TUESDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1817.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 10th of October 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

IT is ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, that the Parliament, which stands prorogued to Monday the third day of November next, be further prorogued to Tuesday the sixteenth day of December next.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the
Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS We have thought fit to order that certain pieces of gold money should be coined, which should be called "half sovereigns or ten shilling pieces," each of which should be of the value of ten shillings, and that each piece should be of the weight of two pennyweights thirteen grains $\frac{6,370}{10,000}$ troy weight of standard gold, according to the weights approved of and confirmed by Us in Council, in pursuance of an Act made in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled
"An Act for regulating and ascertaining the weights to be made use of in weighing the gold and silver coin
of this kingdom;" and We have further thought fit to order that every such piece of gold money, so ordered to be coined as aforesaid, shall have for the obverse impression the head of His Majesty, with the inscription "Georgius III. Dei Gratia;" and the date of the year; and for the reverse the ensigns armourable of the United Kingdom, contained in a shield, with the inscription Britanniarum Rex. Fid. Def. with a newly invented graining on the edge of the piece: and whereas pieces of gold money of the above description have been coined at His Majesty's Mint, and will be coined there, in pursuance of Orders which We have given for that purpose: We have therefore, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, thought fit to issue this Proclamation; and We do hereby, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, ordain, declare, and command, that the said pieces of gold

money so coined, and to be coined as aforesaid,
shall be current and lawful money of the kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and shall be called "half sovereigns or ten shilling pieces," and shall pass and be received as current and lawful money
of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; and every of such pieces, not weighing less than two penny weights, thirteen grains and one quarter, shall pass and be received as of the value of ten shillings of lawful money of Great Britain and Ireland in all payments whatsoever.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the tenth day of October on thousand eight hundred and seventeen, in the fifty-seventh year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 13th
of August 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 155, it is enacted, that it shall not be lawful for any private person or persons to import any goods,
wares, or merchandise, from any port or place within the limits of the East India Company's charter, except only into such ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland as shall be provided with warehouses, together with wet docks

or basins, or such other securities as shall, in the judgment of the Lord High Treasurer, or of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, for the time being, or any three or more of them, in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, be fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon, and shall have been duly declared so to be, by the Order of His Majesty in Council, in Great Britain, or by the Order of the Lord Lieutenant in Council, in Ireland: And whereas the port of Bristol has been deemed by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury in Great Britain to be fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, is thereupon pleased to declare, and it is hereby declared, that the port of Bristol is a port fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Chetwynd.

Dublin-Castle, October 9, 1817.

The Earl Talbot, who embarked at Holyhead, at five o'clock Wednesday 8th instant, on board His Majesty's yacht the William and Mary, arrived in this harbour at one o'clock P. M. this day. His Lordship, on his arrival in Dublin, was received by the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Commons of the city of Dublin. His Lordship, attended by a squadron of dragoons, proceeded to the Castle, and the Council having assembled at four o'clock, was introduced in form to his Excellency Earl Whitworth, who received him sitting under the Canopy of State in the Presence Chamber, from whence a procession was made in the usual state to the Council Chamber. The Council sitting, his Lordship's commission was read, and the oaths being administered to him, his Lordship was invested with the Collar of the Most Illustrious Order of Saint Patrick, and received the Sword of State from the Earl Whitworth. His Excellency afterwards repaired to the Presence Chamber, and received the compliments of the nobility and other persons of distinction upon his safe arrival, and taking upon him the Government of Ireland.

Dublin-Castle, October 10, 1817.

This day, at three o'clock, the Earl Whitworth, late Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland, left the Castle, in order to embark on board His Majesty's yacht the William and Mary, on his return to England.

His Excellency Earl Talbot, Lord-Lieutenant, and the Earl Whitworth, went together from the Castle in the state coach, proceeded by the leading coaches, in which were the Officers of State, to the South Wall, where the yacht lay. They were escorted by a squadron of dragoons, and attended by a great number of the nobility and persons of distinction, the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, several of the Aldermen and principal Citizens in their carriages, followed by a concourse of people to the water side. The streets were lined by the regiments of infantry on Dublin duty. The Earl Whitworth received every demonstration of respect in passing through the streets, from the people, who testified their regard by repeated wishes for his welfare and safe return to England.

Carlton-House, October 10, 1817.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent was this day pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to confer the honour of Knighthood upon Thomas William Stubbs, Esq. Major-General in the Portuguese Service, commanding the second division of the Portuguese Army, and an Honorary Knight Commander of the Royal Portuguese Military Order of the Tower and Sword.

Whitehall, September 29, 1817.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to grant unto Lieutenant and Adjutant Robert Gilbert, of the Royal Marine Artillery, His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that he may accept and wear the insignia of a Knight of the Imperial Russian Order of St. Vladimir, of the fourth class, with which His Imperial Majesty the Emperor of All the Russias has been pleased to honour that Officer, in testimony of his approbation of the signal intrepidity displayed by him in command of a corps of the Royal Marine Artillery (employed as a rocket corps), at the siege of Danzig, in the year 1813; provided nevertheless, that His Majesty's said licence and permission shall not be deemed or construed to authorise the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms:

And His Royal Highness hath been further pleased to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, October 11, 1817.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, some evil-disposed person or persons did some time since maliciously maim, wound, and injure five ewe sheep, the property of Mr. James Hull, of the parish of Potterne, in the county of Wilts, which said sheep soon afterwards died; and also, that some time in the night between Sunday the 25th and Monday the 26th days of May last, a similar outrage was committed upon two mares and a gelding, the property of Mr. Thomas Hu'l, at Whistley, in the said parish, which said two mares are since dead;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed either of the said felonies), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.—Twenty guineas of the above reward to be paid by Mr. W. W. Salmon, Treasurer of the Devizes Society for the Prosecution of Felons, and thirty guineas by the said Messrs. Thomas and James Hull.

Whitehall, October 11, 1817.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the morning of Friday the 9th of May last, the sawing-mills, belonging to Mr. Timothy Burstall, situate at Bankside, in the Borough of Southwark, were discovered to be on fire, and that there is every reason to suppose the same was the act of some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said mills), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Mr. Timothy Burstall, to any person or persons (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person who shall apprehend and bring the offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Whitehall, August 23, 1817.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the evening of Sunday the 17th instant, a rick of old hay, the property of Charles Arnott, Esq.

of Rushington, in the parish of Eling, in the county of Southampton, was wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said rick of hay), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

BATHURST.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Charles Arnott, Esq. to any person or persons (except as is before excepted), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Whitehall, August 26, 1817.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on the night of the 30th of July last, some person or persons did most cruelly and maliciously cut, maim, and destroy a hackney mare, and on the night of the 1st of August instant, did also cut, maim, and destroy a bullock, the property of George Haskins, and did also on the last mentioned night fire at the said George Haskins, with intent to kill him in his own dwelling house; and that there is reason to suppose that the above-mentioned outrages were committed out of malice and revenge towards the said George Haskins, for having zealously and faithfully discharged his duty as constable of the hamlet of Oldland;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the outrages above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed either of the outrages above-mentioned), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

BATHURST.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWENTY-FIVE GUINEAS is hereby offered by the Association for the Prosecution of Felons, in and round the neighbourhood of Cockroad, in the parish of Bitton, near Bristol, to any person or persons (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

The CHILDREN of THOMAS GREEN, deceased.

Salisbury, October 11, 1817.

Whereas the children of Thomas Green, formerly of the City of New Sarum, in the County of Wilts, School-Master, and afterwards of Chatham, in the County of Kent, (and who died in the poor-house of Chatham, in or about the month of June 1808), are interested, under the will of Elizabeth Tatam, late of the said City of New Sarum, deceased; such of the children, therefore, of the said Thomas Green as are living, are desired to apply, respecting any claims they have under the said will, to Mr. Thomas Staples, or Mr. William Snook, both of the City of New Sarum aforesaid, the Trustees thereof; or to Mr. Dew, of the same place, Attorney at Law; or to Mr. Millett, No. 2, Middle-Temple-Lane, London.

Valuable freehold factory and dwelling-houses at Twerton, near Bath, part of the property of Mr. Francis Naish, a Bankrupt.

TO be peremptorily sold by auction, by Mr. Samuel Chubb, on Saturday the 8th day of November next, at the White Hart Inn, in the City of Bath, between the hours of Twelve and Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, before the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued and now in prosecution against the said Francis Naish, and for the benefit of his Creditors;

Lot 1. All that extensive and most complete cloth factory, called Twerton Factory, adjoining the River Avon, lately occupied and employed by Mr. Naish, together with 18 convenient dwelling-houses for workmen, a large garden, and numerous out-buildings thereto belonging.

This factory is worked by two large water wheels, with most complete gears, drums, &c. and contains sufficient room for manufacturing 80 ends of fine broad cloth a week.

Lot 2. A capital and desirable stone-built residence replete with domestic convenience, extensive orchard, and garden, abundantly planted with a variety of shrubs and choice fruit trees in good health and condition, with a tenement, in the occupation of Jacob Bull, lately erected on part thereof.

This lot is on the north side of the turnpike-road leading from Bath to Bristol, and bounded on the north by the River Aron, and the whole premises contain, by a late admeasurement 2A. 1R. 7P. of land, now in the occupation of Mr. Naish, and will be sold chargeable with a perpetual rent charge or yearly sum of £57 5s. payable thereout half yearly.

Lot 3. Five tenements and out-buildings, with gardens adjoining, containing by a late admeasurement 36P. situate on the south side of the turnpike-road leading from Bath to Bristol, now in the occupations of John Lappidge, John Gadd, Reuben Butcher, James Guy, and Samuel Challenger.

Part of this lot is freehold and the remainder leasehold, and held under William Gore Langton, Esq.

The whole of the premises may be viewed on application to Mr. Walter Tanner, Twerton.

Further particulars may be had of the said Walter Tanner; at the Office of Messrs. Broderip, Meliar, and Co. of Wells; and of Mr. Thomas Timbrell the younger, Solicitor, Trowbridge, Wilts, where plans of the different lots may be seen.
