TUESDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1817.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS the Parliament stands prorogued to Tuesday the sixteenth day of December next, We, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued on the said sixteenth day of December to Tuesday the twenty-seventh day of January next; and We have given order to the Lord High Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Great Britain, to prepare a Commission for proroguing the same accordingly. And We do further hereby, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice aforesaid, publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall, on the twenty-seventh day of January next, be held and sit for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said twenty-seventh day of January next.

Given at the Court at Brighton, the twenty-seventh day of November, one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, in the fifty-eighth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION,

Prohibiting His Majesty's Natural-born Subjects from

... serving or enlisting or entering themselves to serve in the Military Forces or Ships of War, raised or set forth by the Persons exercising or assuming to exercise the Powers of Government in certain Provinces and parts of Provinces in Spanish America, or in the Military Forces of His Catholic Majesty employed in Spanish America, or in His said Majesty's Ships of War.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS there unhappily subsists a state of warfare between His Catholic Majesty and divers Provinces or parts of Provinces in Spanish America: and whereas it has been represented to Us, that many of Our subjects have, without Our leave or license enlisted, or entered themselves to serve in the military forces or ships of war raised or set forth or intended to be raised or set forth by the persons, exercising or assuming to exercise the powers of Government in such Provinces or parts of Provinces, and that divers others of Our subjects are about in like manner to enter and enlist themselves: and whereas such practices are highly prejudicial to and tend to endanger the peace and welfare of Our Crown and Dominions, we do therefore hereby, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, strictly charge and command all and every of our natural-born subjects, of what degree or quality soever, not to serve in any such military forces or ships of war as aforesaid, and not to enlist or enter themselves to serve therein, and not to go beyond the Seas, or embark, in order to serve, or with intent to enter, or enlist themselves to serve in such military forces or ships of war: and it is at the same time Our Royal will and pleasure, and We do, by and with the advice aforesaid, hereby also strictly charge and command all and every of Our said subjects not to serve, or enlist, or enter themselves to serve in any of the military forces or ships of war raised or set forth, or to be raised or set forth, by His Catholic Majesty, and not to go beyond the Seas, or embark, in order, or to the intent to serve, or enter, or enlist themselves to serve in such military forces or ships of war; it is nevertheless Our Royal will and pleasure, that nothing herein contained, shall be deemed or taken, to prohibit any of Our subjects, who are engaged at the time of the date of this Our Proclamation, in serving in the military forces of His Catholic Majesty, with Our leave or licence, from continuing to serve therein, provided that such Our said subjects do not serve with the military forces of His Catholic Majesty, when employed in Spanish America: and We do hereby, by and with the advice aforesaid, strictly require all Our said subjects duly to conform to Our commands herein contained, under pain of Our highest displeasure, and the utmost forfeitures, penalties, and punishments, to which by law they will otherwise be liable.

Given at Our Court at Brighton, the twenty-seventh day of November, one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, in the fifty-eighth year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES-REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS We have thought fit to order that certain pieces of gold money should be coined, which should be called "half sovereigns or ten shilling pieces," each of which should be of the value of ten shillings, and that each piece should be of the weight of two pennyweights thirteen grains  $\frac{6,370}{10,000}$  troy weight of standard gold, according to the weights approved of and confirmed by Us in Council, in pursuance of an Act made in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for regulating and ascertaining the weights to be made use of in weighing the gold and silver coin of this kingdom;" and We have further thought fit to order that every such piece of gold money, so ordered to be coined as aforesaid, shall have for the obverse impression the head of His Majesty, with the inscription "Georgius III. Dei Gratia:" and the date of the year; and for the reverse the ensigns armorial of the United Kingdom, contained in a shield, with the inscription "Britanniarum Rex. Fid. Def.:" with a newly invented graining on the edge of the piece: and whereas pieces of gold money of the above description have been coined at His Majesty's Mint, and will be coined there, in pursuance of Orders which We have given for that purpose: We have therefore, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, thought fit to issue this Proclamation; and We do hereby, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, ordain, declare, and command, that the said pieces of gold money so coined, and to be coined as aforesaid, shall be current and lawful money of the kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; and shall be called "half sovereigns or ten shilling pieces," and shall pass and be received as current and lawful money of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; and every of such pieces, not weighing less than two penny weights, thirteen grains and one-quarter, shall pass and be received as of the value of ten shillings of lawful money of Great Britain and Ireland in all payments whatsoever.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the tenth day of October one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, in the fifty-seventh year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

At the Court at Carlton-House, the 10th October 1817.

PRESENT.

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the thirty-first of May last, for prohibiting the exportation of gunpowder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of November next; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth, therefore, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of November next), presume to transport any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt-petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval “ stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arsus, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:”

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 13th of August 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 155, it is enacted, that it shall not be lawful for any private person or persons to import any goods, wares, or merchandise, from any port or place within the limits of the East India Company's charter, except only into such ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland as shall be provided with warehouses, together with wet docks or basins, or such other securities as shall, in the judgment of the Lord High Treasurer, or of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, for the time being, or any three or more of them, in Great Britain and Ireland respectively, be fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon, and shall have been duly declared so to be, by the Order of His Majesty in Council, in Great Britain, or by the Order of the Lord Lieutenant in Council, in Ireland: And whereas the port of Bristol has been deemed by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury in Great Britain to be fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, is thereupon pleased to declare, and it is hereby declared, that the port of Bristol is a port fit and proper for the deposit and safe custody of all such goods, wares, and merchandise, as well as for the collection of all duties payable thereon.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

A 2

Unto His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Burgh and Parochial Schoolmasters of the Presbytery of Dunfermline, Scotland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, your Royal Highness's most obedient and most devoted servants, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness's presence, to express our heartfelt sorrow at the late afflicting dispensation with which Providence has seen meet to visit your Royal Highness.

We are far from imagining that any sympathy of ours can mitigate your Royal Highness's sufferings at the loss of a daughter, every way so deservedly worthy of the warmest affection; yet we hope, that when time shall have soothed the grief which her most lamented death has occasioned, it may afford a melancholy pleasure to your Royal Highness to reflect, that the whole of the mighty nation under your Royal Highness's government, whether high or low, or rich or poor, have participated in it.

That the Great Being, who in His wisdom hath so severely tried your Royal Highness, may grant that these light afflictions, which are but for a moment, may work out for your Royal Highness a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory, is the sincere prayer of your Royal Highness's most obedient and most devoted servants, the Burgh and Parochial Schoolmasters of Dunfermline, Scotland.

Dunfermline, November 24, 1817.

[Transmitted by R. J. Douglas, Esq. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Magistrates, Gentry, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers, Tradesmen, and other Inhabitants of the Township of Stourbridge, the Parish of Oldswinford and its Vicinity, deeply impressed with feelings of sorrow and disappointment at the sudden, momentous and irreparable loss which the Royal House of Brunswick has sustained, by the much lamented death of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte, the fairest blossom of a nation's hope, do most humbly approach your Royal Highness with our heartfelt expressions of condolence on this most painful and trying occasion.

With the most profound submission we bow to the dispensations of Unerring Wisdom, at whose mysterious and alarming visitations fortitude and imbecility sink together, and the sage and the virgin alike mingle their lamentations. Fervently trusting that the unalterable attachment of a loyal people may sooth the pangs of affliction, or at least alleviate their pressure; we desire to express our cordial sympathy in your parental sufferings, and to unite our ardent hopes, that your Royal Highness may be enabled to support with firmness and resignation this unexpected and tremendous calamity.

That the Almighty may be pleased to give to your Royal Highness, and to all your Royal House, comfort and protection in this awful hour, and that the affections of the whole United Kingdom may flow in a steady and settled current towards His most gracious Majesty, and the present established Government of the country, towards your Royal Highness, and every branch of your Royal and illustrious Family, is our most fervent and grateful prayer.

In the name and on the behalf of the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Stourbridge, assembled at the Public Office, this 24th day of November 1817, Thos. Philip Foley, Chairman.

[Transmitted by the Rev. Thos. Philip Foley, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council of the County of the City of Waterford, in Council assembled.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council of the County of the City of Waterford, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, at this most eventful crisis, with sentiments of unfeigned sorrow and respect, and humbly to offer our tribute of condolence on an event which has overwhelmed your Royal Highness with the deepest affliction as a parent, and filled the United Kingdom with anguish and regret.

Could any consolation be derived by your Royal Highness from earthly considerations, for a calamity so great, and a loss so truly irreparable, your Royal Highness must find it in the reflection, that though our beloved Princess, the nation's hope, has left this world for a better, Her remembrance will still live, and her premature fate be always deplored by a loyal and afflicted people.

We humbly pray to the Almighty Disposer of Events, that your Royal Highness may be enabled to bear this heavy shock with becoming resignation, and that He may long continue to us the blessing we enjoy in the tutelary and benignant rule of Your Royal Highness, whom God long preserve.

Saml. Morgan, Mayor; James Hackett and Henry Alcock, Sheriffs.

Waterford, November 20, 1817.

[Transmitted by His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE the Mayor and Commonalty of the city of York, in Common Hall assembled, deeply impressed by that calamitous and awful event which has deprived your Royal Highness of an only and beloved child and the kingdom of a Princess the object of its fondest hope and affection, beg leave to approach you with the assurance of our heartfelt grief.

Short is the time that has elapsed since we addressed your Royal Highness with feelings far different from those we have now to express; at that period we saw your Royal daughter united to a Prince highly deserving of her regard and justly sensible of her excellence. In her virtues we beheld a model for an admiring nation to follow, and to her posterity we looked for the future Sovereign of a loyal, united and happy people. From the moment of this auspicious marriage, to the fatal one of our irreparable loss, every action of the regretted Princess has confirmed our high-raised expectations. In her were combined all those gracious qualities which give lustre to Royalty, and all those virtues and excellencies, which form the value, and the ornament of a private character.

In times of public difficulty and general distress a loss like that we have now experienced is doubly to be deplored: never can we hope again to see a presumptive successor to the Throne, so universally esteemed, so entirely worthy of affection. It is the character of the Governors which gives stability to the Government, and the bright and dawning virtues of this illustrious Princess secured to the Crown its firmest and surest bulwark;—a nation's unalterable love.

Robert Chaloner, Mayor.

[Transmitted by the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor of York, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom.

May it please your Royal Highness,

THE Lord Mayor, Citizens and Inhabitants of the city of York beg to offer to your Royal Highness their sincere sympathy and condolence, under the heavy affliction which your Royal Highness and the nation has sustained in the death of your amiable and excellent daughter the Princess Charlotte Augusta of Wales.

Whether this melancholy subject is contemplated by us in its private character as an occurrence the most afflicting and under circumstances peculiarly calculated to excite the strongest sensations of grief, or whether it presents itself to our minds as a great public calamity, we are equally at a loss to find language adequate to the expression of our feelings, much less to appreciate that severe sorrow under which your Royal Highness now suffers.

The people of this nation hailed the marriage of your Royal daughter as an event giving the fairest promise of happiness to herself, her consort, her august family and the United Kingdom. In her they have seen a model of conjugal and domestic virtue, and they fondly anticipated in her posterity the future governors of these realms.

In the disappointment of these hopes we have to lament, the vain prospects of human happiness, and trust that Almighty God will enable your Royal Highness as well as the afflicted nation to bear it with patience and resignation.

Robert Chaloner, Chairman.

[Transmitted by the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor of York, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To his Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Bailiff, High Steward, Clergy, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Burton upon Trent, in the County of Stafford.

WE his Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects the Bailiff, High Steward, Clergy and principal inhabitants of the Borough of Burton upon Trent, in the County of Stafford, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of the most heartfelt sympathy and condolence on the death of the most amiable and accomplished of Princesses—and at the same time to deplore, in common with every individual of this kingdom, an event, truly calamitous in its consequences to the whole British nation.

Thankful for the happiness that we have enjoyed since the House of Brunswick ascended the throne of this realm; grateful for the blessings of peace, and the growing prosperity of the country; and above all elated with the union of the Princess Charlotte to a Prince so brave and illustrious, we seemed to have attained the summit of national glory and prosperity; but Providence, for wise, though to us inscrutable reasons, has thought proper to frustrate these our fondest hopes and expectations, and to plunge us into the depth of disappointment and sorrow.

If any human consolation can sooth your Royal Highness under this severe domestic as well as public calamity, it must arise from the general sympathy and feeling displayed by the whole kingdom, and the zeal and attachment shewn to the illustrious house and person of your Royal Highness.

May it please the Almighty to protect and prolong the life of your Royal Highness, which, if possible, is become still more endeared to us by the severe loss which this whole nation has so recently sustained.

John D. Fowler, Bailiff; John Lane, High Steward.

[Transmitted by the Marquis of Anglesey, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To his Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and other inhabitants of the ancient and loyal Borough of Carnarvon, most humbly beg leave to offer to your Royal Highness, as well as to Her Majesty and his Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg, the expressions of our sincere sorrow and condolence on the death of your illustrious daughter the Princess Charlotte Augusta.

We cannot contemplate this severe calamity without feeling towards your Royal Highness those sentiments of sympathy which are in an especial manner a just tribute from a grateful people, nor without recurring to the disappointment of national hope.

We had seen, in the illustrious Princess, whose early loss we lament, those virtuous principles under the influence of which the British throne has acquired stability, and splendor—and we had cherished the prospect of their transmission in a direct line of succession from your Royal Highness, with those feelings of confidence resulting from the experience of public prosperity and happiness which this country has enjoyed under the auspicious Government of the Royal House of Brunswick, and especially since it pleased Providence to call your Highness to the exercise of sovereign authority—but the affairs of nations and of men are in the hands of an All-wise Providence, and we submit to the decree in humble confidence that having been sustained in times of great peril and difficulty we shall continue to experience its protection under all circumstances.

Signed at a public meeting at the Guildhall at Carnarvon, on Saturday the 22d day of November, 1817, on the behalf and at the request of the said meeting.

Wm. Roberts, Bailiffs.*

[Transmitted by the Marquis of Anglesey, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Inhabitants of the Borough of Macclesfield, in the County of Chester.

ON former occasions, when we presumed to address your Royal Highness, we were either impelled by the grateful feelings of exultation for the glory of his Majesty's arms, the wisdom of his counsels, or for the restoration of the blessings of peace and security to our land. But we are now assembled in the deepest distress and sorrow, to offer our humble, our heartfelt condolence on the late melancholy event, by which your Royal Highness has been deprived of the society of your beloved Daughter, and the nation of its darling joy, its pride, and its hope.

Under the auspices of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte we had anticipated a reign of unexampled glory. Every heart was devoted to her—every tongue blessed her. From her earliest infancy to the last moment of her existence she was the unceasing theme of our admiration. In her we beheld every public and private quality which exalt human nature, and are persuaded, that so awful a visitation by Providence, on a Princess so distinguished, so beloved, and so idolized by the most favoured nation under Heaven, must be for some important purpose in the womb of time, not yet unfolded to us.

To your Royal Highness we know not how to offer better consolation than by the assurance that we most deeply participate in your afflictions, and that of her Illustrious Consort, his Serene Highness the Prince of Saxe-Cobourg; that we deplore the loss of the Princess Charlotte as a relative dear to ourselves; that no time shall erase the remembrance of her from our memory; that, with the many unparalleled achievements of valour and glory under the Regency of your Royal Highness, it shall be recorded, that on the day your beloved Daughter was entombed in the sepulchre of her ancestors, all England, with one voice, and one consent, humbled itself before the Almighty, to implore that the sword of the destroying Angel might be sheathed—to beseech him to be gracious to our land, and spare the remnant of our Princes. This is, as we feel, but a mournful tribute; but it is a tribute which indicates, beyond all example, the greatness and goodness of our ever-to-be-lamented Princess.

That your Royal Highness may enjoy, under the sufferings with which your heart is oppressed, all the soothing consolation of our holy religion, all the tender sensations which can arise from the remembrance of the transcendent virtues, and affectionate attachment of your Illustrious Daughter, is the most fervent wish and prayer of His Majesty's most loyal and dutiful, but at this time most distressed subjects.

Signed, on behalf of the Inhabitants of the Borough of Macclesfield,

R. Gould, Mayor; Edward Smyth, John Ryle, Joseph Tunnecliff, Justices of the Peace.

[Transmitted by Samuel Stone, Esq. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales' REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, High Steward, Recorder, and Freemen of the ancient Corporation of Kingston-upon-Thames, in the County of Surrey.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and faithful subjects, the Bailiffs, High Steward, Recorder, and Freemen of the very ancient and loyal Corporation of Kingston-upon-Thames, penetrated by the most poignant grief, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, to offer our heartfelt condolence on the late melancholy event.

Whilst the United Kingdom with one accord mourns in the deepest affliction this great calamity, which has deprived us of the beloved object of our admiration and of our future hopes, we beg leave, in the utmost sincerity of affection, to assure your Royal Highness, that we not only participate in the universal sensation of sorrow which pervades all ranks of his Majesty's faithful subjects, but that we also sympathize most heartily in the paternal feelings of anguish by which your Royal Highness is at present overwhelmed; yet, bowing with reverence and submission to the Divine Will, we humbly and most ardently pray that the Almighty, in his infinite mercy, will impart to your Royal Highness comfort and consolation to alleviate the sufferings occasioned by this ever-to-be-lamented loss; and that he will in his bounty to us, prolong to a very remote period the sacred life of your Royal Highness, so justly dear to us, and of so much importance to the welfare and happiness of these realms.

Given under our common seal, in the Guildhall of our said town the 26th day of November, in the 58th year of his Majesty's reign, and in the year of our Lord 1817.

[Transmitted by Thomas Evance, Esq. Recorder; the Earl of Liverpool, High Steward; and Richard Muggeridge, Esq. Bailiff; and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg; which Addresses His Serene Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick Duke of Saxe, Margrave of Meissen, Landgrave of Thuringuen, Prince of Coburg of Saalfeld.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses, of the Ancient Borough of Portsmouth, in the County of Southampton, with feelings of the deepest sorrow, beg permission to approach your Serene Highness, on the present melancholy and distressing event.

Fearful as we are of intruding on your Serene Highness's sacred retirement at the present moment, still we cannot refrain from venturing to express how truly and sincerely we sympathize with your Serene Highness, on this awful visitation of Providence, by which your Serene Highness has been so suddenly and unexpectedly deprived of the best of Wives, and a weeping nation of the most amiable of Princesses.

Although the death of such superior excellence is a calamity of the severest description, we trust it will be some satisfaction to reflect how deeply the whole country mourns the loss of their fairest flower; that her brilliant virtues, and her numerous charities so endeared her to all classes, that they not only respected her as their future Sovereign, but loved her as their dearest child, and we feel assured that praise-worthy attention your Serene Highness and your ever to be lamented Consort, have at all times shewn to the sacred duties of religion, will yield to your Serene Highness in your affliction, that consolation which the world cannot give, and produce that calm resignation which none but the virtuous can ever enjoy.

Given under my hand and seal in Common Hall, this 26th day of November 1817.

To which Address His Serene Highness was pleased to return the following Answer:

“ To James Carter, Esq. Mayor of Portsmouth.

“ SIR,

“ I HAVE this day had the honour of presenting to the Prince Leopold the Address of the Mayor, the Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Ancient Borough of Portsmouth; on the late deplored events at Claremont.

“ The Prince Leopold receives with a deep sense of their attachment and interest in His affliction, the Address of the Mayor, the Aldermen and Burgesses of Portsmouth; and He commands me, in requesting you will express His fullest acknowledgements, to beg you will do justice to all He must feel on such an occasion:

“ The assurance of their sorrow and participation in His distress, will continue to afford the Prince Leopold, under this afflicting dispensation, a source of high and great consolation.

I have the honour, &c.

“ Robert Gardiner.

“ Claremont, November 29, 1817.”

Unto His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Duke of Saxe, Prince of Coburg of Saalfeld, &c. &c.

The condoling Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Ayr, met in Presbytery.

SIR,

The sacred tie by which you were united to the British nation, supported by your personal character, has endeared you to British subjects for ever; and while we sincerely sympathise with all the members of the Royal Family, on the late fatal event, which has, by the unerring will of God, disappointed the eager hopes of the United Kingdom, we particularly offer our respectful condolence with your Serene Highness, on your personal distress in the irreparable loss of your amiable Consort and child.

That He who pours the healing balm into the wounded heart, may, through the mercy of Christ our Saviour, abundantly comfort your Serene Highness, and long preserve, bless, and prosper your illustrious line of Protestant Princes, are;

May it please your Serene Highness, the sincere and ardent prayers of his Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Ayr.

Signed in our name, in our presence, and at our appointment, at Ayr, this 19th day of November 1817, by Lewis Balfour, Moderator.

To which Address His Serene Highness was pleased to return the following Answer:

“ To the Rev. Lewis Balfour, Moderator, Ayr.

“ SIR,

“ I HAVE this day had the honour of presenting to the Prince Leopold the Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Ayr, on the recent calamities at Claremont.

“ The Prince Leopold commands me to request you will convey to the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Ayr, His warmest acknowledgements for their affectionate solicitude in His severe affliction; and to assure them, that their prayers, uniting with the condolence and deep interest with which the country share his distress, have afforded, and will continue to him, a source of real and fervent consolation.

“ I have the honour, &c.

“ Robert Gardiner.

“ Claremont, November 29, 1817.”

To His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Coburg.

We, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitants of the Borough of Tewkesbury, with feelings of the most unfeigned sorrow and regret, beg leave to offer to your Serene Highness our heartfelt sympathy and condolence; for the very great and irreparable loss which your Serene Highness and this nation have sustained, in the lamented death of your most affectionate, amiable, and virtuous Consort, the late Princess Charlotte Augusta; whose mind seemed endowed with every qualification requisite for the maintenance of our religion, laws and constitution, and happily adapted to secure the welfare of the whole British empire.

In offering these our feelings of condolence, in the present most afflicted state of your Serene Highness's mind and health, we earnestly hope, that under the blessing of Divine Providence, your Serene Highness will speedily be restored to the uninterrupted enjoyment of health and tranquillity, and be thereby enabled to sustain the inexpressible calamity which this awful visitation has inflicted on your Serene Highness and the nation.

Signed, at the unanimous request of the Inhabitants, Thomas Vernon, High Bailiff.

To which Address His Serene Highness was pleased to return the following Answer:

“ To Thomas Vernon, Esq. High Bailiff, Tewkesbury.

“ SIR,

“ I have this day had the honour of presenting to the Prince Leopold, the Address of the Inhabitants of the Borough of Tewkesbury, on the late deplored events at Claremont,

“ The Prince Leopold commands me to request you will assure the Inhabitants of the Borough of Tewkesbury, with what a deep sense of their feeling and attachment He receives this Address, and how sensibly He must ever remember their unfeigned and earnest participation in His own, and in the country's sorrow.

“ I have the honour, &c.

“ Robert Gardiner.

“ Claremont, November 29, 1817.”

To His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Duke of Saxe, Margrave of Meissen, Landgrave of Thuringuen, Prince of Cobourg of Saalfeld.

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Magistrates, Gentry, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers, and other inhabitants of the town and neighbourhood of Birmingham, approach your Serene Highness with our sincere expressions of condolence, on the melancholy decease of your Royal Consort the Princess Charlotte.

Lamenting as we do on our own account, the loss of a Princess to whom we had looked up with delight, as the pride of the House of Brunswick, and the future hope of our country; we assure your Serene Highness that we deplore with equal truth the deep affliction in which your Serene Highness has been plunged by this mournful event. We deeply sympathise with the sorrows of a Husband, deprived by this mysterious dispensation, of a Consort so justly, so dearly beloved, and we earnestly hope that the same Almighty Power which has ordained the calamity, will also administer support and comfort under its infliction.

We entreat your Serene Highness to believe, that your affectionate conduct to our beloved and lamented Princess has excited in our minds the liveliest emotions of respect and attachment; and that under all circumstances, and in all situations, your Serene Highness will ever be attended by the affections and the prayers of a grateful people:

In the name and on the behalf of the Inhabitants of the Town and neighbourhood of Birmingham,

Wm. Cotterill, High Bailiff.

To which Address His Serene Highness was pleased to return the following Answer:

“ SIR,

“ I have this day had the honour of presenting to the Prince Leopold the Address of the Magistrates, Gentry, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers, and other inhabitants of the town and neighbourhood of Birmingham, on the recent deplorable events at Claremont.

“ The Prince Leopold in His own sorrows, shares in common with the country, its deep and irreparable loss, and, as its interests, its happiness, and welfare, were ever first in Her thoughts and hope, so He receives in its sympathy and condolence, the only consolation He can now know.

“ I am commanded by the Prince Leopold to request you will convey to the inhabitants of Birmingham and its neighbourhood, His fullest acknowledgements for their earnest, and affectionate participation in His distress.

“ I have the honour, &c.

Whitehall, November 22, 1817.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the Evening of Tuesday the 18th instant, a rick of barley belonging to Mr. John Duncalfe of Houghton Grange, in the Parish of Lilleshall, in the County of Salop, was wilfully set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them, (except the person or persons who actually set fire to the said rick), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And as a further encouragement, a reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as is before excepted), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders or any of them to conviction, or cause them or any of them so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid; such reward to be paid by the Most Noble the Marquess of Stafford, or by the Secretary of the Lilleshall Company.
