The Deputy Earl Marshal's Order for a General Mourning for Her late Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte-Augusta, Daughter of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, and Consort of His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe-Cobourg.

In pursuance of the commands of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, these are to give public notice, that it is expected that, upon the present most melancholy occasion of the death of Her late Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte-Augusta, Daughter of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, and Consort of His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe-Cobourg, all persons do put themselves into decent mourning; the said mourning to begin on Sunday next the 9th instant.

HENRY HOWARD MOLYNEUX-HOWARD,
Deputy Earl Marshal.

7th November 1817.

Horse-Guards, November 7, 1817.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, does not require that the Officers of the Army should wear any other mourning on the present melancholy occasion, than a black crape round their left arms with their uniforms.

By command of His Royal Highness the Commander in Chief,

HARRY CALVERT, Adjutant-General.

Admiralty-Office, November 7, 1817.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, does not require that the Officers of the Fleet or Royal Marines should wear any other mourning on the present melancholy occasion, than a black crape round their left arms with their uniforms.

J. W. CROKER.

War-Office, 8th November 1817.

MEMORANDUM.

In consequence of Colonel Baron Eben having been inculpated in the treasonable transactions which have occurred against the King and Government of Portugal, for which he appears to have,
