

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 23, 1817.

IN pursuance of the directions of an Act, passed in the thirty-seventh year of the reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for confirming and continuing, for a limited time, the restriction contained in the Minute of Council, of the 26th of February 1797, on payments of cash by the Bank;" and also of the several Acts since passed, for continuing and amending the same;

I do hereby direct, that there be inserted forthwith in the London Gazette, the following notice from the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, dated 18th September 1817, namely:

"That, on and after the 1st October next, the Bank will be ready to pay cash for their notes of every description, dated prior to the 1st January 1817."

CHARLES MANNERS SUTTON, Speaker.
22d September 1817.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 13th of August 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

IT is ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, that the Parliament, which stands prorogued to Monday the twenty-fifth day of this instant August, be further prorogued to Monday the third day of November next.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 13th of August 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 155, it is enacted, that it shall not be lawful for any private person or persons to import any goods, wares, or merchandise, from any port or place within the limits of the East India Company's charter, except only into such ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland as shall be provided with warehouses, together with wet docks or basins, or such other securities as shall, in the judgment of the Lord High Treasurer, or of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, for the time being, or any three or more of them, in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, be fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon, and shall have been duly declared so to be, by the Order of His Majesty in Council, in Great Britain, or by the Order of the Lord Lieutenant in Council, in Ireland: And whereas the port of Bristol has been deemed by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury in Great Britain to be fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, is thereupon pleased to declare, and it is hereby declared, that the port of Bristol is a port fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Chetwynd.

Whitehall, August 26, 1817.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on the night of the 30th of July last, some person or persons did most cruelly and maliciously cut, maim, and destroy a hackney mare, and on the night of the 1st of August instant, did also cut, maim, and destroy a bullock, the property of George Haskins, and did also on the last mentioned night fire at the said George Haskins, with intent to kill him in his own dwelling house; and that there is reason to suppose that the above-mentioned outrages were committed out of malice and revenge towards the said George Haskins, for having zealously and faithfully discharged his duty as constable of the hamlet of Oldland;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the outrages above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed either of the outrages above-mentioned), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

BATHURST.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWENTY-FIVE GUINEAS is hereby offered by the Association for the Prosecution of Felons, in and round the neighbourhood of Cockroad, in the parish of Bitton, near Bristol, to any person or persons (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Whitehall, August 23, 1817.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the evening of Sunday the 17th instant, a rick of old hay, the property of Charles Arnott, Esq. of Rushington, in the parish of Eling, in the county of Southampton, was wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said rick of hay), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

BATHURST.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Charles Arnott, Esq. to any person or persons (except as is before excepted), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

*Army Pay-Office, London,
September 22, 1817.*

Notice is hereby given, that the payment of three months half-pay to reduced Officers of His Majesty's Land Forces, to the 24th September 1817, will commence on Monday the 29th instant; and that attendance will be given at this Office accordingly, every day except Saturday and Sunday, between the hours of eleven and two, for four weeks, terminating on Friday the 24th October next, after which time the days of payment will be Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, only, in each week.

By order of the Paymaster-General,
Wm. Wood, Cashier of Half-Pay.

*Navy Pay-Office, London,
September 19, 1817.*

Notice is hereby given, that, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Act of Parliament, fifty-fourth of His present Majesty, I do hereby revoke the licence granted to

Mr. Isaac Nathan Newton, of No. 1, Charles-Street, Westminster, on the 4th December 1815, to act as an agent in the receipt of pay, wages, prize and bounty-money, for and in respect of the service of petty officers, seamen, and others in any of His Majesty's ships; which licence is withdrawn by me, on the ground of his not having duly accounted, to a seaman for prize-money he has received,

GEORGE ROSE.

Notice is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament, in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill, and to obtain an Act, for lighting with gas the port and town of Liverpool and the adjoining township of Toxteth Park, both in the county of Lancaster.—Dated this 20th September 1817.

Charles Rowlinson, Solicitor.

Gloucester and Berkeley Canal.

NOtice is hereby given, that an application is intended to be made in the next session of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, enlarge, explain, and repeal several of the clauses, powers, and provisions contained in the several Acts, passed in the thirty-third, thirty-seventh, and forty-fifth years of His present Majesty's reign, for making and maintaining the canal called the Gloucester and Berkeley Canal, and to obtain fresh and additional powers for that purpose; and to authorise the Company of Proprietors of the said canal further to alter and vary the present line thereof, by making such further and other variation or deviation therefrom, to commence at the north east corner of a certain common field, in the parish of Saul, in the county of Gloucester, called Sandfield, and to pass and extend from thence along and through the said parish of Saul, and also along and through the several parishes of Frampton-upon-Severn, Slimbridge, and Berkeley, all in the said county, so as to communicate with the channel of the River Severn, at or near a place, in the said parish of Berkeley, in the same county, called Sharpness Point; and to vary, alter, lessen, and abridge the width and depth of the said canal, or intended canal, such variation, alteration, lessening, and abridging of the width and depth of the said canal, to commence in and from the parish of Hardwick, in the said county of Gloucester, and to be continued through the same parish in, through, and into the several parishes, townships, or places of Moreton, Valence, Standish, Wheatenhurst, Saul, Frethern, Frampton-upon-Severn, Slimbridge, and Berkeley, all in the said county of Gloucester, unto the said place called Sharpness Point, in the said parish of Berkeley; and also to vary and alter the rates, tolls, and duties to be had, received, or taken by the said Company of Proprietors in and upon the same canal, or intended canal.

Henry Wilton, Solicitor.

NOtice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for altering, extending, and rendering more effectual the powers of three several Acts of Parliament, the first passed in the fifty-first year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for erecting a bridge over the River Thames, from or near the Three Cranes, in the parishes of Saint James, Gadick Hithe, and Saint Martin Vintry, in the city of London, to the opposite bank of the said river, in the parish of Saint Saviour, in the county of Surrey, and for making proper streets and avenues to communicate therewith;" the second passed in the fifty-third year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend an Act passed in the fifty-first year of His present Majesty, for erecting a bridge over the River Thames, from the city of London to the opposite bank, in the parish of Saint Saviour, in the county of Surrey," and the third passed in the fifty-sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend two Acts of His present Majesty, for erecting a bridge over the River Thames, from the city of London to the opposite bank, in the county of Surrey."

T. and W. Nettleship, Solicitors to the Southwark Bridge Company.

NOtice is hereby given, in terms of the standing orders of the Honourable the House of Commons, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to levy an annual assessment upon the trade and heritage of the burgh of Aberdeen, and freedom and liberties thereof, situated within the parishes of St. Nicholas, Oldnuchar, and Newhills, in the county of Aberdeen, for the purpose first of defraying the municipal charges of the said burgh, and secondly for providing a sinking fund for the liquidation of the treasury debts of the Burgh; also for repealing, altering, or amending an Act passed in the fortieth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for opening and making two new streets in the city of Aberdeen;" and particularly for vesting certain of the powers conferred by the said Act in Commissioners to be named by the proposed Bill; and for other purposes to be therein mentioned.

Wm. Carnegie, Town Clerk, Aberdeen, September 8, 1817.

Liverpool Docks.

NOtice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to obtain additional powers and authorities for the preservation of the harbour of the port of Liverpool and River Mersey, and preventing the throwing of rubbish or ballast therein; for authorising the Trustees of the Liverpool Docks to raise money upon life or other annuities, to amend the existing Acts relative to the raising of money upon bonds or assignments of the rates and duties, and to provide residences for the dock-masters near their respective docks or stations.

Statham and Foster, Solicitors.

NOtice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for making and maintaining a navigable cut or canal, and for deepening, widening, and making navigable for boats, barges, and other vessels, the River Waveney, in the counties of Norfolk and Suffolk, from the town or parish of Diss, in the county of Norfolk, and from a certain pool of water, called the Mere, in the same parish; and also from the town of Eye, in the county of Suffolk, to, and to communicate with, and join the present navigation, called or known by the name of the Bungay Navigation; and for altering the course of the said river in certain places, to make the navigation thereof shorter and more regular, as delineated and laid down in the plan to be deposited at the respective offices of the Clerks of the Peace for the counties of Norfolk and Suffolk, on or before the 13th day of this instant September; and notice is hereby given that the said cut, or canal navigation and improvements, are intended to pass from, in, through, and into the several parishes of Diss, Palgrave, Sturston or Stuston, Frenze, Scole, Denham, Broom, Eye, Oakley, Billingford, Hoxne, Thorpe Pava, Thorpe Abbots, Brockdish, Syleham, Needham, Starston, Weybred, Wethersdale, Mendham, Harleston, Redenhall, Metfield, Alburgh, Denton, Southelham, Wortwell, Homersfield, Flixton, Earsham, St. John Ketshall, Bungay St. Mary, Bungay Trinity, Mettingham, and Ditchingham, in the counties of Norfolk and Suffolk, or one of them.—Dated 10th September 1817.

Notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to amend, alter, explain, enlarge, and extend the powers contained in an Act passed in the forty-ninth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for building a bridge over the River Thames from the precinct of the Savoy, or near thereunto, in the county of Middlesex, to the opposite shore, and for making convenient roads and avenues to communicate therewith, in the county of Surrey;" and also the powers contained in an Act passed in the fifty-third year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for altering, enlarging, and extending the powers of an Act of His present Majesty, for building a bridge over the River Thames at the precinct of the Savoy, or near thereunto, and making roads and avenues to communicate therewith, in the counties of Middlesex and Surrey;" and also the powers contained in another Act passed in the fifty-sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for altering and enlarging the powers of two Acts of His present Majesty, for building a bridge over the River Thames from the precinct of the Savoy, or near thereunto, in the county of Middlesex, to the opposite shore, and for making convenient roads and avenues to communicate therewith, in the county of Surrey, and also for making a new road, in lieu of part of the road or street called Narroiv-Wall, in the said county of Surrey, and for making an archway over part of such new road, and for denominating the said Bridge the Waterloo Bridge;" and also to alter, increase, and vary the respective tolls by the hereinbefore mentioned Acts, or one of them, authorised to be demanded and taken upon the bridge and roads authorised to be erected and made by the said Acts, or any or either of them; and also to make a variation in the line of road leading from the south side of the bridge through the parish of Saint Mary, Lanibeth, and Saint George's, in the county of Surrey, to the road leading from the Obelisk, in Saint George's-Fields, to Westminster-Bridge. Sweet and Stokes, Solicitors.

Notice to the Creditors of the Falkirk Union Bank, and the Individual Partners thereof.

Falkirk, September 15, 1817.

JAMES RUSSEL, Writer in Falkirk, Trustee under the sequestration issued against the said Falkirk Union Bank, as a Company, and James Brown, of Broonage; William Cowbrough, of Ellrigg; James Aitkin, Writer in Falkirk; Robert Gillespie, residing there; William Glen, of Mains, and John Glen, residing in Liddilghow, the Partners of that Bank, as Individuals, hereby intimate, that states of the affairs of the Bankrupts, of the claims lodged against them, with a scheme of division, lie at his Office in Falkirk, for the inspection of all concerned, for one month from this date; and that the first dividend will be paid to the Creditors of the company who have duly lodged their claims on Friday 17th of October next. He further specially intimates, that for the accommodation of the very numerous body of company Creditors, he intends, with the approbation of the Commissioners, in so far to deviate from the strict letter of the Statute, as to make the present division include not only the funds of the Bank as a Company which have been realized, but also such funds of the Individual Partners as have been realized, reserving till the period of the second dividend the equalizing to all concerned their respective shares of the funds of the Company or of the Individuals—a mode of division which, while in the present circumstances of the Creditors it will be a matter of considerable accommodation, can at the same time be attended with no loss or inconvenience to any party concerned.

Notice to the Creditors of Peter Fergusson, junior, Slater and Slatc-Merchant, in Glasgow.

Glasgow, September 15, 1817.

SUTHERLAND SANDERS, Accountant, in Glasgow, hereby intimates, that he has been appointed and confirmed Trustee upon the sequestrated estate of the said Peter Ferguson, jun.; and that upon his application the Sheriff of Lanarkshire has fixed Tuesday the 30th day of September current, and Tuesday the 14th day of October proximo, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon on each day, within the Sheriff-Clerk's Office, in Glasgow, for the public examinations of the Bankrupt and others concerned with his affairs.

The Trustee farther intimates, that a general meeting of the said Creditors is to be held within his Counting-Rooms, No. 15, Candlerigg's-Street, Glasgow, upon Wednesday the 25th day of October proximo, at One o'Clock P. M.; and another meeting, at the same place and hour, upon Tuesday the 24th day of October proximo, for electing Commissioners, and instructing the Trustee in the management of the said estate.

And the Trustee requests the Creditors aforesaid to lodge with him their grounds of debt, and affidavits to the verity thereof, on or before the said meeting; certifying to such of the Creditors as neglect to do so betwixt and the 11th day of June 1818, being ten months from the date of the sequestration, they will be cut off from any share of the first division of the Bankrupt's estate.

Notice to the Creditors of James Dow and Company, Merchants, Glasgow, and of James Dow, Merchant there, the only surviving Partner of the said James Dow and Company.

Edinburgh, September 15, 1817.

THE said James Dow having, with the requisite concurrence, applied to the Court of Session for a discharge of all debts contracted by him, either as a partner of the said firm of James Dow and Company, or as an individual, prior to the 10th day of August 1814, being the date of the sequestration, the Lord Glenlee, Ordinary officiating on the bills, of this date, appointed intimations of the said application to be made as directed by the Statute; and of which intimation is hereby accordingly given to all concerned.

Notice to the Creditors of David Russel, Founder and Merchant, residing at Durie Foundery, near Leven, in the County of Fife.

Cupar-Fife, September 13, 1817.

THOMAS DRYBRUGH, Writer, in Cupar-Fife, hereby intimates, that his election as Trustee has been confirmed upon the said David Russell's sequestrated estate; and the Sheriff of Fife has appointed the first and second judicial examinations of the Bankrupt, and of others connected with his business, to take place within the Tontine Tavern, Cupar, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, on Monday the 29th day of September current, and Wednesday the 15th day of October next.

That two successive meetings of the Creditors will be afterwards held, at the same place and hour, on Thursday the 16th and Thursday the 30th days of October next, for the purposes expressed in the Statute.

Such Creditors as have not lodged their claims and vouchers of debt, with oaths of verity thereon, in the Trustee's hands, are hereby required to do so at or previous to the said first meeting; with certification, that if such productions are not made between the date of the sequestration, that the party neglecting shall have no share in the first distribution of the debtor's estate, under the exceptions provided for in the Statute.

Notice to the Creditors of Robert Wilson, Merchant, in Leith.

Edinburgh, September 16, 1817.

ON the application of the said Robert Wilson, with the necessary concurrence, for a discharge of all debts due by him preceding the 11th of March 1816, the date of the sequestration, the Lord Glenlee, Lord Ordinary officiating on the bills this day appointed the petition to be intimated on the walls of the Bill-Chamber and Inner and Outer-House, and to be advertised in the Edinburgh and London Gazette, in terms of the Statute.—Of all all which notice is hereby given.

Notice to the Creditors of Hugh Turnbull, Merchant in Paisley.

September 18, 1817.
