From Sunday June 19. to Thursday June 22. 1682.

Stockholme, May 30.

The last week Monsieur Mayer Envoy Extraordinary from Denmark, had his first Audiance of the King; and acquainted his Majesty, That his Master had lately made an Alliance with the French King and the Elector of Brandenburg; Whereupon we are told, the King of Sweden immediately replied, That the Alliance he had made with the Emperor and the States General of the United-Provinces, was for the maintaining the Treaties of Westphalia and Nimuegen, and that he doubted not, but they should keep it. Our Fleet is ready to put to Sea, but will not, unless there be occasion for it. Some days since a Fire happened at Noon-day at Stremholme, a Town belonging to the Queen-Mother, and burnt so violently, that in few hours it consumed above a hundred and forty Houses, with the Church, &c.

Florence, June 6. A Vessel arrived yesterday at Leghorne in 21 days from Madagay in the Archipelago, brings Advice, That Monsieur du Quesne had left those Seas, and was gone home: And by a French Vessel who came in 14 days from Massina, we have an account, That 3 English Frigats with 4 Merchants Ships under their Convoy were arrived there from Zant. The French work very hard upon the new Fortifications they are making at Cazeh.

Vienna, June 14. From Hungary we have Advice, That the Turks have a Body of 10000 Men between Buda and Gran, and that they design to make Count Teckeley Prince of Transylvania; upon which it's said the Emperor has resolved to send several Regiments towards the Frontiers of Hungary, to be ready to join with the Forces that are already there, if they be need of it. Two days since parted from hence two Commissaries, with a considerable Sum of Money, to provide Bread and other Necessaries for the Imperial Troops that are now marching towards the Rhine. We are assured that the King of Spain is to give the Emperor 150 thousand Crowns a month towards the maintaining the extraordinary Forces his Imperial Majesty has now on foot.

Francfort, June 18. The Imperial Ambassadors here made two days since a very great and splendid Entertainment on occasion of the Birth of the Imperial Prince, to which the French Ambassadors and all the other Publick Ministers were invited (but the French did not go) and all the great Gentry and the Town were thrice discharged.

Stralsburg, June 19. We have at present a Garrison here of between 10 and 11000 Men, and we are expecting the Troops of the Kings Household from Lorraine: The French Officers report, that they shall very suddenly have a great Army together, and that it will pass the Rhine.

Cologne, June 23. The French Troops are drawing towards the Rhine, and some give out they will pass that River at Brisac: They have already a very strong Garrison at Friburg, and with the Addition of a few Troops more, they will be able to form a Camp in the Neighbourhood thereof. Our Magistrates have finally resolved to receive the Troops of the Circle of Westphalia, which they once made a stand about, because most of the said Troops are the Elector of Brandenburgs, who is lookt upon to be in the French Interests.

Hamburg, June 23. The 13th Instant the Elector of Brandenburg arrived at Itzehoe, where the King of Denmark expected him: His Electoral Highness stay'd there several days, during which time nothing was omitted that might render the Entertainment of his Electoral Highness, and the Persons that accompanied him, suitable to so illustrious a meeting: When they eat together, the King and Queen sat at the upper end of the Table, on their right hand the Elector, Prince Louis, Prince Philip, &c. and on the left the Electores, the Electoral Princess, and other Ladies of great Quality. On the 18th the Elector parted again from Itzehoe, and lay that night at Pinnenberg, and the 19th in the Evening arrived here, being received by the Burghers in Arms, and saluted with a discharge of all the Cannon about the Town. That night his Electoral Highness was entertained at Supper by our Magistrates, and the next day at Dinner by the Duke of Holstein Gottorp. Sunday in the Evening his Electoral Highness was entertained with an Opera, and the next day his Electoral Highness parted again from hence on his return for Berlin. From Gluckstadt we have Advice, That the King of Denmark intended to Embark there, as this day for Oldenburg, where he would make a very short stay, and then return for Copenhagen.

Brussels, June 23. The Prince of Orange is daily expected in Flanders to visit the Dutch Garrisons upon that Frontier, and the Marquis de Granain tends to part from hence in few days to visit Aeth Mons, and the rest of the Garrisons on that side. From Lille we have an account, That the Marshal d'Humieres was returned thither, and that he had given out Orders for the providing 100 Wagons, but for what Service was not known. The Letters add, that they are raising of Horse in those parts, and that the French intend to have a great encampment of Foot between Luxemburg and Trier. We shall now quickly see what will be the issue of Monsieur Prada and Van Affender's Affairs, Reports having been made to his Excellency of their Expectations.

Hague, June 27. The 27th Instant the Prince of Orange parted from hence for Flanders to visit the Garrisons of this State, and on Monday next his Highness will be here again: We have an account that several Danish and Brandenburg Frigats are cruising upon our Coasts, and there are those that apprehend they have a design upon our East-India Ships.

Ships which are expected home. The States General have ordered the several Admiralties to send Deputies hither to adjust the matter of the Convoys.

Whitehall, June 20. The following Address was presented to His Majesty on Saturday last at Hampson-Court by Captain Alford, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Barb; His Majesty received it very Graciously, and was pleas'd to Command Captain Alford to return his Thanks to the Town of Lime for this their Loyal Address.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty.

Most Dread Sovereign,

WE your Majesties most Obedient and Loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Magistrates, Freemen, and other the Inhabitants within your Majesties Town and Burrough of Lyme Regis, in the County of Dorset, whose Names are Subscribed, do in all humility of Heart and true Thankfulness, acknowledge the many great Benefits we enjoy under your Majesties most Gracious Government, in Church and State: Having read that Project of Association, lately produced at the Old Bully, as the Proceeding against the Earl of Shaftsbury, we do with great Horror detest the same, it being a thing so wickedly Contrived, Methodized, and prepared to be Carried on with the joynt and particular forces of that Association, which obligeth the Subscribers thereof, to pursue unto Destruction all such as should upon any Title whatsoever oppose the ends thereof; which appears so Vile, Barbarous, and Inhumane, that the evil Consequences thereof, are not to be Conceiv'd, or by words Express'd. Wherefore we, your Majesties most Loyal Subjects, as in Gratitude and Duty bound, by all Obligations, Sacred and Civil, and as by our late Address, made to your most Excellent Majesty, we have already solemnly Engaged, (finding to the joy of our Hearts, such your Majesties most Gracious Acceptance) do hereby joyntly and severally, faithfully Promise and Vow, with our Lives and Fortunes, to Protect and Defend your Majesties Sacred Person, your Heirs and Lawful Successors, and the True Protestant Religion, as by Law Established, against the Confederacies and Associations of all, or any your Majesties Enemies, under whatsoever Opinion, Perswasion, Colour, or Pretence they Associate, contrary to your Majesties Royal Authority. And we do further unfeign'dly declare our utter Detestation and Abhorrence of that, and all other such bold, Impious and Rebellionous Associations, and Combinations whatsoever: And that whensoever your Majesty, in your great Wisdom, shall be pleas'd to Call a Parliament, we whose Names are here Subscribed, will not Vote for any Person who shall appear as Candidate for this Burrough, but such as shall first give us good Testimony and Assurance of their utter Detestation and Abhorrence of that most Treasonable form of Association. We heartily pray that God, who hath hitherto Deliver'd your Majesty from all your Enemies, both of Church and State, will still Preserve, and grant your Majesty a long Life and prosperous Reign. Subscribed and Affixed hereto the Seal of this Corporation of Lyme, the 20th Day of May, in the Thirty Fourth Year of your Majesties Reign, Anno Dom. 1682.

Falmouth, June 15. The Ships in this Port, bound for the West-Indies and other parts, put to Sea yesterday, the Wind at N. W.

Bristol, June 17. The Ship Unicorn of Bristol, burthen 300 Tuns, Thomas Cooper Commander, bound for Pennsylvania and New-Jersey, is now ready to take in Goods and Passengers, and to Sail the next month.

If any be desirous to take Freight or Passage on the said Vessel, they may write to, or agree with Mr. Thomas Goldney and Mr. John Dudlestone in High-street, or with the said Commander, who will use them very kindly.

Deat. June 19. The 15th Instant the Dutch Merchant Ships with their Convoy, who had lain in the Downs 7 or 8 days, put to Sea, being bound for the Streights; and at the same time Sailed about 15 English Merchant-men.

Windsor, June 19. This Evening the Count de Tbun, Envoy Extraordinary from the Emperor, had an Audience of His Majesty upon the Birth of the Emperors Second Son, and presented to His Majesty the Emperors Letters notifying the same.

London, June 20. Nathaniel Thompson, William Paine, and John Favewell, having by Warrant of the Council-board been committed Prisoners to Newgate, For Writing, Printing, and Publishing Infamous and Seditious Libels, by way of Letters to Mr. Prance, and other Persons, defaming the Publick Justice of the Nation in the Proceedings against the Murderers of Sir Edmund-berry Godfrey; And Mr. Attorney General having been ordered in Council to prosecute them for the same; This Afternoon a Trial was had at the Guildhall upon an Information exhibited against them; of which, after a full Examination of the Witnesses on both sides, the said Thompson, Paine, and Favewell were found Guilty.
