SATURDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1817.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 10th of October 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

IT is ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, that the Parliament, which stands prorogued to Monday the third day of November next, be further prorogued to Tuesday the sixteenth day of December next.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS We have thought fit to order that certain pieces of gold money should be coined, which should be called "half sovereigns or ten shilling pieces," each of which should be of the value of ten shillings, and that each piece should be of the weight of two pennyweights thirteen grains  $\frac{6,370}{10,000}$  troy weight of standard gold, according to the weights approved of and confirmed by Us in Council, in pursuance of an Act made in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled
"An Act for regulating and ascertaining the weights to be made use of in weighing the gold and silver coin of this kingdom;" and We have further thought fit to order that every such piece of gold money, so ordered to be coined as aforesaid, shall have for the obverse impression the head of His Majesty, with the inscription "Georgius III. Dei Gratia:" and the date of the year; and for the reverse the ensigns armourable of the United Kingdom, contained in a shield, with the inscription Britanniarum Rex. Fid. Def. with a newly invented graining on the edge of the piece: and whereas pieces of gold money of the above description have been coined at His Majesty's Mint, and will be coined there, in pursuance of Orders which We have given for that purpose: We have therefore, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, thought fit to issue this Proclamation; and We do hereby, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, ordain, declare, and command, that the said pieces of gold money so coined, and to be coined as aforesaid, shall be current and lawful money of the kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and shall be called "half sovereigns or ten shilling pieces," and shall pass and be received as current and lawful money of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; and every of such pieces, not weighing less than two penny weights, thirteen grains and one quarter, shall pass and be received as of the value of ten shillings of lawful money of Great Britain and Ireland in all payments whatsoever.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the tenth day of October one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, in the fifty-seventh year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 13th of August 1817,

PRESENT;

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 155, it is enacted, that "it shall not be lawful for any private person or persons to import any goods, wares, or merchandise, from any port or place within the limits of the East India Company's charter, except only into such ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland as shall be provided with warehouses, together with wet-docks or basins, or such other securities as shall, in the judgment of the Lord High Treasurer, or of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, for the time being, or any three or more of them, in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, be fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon; and shall have been duly declared so to be, by the Order of His Majesty in Council, in Great Britain, or by the Order of the Lord Lieutenant in Council, in Ireland: And whereas the port of Bristol has been deemed by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury in Great Britain to be fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, is thereupon pleased to declare, and it is hereby declared, that the port of Bristol is a port fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon."

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 31st of May, 1817,

PRESENT;

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that the Order in Council of the twentieth of May one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, permitting vessels trading to the Coast of Africa, to take on board as an assorted part of their cargoes, trading guns, blunderbusses, pistols, and gunpowder, be, and the same is hereby revoked; and it is further ordered, by and with the advice aforesaid, that the Order in Council of the second of January one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, prohibiting the export of arms and ammunition to the places therein specified, be, and the same is hereby also revoked; but whereas it is expedient, that some of the provisions of the said Order in Council, of the second of January one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, should be continued; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth, therefore, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the date of this Order), presume to transport any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America); or ship or lade any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt-petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council."

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

IN pursuance of the directions of an Act, passed in the twenty-fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to repeal so much of two Acts, made in the tenth and fifteenth years of the reign of His present Majesty, as authorises the Speaker of the House of Commons

" to issue his warrant to the Clerk of the Crown
" for making out writs for the election of Mem" bers to serve in Parliament in the manner
" therein mentioned; and for substituting other
" provisions for the like purposes:"

I do hereby give notice, that the death of Sir J. T. Duckworth, Bart. K. C. B. late a Member serving in this present Parliament for the town and port of New Romney, in the county of Kent, hath been certified to me in writing under the hands of two Members serving in this present Parliament; and that I shall issue my warrant to the Clerk of the Crown to make out a new writ for the electing of a Member to serve in this present Parliament for the said town and port of New Romney, at the end of fourteen days after the insertion of this notice in the London Gazette.

Given under my hand, the 9th day of October 1817,

CHARLES MANNERS SUTTON, Speaker.

Carlton-House, October 10, 1817.

This day His Excellency the Duke de San Carlos, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary from His Catholic Majesty Ferdinand the Seventh of Spain, and the Baron Humboldt, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from His Majesty the King of Prussia, had their first private audiences respectively of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, to deliver their credentials; to which they were introduced by Lord Viscount Castlereagh, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and conducted by Robert Chester, Esq. Assistant-Master of the Ceremonies.

Whitehall, September 15, 1817.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to grant unto the Right Honourable John Earl of St. Vincent, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, Admiral of the Red Squadron of His Majesty's Fleet, and General of His Majesty's Royal Marine Forces, His Majesty's royal licence and permission, that his Lordship may accept and wear the insignia of an Honorary Knight Grand Cross of the Royal Portuguese Military Order of the Tower and Sword, which His Majesty the King of Portugal was pleased to confer upon him in the year 1811, in testimony of the high sense His Most Faithful Majesty entertained of the distinguished merits of his Lordship, and of the eminent services rendered by him to the Kingdom of Portugal:

And His Royal Highness hath been further pleased to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

ERRATUM in the Gazette of 27th September 1817.

BREVET.

For Cadet George Walker to have the temporary rank of Second Lieutenant, Read Cadet George Waller, &c.

Whitehall, October 11, 1817.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, some evil-disposed person or persons did some time since maliciously maim, wound, and injure five ewe sheep, the property of Mr. James Hull, of the parish of Potterne, in the county of Wilts, which said sheep soon afterwards died; and also, that some time in the night between Sunday the 25th and Monday the 26th days of May last, a similar outrage was committed upon two mares and a gelding, the property of Mr. Thomas Hull, at Whistley, in the said parish, which said two mares are since dead;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed either of the said felonies), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.—Twenty guineas of the above reward to be paid by Mr. W. W. Salmon, Treasurer of the Devises Society for the Prosecution of Felons, and thirty guineas by the said Messrs. Thomas and James Hull.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the morning of Friday the 9th of May last, the sawing-mills, belonging to Mr. Timothy Burstall, situate at Bankside, in the Borough of Southwark, were discovered to be on fire, and that there is every reason to suppose the same was the act of some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said mills), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Mr. Timothy Burstall, to any person or persons (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person who shall apprehend and bring the offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the evening of Sunday the 17th instant, a rick of old hay, the property of Charles Arnott, Esq. of Rushington, in the parish of Eling, in the county of Southampton, was wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said rick of hay), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

BATHURST.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Charles Arnott, Esq. to any person or persons (except as is before excepted), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Whitehall, August 26, 1817.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on the night of the 30th of July last, some person or persons did most cruelly and maliciously cut, maim, and destroy a hackney mare, and on the night of the 1st of August instant, did also cut, maim, and destroy a bullock, the property of George Haskins, and did also on the last mentioned night fire at the said George Haskins, with intent to kill him in his own dwelling house; and that there is reason to suppose that the above-mentioned outrages were committed out of malice and revenge towards the said George Haskins, for having zealously and faithfully discharged his duty as constable of the hamlet of Oldland;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the outrages above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed either of the outrages above-mentioned), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

BATHURST.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWENTY-FIVE GUINEAS is hereby offered by the Association for the Prosecution of Felons, in and round the neighbourhood of Cockroad, in the parish of Bitton, near Bristol, to any person or persons (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the night of Sunday last, the 3d instant, three horses were stabbed, in a field in the occupation of Mr. Lawrence Wilmore, in the parish of Enderby, near Leicester;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in such atrocious act, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually stabbed the said horses), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FORTY POUNDS is hereby offered, by the said Mr. Lawrence Wilmore, to any person or persons (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Royal Hospital, Chelsea, September 30, 1817.

IN pursuance of the Act of the 55th year of His present Majesty, by which it is enacted that the out-pensioners of this Hospital shall in future be paid quarterly in advance, instead of half-yearly, notice is hereby given, by order of the Right Honourable the Lords and others, Commissioners for Managing the Affairs of the said Hospital, that all the out-pensioners thereof, residing in London, or within the district of the bills of mortality, are required to appear personally and regimentally, with their instructions and certificates of admission, at the Secretary's Office in the said Hospital on the respective days, and in their different classes, according to their several rates of pension, as undermentioned, when attendance will be given from nine o'clock in the morning until three in the afternoon, for the payment of a quarter of a year's pension in advance, to the 24th of December next.

On Thursday the 16th of October,

Those at 1s. 10½d. per day and upwards, and those pensioners who have been admitted on account of blindness.

It is also ordered and directed, that all the out-pensioners belonging to the said Hospital, do pay particular attention to their instructions, which they are required to produce at the time of payment, by which they are ordered to transmit to the Paymaster-General of His Majesty's Land Forces in London, their affidavits as therein prescribed, on, or immediately after every quarter-day, without which their names will not be entered on the pay-lists for the subsequent quarter, and they are not afterwards to change their place of abode, as specified in their affidavits, without unavoidable necessity, and duly notifying the same.

And further to take notice, that, in consequence of various frauds having been committed by pensioners in the receipt of pension and prize-money, it is ordered, that all pensioners so offending shall be struck off the pension lists, and forfeit for ever all benefit arising from this Establishment.

Richard Neave, Secretary and Registrar.

Admiralty-Office, October 9, 1817.

IN pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the twenty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, notice is hereby given, that information has been received at this Office, that the brig Bergetta, of Drontheim, in the Kingdom of Sweden, whereof Jorgen Peterson was master, laden with a cargo of wine and brandy, having sailed from Barcelona on the 17th of August last, was run on a sand bank, called Cefen Shidar in Carnarthen bay, on the evening of the 26th of September last; the crew were saved, but the whole of the cargo was lost.

"Ballast-Office, Dublin, September 18, 1817."

College of Physicians, September 30, 1817.

IN pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fourteenth year of His present Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for regulating mad-houses," notice is hereby given, that the Commissioners appointed for licensing houses for the reception of lunatics within the cities of London and Westminster, and within seven miles of the same, and within the county of Middlesex, will meet at the College of Physicians, in Warwick-Lane, London, on Friday the 24th day of October next, at one o'clock in the afternoon, in order to grant such licences to all persons who shall desire the same, pursuant to the directions of the said Act.

By order of the Commissioners,

R. Powell, M.D. Secretary.

Exchequer Bill Office, October 10, 1817.

TO BE PAID OFF.

ALl Exchequer Bills dated in the Month of November 1816, viz. on Aids 1816, 56 Geo. 3. cap. 28; on Supply 1816, £13,000,000, 56 Geo. 3. cap. 54.

THE Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having given directions for paying off the principal of the above-mentioned Exchequer Bills, with the interest due thereon, at the Exchequer Bill Office in the Receipt of Exchequer, New Palace-Yard, Westminster, on Thursday the 30th day of October 1817, attendance will be given daily (Sundays and holidays excepted) until, and including, Friday the 24th day of October, from ten o'clock in the morning till one in the afternoon, for the purpose of receiving the same. And, for the greater dispatch, the bearers of the said bills are desired to place each description of bills in separate lists (which are to be obtained at this Office), classing them in the order of their respective dates, such as are for the same amount being numerically arranged, and specifying the principal sums and interest due thereon, computed from, but excluding the days on which they are respectively dated, to the said 30th of October inclusive; when the interest will cease; and the said bearers, should they be acting as the agents of holders whose names are inserted in the bills, are previously to procure the endorsements of such holders; and the bearers are also indispensably required to indorse each bill with their usual signatures, and to write their names and residence at the bottom of each separate list; and they are moreover required to attend the Exchequer Bill Office for payment, and to receive the new bills, and give the receipts for the same.

If any of the holders of the aforesaid bills should be desirous of receiving payment of the principal and interest, previous to the said 30th day of October, they may be accommodated on computing the interest to the day on which they wish to be paid, and leaving the said bills for examination one day prior thereto.

Such persons as may be desirous of having new Exchequer Bills in whole or in part of payment of principal, upon marking new bills, and mentioning the amount at the bottom of their lists, delivered on or before Friday the 24th day of October, may be accommodated with new bills, payable to or order, carrying an interest of two pence by the day; on every one hundred pounds; which said new bills will bear date the said 30th day of October, and will be delivered, together with the interest due in respect of the bills so desired to be exchanged, on Friday the 31st day of October, and the following days.

The Exchequer Bills to be issued in exchange and made payable to or order, as abovementioned, may be either transferred by endorsement, or will be paid to the bearer if the blank shall not be filled up.

N.B. All Exchequer Bills dated prior to November 1816, have been advertised to be paid off, and the interest thereon has ceased.

ARMY CONTRACTS.

Treasury-Chambers, Commissariat Department, September 29, 1817.

Notice is hereby given to all persons desirous of contracting to supply

BEEF and MUTTON, to His Majesty's Land Forces in Cantonments, Quarters, and Barracks, in the undermentioned Counties and Island,

Berks (including the Town of Hungerford),	Hants, Kent,
Cornwall (including Scilly),	Middlesex, Norfolk,
Devon,	Suffolk,
Essex,	Surrey,
Gloucester (including the City of Bristol),

That the deliveries are to commence on and for the 25th day of November next; that proposals in writing, sealed up and marked "Tender for Army Supplies," will be received at this Office on or before Monday the 27th day of October; but none will be received after twelve o'clock on that day, and, if sent by post, the postage must be paid.

Proposals must be made separately for each county and island; and each proposal must have the letter which is annexed to the tender properly filled up by two persons of known property, engaging to become bound with the party tendering, in the amount stated in the printed particulars, for the due performance of the contract; and no proposal will be noticed unless made on a printed tender, and the prices expressed in words at length; and should it so happen that during the continuance of the contract no troops should be supplied under the contract, the expence of the stamps for the contract and bond, paid in the first instance by the contractor, shall be refunded to him.

Particulars of the contracts may be had upon application at these Chambers, between the hours of eleven and five.

Wheat .....	4	16	8
Rapeseed .....	3	12	9	Average price per quarter on the last twelve weeks.
Oats .....	1	14	9

And do hereby order and direct, that the said general average prices be published in the London Gazette once in four several weeks immediately succeeding this present Session.

By the Court,
THOMAS SHELTON, Clerk of the Peace.

In the Affairs of RICHARD DIGBY.

Spalding, October 7, 1817.

Notice is hereby given, that the Assignees of the real and personal estates of Richard Digby, of Spalding, in the County of Lincoln, Grocer, intend to make a dividend of the said estate and effects, on Monday the 20th day of October instant, before which day the several Creditors of the said Richard Digby, who have neglected to execute the trust-deed, are requested to sign the same, at the Office of Messrs. Green and Carter, Attorneys at Law, in Spalding aforesaid, where it is deposited, or they will be excluded the benefit of the said dividend.

ALL persons who have any demands upon the estate of William Harris, of Alresford, in the County of Southampton, Esq. deceased, are requested to send an account thereof to Major Barton, Ropley, near Alresford, or to J. Rashleigh, Esq. Lincoln's-Inn New-Square, London, Executors of the will of the said William Harris.

ALL persons who have any demands upon the estate of General Thomas Carleton, of Ramsgate, in the County of Kent, deceased, are requested to send an account thereof to Mr. J. Rashleigh, Solicitor, Lincoln's-Inn New-Square, London.

Worcester, September 27, 1817.

Relations of ROBERT VELLERS, late of the Parish of Saint-Swithin, in the City of Worcester, Gentleman (who died on the 19th of April 1815), and had just retired from the Business of a Silk-Mercer, which he had followed for above 30 Years in Worcester, and was a Native of Burnham-Deepdale, in Norfolk.

Whereas the said Robert Vellers, by his last will and testament, bearing date 31st day of March 1815, after giving several pecuniary legacies, gave and bequeathed the residue of his estate and effects in the words following, viz. "Unto my said cousin, — Gardiner, and all other my relations, not being further removed than the degree of second cousins, equally, share and share alike, so that they make their claim to my Executors within two years from the proving of my will by them, otherwise equally between such only who shall make their claim within that time;" and the said Testator appointed Mr. William Walker, now residing at Saint John's, near Worcester, and William Welles, of the City of Worcester, Attorney at Law, Executors of his said will, and which was proved by the said Executors, in the Prerogative Court of Canterbury, on the 5th day of August 1815.

And whereas soon after the Testator's decease many persons delivered in their claims to the said Executors, as being the only relations of the said Testator entitled to the said bequest, but so late as the 23d. of June last the claims of two other persons have been made, as coming within the degree of second cousins; therefore, before making distribution among the present claimants, the Executors, acting under the said will do hereby give this notice, that all other persons considering themselves entitled to share in the said residue may, on or before the 27th. day of November 1817, transmit the necessary proofs, by certificates or otherwise, of their being relations not further removed than the degree of second cousins of the said Robert Vellers, the Testator.

Such claims, and all applications in pursuance thereof, being made (if by letter free of postage), to the said William Walker and William Welles; at the Office of Messrs. Welles and Dickens; Solicitors, Worcester, or their Agent, Mr. James Platt, Solicitor, New Boswell-Court, Carey-Street, Lincoln's-Inn, London; Mr. Watson, Solicitor, Fakenham; or to Richard Elliott, Esq. Devizes, Wilts.
