SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1817.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES,
 REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the
 Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS the Parliament stands prorogued to Tuesday the sixteenth day of December next, We, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued on the said sixteenth day of December to Tuesday the twenty-seventh day of January next;
 and We have given order to the Lord High Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Great Britain, to prepare a Commission for proroguing the same accordingly. And We do further hereby, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice aforesaid, publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall, on the twenty-seventh day of January next, be held and sit for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said twenty-seventh day of January next.

Given at the Court at Brighton, the twenty-seventh day of November, one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, in the fifty-eighth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES,
 REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the
 Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

Prohibiting His Majesty's Natural-born Subjects from serving or enlisting or entering themselves to serve in the Military Forces or Ships of War, raised or set forth by the Persons exercising or assuming to exercise the Powers of Government in certain Provinces and parts of Provinces in Spanish America, or in the Military Forces of His Catholic Majesty employed in Spanish America, or in His said Majesty's Ships of War.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS there unhappily subsists a state of warfare between His Catholic Majesty and divers Provinces or parts of Provinces in Spanish America: and whereas it has been represented to Us, that many of Our subjects have, without Our leave or license enlisted, or entered themselves to serve in the military forces or ships of war raised or set forth or intended to be raised or set forth by the persons, exercising or assuming to exercise the powers of Government in such Provinces or parts of Provinces, and that divers others of Our subjects are about in like manner to enter and enlist themselves: and whereas such practices are highly prejudicial to and tend to endanger the peace and welfare of Our Crown and Dominions, we do therefore hereby, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, strictly charge and command all and every of our natural-born subjects, of what degree or quality soever, not to serve in any such military forces or ships of war as aforesaid, and not to enlist or enter themselves to serve therein, and not to go beyond the Seas, or embark, in order to serve, or with intent to enter, or enlist themselves to serve in such military forces or ships of war: and it is at the same time Our Royal will and pleasure, and We do, by and with the advice aforesaid, hereby also strictly charge and command all and every of Our said subjects not to serve, or enlist, or enter themselves to serve in any of the military forces or ships of war raised or set forth, or to be raised or set forth, by His Catholic Majesty, and not to go beyond the Seas, or embark, in order, or to the intent to serve, or enter, or enlist themselves to serve in such military forces or ships of war; it is nevertheless Our Royal will and pleasure, that nothing herein contained, shall be deemed or taken to prohibit any of Our subjects, who are engaged at the time of the date of this Our Proclamation, in serving in the military forces of His Catholic Majesty, with Our leave or licence, from continuing to serve therein, provided that such Our said subjects do not serve with the military forces of His Catholic Majesty, when employed in Spanish America: and We do hereby, by and with the advice aforesaid, strictly require all Our said subjects duly to conform to Our commands herein contained, under pain of Our highest displeasure, and the utmost forfeitures, penalties, and punishments, to which by law they will otherwise be liable.

Given at Our Court at Brighton, the twenty-seventh day of November, one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, in the fifty-eighth year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 10th October 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the thirty-first of May last, for prohibiting the exportation of gunpowder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of November next; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth, therefore, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of November next), presume to transport any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt-petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

Most Gracious Prince,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Common Council of the City of Glasgow, humbly beg leave to approach the Throne with sentiments of the most profound grief, and most respectful condolence, under the heavy affliction with which it has pleased the Supreme Disposer of Events to visit your Royal House and the British Nation.

Although religion forbids us to repine at the mysterious dispensations of Providence, we can never cease, in common with our fellow subjects throughout the empire, to deplore with heartfelt sorrow the premature and peculiarly melancholy death of that amiable personage, whose ingenuous nature, whose early virtues, and whose princely accomplishments, not only endeared her to the affections of all who approached her, but commanded the admiration of the wise and good, rendered her the hope and pride of the nation, and afforded such a rich promise of happiness to generations yet unborn.

We humbly trust, that the deep affliction of your Royal Highness, and of the excellent and highly esteemed Consort of our departed Princess, may receive some alleviation from the tender sympathy and affectionate attachment of a loyal people.

And we earnestly pray Almighty God in His mercy to vouchsafe to your Royal Highness, and to the other Members of your august Family, that consolation from above which He alone can bestow.

Signed and sealed with the common seal of the City of Glasgow, by me Lord Provost and Chief Magistrate of Glasgow, in name and by appointment of the Magistrates and Council thereof, at Glasgow, the 20th day of November 1817.

James Black, Provost.

[Transmitted by the Lord Provost, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

Unto His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and its dependencies.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Magistrates, Burgesses, Guild-brethren, Trades, Householders, and Inhabitants of the Royal Burgh of Montrose, County of Forfar, at Head Court, in Common Hall assembled, most humbly presume to approach your Royal Highness with our deep and heartfelt condolence, on the melancholy and afflicting dispensation, that has deprived your Royal Highness of a beloved Daughter, the prop and stay of your increasing years, her afflicted Husband of a matchless and affectionate wife, and the Nation of the delightful prospect it contemplated in the future Heir of the Crown—the darling hope of the whole British people.

Language is inadequate to express the deep feeling of grief and sorrow, that has pervaded all ranks of our community on the mournful occasion.

May Almighty God in his ineffable goodness send consolation to your Royal Highness and all the afflicted relatives of the beloved Princess, and provide for the succession and maintenance of the British Crown in your Illustrious Family, that the Royal House of Brunswick may sway the British Sceptre over a loyal, free, and happy people to latest posterity.

Signed in name of and as being authorized by the Head Court of Burgh, and the common seal thereof, hereto affixed, the 20th day of November 1817.

Chas. Barclay, Preses.

[Transmitted by C. Barclay, Esq. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Members of the Pitt Club, held at Blackburn, in the County Palatine of Lancaster.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WITH sentiments of the deepest emotion, the Members of the Blackburn Pitt Club presume to approach your Royal Highness, and to offer their sincere and heartfelt condolence on the late awful dispensation of Providence, which has at once deprived your Royal Highness of an affectionate Daughter, and the Nation of a beloved Princess, in whom, as the future Sovereign of these Dominions, the public hope and expectation were fondly centered.

Though the Members of this society compose but a very inconsiderable proportion of His Majesty's subjects, they yet venture to hope that they shall not be deemed intrusive or presumptuous in thus expressing to your Royal Highness their sincere participation in the general feelings of affliction, which this most melancholy and calamitous event has excited in every the remotest part of the United Kingdom, and in all classes of His Majesty's subjects.

But whilst we thus deplore the occasion of our present Address, we repine not, nor murmur at the afflictions with which it hath pleased the Almighty at this time to visit our Royal Protectors and our Nation; we rather console ourselves with the hope that the cheerless gloom which at present surrounds us, may ere long, by the bounty of the same Almighty Power, be dispelled, and that the Crown of this Kingdom may, to the remotest period, be worn by the descendants of its present most revered and illustrious possessor, under whose mild and beneficent reign His subjects have enjoyed so ample a portion of happiness, and under whose counsels the country has been raised to a pitch of glory and prosperity unexampled in all past ages.

We would also add our most fervent prayer, that your Royal Highness may be enabled to support yourself under the present heavy calamity, and that you may in peace, happiness, and prosperity, be long spared to the hopes and wishes of the nation, of which, under the Divine blessing, you are destined to be the future Sovereign.

Signed on behalf of the Members of the Club, assembled on the 19th day of November 1817.

Will. Carr, Chairman.

[Transmitted by Mr. Dewhurst, Hon. Sec. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Augustus Frederick, Prince of Wales, REGENT of this United Kingdom.

May it please your Royal Highness,

EVER ready to convey our loyal sentiments to the Throne, when its glory and the happiness of the country called forth our gratulations, we, the inhabitants of the town and neighbourhood of Dudley, influenced, we trust, by that Christian feeling which equally moves the ingenuous mind, that rejoices with those in joy, to weep with them that weep, presume most affectionately to approach your Royal Highness, with the tenderest expressions of condolence, for the loss of a Princess, whose private character and public virtues endeared her to every heart: a loss, under which, as it is deeply deplored by the whole nation, we hope your Royal Highness will graciously be consoled by permitting us in common with our fellow subjects, to share its weight with your Royal Highness, as we mournfully participate in its affliction.

This, we are aware, can best be done by uniformly evincing the dutiful regard we entertain for our beloved and virtuous Sovereign, your Royal Highness's venerable Father, together with every branch of His Majesty's illustrious House; and by imploring, as we cordially do, on them, and on your Royal Highness, the blessings and consolations of Heaven.

Signed, by desire of the Meeting,

Luke Booker, Chairman.

Town-Hall, Dudley, November 20, 1817.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, the Inhabitants of the Borough of Tewkesbury, the loyal and dutiful subjects of your aged and much afflicted father, the best and most respected of Kings, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of the most unfeigned sympathy and condolence on the loss which this country has sustained by the very melancholy death of your revered, greatly lamented, and beloved daughter, Her late Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta, Consort of His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

Deeply impressed as we all are with feelings of the most poignant sorrow and regret, for the state of affliction in which your Royal Highness and your Royal Relatives have been placed, yet we are revived by the persuasion, that religion will supply you with those spiritual comforts and consolations, that patient resignation, that Christian fortitude, which alone can support and strengthen the mind under this most severe and afflicting dispensation of Divine Providence.

Under this calamitous and distressing event, we may be permitted to express to your Royal Highness our fond and consoling hope, that a Protestant successor, of the very noble and illustrious House of Hanover, may ever wield the Sceptre of this great and mighty empire, and continue the unvaried guardian and ever-watchful protector of its religion, liberty, and laws.

Signed, at the unanimous request of the Inhabitants, Thos. Vernon, High Bailiff.

[Transmitted by J. E. Dowdeswell, Esq. and John Martin, Esq. Members for the Borough, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom.

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Magistrates, Gentry, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Birmingham, approach your Royal Highness with our heartfelt expressions of condolence, on the sudden and calamitous decease of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte.

Humbly submitting to the mysterious dispensations of an allwise Providence, we cannot but deeply sympathize with your Royal Highness, on being deprived of a Daughter so justly beloved; nor can we less deplore, on our own account, the loss of a Princess, to whom we had looked up with delight as the pride of your illustrious House, and the future hope of our country.

Trusting that the unalterable attachment of a loyal people will prove a source of consolation to your Royal Highness, under so severe a trial, we fervently pray, that the Almighty Disposer of Events may long preserve the life of your Royal Highness, and that our latest posterity may enjoy the blessings of our excellent Constitution, under the paternal Government of the House of Brunswick.

In the name and on the behalf of the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Birmingham, Wm. Cotterill, High Bailiff.

[Transmitted by Sir C. Mordaunt, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To his Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, his Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Corporation of the Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh, deeply sensible of the irreparable loss sustained by the death of her late Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta, humbly approach the Throne to express those sentiments of affliction and distress with which that calamitous event has overwhelmed ourselves and every class of the British people.

Deeply sensible of the blessings which we have enjoyed under the paternal rule of the House of Brunswick, we had proudly contemplated the progress of those virtues which so conspicuously adorned her Royal Highness; and in the fulfilment of every duty incumbent on her high station, we fondly anticipated for our children, in the lineal descent of the Crown, a continuance of that happiness which we ourselves have ever experienced under the government of our beloved Sovereign and of your Royal Highness.

But it has been the pleasure of Almighty God, that those hopes of his Majesty's people should be crushed in the dust, and that universal sorrow should overshadow the land.

Deep, notwithstanding, as the sorrows are, in which so heavy a disappointment has plunged the minds of an affectionate people, yet are they most anxiously alive to the sufferings, which by the loss of a Daughter so deservedly dear, have been thus unfortunately brought upon your Royal Highness.

We most unfeignedly sympathize in those feelings, and most sincerely offer to your Royal Highness the humble assurance of our heartfelt and dutiful condolence; and we venture to express our most earnest hope that Almighty God will extend to your Royal Highness his merciful and all-powerful support under this severe infliction of his inscrutable providence.

By order of the Royal College,
James Bryce, Preses.

[Transmitted by the Right Hon. W. Dundas, and presented by Lord Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT,
Most Gracious Prince,

WE, his Majesty's most affectionate and loyal subjects the Convener, Trades, Bailies, Deacons of the fourteen Incorporated Trades, and other ordinary and extraordinary members of the Trades House of the City of Glasgow, beg leave to approach the Throne, with sentiments of profound respect, and most tender sympathy.

Whilst we bow with deep submission to the Sovereign will of the Supreme Ruler of the Universe, we mingle our tears with those of our fellow subjects, deeply lamenting the afflicting bereavement of a much beloved Princess, whose amiable character, endearing excellencies, and manifold private as well as public virtues, graced her exalted station and promised to ensure, under the blessing of Heaven, the continuance and increase of that prosperity, independence, and happiness, with which these realms have been so long and so highly favoured.

Participating in the exquisite feelings of your Royal Highness, and of his Serene Highness the much esteemed Consort of our departed Princess, on this melancholy occasion, we beg leave to express our condolence in all that is dutiful and soothing to the heart in the season of sorrow.

May the God of all Consolation, who alone can support under the deepest sorrow, comfort in the condescensions of his kindness your Royal Highness, and the other members of your illustrious family, and may life so valuable be long spared, and under the dispensations of a wise and ever gracious Providence, improving in all that is morally and spiritually excellent, be cheered with the prospect of that Crown and Kingdom, which shall never perish nor decay.

Signed in name, presence and by the appointment of the House, in their Hall assembled at Glasgow, this 22d day of November, 1817.

John Graham, Convener.

[Transmitted by the Convener of the Trades House of the City of Glasgow, and presented by Lord Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the inhabitants of the Towns of Manchester and Salford, beg leave to approach Your Royal Highness with the respectful homage of our unfeigned sorrow and condolence under that awful affliction which presses so heavily upon your Royal Highness and your Illustrious House, and has diffused throughout every part of the British empire one solemn feeling of universal grief.

Unwilling to intrude upon the sacred privacy of domestic sorrows, we are yet anxious to manifest by this dutiful expression of our condolence, how feelingly we sympathise in your Royal Highness's individual sufferings, and how deeply we deplore the great and irreparable calamity which we have all sustained, in being thus suddenly bereaved of that amiable Princess, who was so justly deserving of a nation's love; whom we saw with pride so richly endowed with every virtue and accomplishment which could adorn a Throne, or exhibit a pattern of domestic excellence; and from whom we fondly hoped that the sceptre of these realms would have been transmitted with still increasing lustre, in uninterrupted succession to the latest posterity.

But deeply as we must ever mourn the afflictive disappointment of our brightest hopes, it would ill become us, at such a moment as this, to aggravate the poignancy of your Royal Highness's sorrows, by our unavailing lamentation; it were more reasonable to suggest the solid grounds of consolation which your Royal Highness cannot fail to find in the contemplation of those exalted virtues, and that exemplary innocence of life, which so eminently marked the character of our lamented Princess; and which, we doubt not, are recorded there, where alone virtue and innocence receive their just reward; and we are sure that your Royal Highness will ever derive a soothing and unmingled satisfaction, from the consciousness of that mild and affectionate tenderness which was upon every occasion so happily blended with the discharge of your parental duties.

And whilst we thus unfeignedly sympathise in your Royal Highness's sorrows, we cannot but express our sincere condolence with that Illustrious Mourner, whose agonising regret for the loss of his beloved Consort, can only be equalled by that faithful attachment which marked the short but exemplary period of their union, and by that affectionate solicitude which he so amiably evinced during the season of her protracted suffering. From the generous attention of your Royal Highness we are persuaded that he will experience every consolation which the tenderest sympathy can impart; and long as the memory of our beloved Princess shall be cherished in our land, the virtues of this Illustrious Stranger, the distinguished object of her choice—will ever be fondly associated with her's, and will secure to him a permanent asylum in the hearts of a generous and grateful people.

But afflictions thus severe, as they come not without the permission of an allwise though inscrutable Providence, so neither can they be effectually alleviated without recourse to those pure and holy fountains which religion has supplied for the comfort of them that mourn. A pious submission to the Divine appointments, and a firm trust and reliance in the unfailing mercies of God, will ever be our truest wisdom, as they unquestionably constitute our bounden duty.

Under these solemn impressions we close this Address, with our fervent prayers to Almighty God for your Royal Highness's health and felicity, and with the assurance of our faithful and unalienable attachment to the Person and Family of our revered Monarch, and to those fundamental principles, of our matchless Constitution, which have so closely cemented the interests of Great Britain with those of the Illustrious House of Brunswick.

[Transmitted by the Boroughreeve, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, his Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, the Chancellor, and Arch-Deacon of the Cathedral Church of Chester, and the Clergy of the City, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with the expression of our sincerest condolence on the much-lamented death of her late Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta.

Most firmly attached to your Royal Highness's person and Government, we participate with the liveliest interest in every circumstance which can in any degree affect your Royal Highness's comfort and happiness. Proportionate therefore to the greatness of your loss, have been our feelings of sorrow on the event. We however devoutly trust, that the same good Providence which has permitted this calamity to befall your Royal Highness and the nation, will support and console you under this trial and affliction.

We have witnessed with heart-felt satisfaction one universal sentiment of loyalty pervading all descriptions of persons throughout the empire; and it has been our wish and endeavour to give to this feeling its proper direction and effect—to teach the people to fear God and honour the King.

Sincerely praying that your Royal Highness may long be continued to a loyal nation, we are your Royal Highness's most dutiful and devoted servants.

[Transmitted by the Bishop of Chester, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and affectionate subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Assistants of the Borough of Leeds, in Common Council assembled, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with our Address of condolence on the afflictive event in your Royal Highness's family, which has plunged your august House and the whole nation into the deepest sorrow.

The princely qualities, the constitutional principles, and the social and domestic virtues for which your Royal Daughter was conspicuous, endeared her to our hearts, and caused us to hail her as the future parent of the people, which we fondly hoped (after many years) she was destined to govern.

May an All-wise and Gracious Providence soothe your Royal Highness's parental affliction, chasten the anguish of the widowed Consort, soften the distress of the Royal Relatives, and lighten the heaviness of a sorrowing people.

May the same good Providence bless and keep our beloved Sovereign, long preserve your Royal Highness's invaluable life, and perpetuate to our posterity the blessings of the paternal government of the House of Brunswick.

Given under the common seal of the said Borough, this 24th day of November, in the 58th year of His Majesty's reign.

[Transmitted by James Nicholson, Esq. Town Clerk, and presented by Lord Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George, Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most loyal and faithful subjects, the inhabitants of the town and neighbourhood of Stockport, in the County Palatine of Chester, approach your Royal Highness at this mournful and distressing period with feelings of the most affectionate attachment and regard for your Royal Highness's person and family, but of the most sincere and heartfelt sorrow, to offer to your Royal Highness our unfeigned condolence upon the most afflicting and calamitous event which has lately happened to your Royal Highness, the Royal Family, and the kingdom in general, in the death of your beloved Daughter and only child, Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte of Wales, the virtuous ornament of her rank, the just pride of her family, and till now the cheering hope of the nation; an event which has plunged all classes of His Majesty's subjects in almost insupportable grief.

Born and educated amongst us, a Briton in heart and action, and possessing all those virtues which add lustre to rank and honour to the highest station, we had fondly cherished the hope that Her Royal Highness was destined one day to sway the sceptre of these kingdoms, and to transmit it to her descendants to the latest posterity, and thereby continue to us that protection to our laws, and those liberties, both civil and religious, which we have so long enjoyed under your Royal and venerable Father's government; the executive functions of which have been so happily and beneficially for this nation exercised by your Royal Highness since the commencement of his most unhappy malady, which we most deeply deplore still continues to afflict him; this hope, alas, is however, frustrated, and that Providence whose will it was that she should thus early be cut off from the prospect of succeeding to earthly dominion, has called her, we firmly trust, to be the immediate inheritor of an heavenly kingdom.

We venture to hope that your Royal Highness will find some comfort and solace under your heavy affliction in the unaffected sympathy of all classes of His Majesty's subjects, but above all, in the offices of that holy religion of which your beloved and illustrious Daughter was so distinguished an ornament and so sincere a professor; and who evinced the sincerity of her belief in its doctrines by the practice of its precepts, and her unshaken dependence on its Author, by piously exclaiming almost with her latest breath, even in the agony of death, "His will be done."

We exceedingly lament the indisposition of your Royal Mother, our most gracious Queen, and earnestly pray that her health may be speedily re-established, to the great comfort of her family and joy of the nation.

We humbly assure your Royal Highness of our sincere sympathy for the heart-rending situation of his Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Cobourg, the now widowed consort of our lamented Princess, and of our gratitude for that unbounded kindness and that affectionate attention and tenderness which, during the short but happy period they were permitted to live together on earth, he manifested towards her, and by which he has endeared himself to the whole of the British nation.

We take this opportunity most dutifully to declare to your Royal Highness our firm attachment to, and veneration for the laws and constitution of these kingdoms, and for His sacred Majesty's person, family and government, and our resolute determination to support and protect them against all their enemies, whether open or secret. We hope this lamentable occurrence will not obstruct your Royal Highness's designs for the public good; and we fervently pray that your Royal Highness may enjoy a long life of happiness, peace, and prosperity, and that His Majesty's Family may long continue to reign over us.

On behalf of the Inhabitants of Stockport and the neighbourhood, in pursuance of the unanimous resolutions of a very numerous and respectable meeting, held on the 17th day of November 1817.

Samuel Jowett, Mayor, Chairman.

Unto His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The loyal, dutiful, and affectionate Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Ayr.

WE His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Ayr, met in Presbytery at Ayr this day, beg leave to approach the throne to express our unfeigned sorrow on account of the very afflicting dispensation with which it has pleased the Almighty to visit our nation, in the death of your Royal Highness's only daughter, the Princess Charlotte Augusta of Wales, and in the loss of the Royal Infant.

Firmly attached to those principles which placed your illustrious House upon the throne of these realms, and deeply impressed with the solicitude which it has always manifested to maintain our invaluable privileges both sacred and civil, we deplore in this awful event the death of a Princess whom Divine Providence had blessed with a heart to value these privileges, and with talents to defend them; and who by her private and domestic virtues, gave the promise of adorning that sceptre which we trusted she was one day destined to wield.

And while we feel this event as a national calamity, we deeply sympathise with your Royal Highness as a parent, in being thus suddenly deprived of a child so amiable and accomplished, and to whom it is natural to suppose your Royal Highness looked forward as the ornament and solace of your age.

That the God of all Grace, the Father of Mercies, may on this occasion fill the heart of your Royal Highness with sentiments of reverence for the Divine Government, and of dutiful resignation to the Divine Will; that he may sanctify this national affliction, and by prolonging your valuable life, and the lives of the other members of the Royal Family, may afford us the comfortable prospect of continuing to enjoy the distinguished blessings with which we have been so long favoured under the sway of your illustrious House, are the earnest prayers of,

May it please your Royal Highness, His Majesty's most loyal, most dutiful, and affectionate subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Ayr, met in Presbytery at Ayr this Nineteenth day of November, 1817.

Signed in our name, in our presence, and at our appointment by Lewis Balfour, Moderator.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Eglinton, and presented by Lord Viscount Sidmouth.]

To his Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

IN dejection and sorrow, we the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers and principal inhabitants of the town and parish of Halifax, venture dutifully to address you on the infinite calamity with which Providence has been pleased to visit your Royal Highness and this prostrate nation, by the death of your beloved daughter the Princess Charlotte Augusta.

Fearing to intrude upon the melancholy indulgence of hallowed grief, we are loyally and feelingly anxious to assure your Royal Highness of our most sincere condolence.

We come not, Sir, to offer consolation; tears and lamentations are the true signs of this day.

We have, alas! to mourn the relentless eclipse of the fairest and the brightest constellation in our national firmament: we have to mourn the best and fondest hopes of the British empire dashed to the earth and gone for ever.

It becomes us not, Sir, to harrow up your soul by vain attempts to utter our unutterable woe: may this then our most fervent prayer be heard! May the Merciful and Almighty God vouchsafe to sooth and to support your Royal Highness and the widowed husband of the sainted dead! May he vouchsafe to heal (for he alone can heal) the grievous wound which his Divine Will has sanctioned: and, amidst this wreck of human excellence and glory, may he deign to take under his special keeping and protection our venerable Sovereign and revered Queen, their illustrious descendants, and their afflicted people.

Halifax, November 22d, 1817.

Henry Wm. Coultihurst, DD. Chairman.

[Transmitted by Thomas Horton, Esq. and presented by Lord Viscount Sidmouth.]

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg; which Addresses His Serene Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

From the Inhabitants of the Town of Dudley and its Neighbourhood, to His Serene Highness Leopold, Prince of Saxe Cobourg.

May it please your Serene Highness,

HUMBLED, as we are, by the event which has so affectingly proclaimed to us the uncertainty of human happiness, an event which has overwhelmed us with the deepest sorrow, and left a mournful vacancy in a nation's hopes, it is not without some degree of reluctance that we venture to break in upon your grief, and yet, we trust, we may be permitted to assure you, that in these hours of gloom, when we feel so much the need of comfort for ourselves, your Serene Highness is intimately present to our thoughts.

Though to your Serene Highness the great charm of life is gone, you have the melancholy satisfaction to know that the whole British people tenderly sympathise in your distress; and that the virtues by which your character is adorned, and especially your domestic worth and kindness, have endeared you to them as a brother, and left an imperishable record in their hearts.

It is our fervent prayer, that your Serene Highness may largely partake in the blessedness which belongs to them that mourn—that the spirit which cometh from on high, may pour the sweetest consolations into your bosom—that while you cannot but dwell with a sadly-pleasing remembrance on the past, you may lift up your head, and be cheered by the prospect of a world, where all the kind affections of social love will be restored, and where nothing can invade our peace or interrupt our joy.

Signed, by desire of the Meeting,

Luke Booker, Chairman.

Town-Hall, Dudley, November 22, 1817.

To which Address His Serene Highness was pleased to return the following Answer:

“ To Luke Booker, Esq. Town-Hall, Dudley, Worcestershire.

“ SIR,

“ I HAVE this day had the honour of presenting to the Prince Leopold, the Address of the inhabitants of the town and neighbourhood of Dudley, on the afflicting occurrence so deeply deplored throughout this country.

“ The Prince Leopold commands me to request you will convey to and assure the inhabitants of the town of Dudley and its neighbourhood, of His sense of their grief, and their participation in His own and in the country's sorrow.

“ Though suffering under an affliction that admits of no relief, the Prince Leopold is still most sensible of their warm and affectionate interest in His welfare: His Serene Highness commands me to express on this occasion, His warmest and most unfeigned thanks for condolence so sincere and heartfelt.

“ I have the honour, &c.

Robert Gardiner.

“ Claremont, November 26, 1817.”

To His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Coburg.

The respectful and affectionate Address of the County of Wigton.

May it please your Serene Highness,

WE, the Freeholders, Landholders, and Magistrates of the County of Wigton, have assembled together in the anxious wish to mitigate, if possible, the sorrow which your Serene Highness must sustain, by assuring your Serene Highness that we deeply partake it: we had beheld with heartfelt approbation and pleasure, the amiable sentiments and good principles which produced the union between our beloved Princess and your Serene Highness, but we fear to aggravate your Highness's affliction by dwelling upon the affecting loss you have sustained; we must therefore be content again to assure your Serene Highness, that as we shared the joy of your marriage, so we do now, with augmented esteem for your Serene Highness's character, more deeply share your grief; and we offer to your Serene Highness, that tribute of lasting attachment and regard which is due to your own exalted merits, and to your Serene Highness's late alliance with a Princess so dear to the British people.

Signed in name, in presence, and by appointment of the meeting, held at Wigton the 13th day of November 1817. John Hathorn, Preses.

To which Address His Serene Highness was pleased to return the following Answer:

“ To John Hathorn, Esq. Wigton, Cumberland.

“ SIR,

“ I HAVE this day had the honour of presenting to the Prince Leopold, the Address of the Freeholders, the Landholders, and the Magistrates of the County of Wigton, on the late deplored events at Claremont; the Prince Leopold commands me to request you will convey to the Freeholders, the Landholders, and Magistrates of the County of Wigton, his warmest acknowledgments for so sincere a participation in his distress, and express His assurances, that in this dispensation of general and irremediable sorrow, their sincere and affectionate condolence has afforded him a high and lasting source of consolation.

“ I have the honour, &c.

Robert Gardiner.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the Evening of Tuesday the 18th instant, a rick of barley belonging to Mr. John Duncalfe of Houghton Grange, in the Parish of Lilleshall, in the County of Salop, was wilfully set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them, (except the person or persons who actually set fire to the said rick), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And as a further encouragement, a reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as is before excepted), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders or any of them to conviction, or cause them or any of them so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid; such reward to be paid by the Most Noble the Marquess of Stafford, or by the Secretary of the Lilleshall Company.

THE Commissioners appointed by Act of Parliament for the trust and payment of monies recovered from the property sequestrated in Sweeden, hereby give notice to the several persons, who have not yet come forward to receive the dividends due upon their respective certificates, that the same may be received by applying any Friday, between the hours of twelve and two o'clock, at the Counting-House of Messrs. John Atkins and Son, Walbrook.

For the information of the parties interested, lists of the unclaimed dividends are left at No. 7, Walbrook, and in the Reading-Room of Lloyd's Coffee-House.

By order of the Commissioners,

John Atkins, Chairman,

Walbrook, November 3, 1817.

THOMAS NETTLESHIPP, Clerk of the Grocers' Company.

Navy Pay-Office, London,
November 24, 1817.

Notice is hereby given, that, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Act of Parliament, fifty-fourth of His present Majesty, I do hereby revoke the licence granted to

Mr. Isaac Myers, of 57, Broad-Quay, Bristol, on the 7th March 1817, to act as an agent in the receipt of pay, wages, prize and bounty-money, for and in respect of the service of petty officers, seamen, and others in any of His Majesty's ships; which licence is withdrawn by me, on the ground of his not having duly accounted for prize-money he had received for Mr. John Readin, late Boatswain of His Majesty's ship Curaçoa.

GEORGE ROSE.

Exchequer Bill Office, November 28, 1817.

TO BE PAID OFF,

All Exchequer Bills dated in the Months of December 1816, and January 1817.

THE Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having given directions for paying off the principal of the above-mentioned Exchequer Bills, with the interest due thereon, at the Exchequer Bill Office in the Receipt of Exchequer, New Palace-Yard, Westminster, on Wednesday the 17th day of December 1817, attendance will be given daily (Sundays and holidays excepted) until, and including, Thursday the 11th of December, from ten o'clock in the morning till one in the afternoon, for the purpose of receiving the same. And, for the greater dispatch, the bearers of the said bills are desired to place each description of bills in separate lists (which are to be obtained at this Office), classing them in the order of their respective dates, such as are for the same amount being numerically arranged, and specifying the principal sums and interest due thereon, computed from, but excluding the days on which they are respectively dated, to the said 17th of December inclusive, when the interest will cease; and the said bearers, should they be acting as the agents of holders whose names are inserted in the bills, are previously to procure the endorsements of such holders; and the bearers are also indispensably required to indorse each bill with their usual signatures, and to write their names and residence at the bottom of each separate list; and they are moreover required to attend the Exchequer Bill Office for payment, and to receive the new bills, and give the receipts for the same.

If any of the holders of the aforesaid bills should be desirous of receiving payment of the principal and interest, previous to the said 17th day of December, they may be accommodated on computing the interest to the day on which they wish to be paid, and leaving the said bills for examination one day prior thereto.

Such persons as may be desirous of having new Exchequer Bills in whole or in part of payment of principal, upon marking new bills, and mentioning the amount at the bottom of their lists, delivered on or before Thursday the 11th of December, may be accommodated with new bills, payable to or order, carrying an interest of two pence by the day, on every one hundred pounds, which said new bills will bear date the said 17th day of December, and will be delivered, together with the interest due in respect of the bills so desired to be exchanged, on Thursday the 18th day of December, and the following days.

The Exchequer Bills to be issued in exchange and made payable to or order, as abovementioned, may be either transferred by endorsement, or will be paid to the bearer if the blank shall not be filled up.

N. B. All Exchequer Bills dated prior to December 1816, have been advertised to be paid off, and the interest thereon has ceased.

Navy-Office, November 21, 1817.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Monday the 8th of December next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, Commissioner Sir Robert Barlow will be ready, at his Office in His Majesty's Dock-Yard at Chatham, to receive tenders from such persons as may be willing to hire for a certain sum, from the 25th December 1817 to the 29th of September 1818, .

Notice to the Creditors of Oliver Gourlay, Farmer, Grazier, and Cattle-Dealer, residing at Craigrothie.

Edinburgh, November 21, 1817

THE Trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said Oliver Gourlay, hereby intimates, in terms of the Statute, that his accounts have been audited by the Commissioners; and that the same, with a particular state of the trust-funds, and whole affairs of the Bankrupt, will lie open, for the inspection of all concerned, at the Writing-Chambers of James Thomson, senior, Writer, Cupar-Fife, till the 2d. of January next, being the first lawful day after the expiration of twelve months from the date of the sequestration; but from the situation of the trust-matters no dividend can then be made to the personal Creditors. As, however, the Trustee will have funds in his hands sufficient to make a considerable division previous to the period assigned by the Statute for paying the second dividend, he hereby requests a general meeting of the Creditors, to be held within the Tontine Inn, Cupar-Fife, upon the said 2d day of January next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, for the purpose of authorizing him to make application to the Court of Session to get the period for making that division accelerated.

Notice to the Creditors of John Hepburn, of Wellsly, in the Parish of Avondale, Horse-Dealer.

Edinburgh, November 22, 1817.

THAT upon an application to the Court of Session, at the instance of a Creditor of the said John Hepburn, to the extent required by law, in which the Bankrupt ultimately concurred, the Lords, of this date, sequestrated the whole estate and effects of the said John Hepburn; and appointed his Creditors to meet within Mrs. Tennent's Inn, in Strat-haven, on Thursday the 4th day of December next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, for the purpose of choosing an Interim Factor; and to meet again, at the same place and hour, on Thursday the 18th day of December next, for the purpose of choosing a Trustee.—Of all which intimation is hereby made.
