“ That, by order of the Russian Government, the Light-House erected in the year 1815, on Cape Lativanem, was, for the greater benefit of the navigation between Narva and Revel, to be removed to the Island of Rodscher, situated at the distance of nine nautical miles to the westward of the Isle of Hogland; the light to be at the height of sixty feet above the surface of the water, and, in imitation of the light at Lativanem, to appear and disappear, successively, in the space of $\frac{1}{4}$ of a minute, which operation will make it distinguishable from all the other lights in the environs of Hogland. The new light at Rodscher to be exhibited from the 1st September 1817 (old style).”

BANKERS' LICENCES.

Stamp-Office, London, September 15, 1817.

NOTICE is hereby given, that all licences granted to Bankers or others, to issue promissory notes, payable to the bearer on demand, and allowed to be re-issued, will expire on the 10th of October next, and that they must be renewed within one month from that day, or penalties will be incurred.

That a separate licence must be taken out for every place where the notes shall be issued, in England, unless the persons to be licensed had issued their notes, at several places, before the 2d July 1808, and originally obtained one licence for all such places; in which case only, they will be again included in one licence. The duty on each licence is £30.

That every licence must specify the names and places of abode of the persons to be licensed, and the name of the place or places where, and the name of the bank, as well as the partnership name, style, or firm, under which the notes are to be issued; and licences to persons in partnership must specify the names, and places of abode, of all the persons concerned in the partnership, whether all their names appear on the notes or not; and in default thereof the licences will be void. With these particulars, a specimen of the notes must also be left at this Office, by persons applying for such licences.

That a penalty of £100 for every offence, is imposed on the issuing of promissory notes, of the description aforesaid, without a licence, or at any other place, or under any other name, style, or firm, than is specified in the licence.

This notice is given that all persons concerned may conform to the law, and avoid the penalties for which they will otherwise be prosecuted; and that persons, applying for licences, may come prepared with all the requisite particulars to be inserted therein, without which the licences cannot be filled up, so as to protect the parties against penalties.

By order of the Commissioners,
 Wm. Kappen, Secretary.
