TUESDAY, DECEMBER 9, 1817.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most faithful subjects the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Common Council of the Borough of Liverpool, in Special Council Assembled, humbly beg leave to offer to your Royal Highness our unfeigned condolence, upon the melancholy and afflicting loss sustained by the nation, in the death of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta.

As in common with our fellow subjects, we exultingly anticipated that proud day, in which we sought to hail the Royal Princess mother to an illustrious line of Kings, in common with our fellow subjects, we now deplore that calamitous event which has bereaved the country of one of its brightest ornaments and called forth the mournful tribute of genuine universal sorrow.

Forbearing to repine at the decrees of that Almighty being, who in his wisdom has thought fit to visit us with this affliction, and grateful for the many blessings conferred upon us, we submit with resignation to his divine will.

Deprived of that succession which in due time, our fondest hopes had vainly pictured, it is still our earnest prayer that your Royal Highness may be long preserved to sway the sceptre of these realms, and that the Illustrious House of Brunswick for ages yet to come may fill the British throne, and prolong to the British people that solid and substantial happiness, which the exalted virtues of the Royal race have hitherto so eminently contributed to secure.

Given under our common seal this 29th day of November 1187.

[Transmitted by the Right Hon. George Canning, and Lieut.-General Gascoyne, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Gentry, Clergy, Merchants, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Liverpool, beg leave to offer to your Royal Highness our most sincere and heartfelt condolence on the late melancholy event which has overwhelmed the United Kingdom with the deepest sorrow, and deprived your Royal Highness of an only and beloved child.

Under this afflicting dispensation of Providence, we trust that your Royal Highness will derive some consolation from the general sympathy in your Royal Highness's grief, which has been so feelingly expressed by all ranks of His Majesty's subjects; and that you will consider a nation's tears as the most gratifying and affectionate tribute to the memory and the virtues of your late illustrious daughter, Disappointed in your fondest hopes, your Royal Highness will yet have the satisfaction of reflecting, that the life of her whom you so deservedly loved, was a life of innocence, and that the moral qualities with which she was adorned, and the kind dispositions which endeared her to the whole nation, while she remained on earth, have now, we humbly trust, obtained for her a Crown of Glory in the Heavens, that will never fade.

We are anxious upon this occasion to renew to your Royal Highness our strongest assurances of attachment and fidelity to your Royal Highness's person, and your illustrious House, and to express our earnest hope that your Royal Highness may long be spared to a loyal and affectionate people.

Thomas Case, Mayor, Chairman.

[Transmitted by the Right Hon. George Canning, and Lieutenant-General Gascoyne, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT,
 &c. &c. &c.

May it please your Royal Highness,
 WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Commissioners of Supply, Justices of the Peace, Magistrates of Towns, and Heritors of the County of Renfrew, beg leave humbly to approach your Royal Highness, and with feelings of the deepest sorrow, to offer to your Royal Highness our most heartfelt condolence on the melancholy event of the death of your beloved and illustrious daughter, Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta.

While we lay at your Royal Highness's feet this mournful homage of our duty, as faithful subjects, we sympathize as men in the sacred sorrows of nature which rend the heart of a father, and are altogether unable to do justice in words to the feelings of our hearts. The deep and affectionate sorrow with which this event has been felt and mourned by the whole British nation; will, we are persuaded, be the most acceptable tribute to your Royal Highness, and that your heart will fully appreciate the unaffected attachment to yourself and your august family, which it so feelingly demonstrates: that moral empire over the mind which power cannot command, and which can only proceed from the real attachment of the people towards their Sovereign.

The warmest sympathies of our hearts are excited towards the afflicted and illustrious Consort of the lamented Princess, His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg, who has so justly gained the love and admiration of the whole country, and whose high character and conduct upon every occasion have so fully justified the wisdom of your Royal Highness's choice, when you selected him for the exalted situation of your Son-in-law, and committed to him the happiness of a daughter so valued and so beloved.

We earnestly pray that the Heavenly hand which afflicted this wound, may support your Royal Highness under it, and that the acute feelings of your heart for a loss so irreparable may be soothed and comforted, by the contemplation of the piety and virtues of the ever to be lamented Princess, the sweet recollection of her worth and excellence; and the sure and certain hope of the high reward she now enjoys in the regions of pure and perfect felicity.

Signed in our name and by our appointment, at Renfrew the 27th day of November 1817.

Glasgow, Preses.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Glasgow, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, the Nobility, Clergy and Inhabitants of the County of Surrey, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with the expression of our unfeigned condolence, on the mournful dispensation with which it has pleased Divine Providence to afflict your Royal Highness, every branch of the Royal Family and every class of his Majesty's subjects.

The depth of our affliction is proportioned to the expectations which the virtues of your Illustrious Daughter had induced us to form of the blessings which she might hereafter have conferred on these realms.

Whilst we bow to the will of Providence and express in common with the whole empire, our sincere and unfeigned grief on this melancholy occasion, we trust your Royal Highness will derive from these expressions some consolation, as they prove not only the just estimate which the empire has taken of the loss it has sustained, but also the loyalty, affection and attachment which it bears to your Royal Highness's person and to every branch of your Royal Family.

Signed at the request and on behalf of the County of Surrey, by me

Thomas Lett, Jun. Sheriff.

[Transmitted by T. Lett, Esq. Sheriff for the County of Surrey, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Irvine, met in Presbytery, beg leave humbly to approach your Royal Highness, with sentiments of the most sincere condolence, on occasion of the sudden and much lamented death of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte of Wales.

Warmly interested in whatever affects your Royal Highness's personal happiness, we cannot but deplore that stroke of Providence, which has so severely wounded a parent's feelings, involved the Royal Family in deep distress and overwhelmed the nation at large with heartfelt sorrow. Although the hopes we had fondly cherished are now prematurely blasted, and we are left to lament the loss of a Princess, whose distinguished virtues justly endeared her to her august family, and to the British empire, yet we bow with submission to the will of Heaven, and implore the God of all grace and consolation, to sooth the sorrows of your Royal Highness, under the double bereavement of a Princess and her offspring, the lineal descendants of that Illustrious House under which we and our fathers have enjoyed so many blessings.

That the God "who comforteth the cast down" may solace the breast of your Royal Highness under this painful visitation of Providence, and sanctify it to the British empire, is the earnest prayer of, may it please your Royal Highness, your Royal Highness's most loyal and devoted subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Irvine.

Signed in our name and presence, and by appointment of Presbytery of Irvine, this 26th day of November 1817.

Andrew Haldan, Moderator.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Eglinton, and presented by Lord Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Nottingham, solicit permission to approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of heart-felt sorrow, and to present our unanimous expressions of condolence, upon the distressing national calamity recently sustained in the untimely death of her late Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta, daughter of your Royal Highness and Consort of His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg; endeared as your Royal daughter was to the heart of every British subject, by her distinguished intellectual endowments, by her exemplary public and private virtues, and by her illustrious descent from your Royal Highness and from our revered Sovereign.

Deeply deploring this awful dispensation, which has at the same moment deprived the kingdom of its fairest ornament and its future hope, we lament our inability to administer adequate consolation; but trusting in the affection unceasingly manifested by your Royal Highness towards the subjects of these realms, we venture to presume that we may in some measure alleviate your paternal affliction, by professing our earnest solicitude for the re-establishment of your health and tranquillity, our inviolable attachment to your Royal Highness, and our anxious concern for the happiness of your Royal House.

We rely with unshaken confidence upon the Divine Providence, to inspire you with fortitude and resignation under this severe visitation, and to perpetuate in the Royal line of Brunswick, the Sovereignty of the British empire, which, under the auspicious government of our august King, and of your Royal Highness, has attained an unparalleled eminence of glory and prosperity.

We should not, however, satisfy our feelings nor discharge our duty, were we to close this address without stating to your Royal Highness our assurance of the unfeigned sincerity with which, in common with the whole nation, we sympathize in the sufferings of His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg, for the loss of one whose high merits, his congenial mind so well enabled him to appreciate.

In the name and on the behalf of the Meeting,

Thomas Blackburne Hildyard, Sheriff and Chairman.

[Transmitted by W. F. Stevenson, Esq. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Corporation, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Plymouth, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Person, and with sentiments of unalterable attachment to your Royal House, to express our sincere condolence on occasion of the late truly melancholy event at Claremont, which hath deprived your Royal Highness of a most dear and affectionate daughter, and the public of a Princess of excellent endowments and high promise, to whose virtues, as well as to its own painful sense of disappointed hopes, the tears of the nation have borne mournful testimony.

Even to a father's grief, so universal a sympathy may, we trust, have brought consolation, of which however the full measure can only be administered by the pity which sees God in every event, and by the fair presumption, which we entertain, that by the holy influence of the religion which she loved, the amiable object of our sorrows was qualified for His presence.

On behalf of the Mayor, Corporation and Inhabitants,

Thomas Miller, Mayor and Chairman.

[Transmitted by the Mayor, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To his Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, his Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Justices, Bailiffs, and capital Burgesses, and other Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Newcastle-under-Lyne, in the County of Stafford, now assembled, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Highness in this hour of affliction and distress, and to offer to your Royal Highness our sincere and heartfelt sympathy and condolence, on the heavy and affecting loss which your Royal Highness and the nation have sustained, by the death of your Royal Highness's illustrious and ever to be lamented daughter, the late Princess Charlotte Augusta, Consort of His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

Regarding as we have long done, with every sentiment and feeling of fond admiration and respect, the amiable qualities, superior endowments, and endearing virtues of her, whom in common with a whole sorrowing people, we now deplore, and whom with equal pride and delight we so lately beheld, not only enjoying and adorning the early prime of life, attracting by benevolence of heart, gracefulness of manners, and elegance of pursuits, universal affection and applause; diffusing happiness around her, and shedding lustre on that domestic and conjugal felicity of which, with the approved and distinguished object of her choice, she presented at once so interesting a picture, and bright an example, but at the same time, giving the high promise and expectancy of one day filling, with equal honour to herself and benefit to her country, that exalted station to which she seemed destined to be called; we can only now, in deep, however unavailing regret, mourn over departed excellence and vanished hopes, sensible how vain must prove our best endeavours to administer to your Royal Highness consolation or relief under so severe and awful a visitation.

Relying, nevertheless, upon the native fortitude of your Royal Highness's own mind, and satisfied of your Royal Highness's pious resignation to that Almighty Will, which, however to us inscrutable, in wisdom and in mercy orders all things; we willingly cherish the hope that your Royal Highness will be comforted and supported under your present suffering, that time may alleviate the bitterness of sorrow, and eventually restore to your Royal Highness that composure and peace, which, attached as we inviolably and cordially are, to your Royal Highness's illustrious family and person, it will be our fervent and unceasing prayer, that your Royal Highness may regain and long continue to enjoy.

John Nickisson, Mayor.

[Transmitted by James Caldwell, Esq. Recorder, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

Unto His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Marlborough, humbly beg permission to offer to your Royal Highness our most heartfelt condolence on the lamented death of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte; and to express to your Royal Highness the sincerity and warmth of your sympathy for the sufferings of your Royal Highness, and of his Serene Highness the Prince Leopold, and every branch of the Royal Family, upon this most afflicting event.

We have fully participated with our fellow-subjects, in the grief which has been so deeply and universally felt, and in every sentiment of loyalty, interest, and affection, which has been excited by a visitation most severe and unexpected.

We pray that your Royal Highness and your august Family may, from the blessing of Providence, receive every possible consolation.

John Wentworth, Mayor,

On behalf, and at the request of the Burgesses and Inhabitants of Marlborough.

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Flint, assembled, pursuant to public notice from the High Sheriff, in the Town Hall in Mold, in the said County, on Monday, the 1st day of December 1817.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Flint, penetrated with sentiments of the deepest regret, beg leave to offer to your Royal Highness our sincere condolence upon a recent event, as melancholy as sudden, which has, by a most calamitous combination of circumstances, blended private with public misfortune in a signal and almost unparalleled manner, and, shrouding the whole empire with woe, has at once deprived a parent of his child, a husband of his consort, a Throne of its expected succession, and a Nation of its fondest hopes.

Upon an occurrence so rare, and a subject so delicate and distressing, we find it difficult to convey our sentiments in terms suitable to the occasion; yet, while we partake in those feelings which must doubtless rend your Royal Highness's breast at this moment, we cannot stifle their expression; and, although it cannot be supposed that our grief, great and general as it is, can equal the poignancy of a parent's anguish, yet, if sorrow be soothed by sympathy, and the weight of woe diminished by being divided, we trust that your Royal Highness may find some cause for consolation in the consciousness that you do not mourn alone, and that the general pulse of the people beats with corresponding emotion to your own. We should indeed be wanting, as men, in the best attributes of our nature if we did not participate in your afflictions as a parent. We should be wanting in our duty, as Britons, if, on so melancholy and memorable an occasion, we did not avail ourselves of one of our most invaluable privileges, and, while we are thus addressing your Royal Highness in a tone of honest and heartfelt grief, exhibit a spectacle, which Britons may boast, and the world applaud, in the union of a Prince with his people, in the interchange of the most affectionate regards, in the identity of their interests and their feelings.

Confident, as we are, that the exercise of this privilege, the expression of these sentiments, will not be unacceptable to your Royal Highness, yet we can never adequately lament the cause which has called them forth, or cease to regret the loss of that illustrious Personage whom we had fondly hoped (alas! the fallacy of human hopes) was one day destined to fill the Throne of this United Kingdom,—a loss which will be the longer and more deeply felt when we bear in mind the many amiable qualities of the young Princess, so engaging in private life, and the expectation that we so justly entertained of her future public conduct, and, while recollecting with gratitude and delight the assurances which your Royal Highness had yourself given us, that she was educated in the principles of civil and religious liberty, we anticipated from that auspicious declaration the happiest result from her reign, and rejoiced to think that those principles, so justly dear to us, were likely to be cherished by Her, and become transmissive to after generations.

But the bright star which so lately gladdened our horizon is vanished, and a general gloom and grief pervade the empire. Deign then, Sir, to accept this tribute of our hearts, while we claim the privilege, in frank, zealous, but, we trust, respectful language, of communicating our condolence.

Under a visitation so afflicting, so forcibly appealing to your feelings as a Prince and as a man, you will stand in need of, Sir, and we trust you will experience, all the aid which the sympathy of your people, the suggestions of your reason, and the still more assuasive voice of religion can supply. And, if in addition to these, time and employment be, as they are said to be, amongst the surest sedatives of grief, let us hope, Sir, that in the discharge of those high duties, with which you are invested as Ruler of these realms, you may long continue to find exercise for those energies which will enable you to bear calamity with composure, and afford you the noblest opportunity of gratifying the wishes of a people, who, in the attachment they have at all times shewn to your family, and to the principles which placed it on the Throne, have given you the best security for their allegiance, their affection, and their support, as well as the proudest preeminence among Princes, in exhibiting you, as the Representative of the House of Brunswick, the free choice of a free people.

At the request, and on the behalf of the Meeting,
William Rigby, Sheriff.

[Transmitted by Sir Thos. Mostyn, Bart. M. P. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To his Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor and Corporation, Magistrates, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the City of Carlisle and its vicinity, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, in the present season of public affliction, with sentiments of the deepest sorrow, for the death of that most illustrious Princess, the loss of whom we deplore in common with your Royal Highness, as the greatest of national calamities; while, at the same time, we feel with the most sincere and affectionate condolence, that the severe deprivation has fallen with double weight upon your Royal Highness, in the loss of a beloved and only Daughter, not less worthy of a Parent's affection than of a Nation's esteem.

Under the present afflictive dispensation of Providence, we trust, that it will be a source of consolation to the mind of your Royal Highness, to reflect, that the few short years allotted by the Divine Will to the life of the illustrious Princess now no more, have furnished a very bright example of every virtuous and amiable quality, which will long be cherished in the recollection of a dutiful and affectionate people; and that your Royal Highness will be enabled to support your heavy affliction with the same calm submission to the will of Providence which your late illustrious Daughter so piously displayed in her most trying moments.

To these expressions of grief and condolence, we beg leave to add the assurance of our most cordial attachment to the Person and Family of your Royal Highness, and, while we bow with submission to the awful dispensation with which it hath pleased the Sovereign Disposer of all human events to afflict us, we are thankful for the success which has hitherto attended the Councils of your Royal Highness, and for the continuance of the blessings of peace in which they have issued.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Lonsdale, K.G. and presented by Lord Viscount Sidmouth.]

To his Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Justices of Peace for the Liberty of his Majesty's Tower of London, in Session, assembled.

WE, the Justices of Peace for the Liberty of His Majesty's Tower of London, beg leave most humbly to approach your Royal Highness, and most respectfully and most sincerely, humbly to offer our condolence to your Royal Highness; feeling with poignant sorrow, the deep affliction with which your Royal Highness is overwhelmed, by the irreparable loss that you have sustained by the death of your Royal Daughter, our much-lamented Princess Charlotte of Wales, whose virtues held out every hope of happiness, and whose death we consider as a great national calamity.

Under so awful a visitation, we with great humiliation presume to sympathise in the sorrows of your Royal Highness; but firmly relying upon the known fortitude that your Royal Highness possesses, will enable you to bear this sudden and afflictive loss with resignation; we, therefore, most fervently hope, that your Royal Highness may enjoy health and happiness, long to govern a nation deeply impressed with their present calamity, but endeared to your Royal Highness by the strongest ties of duty and affection.

By the Court,
D. Williams, Chairman.

[Transmitted by Daniel Williams, Esq. Chairman of the Session of the Liberty of the Tower of London, and presented by Lord Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, &c. &c.

The humble, loyal, and affectionate Address of Condolence, of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the town and neighbourhood of Huddersfield, at a Meeting held pursuant to public notice.

WE, the inhabitants of the town and neighbourhood of Huddersfield, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, to offer the tribute of our unfeigned grief, at the late awful event, which, while it has bereaved your Royal Highness of a beloved and only Daughter, has cut short the happiness of an illustrious Prince and most affectionate husband, and blighted the fairest hopes of a loyal people.

We cannot view, without feelings of the deepest awe, this afflictive dispensation of Providence, which has consigned to the tomb, in the bloom of youth, one in whom all our attachments centered, and upon whom the future destinies of this mighty empire seemed so mainly to depend. But, we bow with resignation to the decree of His inscrutable wisdom, in whose hands are the issues of life and death, and the balance of empires; beseeching that He, who has heretofore preserved us amidst so many perils, will not leave us comfortless in this dark hour of our affliction.

We feel our grief aggravated by reflecting on the many rare and amiable endowments which so eminently qualified our ever-to-be-lamented Princess for that high situation to which she seemed destined, and which had won for her the love and confidence of the United Empire.

We are consoled under this afflicting bereavement, by the hope that the illustrious Subject of all our griefs, has exchanged the inheritance of an earthly for a heavenly kingdom, and that she is now enjoying an incorruptible and unfading Crown of Glory, and that perfect felicity which no earthly diadem can confer.

Under this awful visitation, which has converted the joy of a whole nation into mourning, we devoutly implore the Almighty Disposer of events, of his infinite mercy, to shower down upon your Royal Highness, and upon the widowed Husband of our lamented Princess, that comfort which the world cannot give.

We pray most fervently that our beloved country may long continue to prosper under the paternal government of your Royal Highness, and that the descendants of your august House may, for generations to come, sway the sceptre of these realms, and perpetuate, in our children's children, those manifold and inestimable blessings which it has been our lot so pre-eminently to enjoy.

Signed by the Chairman, on behalf of the Meeting, this 28th day of November, in the year of our Lord, 1817.

W. W. Stables, Chairman.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Perth.

WE, his Majesty's loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Perth, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, with the most sincere expression of our condolence on the irreparable loss sustained by your Royal Highness and the nation at large, in the death of her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta of Wales, your Royal Highness's Daughter, and Consort of His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe-Cobourg; your Royal Highness may always depend on our deep interest in every thing connected with the happiness of your Illustrious Family, which we consider as identified with the welfare of the nation: and, in the present case, while we approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of sincerest sympathy, on account of the afflictive dispensation with which your Royal Highness's Family has been visited, we beg leave at the same time to express our deep sense of the national loss, and our unfeigned participation in the general feeling of regret so unequivocally expressed by the British empire. While we bow to the mysterious decrees of Heaven, we shall not fail to pray for the happiness of your Royal Highness, both in your domestic and public relations.

That your Royal Highness may long preside over the administration of this country, and that Princes of your Illustrious House may fill the Throne of Britain to the remotest ages, is the earnest wish and prayer of his Majesty's loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Perth.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgesses of the Borough of Devizes, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Prince,

WE His Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Mayor and Burgesses of Devizes, humbly offer to your Royal Highness our respectful and sincere condolence on the recent most afflicting and calamitous event.

Conscious of our inability to offer such consolation as can assuage the acuteness of your Royal Highness's grief, and most solicitous by no expression of ours to aggravate the pain which we cannot allay, we forbear to indulge the ready dictates of our lively recollections, by dwelling on the virtue and unparalleled excellence which once your Royal Highness could claim as a parent's richest blessing, and which we and all His Majesty's subjects were permitted to contemplate with the most fervent sensations of gratitude—with the proudest feelings of national exultation, and with the fairest prospect of future prosperity and glory.

If by this heart-rending calamity, a wound has been inflicted, which neither time nor event can close, still a consolation will be presented to your Royal Highness, in the confidence that the dispensations of a merciful and omniscient God can only be for the best and wisest purposes; and in the pleasing assurance that if such a splendid instance of domestic virtue, of conjugal affection, of filial duty, of patriotic attachment, of religious purity, and of pious resignation, has been but for a period so transient permitted to shine as the glory of the nation, and the most brilliant jewel of the Crown the same bountiful Providence has, through the blessed Saint in Heaven, enabled your Royal Highness to confer upon the present generation, and to bequeath to posterity her illustrious example as the certain guide and animating incentive to virtue:

That your Royal Highness may, in the affectionate sympathy of the Royal Family, and of His Majesty's loyal subjects, acquire an early mitigation of the poignancy of your affliction, and that, under a trial so severe, the Almighty Disposer of all events, may preserve your Royal Highness's health, is our most earnest and unceasing petition.

Given under our Common Seal, in the Council Chamber of the said Borough, the 3d day of December, in the 58th year of His Majesty's reign.

John Tylee, Mayor.

By Order of Council, Salmon.

To George, PRINCE REGENT of Great Britain and Ireland, &c. &c. &c.

SIR,

WE presume to hope, our anxious wish to approach your Royal Highness with our most respectful, most sincere condolence, on the late truly melancholy event, may not be considered an intrusion; we have to offer as our sole incentive, our participation in the acute sensations of regret and mourning, so universally felt in every breast, and deeply impressed on every countenance; if such are our feelings, how shall we estimate those of your Royal Highness, the Father, and of Prince Leopold of Cobourg, the Husband, of that amiable Princess, lost to the world, and on such an occasion! She was the idol of the nation; alive, the object of highest expectation; now alas! of the most melancholy reflections and despondency: but it was the fiat of the Almighty, to which all must submit; and to whom alone, your Royal Highness must look for those only availing consolations you at present stand so much in need of. That your Royal Highness may long enjoy health and happiness, we sincerely pray.

At a very full Meeting of the most respectable Inhabitants of the County of Nairn, at Nairn, the 26th of November 1817.

In presence of, and at the desire of the Meeting, I have the honour to subscribe this in their name, and to assure you, Sir, of our most sincere attachment.

James Brodie, H. M. Lieut. Nairnshire.

[Transmitted by James Brodie, Esq. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth].

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

APPOINTED very lately by the will of Divine Providence and special gracious favour of the Holy See, to govern as Roman Catholic Prelate, the secular and regular Roman Catholic Clergy of the United Dioceses of Waterford and Lismore, permit me your dutiful and loyal subject, in their name and on the behalf of us all, to offer our general unfeigned condolence and sympathetic emotions of regret with those of the United British Empire, at the premature and ever-to-be-lamented death of your illustrious and beloved Daughter the Princess Charlotte Augusta of Wales.

The sorrow, equally genuine as merited, on the score of her exalted public and private virtues, now universally expressed in every visage, are the best testimonies to the character of her, now no more, and one so lately and so dearly beloved; her death is an heavy calamity and will be long deplored by a surviving grateful public. In unison with such sorrowing general feeling, does that of our hearts beat, and which we take the liberty, we hope not presumptuously, of expressing at this early period, to your afflicted Royal Highness, her ever endeared, kind and loving Parent and Sire.

Destined, as we all once fondly fancied her, to be on a future day, in the ordinary course of natural events, to wield the Imperial British Sceptre with clemency and justice to her subjects, we have to deplore, that she was so suddenly nipped by the chilling hand of death in the bud of early bloom and loveliness and beauty. This it is that has inflicted a deep wound on the public mind, and wrings now all hearts with anguish and deep sorrow; but we presume not to arraign the Sovereign Will of God or to murmur at the dispensation of the Great Ruler of the Universe; it is an awful and salutary lesson of instruction unto us, who mourn her death and grieve for her eternal separation from sublunary blissful society. Wailing and weeping, so characteristic of the severity of our great loss, and though commendable under the present afflicting, distressing and heart-rending circumstances of our case, we, however, know, should have their due limit of decorous restraint and just degree of rational moderation. We are all too much interested in the preservation of your precious and valuable life, in order to support the dignity of your august Throne, and uphold the purity of our unrivalled Constitution, not to feel at present the deepest interest and anxiety for your health, and in all humility do indulge the fond hope that your Royal Highness will act the part of a firm, though mourning Parent, moderate the anguish we all undergo, and which must have more than any other, as is too natural, pierced and pained your generous and benevolent heart, and set unto an Empire, now clad in sable weed and sorrowing garb, the laudable example of pious resignation to the will and adorable inscrutable decrees of an eternal Divine Providence.

Under such impressions, and with sentiments of the deepest veneration and attachment to your sacred Person, and fervent wishes for your long life and prosperous Administration and Government of your Empire and grateful people, and with the candid expression and assurance of our ever-unshaken allegiance and firm loyalty to your Illustrious Family, in which we yield to no other portion of your loving and loyal subjects, and with profoundest respect I remain, your Highness's most obedient truly humble servant and dutiful subject,

Robert Walsh, Roman Catholic and Titular Bishop of Waterford and Lismore.

Waterford, November 25, 1817.

[Transmitted by Lord George Beresford, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth].

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

FULLY impressed with a sense of the extent of the domestic calamity, which your Royal Highness has sustained, by the death of a beloved and justly valued Daughter, and joining with our fellow subjects in lamenting the national loss, to which, we have thereby been subjected, We, the Dean and Chapter, of the Cathedral Church of Rochester, beg leave to present our expressions of sincere condolence, on this melancholy event; to assure your Royal Highness, that we feel great solicitude for your future happiness; and that we deeply regret the late painful interruption in it. We are persuaded, that the necessity of an humble resignation to the dispensations of Providence, as the surest source of consolation, under the pressure of grief, will be admitted by your Royal Highness, and by all who now naturally deplore the disappointment in their pleasing hopes and expectations. We have, therefore, only to offer up our prayers, that the hand, which has been pleased to afflict your Royal Highness, may hereafter, be interposed in your favour; that you may long enjoy the blessings of this life; and that the people of this realm may ever be faithful in their attachment to you, rendering that due submission to your Government, which is enjoined by the precepts of our Holy Faith, and which is consonant with every principle of real liberty.

[Transmitted by the Dean of Rochester, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth].

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Merchant's House of the City of Glasgow, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, and to mingle with the general grief on the late awful and melancholy event, which has so deeply agitated the bosoms, and affected the hearts of your Royal Family and the British Empire.

We sympathise with your Royal Highness on the untimely loss of all that is lovely, and amiable, and engaging to a tender parent. We sympathise with His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold in that sorrow which admits of no sublunary cure. We sympathise with the nation at large, on the sudden and eventful stroke which has disappointed the dearest wishes, and blighted the fairest promises, for the peace, the happiness, and the greatness of the country.

If there can be any consolation to your Royal Highness—if there can be any alleviation to the British nation for this irreparable loss, it will be in that universal burst of loyalty and lamentation which has identified your sufferings with our own, and which evinces the stability of the Throne in the hearts of the people: and in the recollection of the virtues which endeared, the graces which adorned, and the accomplishments which ennobled the elevated character of the Princess Charlotte Augusta; and which, now that their splendour is set, must ever continue to shed a benignant though melancholy lustre over an admiring and deploring country.

Signed, in our name and by our appointment, and the seal of the said Incorporation hereto affixed, at Glasgow, the 28th day of November 1817.

Henry Monteith, Dean of Guild.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

The Address of the Mayor, Burgesses and Inhabitants of Christ Church; in the County of Southampton, and the Neighbourhood.

THE deep and sincere grief, occasioned by the awful event, with which it has pleased Divine Providence, in its inscrutable dispensations, to afflict your Royal Highness and this nation, by the death of the Princess Charlotte, have been manifested by all classes of His Majesty's subjects throughout the United Kingdom, in a manner, and to an extent, we believe greatly beyond any example.

These have been so incontestable, as to carry conviction to the mind of your Royal Highness of the general feeling, silently expressed; but we cannot resist, at a time when we have the strongest sense of the public loss, thus to convey to your Royal Highness the liveliest assurance of our deep sorrow for your paternal sufferings, which can be assuaged only by resignation to the Divine Will; in which we earnestly pray your Royal Highness may find a resource.

[Transmitted by the Right Hon. George Rose, M. P. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE the Magistrates, and the other Members of the Town Council of the City of Perth, in Common Council assembled, beg leave to offer our heart-felt expressions of condolence, for the recent and most painful dispensation of Providence, which has bereaved your Royal Highness of an only Child, and the nation of the presumptive heiress of the crown, and a Princess whose virtues had obtained their warmest affections, and had led them to entertain the high hopes of the increase of the happiness and glory of this great empire. Her virtues have already made an indelible impression, and if her precious life had been spared, it is not easy to calculate the blessings it would have afforded to the nation. But the Almighty has taken her from us.

May He, who has thus so heavily afflicted your Royal Highness, and your affectionate subjects, enable us to be resigned to this dispensation, which will be lamented by every Briton to the latest ages; and may the Throne of this great Empire, ever be filled by a descendant of the Royal House of Brunswick, under which it hath risen to its present high rank among the nations.

Signed in name, and by appointment of the Council, and the common seal of the City appended hereto.

Laur. Robertson, Provost.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Parish of Portsea.

WE, His Majesty's loyal and faithful subjects, the Inhabitants of the Parish of Portsea, participating in the general feeling excited by the recent death of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta of Wales, beg leave to express to your Royal Highness, our deep and unfeigned sorrow and regret at this afflicting event; and, while presenting that humble condolence on this melancholy occasion, which the constant and affectionate regard, uniformly displayed by your Royal Highness to the welfare and happiness of a grateful people cannot but call forth; we beg to assure your Royal Highness of our firm and unalterable attachment to your sacred Person, and offer up our sincerest prayers to the Throne of Grace for the alleviation of this and every other calamity, and for the continuance of every blessing to the august and illustrious House of Brunswick.

Signed in the name, and at the request of a numerous and respectable Meeting of the Inhabitants of Portsea, held on the 1st day of December 1817.

James Carter, Mayor and Chairman of the Public Meeting.

[Transmitted by the Mayor, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, the Provost, Magistrates, and Common Council of Paisley, in Council assembled, yielding to our own feelings and the prevailing sentiments of a loyal and, at this moment, sympathising nation, transmit the most sincere and heartfelt tribute of condolence, on occasion of the recent and afflictive bereavement experienced by your Royal Highness. As fathers, we can well commiserate the anguish of heart which the Royal Parent must endure; as subjects, we can appreciate the loss which the nation has sustained.

While, however, we "mourn with those who mourn," we would not "sorrow as those who have no hope." The ways of Providence are inscrutable, and we bow with reverence to the Divine Will; let us indulge the cheering thought that the illustrious dead has been removed to "another and a better world," in enjoyment of a Crown which shall not fade; and by contemplating the virtues of her who is gone, let us be prepared to follow her steps; recollection of these virtues must prove a source of consolation to distressed relatives, and they will, in the records of history, furnish a theme which posterity must admire, and an example which Sovereigns may delight to imitate.

Signed and sealed, in our name and by our authority, this 21st November 1817.

William Carlile, Provost.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Glasgow, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Clackmanan, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with renewed expressions of our sincere and unfeigned attachment to your Royal Highness's Person and Government.

In this hour of national affliction and dismay, we deeply lament, in common with every rank and denomination of His Majesty's subjects, the great and irreparable calamity, which, under the hand of God, has visited these kingdoms, in the lamented death of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta.

This event, as severe as it was unexpected, has sunk deep in the breasts of His Majesty's faithful and loyal subjects, and we should be wanting in those feelings of profound and respectful attachment to your Royal Highness, which it is our pride to acknowledge, if we refrained from conveying, even in this hour of affliction, to your Royal Highness the expression of our sincere and heartfelt condolence upon this most melancholy occasion, and reposing our trust in the Supreme Disposer of all human events, we pray that your Royal Highness may be enabled to support this great public and private affliction, and that your Royal Highness may long feel how close and inseparable is the connection between the feelings of the Sovereign and those of the subject, whether in the hour of national prosperity or of national adversity, of public rejoicing or of public grief.

Signed, in our name and by our authority, at Alloa, this 28th day of November 1817.

Robt. Abercromby, Chairman.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The dutiful Address and Condolence of the Guildry Incorporation of Dundee.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Incorporation of Guild, or Merchants of the ancient Royal Burgh of Dundee, approach your Royal Highness with feelings of sincere and deep sympathy at the event which has bereaved a fond father of his only child, and an admiring nation of its favourite Princess, a pattern to royalty and rank, and not more the object of present affection than of future hope.

The sorrow and regret which the death of this young Princess has universally inspired must be soothing to the parental feelings of your Royal Highness; at the same time that it must unequivocally demonstrate the real attachment of the British people to the Throne and the Constitution; their unshaken loyalty to the House of Brunswick, the Family of their choice; and above all, their high veneration for spotless character and princely virtue.

May your Royal Highness, with the afflicted relatives of the deceased, and the nation which embalms her memory, while it mourns her death, receive the consolations and blessings of that Beneficent Power "who never afflicts willingly, nor grieves the children of men without a cause."

P. A. Whitson, Dean of Guild.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Saint Peter, in Exeter, humbly venture to approach your Royal Highness with the expression of our heartfelt condolence on the loss which has overwhelmed your Royal Highness and your whole people in one common grief; it is painful to us to inflame a bleeding wound even by this remembrance, but it would be more painful to suppress our feelings and affectionate duty.

Many words are not suitable to our great affliction, on this mournful occasion we humbly beg your Royal Highness to be assured of our faithful attachment and loyalty to your Royal Highness's

Person and Government, and of our fervent prayers that both may be long preserved to us.

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Dunfermline, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Dunfermline, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, humbly to express our heartfelt sympathy and sincere condolence, on the recent most calamitous and deplorable dispensation of Divine Providence, who has seen meet to bereave your Royal Highness of an amiable, beloved, and only child, and our country of its fondest hope, at the very crisis when the universal and sanguine expectation of an event of a far different kind was raised to the highest pitch.

When we reflect on the eminently distinguished public and domestic virtues which adorned the character of our beloved and deeply lamented Princess, and which gave the happiest promise of a lengthened continuance of the glory and prosperity of the British Empire, under the paternal sway of your Royal Highness and your descendants; now, alas! so prematurely and unhappily frustrated, we cannot find words to express the profound grief with which we are penetrated. As it is our bounden duty, it is also our fervent prayer to the Almighty disposer of events, that in the midst of this grievous calamity, he will graciously vouchsafe that support and consolation to your Royal Highness, to the deeply afflicted and amiable Consort of our lamented Princess, (whose whole conduct has so justly endeared him to the British nation) and to all the Members of your illustrious House, which he alone can bestow; and that to the Empire at large this awful and heavy bereavement, viewed in all its circumstances, unparalleled in the annals of our country, may, through time, be alleviated, and subserve the purposes of his moral government in the world.

In the spontaneous and unfeigned expressions of grief which pervade every corner of the United Kingdom on this melancholy occasion, your Royal Highness has the satisfaction to perceive a full demonstration of that innate love for our excellent Constitution; of loyalty to His Majesty's government exercised by your Royal Highness, and of sincere affection to your Royal Person and illustrious House, which animates every loyal heart in the wide extent of His Majesty's dominions.

That your Royal Highness, under this most trying affliction, may experience in their fullest effect the consolations of our holy religion, which teach us submission to the Divine will, and elevate our hopes to another and a better world; and that you may long be preserved to sway the sceptre over the British Empire, and to reign in the hearts of the British People, is our sincere prayer and ardent hope.

Signed in name, by appointment, and in presence of the Council, and having the common Seal of the Burgh hereto affixed, by

L. Wilson, Provost.

To his Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland,

WE, The Mayor, Recorder, Bailiffs, Chief Burgesses, and Common Burgesses of the Ancient and Loyal Corporation of Beaumaris, assembled this day in our Town Hall, beg leave to entreat your Royal Highness, Her Majesty the Queen, and the Royal Family, and His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe-Cobourg, to accept our sincere and heartfelt condolences on the late sad and deplorable event, the unexpected death of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte.

We feel, in common with the whole nation, the full extent of this afflicting calamity, and we have only to express our hopes, that the excellent example of virtuous conduct which so eminently distinguished Her late Royal Highness, and Her illustrious Consort, may ever be recorded in the minds of the rising generation.

We beg leave to supplicate your Royal Highness, to accept our assurances of attachment and duty to your Person and Government, and that you will allow us to repeat our feelings of sympathy and sorrow, for the late ever to be deplored calamity to your Royal Highness, as the Father of the late Princess Charlotte, and Prince Regent, for, and on behalf of His Majesty of these Kingdoms. WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Common Council of the Town and Borough of Monmouth, assembled in Common Council, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness to declare our deepest sorrow, and to offer our condolence on the universally lamented death of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte.

Given under our common seal the 24th day of November 1817.

[Transmitted by the Marquess of Worcester, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg; which Addresses His Serene Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Serene Highness Prince Léopold of Saxe Cobourg.

WE, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Worcester, humbly offer to your Serene Highness the condolence of a mourning people, whose feelings have borne earnest and genuine testimony to the value of the object they have lost; but the sorrow which in every varied expression has united the public voice, would most naturally stand checked with the silence of deep and affectionate sympathy before the aggravated loss your Serene Highness has been called upon to sustain. Yet attached to her country by the choice of your illustrious and lamented consort, revered as the sharer and centre of her domestic virtues, and now endeared to it for life by every melancholy recollection of her loss, the tears of England have fallen with additional bitterness for you. We mourn over the talents which might have enriched a throne, the moral worth which would have given them energy and consistency, and the disappointed hopes of futurity. But to your Serene Highness, the storm has reached the sacred asylum of home, has rooted up blossoms of felicity too bright, perhaps, for the terrestrial climate in which our hearts are forbidden wholly to rest; and the voice of outward consolation cannot reach an infliction of Providence like this. A mourning country can only look to the Arm that guided the storm, referring your sufferings, with its own, to that Almighty Providence who can alone weigh the fate of kingdoms in the balance, and bind up the broken heart of domestic sorrow.

Given under our common seal, in the Council-Chamber of the said City, this 21st day of November 1817, William Moore, Esq. Mayor; George Earl of Coventry, Recorder.

To which Address His Serene Highness was pleased to return the following Answer:

“ To William Moore, Esq. Mayor of Worcester.

“ SIR,

“ I HAVE this day had the honour of presenting to the Prince Leopold, the Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Citizens of Worcester, on the late deplored events at Claremont.

“ The Prince Leopold requests you will receive and convey to the Recorder, to the Aldermen, and to the Citizens of the City of Worcester, the assurances of his full sense and feeling of their participation in his suffering.

“ Under so awful and so overwhelming an infliction, the Prince Leopold looks with them to that Supreme Power, who can alone relieve its extensive and afflicting influence; and joins in their fervent prayers, that He will sanctify and alleviate its sorrow to the nation, and avert from us the evils of a dispensation, under which we are neither permitted to scrutinize or to murmur.

“ The Prince Leopold receives with sincere and full confidence, the assurances of attachment and condolence so affectionately manifested in the Address of the City of Worcester.

“ I have the honour to be, &c.

“ Robert Gardiner,

“ Claremont, December 4, 1817.”

To His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

WE, the Nobility, Clergy, Gentry, and Freeholders of the County of Worcester, anxious to testify our sense of the worth which we have lost, beg leave so far to intrude on the sacred privacy of sorrow, as to express to your Serene Highness our sincere effusion of affection and regret to the departed hopes of this nation, and our deepest sympathy with your Serene Highness on your peculiar and unparalleled affliction.

The heartfelt grief of a nation, deploring its own loss with yours, presumes to claim some united feeling in that calamity with which the Almighty, in His inscrutable Providence, has thought fit to visit your Serene Highness, trusting that the deep and earnest condolence of an afflicted country may find access, and afford solace even to the mournful sanctuary of domestic calamity.

The public value and the private worth of our beloved and lamented Princess, now throw a melancholy and affectionate interest upon him, who knew and loved them most, and adopted to us by her choice, and endeared to us by her deplored removal, we humbly implore that Almighty Power, who remembers mercy in His severest dispensations, that He may be graciously pleased to visit the mind of your Serene Highness with peace, tranquillity, and consolation.

With every dutiful sentiment of respect and condolence, we subscribe ourselves your Serene Highness's devoted servants.

Signed, on behalf of the County,

John Taylor, Sheriff.

To which Address His Serene Highness was pleased to return the following Answer:

To John Taylor, Esq. Sheriff of the County of Worcester.

“ SIR,

“ I HAVE this day had the honour of presenting to the Prince Leopold, the Address of the Nobility, Clergy, Gentry, and Freeholders of the County of Worcester, on the recent afflicting events at Claremont.

“ The Prince Leopold requests you will receive and convey to the Nobility, Clergy, Gentry, and Freeholders of the county of Worcester, his assurances, that their sincere and affectionate condolence has not failed to bring him a large share of the consolation he receives, in remembering how deeply, how earnestly, and with what affection and regret, the nation share and sympathise in his severe and irremediable grief.

“ The Prince Leopold requests the county of Worcester will receive, in his acknowledgements, the assurances of his fullest and most consoling confidence in their affectionate and heartfelt condolence.

“ I have the honour, &c.

“ Robert Gardiner,

“ Claremont, December 4, 1817.”

To His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Deputy Lieutenants, Landholders and Justices of the Peace of the County of Kincardine, humbly beg leave to be permitted to address your Serene Highness on the recent afflicting calamity, and to offer the unfeigned expression of our genuine sympathy and condolence, fully aware that it is impossible for us to offer such consolation as can remove the severe grief and overwhelming sorrow which your Serene Highness suffers, we yet beg to assure you that, deeply impressed with every sentiment of regard and respect for your many virtues, we, in common with the whole British empire, most sincerely participate in your affliction.

We pray that God Almighty may enable your Serene Highness to bear with fortitude this severe dispensation, and bless your future life with prosperity and happiness.

Signed in our name and by our appointment, by the Preses of our Meeting, at Stonehaven, the 27th day of November 1817. Arbuthnott.

To which Address His Serene Highness was pleased to return the following Answer:

"To the Lord Viscount Arbuthnott, Stonehaven, Kincardine."

"MY LORD,

"I HAVE this day had the honour of presenting to the Prince Leopold, the Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Deputy Lieutenants, Landholders and Justices of the Peace, of the County of Kincardine, on the late deplored events at Claremont.

"The Prince Leopold requests your Lordship will receive, and convey to the Noblemen, the Gentlemen, the Deputy Lieutenants, the Landholders and the Justices of Peace of the County of Kincardine, his warmest acknowledgements for their deep participation in his severe affliction; and his assurances, that in their condolence and sympathy, he has received a further proof of that earnest and affectionate interest, with which the nation have shared his sorrows, while suffering under a calamity so unexampled and afflicting to themselves.

"I have the honour, &c.

Robert Gardiner.

Claremont, December 4, 1817."

To His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

The affectionate Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Bath.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Bath, beg leave to approach your Serene Highness; and, with unfeigned expressions of condolence, to interrupt, for a moment, the meditations of your sacred retirement.

In common with all our fellow subjects, particularly the inhabitants of this loyal and ancient City, we can never cease to deplore that fatal event, which wrested from your Serene Highness all the endearing happiness of the husband, with the fondly anticipated bliss of a parent.

With your lamented Consort, the first pride and best hope of this kingdom expired, and whilst her talents and inestimable virtues form the theme of universal eulogy, to the severed affections of your Serene Highness is imparted the deepest sensation of acute grief.

We are conscious how ineffectual are the best endeavours of humanity to sooth afflictions so exquisitely poignant; but with profound humility, we intreat your Highness to look forward to the kind alleviating hand of time, and to the mercy of that God, who alone can pour the balm of comfort into the wounded heart, and assuage the sufferings of agonized affection.

Given under the common Seal of the said City, this 24th day of November, in the fifty-eighth year of His Majesty's reign.

To which Address His Serene Highness was pleased to return the following Answer:

"To the Mayor of Bath.

"SIR,

"I HAVE this day had the honour of presenting to the Prince Leopold the Address of the Mayor, the Aldermen, and Council of the City of Bath, on the late deplored events at Claremont.

"The Prince Leopold commands me to request you will receive and convey his assurances to the Aldermen and the Council of the City of Bath, that he receives their condolence, with every confidence in the interest with which they have manifested their participation in his afflictions.

"I have the honour, &c.

Robert Gardiner.

"Claremont, December 5, 1817."

To His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

May it please your Serene Highness,

WE, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Irvine met in Presbytery, beg leave most respectfully to approach your Serene Highness, with sentiments of sincere sympathy and condolence, on occasion of the sudden and heavy loss you have lately sustained,

We hailed with joy the auspicious union of your Serene Highness with our beloved Princess, and fondly hoped that the many public and domestic virtues which so justly endeared you to each other, and to the British Empire, would have continued to a late period to adorn your high station, and to produce the happiest effects on the morals of our country; entertaining these sentiments, we are filled with deep affliction for the loss of your illustrious Consort and infant Son; and,

That Almighty God, whose ways are unsearchable, may support your Serene Highness under this painful visitation, and enrich you with his choicest blessings, and that he may sanctify this dispensation to the Royal Family, and to the nation, is the earnest prayer of,

May it please your Serene Highness, your Highness's most respectful and devoted servants,

The Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Irvine.

Signed in our name and presence, and by appointment of Presbytery at Irvine, this 26th day of November, 1817 years, by

Andrew Haldan, Moderator.

To which Address His Serene Highness was pleased to return the following Answer :

“ To the Rev. Andrew Haldan, Moderator, Irvine, county of Ayr.

“ SIR,

“ I have this day the honour of presenting to the Prince Leopold, the Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Irvine, on the recent deplored events at Claremont,

“ The condolence and prayers of the Ministers and Elders of Irvine, have not failed to afford the Prince Leopold real consolation, and in conveying to them his thanks, and acknowledging their influence, He fervently unites to them his own hopes, that in its consummation this awful affliction to the nation and to himself, will, under the mercy and disposing power of Providence, lead but to its temporal, and to its eternal interest.

“ I have the honour, &c.

“ Robert Gardiner.

“ Claremont, December 5, 1817.”

Address of the Inhabitants of the Parish of Portsea, to His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

WE, the Inhabitants of the Parish of Portsea, participating in the general feeling excited by the recent death of your illustrious and Royal Consort, Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta of Wales; beg leave to express to your Serene Highness, our deep and unfeigned sorrow and regret at this afflicting event, and offer that condolence under this trying calamity which the high estimation in which your Highness is held by this nation, evidently demands; and to assure your Serene Highness, that the remembrance of your high character and amiable virtues, will never be effaced from the breasts of a sympathizing and afflicted people.

Signed, in the name, and at the request of a numerous and respectable Meeting of the Inhabitants of Portsea, held on the 1st day of December 1817.

James Carter,

Mayor and Chairman of the Public Meeting.

To which Address His Serene Highness was pleased to return the following Answer :

“ To James Carter, Esq. Mayor, Portsea.

“ SIR,

“ I have this day, had the honor of presenting to the Prince Leopold, the Address of the Inhabitants of the Parish of Portsea, on the recent afflicting events at Claremont. The Prince Leopold requests you will receive, and convey to the Inhabitants of the Parish of Portsea, his assured sense of their feeling and participation in his distress; and in acknowledging their condolence, he wishes to assure the Inhabitants of Portsea, that their praise and regret, has established with further influence, that indelible impression, which the affection, the grief, and the sympathy of the country, have left in his mind.

“ I have the honour, &c.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS the Parliament stands prorogued to Tuesday the sixteenth day of December next, We, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued on the said sixteenth day of December to Tuesday the twenty-seventh day of January next; and We have given order to the Lord High Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Great Britain, to prepare a Commission for proroguing the same accordingly. And We do further hereby, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice aforesaid, publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall, on the twenty-seventh day of January next, be held and sit for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said twenty-seventh day of January next.

Given at the Court at Brighton, the twenty-seventh day of November, one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, in the fifty-eighth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

Prohibiting His Majesty's Natural-born Subjects from serving or enlisting or entering themselves to serve in the Military Forces or Ships of War, raised or set forth by the Persons exercising or assuming to exercise the Powers of Government in certain Provinces and parts of Provinces in Spanish America, or in the Military Forces of His Catholic Majesty employed in Spanish America, or in His said Majesty's Ships of War.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS there unhappily subsists a state of warfare between His Catholic Majesty and divers Provinces or parts of Provinces in Spanish

America: and whereas it has been represented to Us, that many of Our subjects have, without Our leave or license enlisted, or entered themselves to serve in the military forces or ships of war raised or set forth or intended to be raised or set forth by the persons, exercising or assuming to exercise the powers of Government in such Provinces or parts of Provinces, and that divers others of Our subjects are about in like manner to enter and enlist themselves: and whereas such practices are highly prejudicial to and tend to endanger the peace and welfare of Our Crown and Dominions, we do therefore hereby, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, strictly charge and command all and every of our natural-born subjects, of what degree or quality soever, not to serve in any such military forces or ships of war as aforesaid, and not to enlist or enter themselves to serve therein, and not to go beyond the Seas, or embark, in order to serve, or with intent to enter, or enlist themselves to serve in such military forces or ships of war: and it is at the same time Our Royal will and pleasure, and We do, by and with the advice aforesaid, hereby also strictly charge and command all and every of Our said subjects not to serve, or enlist, or enter themselves to serve in any of the military forces or ships of war raised or set forth, or to be raised or set forth, by His Catholic Majesty, and not to go beyond the Seas, or embark, in order, or to the intent to serve, or enter, or enlist themselves to serve in such military forces or ships of war; it is nevertheless Our Royal will and pleasure, that nothing herein contained, shall be deemed or taken to prohibit any of Our subjects, who are engaged at the time of the date of this Our Proclamation, in serving in the military forces of His Catholic Majesty, with Our leave or licence, from continuing to serve therein, provided that such Our said subjects do not serve with the military forces of His Catholic Majesty, when employed in Spanish America: and We do hereby, by and with the advice aforesaid, strictly require all Our said subjects duly to conform to Our commands herein contained, under pain of Our highest displeasure, and the utmost forfeitures, penalties, and punishments, to which by law they will otherwise be liable.

Given at Our Court at Brighton, the twenty-seventh day of November, one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, in the fifty-eighth year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

Whereas We have taken into consideration the state of the copper coin of this kingdom, and have deemed it expedient, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that all copper monies of this realm commonly called a halfpenny or a farthing, coined at His Majesty's Mint, and current in His Majesty's dominions, by virtue of any Proclamation prior to the twenty-sixth day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, should be called in and recoined.

And whereas in pursuance of an Order in Council, dated the twenty-first of January one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, considerable quantities of the said copper monies before-mentioned, have been received and exchanged at His Majesty's Mint, so that only a small portion of such monies now remain in circulation; We do, therefore, by this Our Royal Proclamation, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, think proper to declare and command, and We do declare and command, that no copper monies whatsoever (other than and except such copper monies as are now current, by virtue of His Majesty's Proclamation bearing date the twenty-sixth day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, or any Proclamation dated subsequent to the said twenty-sixth day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven) shall from henceforth be allowed to pass, or be current, in any payment whatsoever, within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

And we do further, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice aforesaid, declare and command that all persons holding any of the copper monies of this realm, commonly called a halfpenny or a farthing, coined at His Majesty's Mint, and current in His Majesty's dominions, by virtue of any Proclamation bearing date prior to the said twenty-sixth day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, who shall, on or before the thirty-first day of this instant December, bring the same to the Officers of His Majesty's Mint, in bags, containing fifty-six pounds weight avoirdupois each, and in quantities not less than three of such bags, and in tale not exceeding fifty-five pieces to the pound, or three thousand and eighty pieces to each bag of fifty-six pounds, shall thereupon receive the amount and value thereof according to the rate hereinafter specified (that is to say) for every such bag of fifty-six pounds weight, averaging fifty-five pieces to the pound, the sum of six pounds eight shillings and fourpence; for every such bag of fifty-six pounds weight, averaging fifty-four pieces to the pound, the sum of six pounds six shillings; for every such bag of fifty-six pounds weight, averaging fifty-three pieces to the pound, the sum of six pounds three shillings and eight pence, and so in proportion for any less average number of Pieces to the pound.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, the fifth day of December one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, in the fifty-eighth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

Whitehall, December 6, 1817.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the morning of Sunday the 23d of last month, the woollen and worsted spinning mill, belonging to Messrs. Hooman, Pardoe, and Company, in Kidderminster, was totally destroyed by fire; and that there is reason to suppose the same was wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said mill), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE THOUSAND POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices in the said felony, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.—Five hundred pounds, part of the above reward, to be paid by Messrs. Hooman, Pardoe, and Company, and the remaining five hundred pounds to be paid by the Norwich Union Fire-Office.

This summons, by edict, published as customary.—Berbice, the 28th August 1817.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

VALUABLE FREEHOLD ESTATE.

TO be peremptorily sold by auction, before Ralph Boardman, of Bolton, in the County of Lancaster, Gentleman, the person appointed by the major part of the Commissioners named and authorized in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued and now under prosecution against Thomas Hudson Finley, of Whittle, near Chorley, in the County of Lancaster, Cotton-Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman, by Mr. Grassby, at the Angel Inn, in Bawtry, in the County of York, on the 18th day of December instant, at Five o'Clock in the Afternoon, subject to the conditions of sale as will then and there be produced;

The fee simple and inheritance of and in all those fifty-eight acres of rich arable, meadow, and pasture land or ground, situate, lying, and being in Misson Deepes, in the Parish of Misson, in the Counties of Lincoln and Nottingham, and now or late in the several possessions or occupations of Thomas Godley and others, or their undertenants.

The estate is in good cultivation and worth the attention of persons wishing to invest their money in the purchase of land, as the same will be sold without reserve.

The respective tenants will shew the premises, and for further or other particulars apply to the Auctioneer, at Bawtry aforesaid, or at the Office of Messrs. Boardman and Merry, Solicitors, Bolton, Lancashire.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, bearing date the 18th day of August 1817, made in the matter of William Shepherd, a Lunatic, before Charles Thomson, Esq. one of the Masters of the Court of Chancery, in the Public Sale-Room of the said Court, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on Monday the 12th day of January 1818, between the hours of One and Two in the Afternoon, in one lot;

A leasehold free public-house, called the Tilt-Boat, situate in Dark-House-Lane, Billingsgate, held on lease under the City of London, for the term of 35 years from Midsummer-Day 1813, at the yearly rent of 40l.

The premises are in the occupation of Messrs. Felix Calvert and Co. or their undertenants, as tenants from year to year, at the annual rent of 100l.

Particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings aforesaid; of Messrs. Vandercrom and Comyn, Solicitors, No. 23, Bush Lane, Cannon-Street; and of Messrs. May, Norton, and May, Solicitors, Bethnal-Green-Road.

Whereas by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in the Causes Gist versus Fowke, and Pearkes versus Pearkes, it is referred to James Stephen, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire and state to the Court, who are, or is the persons or person entitled to the legacy or sum of 5000l. and the interest, and accumulations thereon, by the will of Samuel Gist, Esq. the testator in the pleadings of the said causes mentioned, given upon trust for all and every his paternal and maternal relations who should be living at the time of his decease, of the first, second, third, and fourth degrees of kindred.—The paternal and maternal relations of the said Samuel Gist, late of Gower-Street, in the Parish of Saint Giles in the Fields, in the County of Middlesex, of the aforesaid degrees of kindred, and living at the death of the said testator (who died on or about the 16th day of January 1815), are forthwith to come in before the said Master and make out their kindred, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 3d day of May 1817, made in a Cause wherein Jane M'Crohon, widow, and Maria M'Crohon (an infant) are plaintiffs, and Robert Watson Wade and others are defendants, the Creditors of Maria Begg, widow of George Begg, formerly of the City of Dublin, Merchant, but who, at the time of her decease, resided at Kensington Gravel-Pits, in the County of Middlesex, are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before Samuel Compton Cox, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Cooper against Farrer, the Creditors of Samuel Cooper, late of Tamworth, in the County of Stafford, Gentleman, deceased (who died in or about the month of July 1816), are by their Solicitors to come in and prove their debts before William Alexander, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on or before the 23d day of January 1818, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Charles Barry, of Jermyin-Street, St. James's, in the County of Middlesex, Surgeon and Apothecary, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the Bankrupt's estate and effects, at the Freemason's Tavern, Great Queen-Street, Lincoln's-Inn-Fields, on Wednesday the 17th day of December instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, to assent to or dissent from the Assignees selling and disposing of, either by public auction or private contract, as they may deem fit, the estate, share, and interest of the said Charles Barry, of and in certain freehold and leasehold messuages or tenements and hereditaments, situate and being in and near the City of Bath, and of and in certain personal property to which the said Bankrupt is entitled as heir at law of his late mother, or otherwise, under the will of William Sainsbury, late of the said City of Bath, Builder, deceased, and to consent to or dissent from the said Assignees joining and concurring with the other person or persons interested in the said freehold and leasehold messuages or tenements, hereditaments, and property, in selling and disposing of the same, in such manner, and on such terms as the said Assignees may think most advisable and beneficial for the said Bankrupt's estate, and for the purpose of effectuating the disposal of the said property, to employ such person or persons to superintend the sale thereof, as the said Assignees may think fit; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Darwin, of Wentworth, in the County of York, Iron-Master, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 22d day of December instant, at Four of the Clock in the Afternoon, at the Colledge Inn, in Rotherham, in the County of York, to consider and determine whether the said Assignees shall, at the expence of the said Bankrupt's estate, insure any, and if any, what sum of money upon the life of the said Bankrupt, under the consideration of his being tenant for life of his real estate in Swinton; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees, at the expence of the said Bankrupt's estate, inclosing and fencing off an allotment of land, situate on Swinton Common, lately set out and allotted unto the said Bankrupt, in pursuance of an Act of Parliament passed in the 55th year of the reign of his present Majesty, intituled "An Act for inclosing lands in the Townships of Brampton, Wath-upon-Dearne, and Swin-Yon, in the West Riding of the County of York;" and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees letting the said allotment of land to one or more tenant or tenants; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees charging the said allotment of land with any sum or sums of money, under the powers of the said recited Act, for and towards the expenses of obtaining and executing the recited Act, and for the inclosing, dividing, and fencing off the said allotment of land; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued and now in prosecution against James Oliphant, of Cockspur-street, in the Liberty of Westminster, Hat-Manufacturer, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate, at the Office of Messrs. Nind and Cotterill, 32, Throgmorton-street, on Thursday the 11th day of December instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of all or any part or parts of the said Bankrupt's stock in trade, household furniture, fixtures, and other effects, by public sale or private contract, and for allowing time and taking security from any person or persons who may become the purchaser or purchasers thereof; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing an accountant, in making up, arranging, settling, and adjusting the said Bankrupt's accounts, and collecting, getting in, and receiving and giving discharges and acquittances for the outstanding debts due to the said Bankrupt, and making such accountant a compensation or allowance for his services; and to the Assignees executing to such accountant proper powers and authorities for the purposes aforesaid; and also to choose and appoint such accountant, if it should be considered expedient to employ one; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or equity, for recovering any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees compounding or giving time for any debt or debts due to the said Bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees referring and submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to any matter or thing relating to the said Bankrupt's estate; and also on general and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued against William Mathieson and George Rankin Lapraik, of Bishops-gate-Street-Without, in the City of London, Copartners, Tailors, Dealers and Chapman (trading under the firm of William Mathieson and Company), are desired to meet the Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on Friday the 12th day of December instant, at Six o'Clock in the Evening precisely, at the Office of Mr. Willett, Crown-Court, Thread-needle-Street, in the City of London, Solicitor to the said Commission, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.
