TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 1817.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 13th of August 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

IT is ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, that the Parliament, which stands prorogued to Monday the twenty-fifth day of this instant August, be further prorogued to Monday the third day of November next.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 13th of August 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 155, it is enacted, that it shall not be lawful for any private person or persons to import any goods, wares, or merchandise, from any port or place within the limits of the East India Company's charter, except only into such ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland as shall be provided with warehouses, together with wet docks or basins, or such other securities as shall, in the judgment of the Lord High Treasurer, or of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, for the time being, or any three or more of them, in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, be fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon, and shall have been duly declared so to be, by the Order of His Majesty in Council, in Great Britain, or by the Order of the Lord Lieutenant in Council, in Ireland: And whereas the port of Bristol has been deemed by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury in Great Britain to be fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon: His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, is thereupon pleased to declare, and it is hereby declared, that the port of Bristol is a port fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Notice is hereby given to all persons whom it may concern, that application will be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for building a pier, and for forming or improving and rendering more commodious the harbour of Bude, in the parish of Stratton, in the county of Cornwall; in which said Bill provision is intended to be made for rates, tolls, dues, or duties, and that such rates, tolls, dues, and duties may be collected.—Dated 3d September 1817.

By order,
Kingdon and Shearm, Solicitors.

Notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to amend, alter, explain, enlarge, and extend the powers contained in an Act passed in the forty-ninth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for building a bridge over the River Thames from the precinct of the Savoy, or near thereunto, in the county of Middlesex, to the opposite shore, and for making convenient roads and avenues to communicate therewith, in the county of Surrey;" and also the powers contained in an Act passed in the fifty-third year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for altering, enlarging, and extending the powers of an Act of His present Majesty, for building a bridge over the River Thames at the precinct of the Savoy, or near thereunto, and making roads and avenues to communicate therewith, in the counties of Middlesex and Surrey;" and also the powers contained in another Act passed in the fifty-sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for altering and enlarging the powers of two Acts of His present Majesty, for building a bridge over the River Thames from the precinct of the Savoy, or near thereunto, in the county of Middlesex, to the opposite shore, and for making convenient roads and avenues to communicate therewith, in the county of Surrey, and also for making a new road, in lieu of part of the road or street called Narrow-Wall, in the said county of Surrey, and for making an archway over part of such new road, and for denominating the said Bridge the Waterloo Bridge;" and also to alter, increase, and vary the respective tolls by the hereinbefore mentioned Acts, or one of them, authorised to be demanded and taken upon the bridge and roads authorised to be erected and made by the said Acts, or any or either of them.

Sweet and Stokes, Solicitors.

Notice is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in one or more Bill or Bills, for confirming and assuring to the Commercial Dock Company the preference or exclusive privilege of bonding timber and other wood goods; and also for amending and rendering more effectual and extending the powers and provisions of three several Acts of Parliament, viz. an Act of the fiftieth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for maintaining and improving the docks and warehouses called the Commercial Docks, and for making and maintaining other docks and warehouses to communicate therewith, all in the parish of St. Mary, Rotherhithe, in the county of Surrey;" an Act of the fifty-first year of the present reign, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act of His present Majesty, for maintaining and improving the docks and warehouses called the Commercial Docks, in the parish of St. Mary, Rotherhithe, in the county of Surrey, and for extending the powers of the said Act;" and also an Act of the fifty-seventh year of the present reign, intituled "An Act to amend two Acts for maintaining and improving the Commercial Docks, in the parish of St. Mary, Rotherhithe, in the county of Surrey;" and also for altering, or enabling the said Company to alter, the existing rates and charges which they are now authorised to make, take, or charge, and for other purposes; and the owners and occupiers of lands and estates in the parish of St. Mary, Rotherhithe, in the county of Surrey, and all other persons whom it may concern, are hereby required to take notice accordingly.—Dated this 10th day of September 1817.

John Evans, Solicitor to the Commercial Dock Company, St. Mildred's-Court, Poultry.

Notice is hereby given, to all persons whom it may concern, that application will be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to repeal some parts, and to alter and amend other parts, of an Act made and passed in the forty-fifth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for repealing an Act made in the forty-fourth year of His present Majesty, intituled an Act for better governing, maintaining, and employing the poor in the parish of Saint Pancras, in the county of Middlesex; for providing a new workhouse for the use of the said parish; for appointing collectors of the rates, and for other purposes therein mentioned; and for making more effectual provisions for those and other purposes;" and to appoint persons with powers, authorities, controul, and jurisdiction within the said parish, for the better raising, collecting, regulating, conducting, and managing the poor and poors rate, and the expenditure of the same, and other matters relating thereto and to the said parish.—Dated this 12th day of September 1817.

John Kersey, Vestry Clerk, Grafton-Street, Fitzroy-Square.

Notice is hereby given, that an application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill, in order to amend an Act, made and passed in the fifty-second year of His present Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act for the improvement of the harbour of Kidwelly, and for making and maintaining a navigable canal or tram-roads in Kidwelly and Llanelly, and other parishes therein mentioned, in the county of Carmarthen.—Dated this 6th day of September 1817.

Notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament at the next session, for leave to bring in a bill and to obtain an Act for enabling the Company of Proprietors of the Navigation of the River Dun, to alter, amend, and improve the navigation of the said river, by making and maintaining a cut or canal for the purposes of navigation, with proper towing paths out of Ickles Cut, near Bromley Sands Lock, in the parish of Rotherham, in the county of York, in a North Eastwardly direction into Rotherham Cut, near Rotherham Forge; also for making and maintaining another cut or canal for the purposes of navigation, with proper towing paths from and out of the River Dun, at a sharp turn in the said river above Aldwark Cut in an Easterly direction, to unite with the said river again at or near Aldwark Canch; also for altering the course of the said River Dun, near Thriberg-Sands, by straightening and shortening the said river towards Daffodilly Rafch; also for cutting away an angle in the said River Dun and straightening the course of the said river, by eubanking on the opposite side thereof, at or near a place called the Devil's Elbow, on the East side of the said river; also for making and maintaining a cut or canal for the purposes of navigation, with proper towing paths from and out of the said River Dun, on the North side thereof, near to and in the parish of Sprotbrough, of about two hundred and fifty yards in length, to join the cut called Sprotbrough Cut, near the Ferry House; also for making a cut or goight from the upper side of the Wear, at Sprotbrough, at the East end thereof, in a direct line to the Lower Mill there, and to fill up the West entrance of the present cut; also to enable the said Company of Proprietors further to amend and improve the said River Dun, by making and maintaining another cut or canal in a direct line, about one-hundred and seventy yards in length, for the like purposes, with proper towing paths from and out of the said River Dun, at a place called Newton Ings, near Isabel Wath, to join the said river lower down in the township of Sprotbrough, where it will cut off a remarkable bend in the said river and shorten the navigation nearly half a mile; also for removing the foundations of the corn-mill at Doncaster, lately destroyed by fire, and building a new mill in lieu thereof in a close, called the Lower Friar's Close, near Doncaster, belonging to the Corporation of that town, and likewise for moving the wear adjoining the said first described mill, and placing a wear across the Mill Dyke adjoining the lands of R. Baker, Esq. late Lady Trafford's; and also for making a goight or goights out of the said river or mill dyke above the said intended wear, to unite again with the said river at its junction with the river Cheswold; and for erecting a public carriage bridge over and across that river, out of the said Lower Friar's Close, to communicate with the Doncaster side of the last mentioned river, either into Mr. Morley's land, or the Corporation land occupied by Thomas Holmes; and also for making a public carriage road or highway from the said intended mill over and across the Upper and Lower Friar's Closes into Marsh Gate, near the Dispensary; and also for making and maintaining another cut or canal for the like purposes, with proper towing paths from and out of the said mill dyke or river Dun below Doncaster Mill, in an eastwardly direction, of about 440 yards in length, to join the said river near and above Lady's Harbour, and from thence in a direct line to Mile Thorne Cut; and also to make and maintain another cut or canal for the like purposes, with proper towing paths from and out of the said River Dun or Mill Dyke aforesaid, above the said intended wear, to unite with the said river at or near Docken Hill, or for making either or both of the said last-mentioned alterations and improvements; also for making and maintaining another cut or canal for the like purposes, with proper towing paths from and out of the said River Dun from a stone wharf or yard belonging to Mr. Joseph Lockwood, near Docken-Hill, in a direct line by Lady's Harbour into the River Dun, near Mile Thorne Lock; also for making and maintaining a proper hauling or towing path along the east and north sides of the Mill Dyke to the Mill Bridge, near Doncaster; also for making and maintaining another cut or canal for the like purposes, with proper towing paths from and out of the said River Dun on the north side thereof, from the west end of a field, called Copley Close, in the township of Arksey, nearly in a direct line across Arksey Ings, to a sharp corner in the said River Dun, called the First West Ratch; also for making and maintaining another cut or canal for the like purposes, with proper towing paths from and out of the river or cut at Long Sandall, in the parish of Doncaster, on the south side of the said River Dun, in a north eastwardly direction, nearly in a direct line to Kirk Sandall, and from thence into the upper end of the present cut at Barmby Dun, and from the lower end of the said cut to the upper end of the navigation cut called Stainforth Cut. And notice is hereby also given, that a clause is intended to be introduced into the said intended bill, to repeal certain clauses in the River Dun Act, which restrict vessels drawing more than three feet water on certain parts of the said river; and which said several cuts or canals, towing paths and alterations, are intended to be carried, or go in or through the several parishes, townships, or places of Brinsworth, Kimberworth, Masbrough, Rotherham, Dalton, Thriberg, Rawmarsh, Cadeby, Newton, Sprotbrough, Doncaster, Bentley, Arksey, Long Sandall, Kirk Sandall, Barmby, Dun, South Bramwith, Stainforth, and Hatfield, or some of them, all in the West Riding of the county of York; and it is also intended by the said bill to enable the said Company of Proprietors to charge and receive additional toll or dues to be payable to the said Company of Proprietors, in order to enable them to pay the interest of the money already in hand to be expended in such improvements; and also to pay the interest of the money necessary to be borrowed for defraying the expenses of such alterations and improvements; and also to enable the said Company to erect and maintain necessary hauling, towing and other bridges, and for other purposes relating to the said intended improvements and navigation. Dated the 1st day of September in the year of our Lord 1817.

John Watson, Clerk to the said Company of Proprietors.

N. B. A map or plan of such intended cuts or canals will be deposited for public inspection at the Office of the Clerk of the Peace for the West Riding of the County of York, on or before the 30th day of September instant, together with a book of reference, containing a list of the names of the owners or respective owners and occupiers of the lands through which the same are intended to be carried respectively.

Notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, to enable the Company of Proprietors of the Birmingham Canal Navigations to contract by the year or otherwise, as the said Company shall deem fit, with the owners or occupiers of any iron or other work, for the sum or sums to be paid by such owners or occupiers, for or in lieu of the accustomed rates, tolls, or duties, which would become due and payable for the tonnage and wharfage of coal, ironstone, limestone, and other raw materials, to be navigated or carried during the period of such contract, along any part of the said canal navigations, without passing any lock or locks, for use and consumption only at the iron or other work of such owners or occupiers respectively, and to alter and amend the several Acts of Parliament made and now in force relating to the said Birmingham Canal Navigations, and generally to improve the same.

Lee and Son, Solicitors.

Notice is hereby given, to all persons whom it may concern, that application will be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for altering, and amending the laws now in force relating to the poor rates, and to the maintenance and employment of the poor, and to the workhouse in the parish of Saint Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, by altering, amending, or repealing an Act made and passed in the forty-fifth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for repealing an Act made in the forty-fourth year of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for better governing, maintaining, and employing the poor of the parish of Saint Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, for providing a new workhouse for the use of the said parish, for appointing collectors of the rates, and for other purposes therein mentioned, and for making more effectual provision for those and other purposes," and by appointing a select vestry for the said parish, with such powers, authorities, controul, and jurisdiction within the said parish as shall be necessary; and also for better regulating, conducting and managing the poor, poors-rate and expediture of the same, and all other matters relating thereto or connected therewith, and with the highways, and all other matters and things which are now under the jurisdiction and controul of the open vestry in the said parish.—Dated the 3d day of September 1817.

Tims and Scadding, Solicitors, Upper Charlotte-Street, Fitzroy-Square.

BANKERS' LICENCES.

Stamp-Office, London, September 15, 1817.

Notice is hereby given, that all licences granted to Bankers or others, to issue promissory notes, payable to the bearer on demand, and allowed to be re-issued, will expire on the 10th of October next, and that they must be renewed within one month from that day, or penalties will be incurred.

That a separate licence must be taken out for every place where the notes shall be issued, in England, unless the persons to be licensed had issued their notes, at several places, before the 2d July 1808, and originally obtained one licence for all such places; in which case only, they will be again included in one licence. The duty on each licence is £30.

That every licence must specify the names and places of abode of the persons to be licensed, and the name of the place or places where, and the name of the bank, as well as the partnership name, style, or firm, under which the notes are to be issued; and licences to persons in partnership must specify the names, and places of abode, of all the persons concerned in the partnership, whether all their names appear on the notes or not; and in default thereof the licences will be void. Without these particulars, a specimen of the notes must also be left at this Office, by persons applying for such licences.

That a penalty of £100 for every offence, is imposed on the issuing of promissory notes, of the description aforesaid, without a licence, or at any other place, or under any other name, style, or firm, than is specified in the licence.

This notice is given that all persons concerned may conform to the law, and avoid the penalties for which they will otherwise be prosecuted; and that persons, applying for licences, may come prepared with all the requisite particulars to be inserted therein, without which the licences cannot be filled up, so as to protect the parties against penalties.

By order of the Commissioners,
Wm. Kapper, Secretary.

LINCOLNSHIRE.

Sleaford, September 13, 1817.

Notice is hereby given, that the annual general meeting of His Majesty's Lieutenancy for the county of Lincoln will be held at the County Hall, in Lincoln, on Tuesday the 7th day of October next, at twelve o'clock, for carrying into execution the several Acts of Parliament relating to the militia.

B. Cheales, Clerk of the General Meeting.

Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich,
August 16, 1817.

THE Commissioners and Governors of the said Hospital hereby give notice, that, on Saturday the 21st of February next, or as soon after as conveniently may be, the undermentioned farms will be let on leases, to commence upon the several days, and for the terms of years hereinafter respectively mentioned, that is to say, Goosewell Farm and Stable Hills Farm, in the parish of Crosthwaite and county of Cumberland, for the term of eleven years, from the 5th of April next: Dilston New Town South Farm and Thornborough Highbarns Farm, in the parish of Corbridge; Harsondale Vauce and Middle Deanran Farms, in the parish of Warden; and Buteland Farm, in the parish of Chollerton, and Blagillburnhead Farm, in the parish of Alston, for the term of nine years, from the 12th of May next: and Whettonstall Hall Farm and Watch Hill Allotment, in the parish of Bywell Saint Peter; Rowleyhead Farm, Turfhouse Farm, Longhope Farm, Bagraw Farm, and Heckford Farm, in the parish of Hexham; Westbrokenheugh Farm, in the parish of Warden; Broad Pool Common Allotment, in the parish of Wark; Thorneyburn Common Allotment, in the parish of Thorneyburn; Tarretburn Common Allotment, in the parish of Bellingham; Meldon Park Farm, in the parish of Meldon; Needleshall South Farm and Hartburngrainge West Farm, in the parish of Hartburn, for the term of twelve years, from the 12th of May next.

Such persons as may be desirous to take any of the said farms, are requested to deliver or send their proposals, in writing, to John Dyer, Esq. at Greenwich-Hospital, so as that the delivery thereof at that place shall not be later than on Friday the 20th day of February next; and all such proposals as shall be received after that day will be returned as inadmissible.

Such alterations as may be thought essentially necessary by the receivers, and approved by the Directors of Greenwich-Hospital, will be made as soon as conveniently can be after the commencement of the term, the tenants being at the expence of leading all materials.

In the present and all future lettings by the Commissioners and Governors of Greenwich-Hospital, the tenants will be required to pay one moiety of the expence of the leases.

Mr. Thomas Dixon, of Keswick, will shew the farms in the parish of Crosthwaite; Mr. Anthony Wailes, of Bearl, the farms in the parish of Corbridge; Mr. William Coats, of Haydon-Bridge, the farms in the parish of Warden; Mr. John Dickinson, of Lowbyer, near Alston, will shew Blagillburnhead Farm; Mr. Cuthbert Surtees, of Ebchester, the farms in the parish of Bywell Saint Peter; Mr. William Sample, of Low Brinton, near Hexham, the farms in the parish of Hexham; Mr. Joseph Storey, of Wark, the farms in the parishes of Chollerton, Wark, Thorneyburn, and Bellingham; and Mr. Edward Bell, of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, the farms in the parishes of Meldon and Hartburn.

Messrs. Forster and Wailes, on being applied to at their Office in Newcastle-upon-Tyne, will give any further particulars which it may be necessary to require.

[1963]

Office of Ordnance, August 29, 1817.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give notice, that proposals will be received at their Office in Pall-Mall, on or before Wednesday the 17th day of September next, from such persons as may be willing to undertake the supply of
