apprehension of all deserters, every soldier now serving ought to be deeply impressed with a sense of the danger to which he will expose himself if he should be guilty of the crime of desertion; and all those who have already committed that offence, ought to feel that they will render themselves liable to the severest punishment if they do not immediately avail themselves of the pardon held out in this His Royal Highness's most gracious Proclamation.

Any soldier who may desert after these His Royal Highness's gracious intentions are made public, shall not be included in the above pardon, but be proceeded against with the utmost severity.

By command of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty. PALMERSTON.

Whitehall, July 15, 1817.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the evening of Saturday the 5th instant, the barns, outhouses, and premises, belonging to Mr. Joseph Green, of the parish of St. Lawrence, near Southminster, in the county of Essex, were consumed by fire, and that there is every reason to believe that the same was the act of some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above mentioned is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to such barn, &c.), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of THREE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the inhabitants of the said parish of St. Lawrence, and a further reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is also hereby offered by the said Mr. Joseph Green, to any person or persons (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders or any of them to conviction, or cause them or any of them so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Navy-Office, August 1, 1817.

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed money for the payment of half-pay to Sea Officers, from the 1st of April to the 30th of June 1817, according to His Majesty's establishment in that behalf; these are to give notice, that the several payments will begin to be made at the Pay-Office, by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, at ten o'clock in the morning, on the following days, viz.

On Monday the 11th instant, and two following days, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attornies.

On the 14th, 15th, 17th, and 18th instant, to Lieutenants and Chaplains, and their Attornies.

On the 19th and 20th instant, to Masters, Surgeons, and Pursers, and their Attornies.

After which the lists will be recalled the first and third Wednesday in every month, that all persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and not only bring with them the affidavit required, touching their not having enjoyed the benefit of any public employment, either at sea or on shore, during the time they are to be paid their half-pay, but also to produce certificates that they have subscribed to the Test, and taken the Oaths of Allegiance required by Act of Parliament, to His present Majesty; and in case any of the said Officers should not be able to attend themselves, but employ Attornies for that purpose, that the said Attornies do produce the like certificates and affidavits from the persons they are employed by.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce attested copies of such leave, before the half-pay can be paid.

And as by Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious Method for the Payment of Officers belonging to His Majesty's Navy," it is enacted by the twentieth clause of the said Act, "that if any Commissioned or Warrant Naval Officer who shall be entitled to receive Half-Pay, and shall be desirous to receive and be paid the same at or near the place of his residence, he may apply to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, in London, to have such Half-Pay paid at or near the place of his residence, &c. in the manner pointed out by the said Act;" and by a further Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for enabling the Officers in His Majesty's Navy, and their representatives, to draw for and receive their half-pay," it is enacted by the first and third clauses of the said Act, "that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on ac“count of his half-pay, shall be desirous of drawing a bill of exchange for the same upon the Commissioners of His Majesty’s Navy, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill, he shall signify such desire, by letter, to the Treasurer of His Majesty’s Navy; and that if any Officer in His Majesty’s Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of half-pay, shall be desirous of having his half-pay paid to him by extract at any of His Majesty’s Dock-Yards where Clerks for the payment of wages for the Navy shall reside, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill or bill of exchange, he is to apply either to the proper Clerk, at the Navy Pay-Office, in London, or at the Pay-Office at such Dock-Yard, signifying such his desire;” notice is hereby further given, that the half-pay ending the 30th of June 1817, will commence paying on the 11th instant; and all persons desirous of drawing for or of having their half-pay remitted to them, may apply as above directed.

G. Smith, Assistant Secretary.

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act above recited, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty’s dominions are entitled to the privileges of the Act.

DR. JAMES'S POWDER AND ANALEPTIC PILLS.

THE family of the late Dr. James having thought proper to break the connexion which has subsisted between them and Messrs. Newbery upwards of seventy years; and Mr. R. G. G. James, having styled himself the "Proprietor" of these medicines, and advertised "that none without his signature in the label can possibly be genuine," such misrepresentations will be obviated by the following

AFFIDAVIT.

FRANCIS NEWBERY, of Saint Paul's Church-Yard, London, maketh oath and saith, that on the death of his father the late Mr. John Newbery, in December 1767, he, this deponent became possessed of his late father's interest (being half the property) in Dr. James's Fever Powder, together with the original recipe for preparing the same, in Dr. James's hand writing, which was delivered to his late father at the time the agreements were executed: that he, this deponent at this period had been nearly six years at the University, as a student in physic, but on the death of his father, by the desire of Dr. James, he was induced to quit his intended profession, in order to continue and conduct the business of the Fever Powder: that a few years afterwards, the late Dr. James having invented his Analeptic Pills, applied to this deponent to undertake the sale of them, like the Fever Powder, on their equal and joint account: that an agreement was entered into between them in 1774; and upon this occasion Dr. James, after expressing his obligations to this deponent's father, and his regard for and thorough confidence in this deponent (which the tenor of his will and codicils confirm) delivered to him the recipe for preparing the Analeptic Pills under his hand: that in the same year 1774, Dr. James when about making his will, requested this deponent to be one of his Executors and Guardian of his children, who were five in number, and all under age: that the Doctor died in the month of March 1776: that this deponent further saith, that he had frequent communications with Dr. James respecting the preparation of his medicines, particularly during his last illness, when he informed this deponent that he had admitted his eldest son (to whom he had left his share in the concern), to be present at the preparations; but that he had not committed to writing any receipts of them, except those which he had delivered to this deponent's father and himself, and excepting one of the fever powders which this deponent would find among his papers, and which was so disguised, under feigned names, as to be unintelligible without an explanation, which he then gave to this deponent: that after Dr. James's decease he found this very recipe, and this only, which is now in this deponent's possession, and which contains the most complete instructions for preparing this important medicine, coinciding, however, with those he had communicated to this deponent's father and himself: and this deponent further saith, that he has repeatedly prepared the Fever Powder; and that he has lately submitted it, together with that prepared by Dr. James himself, to the analysis of two of the most eminent chemists, who have proved their perfect identity: that, moreover, various trials have been made by several medical gentlemen in their practice, who have found them exactly similar in their effects: And this deponent further saith, that the Analeptic Pills are now faithfully prepared from the real receipt given to him by Dr. James; and that they are restored to their primitive bright colour, and to that efficacy which established their reputation in Dr. James's time.

Furthermore this deponent saith, that for several months past the public have been supplied from his warehouse with those Fever Powders and Analeptic Pills only, which were prepared by him this deponent.

FRAS. NEWBERY.

Sworn at the Mausion-House, in London,
this 30th day of July 1817, before me,

Mw. Wood, Mayor.

The above medicines continue to be sold, as heretofore, by F. Newbery and Sons, No. 45, St. Paul's Church-Yard, London, with the name "F. Newbery," engraved in the stamps, the sure mark of their being genuine.

NOTICE TO NEXT OF KIN.
