SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 1817.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 13th of August 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

IT is ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, that the Parliament, which stands prorogued to Monday the twenty-fifth day of this instant August, be further prorogued to Monday the third day of November next.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 13th of August 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 155, it is enacted, that it shall not be lawful for any private person or persons to import any goods, wares, or merchandise, from any port or place within the limits of the East India Company's charter, except only into such ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland as shall be provided with warehouses, together with wet docks or basins, or such other securities as shall, in the judgment of the Lord High Treasurer, or of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, for the time being, or any three or more of them, in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, be fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon, and shall have been duly declared so to be, by the Order of His Majesty in Council, in Great Britain, or by the Order of the Lord Lieutenant in Council, in Ireland: And whereas the port of Bristol has been deemed by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury in Great Britain to be fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, is thereupon pleased to declare, and it is hereby declared, that the port of Bristol is a port fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Chetwynd.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 31st of May 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that the Order in Council of the twentieth of May one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, permitting vessels trading to the Coast of Africa, to take on board as an assorted part of their cargoes, trading guns, blunderbusses, pistols, and gunpowder, be, and the same is hereby revoked; and it is further ordered, by and with the advice aforesaid, that the Order in Council of the second of January one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, prohibiting the export of arms and ammunition to the places therein specified, be, and the same is hereby also revoked; but whereas it is expedient, that some of the provisions of the said Order in Council of the second of January one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, should be continued; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth, therefore, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the date of this Order), presume to transport any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt-petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

Whitehall, August 26, 1817.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on the night of the 30th of July last, some person or persons did most cruelly and maliciously cut, maim, and destroy a hackney mare, and on the night of the 1st of August instant, did also cut, maim, and destroy a bullock, the property of George Haskins, and did also on the last mentioned night fire at the said George Haskins, with intent to kill him in his own dwelling house; and that there is reason to suppose that the above-mentioned outrages were committed out of malice and revenge towards the said George Haskins, for having zealously and faithfully discharged his duty as constable of the hamlet of Oldland;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the outrages above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed either of the outrages above-mentioned), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

BATHURST.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWENTY-FIVE GUINEAS is hereby offered by the Association for the Prosecution of Felons, in and round the neighbourhood of Cockroad, in the parish of Bitton, near Bristol, to any person or persons (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Whitehall, August 23, 1817.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the evening of Sunday the 17th instant, a rick of old hay, the property of Charles Arnott, Esq. of Rushington, in the parish of Eling, in the county of Southampton, was wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said rick of hay), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

BATHURST.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Charles Arnott, Esq. to any person or persons (except as is before excepted), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Whitehall, August 8, 1817.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the night of Sunday last, the 3d instant, three horses were stabbed, in a field in the occupation of Mr. Lawrence Wilmore, in the parish of Enderby, near Leicester;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in such atrocious act, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually stabbed the said horses), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FORTY POUNDS is hereby offered, by the said Mr. Lawrence Wilmore, to any person or persons (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Admiralty-Office, September 11, 1817.

WIDOWS' PENSIONS.

Notice is hereby given, that all widows who receive pensions from the charity established for the relief of poor widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy, must send or bring to this Office, between the 17th and 30th of this month, the affidavit required by the rules of the charity, in order to their being inserted on the pension list, which will be prepared next month, and paid on the 10th of November.

All letters from widows respecting their pensions, must state the rank their husbands held in the Royal Navy.

J. W. CROKER.

Navy Pay-Office, London,
September 13, 1817.

Notice is hereby given, that Mr. Thomas Rilly, of No. 5, Sugar-Loaf-Court, Leadenhall-Street, having applied for the renewal of the licence granted to him on the 10th day of August 1814, to act as an agent in the receipt of pay, wages, prize and bounty-money, for and in respect of the service of petty officers, seamen, and others serving in any of His Majesty's ships, the renewal of such licence is forbidden by me, on the ground of his having attempted to persuade James Garrett, late of His Majesty's ship Astrea, to go down to Gravesend, in order to execute prize orders in his favour for prize-money that is now payable in London, or at the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, contrary to Act of Parliament.

Hall and Wigley, Solicitors, Salters'-Hall, London.

Notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament at the next session, for leave to bring in a bill and to obtain an Act for enabling the Company of Proprietors of the Navigation of the River Don, to alter, amend, and improve the navigation of the said river, by making and maintaining a cut or canal for the purposes of navigation, with proper towing paths out of Tckles Cut, near Bromley Sands Lock, in the parish of Rotherham, in the county of York, in a

North Eastwardly direction into Rotherham Cut, near Rotherham Forge; also for making and maintaining another cut or canal for the purposes of navigation, with proper towing paths from and out of the River Dun, at a sharp turn in the said river above Aldwark Cut in an Easterly direction, to unite with the said river again at or near Aldwark Cauch; also for altering the course of the said River Dun, near Thriberg Sands, by straightening and shortening the said river towards Daffodily Ratch; also for cutting away an angle in the said River Dun and straightening the course of the said river, by embanking on the opposite side thereof, at or near a place called the Devil's Elbow, on the East side of the said river; also for making and maintaining a cut or canal for the purposes of navigation, with proper towing paths from and out of the said River Dun, on the North side thereof, near to and in the parish of Sprotbrough, of about two hundred and fifty yards in length, to join the cut called Sprotbrough Cut, near the Ferry House; also for making a cut or goight from the upper side of the Wear, at Sprotbrough, at the East end thereof, in a direct line to the Lower Mill there, and to fill up the West entrance of the present cut; also to enable the said Company of Proprietors further to amend and improve the said River Dun, by making and maintaining another cut or canal in a direct line, about one hundred and seventy yards in length, for the like purposes, with proper towing paths from and out of the said River Dun, at a place called Newton Ings, near Isabel Wath, to join the said river lower down in the township of Sprotbrough, where it will cut off a remarkable bend in the said river and shorten the navigation nearly half a mile; also for removing the foundations of the corn mill at Doncaster, lately destroyed by fire, and building a new mill in lieu thereof in a close, called the Lower Friar's Close, near Doncaster, belonging to the Corporation of that town, and likewise for moving the wear adjoining the said first described mill, and placing a wear across the Mill Dyke adjoining the lands of R. Baker, Esq. late Lady Trafford's; and also for making a goight or goights out of the said river or mill dyke above the said intended wear, to unite again with the said river at its junction with the river Ches-wold; and for erecting a public carriage bridge over and across that river, out of the said Lower Friar's Close, to communicate with the Doncaster side of the last mentioned river, either into Mr. Morley's land, or the Corporation land occupied by Thomas Holmes; and also for making a public carriage road or highway from the said intended mill over and across the Upper and Lower Friar's Closes into Marsh Gate, near the Dispensary; and also for making and maintaining another cut or canal for the like purposes, with proper towing paths from and out of the said mill dyke or river Dun below Doncaster Mill, in an eastwardly direction, of about 440 yards in length, to join the said river near and above Lady's Harbour, and from thence in a direct line to Mile Thorne Cut; and also to make and maintain another cut or canal for the like purposes, with proper towing paths from and out of the said River Dun or Mill Dyke aforesaid, above the said intended wear, to unite with the said river at or near Docken Hill, or for making either or both of the said last-mentioned alterations and improvements; also for making and maintaining another cut or canal for the like purposes, with proper towing paths from and out of the said River Dun from a stone wharf or yard belonging to Mr. Joseph Lockwood, near Docken-Hill, in a direct line by Lady's Harbour into the River Dun, near Mile Thorne Lock; also for making and maintaining a proper hauling or towing path along the east and north sides of the Mill Dyke to the Mill Bridge, near Doncaster; also for making and maintaining another cut or canal for the like purposes, with proper towing paths from and out of the said River Dun on the north side thereof, from the west end of a field, called Copley Close, in the township of Arksey, nearly in a direct line across Arksey Ings, to a sharp corner in the said River Dun, called the First West Ratch; also for making and maintaining another cut or canal for the like purposes, with proper towing paths from and out of the river or cut at Long Sandall, in the parish of Doncaster, on the south side of the said River Dun, in a north eastwardly direction, nearly in a direct line to Kirk Sandall, and from thence into the upper end of the present cut at Barmby Dun, and from the lower end of the said cut to the upper end of the navigation cut called Stainforth Cut. And notice is hereby also given, that a clause is intended to be introduced into the said intended bill, to repeal certain clauses in the River Dun Act, which restrict vessels drawing more than three feet water on certain parts of the said river; and which said several cuts or canals, towing paths and alterations, are intended to be carried, or go in or through the several parishes, townships, or places of Brinsworth, Kimberworth, Masbrough, Rotherham, Dalton, Thriberg, Rawmarsh, Cadeby, Newton, Sprotbrough, Doncaster, Bentley, Arksey, Long Sandall, Kirk Sandall, Barmby, Dun, South Bramwith, Stainforth, and Hatfield, or some of them, all in the West Riding of the county of York; and it is also intended by the said bill to enable the said Company of Proprietors to charge and receive additional toll or dues to be payable to the said Company of Proprietors, in order to enable them to pay the interest of the money already in hand to be expended in such improvements; and also to pay the interest of the money necessary to be borrowed for defraying the expenses of such alterations and improvements; and also to enable the said Company to erect and maintain necessary hauling, towing and other bridges, and for other purposes relating to the said intended improvements and navigation. Dated the 1st day of September in the year of our Lord 1817.

John Watson, Clerk to the said Company of Proprietors.

N. B. A map or plan of such intended cuts or canals will be deposited for public inspection at the Office of the Clerk of the Peace for the West Riding of the County of York, on or before the 30th day of September instant, together with a book of reference, containing a list of the names of the owners or respective owners and occupiers of the lands through which the same are intended to be carried respectively.

Notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill in order to obtain an Act, to improve, complete, and make public a certain dock, canal, or navigable cut, already in part made and extending from near a certain place called the Copper Works to the River Llwydi; and also to improve, complete, and make public certain railways or tram-roads, already in part made and communicating with the said dock, canal, or navigable cut; all which works are situate in the parish of Llanelly, in the county of Carmarthen.—Dated this 20th day of August 1817.

Notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill in order to obtain an Act, for making and maintaining a navigable canal or railway or tram-road, or partly a canal and partly a railway or tram-road, with collateral branches to communicate therewith, from or near a certain place called Copper-House Dock, in the parish of Llanelly, in the county of Carmarthen, to or near a certain place called Gwilly-Bridge, in the parish of Llanedy, in the said county; and for making and maintaining of shipping-places, wharfs, and other conveniences whatsoever, at or near certain places called Spitty-Bank and Copper Works Dock, in the parish of Llanelly, in the said county; and that such canal or railway or tram-road, or canal and railway or tram-road, with the collateral branches, wharfs, and shipping-places are intended to be made into or pass through the several parishes of Llanelly, Llangennech, and Llanedy, in the said county of Carmarthen.—Dated this 20th day of August 1817.

Notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill in order to obtain an Act for making and maintaining a navigable canal, or railway or tram-road, or partly a canal and partly a railway or tram-road, with collateral branches to communicate therewith, from or near a certain place called Copper House Dock, in the parish of Llanelly, in the county of Carmarthen, to or near a certain place called Bonllwyn, in the parish of Llandebye, in the said county, and for making and maintaining of shipping places, wharfs, and other conveniences whatsoever, at or near certain places called Spitty Bank and Copper Works Dock, in the parish of Llanelly, in the said county, and that such canal or railway, or tram-road, or canal and railway, or tram-road, with the collateral branches, wharfs, and shipping places, are intended to be made into or pass through the several parishes of Llanelly, Llangennech, Llanedy, Bettws, and Llandebye, in the county of Carmarthen.—Dated this 20th day of August 1817.

Notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, to enable the Company of Proprietors of the Birmingham Canal Navigations to contract by the year or otherwise, as the said Company shall deem fit, with the owners or occupiers of any iron or other work, for the sum or sums to be paid by such owners or occupiers, for or in lieu of the accustomed rates, tolls, or duties, which would become due and payable for the tonnage and wharfage of coal, ironstone, limestone, and other raw materials, to be navigated or carried during the period of such contract, along any part of the said canal navigations, without passing any lock or locks, for use and consumption only at the iron or other work of such owners or occupiers respectively, and to alter and amend the several Acts of Parliament made and now in force relating to the said Birmingham Canal Navigations, and generally to improve the same.

Lee and Son, Solicitors.
