Published by Authority.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1817.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 10th
October 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the thirty-first of May last, for prohibiting the exportation of gunpowder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of November next;
and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth, therefore, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of November next), presume to transport any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act to empower His Majesty to " prohibit the exportation of salt-petre, and to " enforce the law for empowering His Majesty,

" to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or " any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to " empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying
" coastwise of salt-petre, gunpowder, or any sort " of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His " Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval " stores, and more effectually to prevent the ex" portation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition,
" when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in
" Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Edward John Littleton, Esq. to be Vice Lieutenant. Dated September 18, 1817.

Regiment of Yeomanry Cavalry.

Henry Mountfort, Gent. to be Cornet. Dated September 2, 1817.

BY THE LORDS COMMISSIONERS OF HIS MAJESTY'S TREASURY.

WHereas by an Act passed in the forty-seventh year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to allow, for two years from and after the passing of this Act, an additional bounty on double-refined sugar, and to extend former bounties on other refined sugar,

"to such as shall be pounded, crushed, or broken; and to allow, for one year, certain bounties on British plantation raw sugar exported," reciting, that whereas by the laws now in force in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, it is required that refined sugar exported for the bounties shall be in lumps or loaves, complete and whole; and that it is expedient that the said bounties shall be continued to be allowed and paid on the exportation of the same from the ports of London and Dublin, although such lumps or loaves may be pounded, crashed, or broken; it is enacted, that on the due exportation of refined sugar for the bounties under those laws, the same bounties respectively shall be allowed and paid under the provisions and regulations of those Acts, on such lumps and loaves as may be pounded, crashed, or broken, under the regulations of this Act: and whereas by the said Act, it is further enacted, that whenever it shall be made appear to the satisfaction of the Lord High Treasurer, or the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being, in Great Britain or Ireland respectively, that proper refineries are established and carried on at or near to any port of the United Kingdom, to which it would be safe in their judgment to extend the benefit granted by this Act to the ports of London and Dublin, it shall and may be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer, or the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, in Great Britain or Ireland respectively, to declare, that the regulations of this Act shall be extended to such port, provided that no bounty shall be paid or allowed upon refined sugar or candy exported from any such port, unless and until the Lord High Treasurer, or the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, in Great Britain or Ireland respectively, shall have signified their approbation thereof by publication in the London or Dublin Gazette respectively; and from and after the day mentioned in such publication, all and every the provisions, powers, authorities, penalties, forfeitures, regulations, acts, matters, and things in this Act contained, or any way relating to the allowance of the bounties on such lump or loaf sugar pounded, crashed, or broken, or on sugar candy in pursuance thereof, shall extend and be construed to extend to the port or ports named in such order, in like manner, in every respect, and as fully and amply to all intents and purposes, as if such port or ports had been expressly named in this Act: and whereas it has been made appear to our satisfaction, that proper refineries are established and carried on in the port of Dundee, in that part of the United Kingdom called Scotland, and it is in our judgment safe to extend to the said port the benefit granted by the said Act to the ports of London and Dublin, We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, do therefore, pursuant to the said Act, hereby declare, that the regulations of the said Act shall, from the day of the date hereof, be extended to the said port of Dundee.

Given under our hands this 11th day of November 1817, N. VANSITTART.

Each district will be put up at the sum above set opposite thereto. The highest bidder will be declared the farmer, and will be required to pay down immediately, in Bank notes, seven and a half per cent. upon the annual rent as a deposit; if no sufficient bidding shall be made for any district, it will be withdrawn.

The farmer of each district will be required to give bond, with three or more sureties, in the penalty of half the annual rent, for securing the payment of the rent and the performance of his contract.

And it is intended, that the districts shall be put up in any order which the Commissioners of stamps may think fit, and which will not be declared before the time of letting.

All persons intending to bid for any of the said duties, are to deliver in their proposals, addressed to the Commissioners at the Stamp-Office, Somerset-Place, at least three days previous to the said 26th day of November next, signed with their names, stating the places of their abode, and specifying the district or districts for which they intend to bid, otherwise their proposals cannot be proceeded upon.

And no persons licensed to let horses for the purpose of travelling post, nor any one for their use, can be admitted to contract for any of the said duties.

By order of the Commissioners of Stamps,
Wm. Kappen, Secretary.

THE Commissioners appointed by Act of Parliament for the trust and payment of monies recovered from the property sequestrated in Sweden, hereby give notice to the several persons, who have not yet come forward to receive the dividends due upon their respective certificates, that the same may be received by applying any Friday, between the hours of twelve and two o'clock, at the Counting-House of Messrs. John Atkins and Son, Walbrook. For the information of the parties interested, lists of the unclaimed dividends are left at No. 7, Walbrook, and in the Reading-Room of Lloyd's Coffee-House.

By order of the Commissioners,
John Atkins, Chairman.

Irish Life Annuities.

No. 15, Bridge-Street, Blackfriars, November 14, 1817.

Notice is hereby given, that payment on these Annuities will close on Saturday the 29th instant. Sufficient notice will be given prior to the day of opening.

RULES and REGULATIONS for granting LICENCES by the COMMISSIONERS for the AFFAIRS of INDIA, under the Authority of the 12th Section of an Act, passed in the fifty-third Year of His Majesty's Reign, Cap. 155, intituled "An Act for continuing in the East India Company, for a further Term, the Possession of the British Territories in India; together with certain exclusive Privileges; for establishing further Regulations for the Government of the said Territories, and the better Administration of Justice within the same; and for regulating the Trade to and from the Places within the Limits of the said Company's Charter."

LICENCES will be granted by this Board, for any vessel, navigated according to law, to proceed, under the provisions of the said Act, of the LIII Geo. 3. cap. 155, and also of the Acts, LIV Geo. 3. cap. 34 (1) and 36 (2), and LVII Geo. 3. cap. 36 (3), directly or circuitously, to any ports or places situate more to the Northward than eleven degrees of South Latitude, and between the sixty-fourth and one hundred and fiftieth degrees of East Longitude from London, save and except ports and places upon the Continent of Asia, from the River Indus to the Town of Malacca, inclusive, or in any Island under the Government of the East India Company, lying to the North of the Equator, and also save and except the East India Company's Factory at Bencoolen and its dependencies.

Every application for a Licence must specify the name and measurement of the vessel for which it is required, the port of clearance, and the names of the owners and master.

By order of the Commissioners for the Affairs of India,

Tho: Pere: Courtenay.

India Board, Westminster, 28th October, 1817.

- (1) "An Act for the further regulation of the trade to and from the places within the limits of the charter of the East India Company."
- (2) "An Act to repeal the duties of Customs payable on goods, wares, and merchandise imported into Great Britain from any port or place within the limits of the charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, and to grant other duties in lieu thereof; and to establish further regulations for the better security of the revenue on goods so imported; and to alter the periods of making up and presenting certain accounts of the said Company to Parliament; to continue in force until the tenth day

"of April one thousand eight hundred and nineteen."

- (3) "An Act to regulate the trade to and from the places within the limits of the charter of the East India Company, and certain possessions of His Majesty in the Mediterranean."

Navy-Office, November 8, 1817.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 4th of December next, at twelve o'clock at noon, Commissioner Cunningham will put up to sale, in His Majesty's Yard at Woolwich, several lots of Old Stores, consisting of Old Buntin, Rope, Paper-Stuff, Shakings, Cast and Wrought Iron, Glass Carboys, Water Casks, &c &c. &c.

all lying in the said Yard.

Persons wishing to view the lots, must apply to the Commissioner of the Yard for a note of admission for that purpose.

Catalogues and conditions of sale may be had here, and at the Yard.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

East India-House, November 11, 1817.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give notice,

That the Committee of Buying and Warehouses will be ready to receive proposals in writing, sealed up, on or before Wednesday the 26th of November instant, from such persons as may be willing to supply the Company with a quantity of

Pig Lead;

And that the conditions of the contract may be seen upon application to the Clerk of the said Committee, with whom the proposals must be left before eleven o'clock on the said 26th of November, after which hour the Committee will not receive any tender.

James Cobb, Secretary.

London, November 13, 1817.

Notice is hereby given to the officers and company of His Majesty's sloop Harpy, George Tyler, Esq. Commander, that the proportions arising from the net amount of His Majesty's bounty granted for fifty-five slaves, captured in the L'Jeune Victor, on the 16th November 1815, will be paid to those who were actually on board at the time of capture, or their representatives duly authorised to receive the same, on Thursday the 20th instant, at No. 3, Clifford's-Inn; and the shares not then claimed will be recalled every Wednesday and Thursday for three months to come, agreeable to Act of Parliament.

The late WILLIAM DUNCAN'S Estate.

ALL persons having any claims or demands against the estate of William Duncan, late of Exeter-Street, Sloane-Street, Chelsea, Baker, deceased, are desired, on or before the 4th day of December next, to send the particulars of their respective demands (giving credit for any set off), either to Mr. William Hearne, of Nine Elms, Vauxhall, Miller, or to Mr. Hall, No. 68, Coleman-Street, Solicitor to the Acting Executor.—The said Creditors are also to take notice a handsome first dividend is intended to be made on the 8th day of December next; and all claims on the estate not previously sent in, and amount ascertained, will be excluded the benefit of the said first dividend.

ALL persons who have any claims or demands on the estate or effects of Lieutenant-General John Sontag, late of Earl's Court-Road, Kensington, in the County of Middlesex, deceased (who died on or about the 4th day of May 1816), are requested forthwith to send an account, containing the particulars of such claims or demands; and all persons indebted to the deceased's estate are requested to pay the same to Ellis and Vreal, Solicitors, Abingdon-Street, Westminster.

THE next of kin of John Farley, late of the Parish of Renn, in the County of Stafford, Farmer, deceased, if any, not farther removed than brothers or sisters, or descendants of brothers or sisters of the whole or half blood, are requested to apply to Messrs. Chrees and Thompson, Solicitors, Wolverhampton, where they will learn something to their advantage.

October 31, 1817.
THE Trustees of the estate and effects of John Shapley Tucker, late of Swansea, in the County of Glamorgan, Ship-Builder, deceased, intend to meet on Tuesday the 16th day of December next, at Eleven o'clock in the Forenoon, at the Office of Messrs. Berrington and Jenkins, Solicitors, High-Street, Swansea, to make a dividend of the said estate and effects, vested in them under or by virtue of a certain Deed or Indenture, bearing date on or about the 24th day of June 1816.—The Creditors who have not proved their debts are then, or in the mean time, to prove the same, and execute the Deed of Trust, otherwise they will be excluded the benefit of the said Dividend.

BERRINGTON and JENKINS.

Leicester, November 10, 1817.
Whereas William Lewis, of the Crow Mills, in the Parish of Great Wigston, in the County of Leicester, Miller, hath conveyed and transferred all his real and personal estate and effects to Trustees, for the equal benefit of themselves and all such of his Creditors as shall execute the deed of assignment on or before the 30th instant. Notice is hereby given, that the deed is left for signature at the Office of Mr. Burnaby, Solicitor, Leicester. Such Creditors as shall neglect to sign the same by the time before-mentioned, will be excluded all benefit arising from the said estate and effects.

TO be sold, to the best purchaser or purchasers, before the major part of the Commissioners under a Commission of Bankrupt issued against George Wood and Thomas Wood, of the Parish of Oldswinford, in the County of Worcester, Spade and Shovel-Makers, Dealers and Chapmen and Copartners (trading under the names or firm of Thomas Wood and Sons), pursuant to an order of the Right Honourable the Vice Chancellor of England, on Friday the 5th day of December next, at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Talbot Inn, in Stourbridge, in the said County of Worcester, subject to such conditions as will be then produced, and in one or more lots, as shall be agreed on at the time of sale;

All the Bankrupts estate, right, and interest, of, in, and to all those four dwelling-houses or tenements, with the warehouses, smithy shops, stables, outbuildings, and gardens thereto belonging, situate and being at the Lye, in the Parish of Oldswinford aforesaid, now in the possession of Mr. George Wood the younger, and other tenants; also of and in two pieces of land adjoining the above premises, one of which contains 1 A. 2 R. 24 P. and the other 3 R. 35 P.

N. B. These premises are well situated for the spade and shovel trades, or other iron manufactory.

Mr. George Wood, jun. will shew the premises, and for further particulars apply to Mr. Robins, Solicitor, in Stourbridge.

A capital and well accustomed Inn, and valuable Arable Land adjoining.

TO be sold by auction, before the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued and now in prosecution against Eliab Sieger, of Corsley, in the County of Wilts, Victualler, Dealer and Chapman, at the Angel Inn, in Warminster, in the County of Wilts, on Tuesday the 2d day of December next, between the hours of One and Three of the Clock in the Afternoon;

All that valuable and well accustomed Inn, called the Duke of Cumberland, with the malthouse, brewhouse, cellars, out-houses, and garden thereto adjoining and belonging, together also with two closes of arable land, near thereto, containing by estimation, nine acres, more or less.

The above Inn is well situated for business, at Corsley-Heath, in the County of Wilts, and immediately adjoins the turnpike-road leading from the market-town of Warminster to Frome, and lately occupied by Eliab Sieger, the Bankrupt.

This property is held under lease from the Marquess of Bath, for a term of years, determinable on lives.

For further particulars apply to Mr. William Carrier, or Mr. Joseph Singer, the Assignees, or to Mr. Barton, the Solicitor, all of Warminster.

ANTIGUA.—IN CHANCERY.

FUrsuant to decretal Order of the Honourable the Court of Chancery for this Island of Antigua, made on the 30th day of July in the present year of our Lord 1817, in a cause wherein John Harris, Esq. is complainant, and the Trustees and Executors of the last will and testament of the late Honourable Rowland Burton, of this Island, deceased, are defendants; all persons claiming to be of kindred and affinity to the said Rowland Burton, deceased, but in no degree beyond that of a second cousin, and in immediate paternal descent from his grandfather, who was called Colonel John Burton, the father of the testator's late father, Mr. Thomas Burton, are hereby required to come in and cause such their relationship to be duly established by legal proof before me, at my Office, in the Town of Saint John, in the said Island Antigua, within two years from the date of said Order, on failure whereof they will be deprived of all benefit and advantage to be derived from and under the last will and testament of the said Rowland Burton, deceased.

J. WM. MOLLOY, Master Extraordinary in Chancery.

WHEREAS by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Stanley against Heycock, it was ordered, that the Master to whom the said Cause stood referred should inquire and state to the Court, whether Thomas Bee, Ann Sharman, and Jane Cooke, in the Master's Report named, are living or dead, and if dead, who is or are their personal representative or representatives; and whereas the said Thomas Bee, Ann Sharman, and Jane Cooke, are named as legatees in the last will and testament of Robert Green the elder, late of Medburn, in the County of Leicester, Gent. (who died in the month of March 1791), and are described in such will to be the nephew and nieces of the said Robert Green.—The said Thomas Bee, Ann Sharman, and Jane Cooke, if living, or, if dead, their respective representatives, are on or before the 24th day of December, 1817, to come in and make out their claim, and prove their representation, before William Courtenay, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Order.

PUrsuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Anderson against Anderson, the Creditors of Robert Anderson, late of Braywick Lodge, in the County of Berks, Esq. deceased, (who died on or about the 20th day of August 1810), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before James Stephen, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PUrsuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in the Cause Jenkins against Agutter, the Creditors of Charles White, late a Major in the service of the Hon. East India Company (who sailed from England in the year 1806, on board the ship Skelton Castle, for the East Indies, and is supposed to have been lost on his passage), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before Charles Thompson, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PUrsuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause of Buckle against Middleton, the Creditors of Martha Middleton, late of Whithy, in the County of York, Spinster (who died in the year 1812), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before John Springett Harvey, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PUrsuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 7th day of May 1817, made in a Cause wherein Martin Fligg and others are plaintiffs, and Magmaduke Hart and John Fligg are defendants, the Creditors of Joseph Kavanagh, late of Saint John's, Newfoundland, Hair-Dresser (who died in the month of May 1808), are, on or before the 16th day of December 1817, to come in and prove their debts before Samuel Compton Cox, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PUrsuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Byrne against Langmore, the Creditors of James Byrne, late Paymaster of His Majesty's seventeenth Regiment of Dragoons, deceased (who died at Monte Video, in South America, in or about the year 1807), are to come in and prove their debts before James Stephen, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on or before the 20th day of December 1817, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Martin and another against Anderson, the Legatees (if any remaining unpaid) of Henry Lyne Martin, formerly of Angel-Court, Throgmorton-Street, in the City of London, but late of Litchfield-Street, in the Parish of Saint Anne, Westminster, Gent. deceased (who died in or about the month of May 1799, are by their Solicitors, to come in and claim their legacies before William Alexander, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on or before the 6th day of December 1817, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Ridding against Collier, the Creditors of Edward Collier, late of Wellington, in the County of Salop, Brazier and Timman, deceased, (who died in or about the month of February 1815), are forthwith by their Solicitors to come in and prove their debts before William Alexander, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause of Small against Lucas, the Creditors of Alexander Small the elder, late of Clifton-Hall, in the County of Buckingham, Esq.
