

Navy Pay-Office, London,
November 24, 1817.

Notice is hereby given, that, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Act of Parliament, fifty-fourth of His present Majesty, I do hereby revoke the licence granted to

Mr. Isaac Myers, of 57, Broad-Quay, Bristol, on the 7th March 1817, to act as an agent in the receipt of pay, wages, prize and bounty-money, for and in respect of the service of petty officers, seamen, and others in any of His Majesty's ships; which licence is withdrawn by me, on the ground of his not having duly accounted for prize-money he had received for Mr. John Readin, late Boatswain of His Majesty's ship Curacoa.

GEORGE ROSE.

Exchequer Bill Office, November 28, 1817.

TO BE PAID OFF,

All Exchequer Bills dated in the Months of December 1816, and January 1817.

THE Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having given directions for paying off the principal of the above-mentioned Exchequer Bills, with the interest due thereon, at the Exchequer Bill Office in the Receipt of Exchequer, New Palace-Yard, Westminster, on Wednesday the 17th day of December 1817, attendance will be given daily (Sundays and holidays excepted) until, and including, Thursday the 11th of December, from ten o'clock in the morning till one in the afternoon, for the purpose of receiving the same. And, for the greater dispatch, the bearers of the said bills are desired to place each description of bills in separate lists (which are to be obtained at this Office), classing them in the order of their respective dates, such as are for the same amount being numerically arranged, and specifying the principal sums and interest due thereon, computed from, but excluding the days on which they are respectively dated, to the said 17th of December inclusive, when the interest will cease; and the said bearers, should they be acting as the agents of holders whose names are inserted in the bills, are previously to procure the endorsements of such holders; and the bearers are also indispensably required to indorse each bill with their usual signatures, and to write their names and residence at the bottom of each separate list; and they are moreover required to attend the Exchequer Bill Office for payment, and to receive the new bills, and give the receipts for the same.

If any of the holders of the aforesaid bills should be desirous of receiving payment of the principal and interest, previous to the said 17th day of December, they may be accommodated on computing the interest to the day on which they wish to be paid, and leaving the said bills for examination one day prior thereto.

Such persons as may be desirous of having new Exchequer Bills in whole or in part of payment of principal, upon marking new bills, and mentioning the amount at the bottom of their lists, delivered on or before Thursday the 11th of December, may be accommodated with new bills, payable to or order, carrying an interest of two pence by the day, on every one hundred pounds, which said new bills will bear date the said 17th day of December, and will be delivered, together with the interest due in respect of the bills so desired to be exchanged, on Thursday the 18th day of December, and the following days.

The Exchequer Bills to be issued in exchange and made payable to or order, as above-mentioned, may be either transferred by endorsement, or will be paid to the bearer if the blank shall not be filled up.

N. B. All Exchequer Bills dated prior to December 1816, have been advertised to be paid off, and the interest thereon has ceased.
