SATURDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1817.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The respectful and affectionate Address of the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Dumbarton, in a General Meeting assembled.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Dumbarton, humbly beg leave to express the deep sense we feel of that awful calamity which has recently deprived us, even in the season of our sanguine hopes and expectations, of that most amiable, most virtuous, and most excellent Princess, Her Royal Highness Charlotte Augusta, whose superior endowments, and endearing qualities, had already taken deep root in our affections; and, had it pleased God to spare her life, promised to be the source of many blessings to these realms, and to reflect additional splendour on your Royal Highness's Illustrious House.

While we largely participate in that general feeling of sorrow and regret, which this most melancholy event has diffused over the whole nation, we do also most sincerely sympathise in that peculiar grief with which, as a Father, your Royal Highness must necessarily be afflicted upon this mournful occasion; and we humbly pray that Heaven, of its infinite goodness, may be graciously pleased to bestow such strength and consolation, as may enable your Royal Highness to endure the pressure of a dispensation so severe and unexpected.

May it please your Royal Highness to accept the renewed assurance of our undiminished attachment to your Person and Government; and may the proofs which His Majesty's subjects have exhibited of their sincere and unabated loyalty and affection, operate as an healing balm upon the afflicted mind of a Father.

Signed, in name and by appointment of the Meeting. James Colquhoun, Chairman, Dumbarton, 1st December 1817.

[Transmitted by the Duke of Montrose, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth].

Unto His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of Dumbarton.

May it please your Royal Highness,

Deploring the calamity which has befallen the kingdom, in the death of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta, we humbly offer our heartfelt condolence with the sorrows of your Royal Highness. We however indulge the hope, that, reflecting on the exalted virtues of the Princess, which have called forth the spontaneous tribute of a nation's grief, your Royal Highness will be supported by the consoling consideration that these have gone to their eternal reward.

Embracing this lamented occasion to renew our assurances of devoted affection to your Royal Highness, we trust that the memory of departed excellence, will strengthen the ties of attachment to your Royal House throughout the empire. Feeling that we cannot too highly venerate our inestimable constitution, we shall continue to exert our limited influence in promoting the peace and good order of society; and that your Royal Highness may long experience the happiness of governing a free, prosperous and united people, is our earnest wish and prayer.

Signed in name, in presence, and by appointment of the other Magistrates and Councillors, in Council assembled, at Dumbarton, the 29th day of November 1817.

John Dixon, Provost.

[Transmitted by the Duke of Montrose, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth].

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects,
the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Oxford, beg to approach your Royal Highness with the offering of our most sincere and heartfelt condolence upon the grievous calamity that has befallen your Royal Highness and this nation, in the untimely death of your beloved Daughter, the presumptive Heiress to the Throne.

Deeply as your Royal Highness's feelings are involved in this mournful event, we will not add to their poignancy by dwelling on it; but rather entreat your Royal Highness to turn for consolation to the universal sympathy of your people—to the undoubted proofs they have given of the love they bore the Princess whilst living, and of the grief with which they bewail her irreparable loss.

And, whilst we hope it may soften your Royal Highness's present sufferings, to know that the memory of our departed Princess is thus honoured and cherished, we devoutly implore the Almighty, in his merciful Providence, to mitigate, by future blessings on your Royal Highness and your august House, this heavy and inscrutable dispensation.

Given at our Council Chamber, this 1st day of December, in the 58th year of His Majesty's reign.

and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Dumfries, now publicly assembled, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of the deepest condolence, for the irreparable loss which your Royal Highness has sustained by the death of your most amiable, virtuous, and illustrious Daughter, the Princess Charlotte of Wales; and we fervently pray, that on this most trying occasion, the God of infinite and eternal mercy may communicate to your Royal Highness, to his Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe-Cobourg, and all the Members of the Royal Family, the soothing balm of Divine consolation: and may dispose all classes of his Majesty's subjects rightly to improve that most awful and solemn dispensation of Divine Providence, which so deeply affects the British nation.

We are, may it please your Royal Highness, your Royal Highness's most devoted and humble servants, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Dumfries.

Signed in our name, and by our authority,

George Greig, Moderator.

presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of

New Sarum, in Common Council assembled, with hearts filled with the deepest sorrow, humbly beg leave to express to your Royal Highness, our unfeigned condolence on the late most awful and sudden visitation of Divine Providence, which has at once deprived your Royal Highness of your most Illustrious and beloved Daughter, and the whole nation of a proud and fond hope of a successor to the Throne, possessed of every virtue and endowment to reign over a free people.

Humbly assuring your Royal Highness of our attachment to your Illustrious House, we implore that you may long continue to wield the sceptre of this great and glorious empire in peace and happiness.

Given under our Common Seal, this 3d day of December 1817.

[Transmitted by Henry Emby, Esq. Mayor of New Sarum, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Gentry, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the City of Exeter, humbly express to your Royal Highness our deepest sorrow at the loss which your Royal Highness and the nation at large have sustained, by the lamented death of the Princess Charlotte of Wales.

Whilst we offer our sincerest condolence on this calamitous event, we yet feel a consolation in recalling the many virtues which so eminently adorned that exalted character, and will render her memory ever dear to Britons.

With unabated fidelity we renew our assurances of inviolable attachment to your Royal Highness's Person and Government, and our fervent wishes that both may be long preserved.

Signed at the request, and on the behalf of the assembled inhabitants,

Charles Brake, Mayor,

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT
of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Dean, Council, and Members of the Incorporation of Guildry of the Royal Burgh of Cupar, in Fife, in General Meeting assembled, this 1st day of December 1817.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects,
the Dean, Council, and Members of the Incorporation of the Guildry of Cupar, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, with assurances of the warmest sympathy in that severe affliction with which it has pleased Divine Providence to visit your Royal Highness.

Feeling, with the whole British Empire, the most lively interest in every event which affects the welfare and happiness of your Illustrious Family, we deeply lament the loss of a Princess endeared to you by her affection and by her virtues; and we sincerely condole with your Royal Highness in the sufferings which a parent's heart must endure, under a calamity so severe and unexpected.

We fervently implore the Great Disposer of All, that He will bestow on your Royal Highness that strong consolation which is to be derived only from firm confidence in the righteousness and wisdom of His Sovereignty—that He will pour His choicest blessings on your Royal Highness, and continue to prosper your Government, which has hitherto been administered with so much prudence, equity, and firmness; and that he will maintain till the latest posterity the mild and paternal government of your Illustrious House, under which we have enjoyed so much prosperity and happiness.

Signed in name, presence, and by appointment of the Guildry,

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's faithful subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the Borough of King's Lynn, in the County of Norfolk, in Council Assembled, humbly beg leave to express our most respectful, but cordial sympathy, on the sudden and calamitous event, so deeply afflictive to the paternal feelings of your Royal Highness, and which has spread universal heartfelt sorrow throughout His Majesty's realms.

Without daring to recur to the promise of so much blessing to our country, from a character already distinguished by the highest virtues—without any irreverent murmurs in contemplating this awful dispensation of Divine Providence, we are anxious to dwell on the excellencies of a mind trained up and prepared for utility and for happiness, by the wise and parental care of your Royal Highness; and while we gratefully acknowledge this essential discharge of private and public duty, we are furnished with the best and most assured ground of consolation.

These recollections, we humbly trust, will impart the purest comfort to your Royal Highness; to the Illustrious and exemplary Consort, his Serene Highness the Prince Leopold; and to every individual of the Royal Family; and we beg, on this melancholy approach to your Royal Highness, to repeat the warmest assurances of our unceasing loyalty—of our dutiful and affectionate attachment.

Given under our Common Seal, at our Guildhall, the 27th day of November, in the year of our Lord 1817.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Orford, High Steward of King's Lynn, and Lord Walpole, and Sir M.B. Folkes, Bart. M. P. for that Borough, and presented by Lord Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Corporation, and other Inhabitants of the ancient and loyal Town of Guildford, in the County of Surrey, most humbly beg leave to offer to your Royal Highness our condolence on the great and irreparable loss which your Royal Highness and the British Empire have recently sustained in the death of her late Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta.

It is impossible for us to call to remembrance those bright hopes which were excited in the breasts of this nation, by the many virtues of our beloved Princess, and to consider her as the person who was apparently destined to perpetuate the illustrious House of Brunswick, (which is identified with every thing that is dear to us as Britons), without the most heartfelt sorrow at this great public calamity. And we cannot forget, that, while your Royal Highness participates in the general affliction, to you the loss is especially severe, having been thus deprived of a justly endeared and only child.

And we feel called upon to offer up our prayers to Almighty God, whom it has pleased to visit your Royal Highness and the Empire with so great an affliction, that he will enable us all to bow with submission to his inscrutable providence, and so to improve the late awful event, that we may obtain the continuance of those many blessings which are still attendant on the reign of your Royal Highness's Family, and on the preservation of our excellent constitution.

Signed,

By Order, and on behalf of the Mayor, &c.

Unto His Royal Highness the Prince REGENT.

The affectionate and dutiful Address of the Presbytery of Lanark.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Members of the Presbytery of Lanark, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with the unfeigned expression of our heartfelt sympathy and deep regret, on account of the melancholy loss which your Royal Highness and the Nation at large have sustained, by the death of your much loved, and ever to be lamented daughter, the Princess Charlotte. The sincere and universal sorrow felt by all ranks and conditions of men on this occasion, bears ample testimony to the high place, which she held in the hearts and affections of the people, and is a sure proof of the grievous calamity which they conceive themselves to have sustained by her untimely removal. Distinguished not more by her exalted rank, than by the attainment of the highest accomplishments, and the exercise of the most amiable virtues, she gave fair promise of being an eminent pattern to those of her own sex, and a great blessing to the British nation. While we bow with reverence and resignation to the will of that Being who over-rules the ways and destinies of man, we cannot withhold our tribute of respect to the memory of that illustrious Princess, now no more, and our heartfelt sympathy for the severe shock which the feelings of your Royal Highness must have sustained, both as a Parent and a Prince, by this melancholy and overwhelming event. We beg leave to assure your Royal Highness that we participate in the general sorrow, and that we unite in humble and earnest prayer, that Almighty God may have your Royal Highness in his holy keeping; that he may pour the balm of consolation into your wounded spirit, and support you under this great and grievous affliction.

The dutiful Address of the Faculty of Physicians and Surgeons of the City of Glasgow.

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Members of Faculty of Physicians and Surgeons of the City of Glasgow, penetrated with the deepest sorrow, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, to express to you our condolence on the late melancholy event which has deprived your Royal Highness of an affectionate daughter, and the nation of its brightest ornament and fondest hopes. Long accustomed to look up to Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte of Wales as the source of national prosperity, and as the pattern of public and domestic excellence, her death has deeply affected us, as the greatest public calamity and private misfortune.

That it may please the Almighty disposer of events to pour the balm of consolation into your Royal Highness's wounded heart, that your Royal Highness may long continue to rule over a great and a loyal people, and that the descendants of the House of Brunswick may for ever wield the sceptre of these realms, is the prayer of Your Royal Highness's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Faculty of Physicians and Surgeons of the City of Glasgow.

Signed at the pro re nata Meeting of Faculty, by Dr. Robert Graham, our Preses, in our name and in our behalf, and the Common Seal of the Faculty affixed hereunto, at Glasgow, the 2d December 1817.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE the Convener, Deacons, and Members of the Nine Incorporated Trades of the Ancient and Royal Burgh of Dundee, most humbly condole with your Royal Highness on the death of the Princess Charlotte, who, we hoped, was destined by the Almighty to be the prop and stay of your declining years, and afterwards to reign over a happy, free, and loyal people, promoting their welfare and increasing their happiness. The only consolation which the nation can receive, is the hope that the life of your Royal Highness will long be preserved for the interest and happiness of your loyal subjects, and that the descendants of the Illustrious House of Brunswick will long enjoy the Throne of the British Empire.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of New Windsor, in the County of Berks.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of New Windsor, respectfully approach your Royal Highness, with the expression of that grief, which in common with every portion of our fellow subjects, we deeply feel at the calamity which has befallen your Royal Highness, your august Family, and the whole British people.

The affliction with which the Great Disposer of events has visited your Royal Highness, must at present be incapable of outward consolation; but when the progress of time shall have mitigated the sharpness of domestic sorrow, and tempered the ardour of public regret, it may afford an indelible satisfaction to your Royal Highness, that your private griefs have been sincerely partaken by a loyal and affectionate people; that the testimonies to the departed worth of the lamented Princess Charlotte-Augusta have been as spontaneous, as they have been heartfelt and universal.

The consolations which His Majesty's dutiful subjects have felt under this visitation, have been derived from the monitions and comforts of religion; may the blessings of the Most High afford your Royal Highness the same "present help in trouble," and be your "refuge and strength" in this and every other calamity.

The humble and affectionate Address of Condolence of the Inhabitants of Rochdale.

FOLLOWING the dictates of a painful duty, with feelings of profound regard, we intrude upon the sacred sorrows of your Palace, and in giving this expression to a grief that can still be but imperfectly described, we earnestly assure our afflicted Prince of the heartfelt sympathies, and unfeigned condolence of a loyal, faithful and sorrowing people.

When we turn our eyes to that sad spectacle of a nation's woe—when we contemplate the appalling magnitude of that affliction, and when, alas! we reflect upon that fair excellence, now sleeping in the silent tomb, we do but aggravate our loss by tracing deeper sources of regret, and embitter the tears of a fond Parent by dwelling on the virtues of his amiable and lamented child—our beloved Princess—our country's fairest hope!

Bending with awe and resignation before the Almighty Disposer of events, who chasteneth the Son whom he loveth, may every subject of these realms unite with us in the prayer, that Heaven may protect the Parent Stem (reft by the rude storm of its lovely branch) long to flourish, like our native oak, the ornament and guardian of our happy land.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Ministers, and Elders of the Presbytery of Lochmaben, in the County of Dumfries, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, with every sentiment of respect and affection, to express our condolence under the severe dispensation with which it has pleased Providence of late to visit your Royal Highness and the whole nation.

We had the highest satisfaction in contemplating the many excellent dispositions and virtues of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta, your late Daughter, the Heir of the Throne, and the hope of the nation. We also beheld with high satisfaction, Her happy union with His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg, who has endeared himself still more to the nation, by his feeling and conduct on this trying occasion; and our grief on account of Her untimely and much lamented death is proportionally severe.

We are aware of those feelings which must press more especially on your Royal Highness's paternal heart; and we humbly and devoutly pray, that your Royal Highness may participate abundantly in the consolations of our holy religion, which alone can administer adequate support under so afflicting an event.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, and Prince REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, his Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Recorder, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Warwick, do most sincerely sympathize with your Royal Highness, in your deep and unfeigned sorrow for the loss of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta.

We look back with affection and admiration to the bright assemblage of virtues, which distinguished her character as a Daughter, a Wife, a Princess, and a Christian.

We trust that through future generations her example will have the most salutary influence upon every class of our fellow subjects.

We bow down with becoming resignation to that awful dispensation of Providence, which has deprived our country of the numerous and inestimable blessings to which we looked forward with well founded confidence when, by the will of the Almighty, she should have ascended the throne of these realms, and united in her favour every heart and every voice, by a wise, firm and constitutional administration of public affairs.

We acknowledge with gratitude all the solid advantages which our forefathers and ourselves have hitherto enjoyed under the government of your Royal Highness's illustrious family, and most earnestly do we implore the protection of Heaven to them and their descendants.

Signed on behalf of the Mayor, Aldermen, Recorder, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Warwick, the 25th day of November 1817.

John Bohun Smith, Mayor.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Warwick, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Mayor, Magistrates, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Clifton, Dartmouth Hardness, with feelings of the deepest sorrow, most submissively approach your Royal Person, offering our most sincere condolence on the late ever to be lamented death of your Royal Daughter and her infant. More particularly do we deplore that event as we have lost in her a most splendid example of public and private virtue.

Your Royal Highness has, with the sorrow of an affectionate parent, to mourn the departure of, a daughter whose filial piety would have administered to you consolation in the decline of life, and His Majesty's subjects, of a Princess who, had she lived, would have maintained inviolate our religion, our liberties and our laws.

We are assured that the grief which fills your Royal Highness's bosom, pervades that of all whom Providence has consigned to your care. We enter most deeply into all those painful sensations which at this season of affliction you experience, and our sorrow is increased by the reflection that your august and venerable father is deprived of the power of administering those consolations which declining age, dignified by an exemplary life, is capable of yielding in the hour of domestic misfortune. But whilst we thus lament those national calamities, we consider it as our duty patiently to suffer the visitations of Divine Providence, under the assurance of our holy religion, that all things work together for good to them who love and fear God, and living under the influence of that religion, we confidently hope that the protecting arm of Providence will not be withdrawn from this nation, and that it will preserve the elevated and dignified rank, in the degrees of national grandeur, to which it has been raised under your Royal Highness's administration.

As far as attachment to your Royal person and family will give strength to the empire and perpetuate its duration, that attachment will be most zealously maintained by your subjects, and particularly by the inhabitants of this Borough; and since calamity has thus visited the British nation, it will be the pride of her sons to defend, if possible with increased firmness, the Throne, and to give vigour and effect to those laws by which that Throne is guarded in its descent through the Illustrious House of Hanover.

Signed, on the behalf of the Mayor, Magistrates, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Clifton, Dartmouth Hardness, and at their request as their Chairman, this 20th day of November 1817, at the Guildhall of the said Borough.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

SIR,

Impressed with sentiments of the most poignant sorrow, under the great national affliction which our country has recently sustained in the death of your most illustrious daughter, her late Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta, and forcibly affected by the accumulated anguish peculiarly resulting to your Royal Highness from this mournful dispensation, we the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council and Livery of the Town and County of the Town of Nottingham, address to your Royal Highness our united expressions of condolence.

In the grief which this afflicting event has carried into the bosom of every family of the nation, we most acutely participate. The strength of the national attachment to the person of Her Royal Highness, has been exemplarily testified by the universal sorrowing of all individuals in all classes. May the pure incense thus offered by a mourning country on the shrine of their lamented Princess, tend to alleviate the parental sufferings of your Royal Highness, and perpetuate the admiration of her exalted virtue.

As the future Queen of these realms, Her Royal Highness was the peculiar object of our nation's pride: Her elevated tenor of character, her education in the free and glorious principles of the British Constitution, and her distinguished moral excellence, had conspired to raise this illustrious and lamented Princess to the ardent affections of His Majesty's subjects. In that high imperial relation therefore, we, in common with our fellow countrymen, especially deplore the premature demise of Her Royal Highness.

We humbly pray that this afflicting dispensation of the Almighty, may be the means of chastening and purifying the national character, and that from the sacred sources of religion your Royal Highness, and all who now mourn, may derive peace and consolation.

Given under the common seal, the 3d day of December 1817, in the Mayoralty of John Houseman Barber, Esq.

Henry Enfield, Town Clerk,

[Transmitted by Lord Holland, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Undersigned, the Ministers of the Presbyterian, Independent, and Baptist Denominations of Protestant Dissenters in Derby, on behalf of ourselves and the Members of our respective Congregations, approach your Royal Highness with feelings of dutiful and loyal attachment, and of unfeigned sympathy.

It would be vain to attempt the expression of that sorrow which fills our hearts at the recollection of the irreparable loss which your Royal Highness has been called to sustain. That Heavenly Providence which rules over all, and whose wisdom we can neither fathom nor arraign, has removed from the world, your illustrious daughter; and at a time and under circumstances which to human apprehension rendered her continuance here the most to be desired.

To dwell on the virtuous and amiable character of her Royal Highness, would be only to repeat the praises which fall from every tongue, and we fear to dwell on a subject, which in the poignancy of your Royal Highness's affliction, might tend rather to renew your sorrows than to alleviate them. If effectual consolation were in our power, it would be our greatest happiness to open every source of it to your Royal Highness; but He alone can bind up the heart who has broken it, and to the source of all good, whose ways though mysterious are always merciful, our prayers are addressed, that he will grant such portions of his all powerful aid as may support your Royal Highness under this awful dispensation of his power.

We trust also, that your Royal Highness will derive some alleviation of your grief from the assurance of the affectionate and loyal attachment which pervades all ranks of people in these United Kingdoms.

We offer it to the consideration of your Royal Highness, as a source of no mean satisfaction, that a spirit of union and loyalty exists among the people of these realms which cannot be exceeded, and that every attempt to disturb the tranquillity of the empire has proved abortive.

Addressing your Royal Highness from a County which has been represented (unjustly as we believe) to be disaffected to the Government of your Royal Highness, we have the highest pleasure in congratulating your Royal Highness on the very decisive testimony which was repeatedly borne by the Judges on the Bench, during the late trials for High Treason, to the steady loyalty of the people at large—a loyalty which no intimidation could for a moment shake.

It is with infinite regret, that we observed occasional statements of the transactions which have disturbed our County, in which it was attempted to implicate the Dissenters in the recent outrages.—That undeviating fidelity which the Protestant Dissenters have ever exhibited to the illustrious family of your Royal Highness, ought to have been sufficient to secure them as a body from such unfounded insinuations. And on mature inquiry, we have a confident satisfaction in assuring your Royal Highness, that not an individual connected with any religious society of the three denominations of Dissenters, was in any degree implicated in the disgraceful occurrences so promptly and so happily suppressed.

In veneration of those principles of civil and religious liberty which we have ever been foremost to avow, principles which seated and maintain the family of your Royal Highness on the Throne of these United Kingdoms, and in zealous attachment to the venerated institutions of our country, as secured by our invaluable constitution, we trust we shall steadily persevere.

To defend the land of our birth against foreign aggression, its tranquillity against the efforts of faction, its institutions against the encroachments of power, are our duties as patriots; to yield a ready submission to the laws and constituted authorities of the State, is the first lesson which we learn as subjects; to embrace every fit opportunity of expressing our dutiful attachment to our Sovereign and his Family, is our privilege as Britons. In these characters we now address you Royal Highness, beseeching your Royal Highness to receive our professions of loyalty and affection, and our assurances, that your Royal Highness will ever find us among the most faithful of his Majesty's subjects.

Caleb Evans Birt, Baptist Minister.

[Transmitted by Lord George Henry Cavendish, M. P. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

SIR,

WE, the Mayor, the Bishop, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of His Majesty's City of Gloucester, consider ourselves bound by duty, as we are ever led by inclination, to feel for the private sorrows as well as to participate in the public joys of yourself and your Royal House.

We, therefore, approach your Royal Highness with expressions of heartfelt condolence upon the late most grievous privation, with which it has pleased Almighty God to afflict your Royal Highness, the whole community in general, and every individual in it who is attached to his County and interested in its welfare.

The amount of the actual benefit, and the prospective blessings, of which this awful event has deprived us, it would be as difficult to calculate, as it would be distressing to particularize.

We would cautiously abstain from aggravating parental anguish, or probing those wounds which we would gladly heal.

But permit us, Sir, in subordination to those far higher comforts which religious resignation and religious hope can alone communicate, to cast in our humble share of such consolations as the testimony of universal, and, we believe, unprecedented sympathy can afford.

The object of your regrets, Sir, is embalmed by the nations spontaneous tears, and will ever live in the remembrance of an affectionate people.

May it please him, who has inflicted the blow, to lighten it in his due time, and to draw forth, as he alone is able to do, good unforeseen from evil, which might seem at first sight the least susceptible of remedy or alleviation!

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, the Dean and Canons of his Majesty's free chapel of Saint George, within his Castle of Windsor, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with the expression of our heartfelt condolence upon the severe affliction with which Providence has been pleased to visit not only your Royal Highness, but the whole British Empire, by the premature death of her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte.

For while we sympathise in the sorrows which must agitate the breast of the Father, we must be allowed at the same time to deplore the interruption occasioned by this event in the direct line of that Family, under whose rule this country has attained such a distinguished pre-eminence among the nations of the earth.

We beheld also in the person of her Royal Highness an assemblage of those talents and virtues which promised to diffuse lustre and happiness around a Throne, on which she might one day be eventually placed.

But instead of dwelling upon circumstances which may appear to aggravate the sense of our calamity, we could rather wish to invite the attention of your Royal Highness to some of those which cannot fail to administer substantial consolation, that spirit of loyalty and attachment to your illustrious House, testified by the grief which this disaster has excited in every part of this vast Empire, whithersoever the knowledge of it has extended; and, above all others, to the cheering doctrines of our holy religion, by which we are instructed that our Heavenly Father can elicit, in contradiction to all human calculation, the greatest good out of apparent evil.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

The humble Address of Condolence of the Bishop and Clergy of the Diocese of Exeter.

WE, the Bishop and Clergy of the Diocese of Exeter, your Royal Highness's loyal and attached servants, beg leave with all humility and respect to approach your Royal Person, and with unfeigned grief and sorrow to offer our real condolence on that recent melancholy event which has so deeply affected your Royal Highness as a parent, and in which the whole nation, like the heart of one man, has so fully participated.

It is not even for us to point out to your Royal Highness a patient resignation to the Will of Providence, your entire submission to the inscrutable decrees of the Almighty rendering such observations on our part highly unbecoming; but may it, Sir, be permitted us to remark, that in the midst of this severe visitation which we must consider as a just punishment for the sins of the nation, your Royal Highness, and your Royal House must derive great consolation in beholding the unfeigned expressions of attachment of these United Kingdoms, which this our irreparable loss has called forth; a feeling which has spontaneously sprung from the warm interest and lively share the whole nation has taken in whatever affects the House of Hanover; a feeling, allow us to assure your Royal Highness, originating solely from the many invaluable blessings we have enjoyed ever since your illustrious dynasty commenced, and which have been so eminently conspicuous during your auspicious Regency.

That it may please Almighty God to comfort and support your Royal Highness under this severe affliction, is the devout and earnest prayer of, Sir,

Your devoted and humble,
and dutiful Servants,

The Clergy of the Diocese of Exeter.

To his Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Noblemen, Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Justices of Peace, of the County of Edinburgh.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Justices of the Peace of the County of Edinburgh, deeply impressed with a sense of the great loss which your Royal Highness and the nation have sustained in the death of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta, humbly beg leave to condole with your Royal Highness on this most melancholy occasion.

It would but aggravate that sorrow which it is our humble endeavour to sooth, were we particularly to recall the many virtues of that amiable and illustrious Princess, whose loss we so greatly deplore, or to dwell on the peculiar circumstances under which she has been untimely snatched from us. Most deeply have we felt, and with the most unfeigned sorrow have we grieved for this calamity as for the most severe domestic affliction, and with contrite hearts have we bowed with humble submission to the awful dispensation with which it has pleased Almighty God to visit us.

We hope that the deep concern which has been evinced by the whole British Nation at this calamitous event, by proving their unshaken and unalterable attachment to your Royal Highness and your Illustrious House, may administer some balm of consolation to your mind.

We humbly pray that He who alone can bind up the broken spirit, may enable your Royal Highness to bear this severe calamity with fortitude and resignation, and that He may be pleased to grant unto your Royal Highness long life and all prosperity.

Signed in name, and by authority of the Meeting.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Magistrates and Town Council of Dundee, beg leave humbly to offer to your Royal Highness our sincere condolence on the afflicting dispensation of Providence, which has deprived you of an affectionate and beloved Daughter, and the country of an Heir to the Throne, who, through Her Illustrious virtues, had already reigned in the hearts of the people.

We hope that the universal sympathy of a generous nation will in some degree alleviate your sorrow; that the same hand which has inflicted the wound, will heal the poignant grief of His Majesty's loyal subjects, by preserving the life of your Royal Highness for many years; and that an Heir of the Illustrious House of Brunswick may never be wanting to fill the British Throne.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's faithful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty of the Town and Port of New Romney, in the County of Kent, are too deeply impressed with the general feelings of this nation upon the recent mournful visitation of the Almighty, not to feel it our bounden duty, humbly to condole with your Royal Highness upon this truly awful and melancholy event.

Your Royal Highness has lost an only child, apparently eminently calculated, by her amiable qualities, to prolong the blessings this country has so long enjoyed under the mild sway of your Royal Highness's Illustrious House.

As far as the too short duration of Her late Royal Highness's conjugal life would permit a people to judge, we have to deplore the loss of a bright example of domestic felicity in the most exalted station, and from the exemplary conduct of His Serene Highness, Her late Royal Highness's Illustrious Consort, Great Britain had every reason for gratitude towards your Royal Highness for the paternal affection which dictated a choice affording a confident hope, that through the medium of their Royal and Serene Highnesses offspring, our Constitutional blessings might to the latest ages continue pre-eminent.

We most humbly pray your Royal Highness graciously to receive our heartfelt hope, that the universal sympathy of a great and loyal nation, will alleviate an affliction so irreparable to your Royal Highness.

Given under the Seal of our Corporation, at New Romney aforesaid, the 6th day of December 1817.

[Transmitted by Cholmeley Dering, Esq. M. P. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Inhabitants of Brixham (Torbay) humbly presume with the most profound respect to approach and assure your Royal Highness of the sincerity of that sorrow which we feel for the death of her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta of Wales and her child.

We participate the grief which your Royal Highness suffers through the privation of a Daughter, endeared to your Royal Highness by the most perfect filial affection, and to us by the solicitous regard which she continually manifested for the happiness of your subjects, and the veneration in which she held the established religion and laws of this land.

The consolation which your Royal Highness will at all times experience in her fond recollection, will, we trust, be increased by the assurance that in her Royal Highness was eminently displayed all those Christian virtues, which, through the mercy of the Deity, secure an immortality of bliss.

We dare not to question the justice of the decree which Divine wisdom has pronounced on this nation, but we cannot follow your Royal Daughter to the grave without those feelings of regret which defy a silent suppression, and the anxious wish that she had survived to have adorned the British Throne.

But, though your Royal Highness's painful grief passes beyond the limits of ordinary sorrow, we trust that Almighty God will inspire you with such fortitude as will enable your Royal Highness to sustain your heavy affliction, and will bless you with a long life, replete with health and happiness.

Looking to your Illustrious Family, educated in the principles of our national church, and of a civil government, designed for no other end than the welfare of man in his social state, we cannot but see ourselves possessed of some alleviation of the sorrow which we now presume to express; and if a sympathizing people be capable of yielding, through their loyalty and attachment, any relief to their afflicted Prince, we most humbly assure your Royal Highness and Illustrious Family, that at all times will be found in the subjects of these realms, and particularly in us, Inhabitants of Brixham, a zealous devotion to the persons of your Royal Highness and dignified Family, and an inextinguishable ardour in defending the glory and dignity of the British Monarchy.

Signed on the behalf of the above Inhabitants, at their request, and as their Chairman, at a public meeting this 2d day of December 1817,

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Heritors, Household-ers, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Parish of Kelso, in Public Meeting assembled, at Kelso, this 29th day of November 1817.

May it please your Royal Highness,

DEEPLY penetrated with the afflicting event which has suddenly deprived your Royal Highness of a beloved and only child, your illustrious House of one of its brightest ornaments, and a dutiful and affectionate nation of the object of its fondest attachment and esteem, we, His Majesty's most faithful subjects, the Heritors, Household-ers, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Parish of Kelso, beg leave to approach you in the present season of public grief, to deplore, in common with your Royal Highness, as one of the greatest of national calamities, the awful dispensation of Providence with which we have been visited.

When we reflect on all the joyful hopes which seemed on the eve of accomplishment, in the birth of a Royal Infant, to transmit to posterity the name and honours of your illustrious House, and on the complicated reverse, which, in one fatal night, bereaved the world of this lamented Princess and her offspring, overwhelmed with affliction the heart of her illustrious Consort, and converted into one Family of mourning, the entire population of this extensive Empire, we know not in what language, adequate to the occasion, to convey to your Royal Highness the expression of our sympathy and sorrow.

The virtues which adorned the illustrious Princess, whose loss we now lament, will long be cherished in the recollection of your people; and it will be a consolation to your Royal Highness to reflect, that the few short years of her life (which it was not the Divine will to prolong for the glory and advantage of the British Empire) were so employed as to prepare her for an immortal crown, and a glory which will not pass away.

To these expressions of grief and condolence, we beg leave to add the assurance of our most cordial attachment to the Person and Family of your Royal Highness, and, while we bow with submission to the rod with which we have been chastened, we are thankful for the success which has hitherto attended the councils of your Royal Highness, and for the blessings of peace we now enjoy, in addition to the liberties we have long inherited under the mild and paternal sway of the House of Brunswick.

Roxburghe.

[Transmitted by the Duke of Roxburghe, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

The dutiful and loyal Address of that body of Protestant Dissenters, commonly called the Associate (Burgher) Presbytery in Edinburgh.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Ministers and Elders of the Associate Presbytery in Edinburgh, assembled in our monthly Presbyterian meeting, beg leave to join ourselves to that general train of mourners who approach your Royal Highness's sacred person, to pay the tribute of their tears, on the irreparable loss sustained by the death of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta, and that of Her Royal infant.

The universally acknowledged goodness of our beloved Princess's life, is attended with an astonishment of grief of equal extent at her decease. Alas! her pre-eminence in personal piety; her domestic virtues; her attractive manners; her regal accomplishments; all those considerations which might be supposed to alleviate, only serve to aggravate our sorrow.

With admiration and delight we beheld her Princely character unfolding itself; and contemplating at a distance, those resplendent excellencies with which she was adorned, we fondly trusted that this bright luminary would have shed forth her benignant influence over the British empire, and the world, during a long succession of years, after we ourselves had descended into the grave. An unexpected stroke, a great national calamity has destroyed our hopes for ever.

But if such be the sorrow which we and all around us feel, what must be the anguish that rends the affectionate heart of the Royal parent! Ah! we cease—we would not exasperate whilst we devoutly wish to soothe the wound which still bleeds. "We are dumb; we open not our mouth, because Thou, O God! hast done it."

In the strictest integrity, and with feelings of the profoundest deference, we intreat your Royal Highness to take in good part the expression of our deepest sympathy and condolence, and our most fervent wishes that this most calamitous stroke of Divine Providence may be sanctified to alon whom it has pleased Heaven to make it fall.

We humbly beseech your Royal Highness to accept the renewed assurances of our fidelity to your Royal Highness's person and government; and of our continuing to pray the ever blessed God, that he may be pleased to take your Royal Highness into his unceasing protection; to support your spirits by his Divine consolations; and continue long your precious life, so necessary for maintaining the dignity, and preserving the rights of the United Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland, together with their multiplied dependencies.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, at Edinburgh this 3d day of December 1817.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the Shire of Ayr.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the Shire of Ayr, deeply impressed with sentiments of the most loyal attachment to your Royal Highness, humbly beg leave to lay at the foot of the Throne, the expression of our affliction for that most melancholy and most calamitous event, the death of the Princess Charlotte of Wales, the beloved Daughter of your Royal Highness, and the future hope and stay of the British Empire.

Whilst in common with our fellow subjects, we deplore the vast extent of the national loss, resulting from this sad catastrophe, which has cut off the lengthened hopes fondly entertained of a line of Sovereigns from a favourite stock, we must be insensible indeed, should we not feel that deeper anguish which wrings a Parents heart, and with those sensations most earnestly to offer our most respectful condolence to your Royal Highness.

That your Royal Highness may be long preserved to govern this great empire, and to live in the hearts of a free and loyal people, is the ardent prayer, may it please your Royal Highness, of His Majesty's most loyal and most faithful subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the Shire of Ayr.

Unto His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, &c. &c.

WE, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Royal Burgh of Irvine, in Council assembled, beg leave humbly to approach your Royal Highness, with sentiments of the most sincere condolence, on the ever-to-be-lamented death of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte of Wales, and the Royal Infant.

We deplore that stroke of Providence which has so severely wounded your Royal Highness's feelings as a parent—involved the Royal Family in such deep distress, and overwhelmed the nation at large with heartfelt sorrow.—While we feel this event as the greatest national calamity, we deeply sympathize with your Royal Highness in being thus deprived of a child so amiably accomplished, and to whom the nation looked forward as a support to the Throne, and a blessing to the United Kingdom.

That Almighty God may support your Royal Highness under this deep affliction, is the earnest prayer of,

May it please your Royal Highness, His Majesty's most loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Councillors of the Royal Burgh of Irvine.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of England and Ireland, &c. &c. &c.

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Carnarvon, assembled by public notice of the High Sheriff, in the County Hall of Carnarvon, on Friday 21st day of November 1817.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Carnarvon, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of the profoundest grief and sympathy on the demise of your Royal Daughter the Princess Charlotte, consort of his Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg; an event, which in its circumstances and consequences has involved the whole nation in the most acute suffering.

Among the numerous and dutiful testimonies of respect that will seek intrusively to administer consolation to your afflicted mind, at this season, some preference we presume to hope may be granted to those of a people united to your Royal Highness by peculiar bonds of attachment and duty; the aboriginal descendants of your own peculiar principality, loyal in principles, zealous for their religion and laws, and exemplary in their domestic relations.

The dispensation of Providence, which has thus suddenly and awfully dissolved one of the dearest ties of affection to your Royal Highness, has also deprived the country of hopes fondly cherished, that so much virtue might hereafter adorn the highest station in the Empire, and become a fresh bond of attachment between the allegiance of a faithful people and the dignity and honour of the Crown. But, alas, Sir, in this calamitous event, the blow is alike dreadful to the father and to the people—to the father who mourns his child, and to the people who deplore the loss of a succession, dear to their loyalty and conducive to their happiness.

Under such circumstances we might naturally enlarge on the sudden extinction of the brightest hopes of the nation; of the most powerful example in the most distinguished station; of the most perfect pattern of connubial happiness; of the most accurate fulfilment of religious duties and moral obligations; and these, at so early a period of life as hardly any experience can record—But we refrain. To dwell on such topics would only tend to aggravate that grief which it is our object to assuage.

Your Royal Highness will doubtless consider at once both the true cause and only remedy. The whole nation feels submissively with your Royal Highness this awful and mysterious dispensation as proceeding from that Supreme Being whose judgments are tempered with mercy, and to him alone they will look for solace in due time. To him they offer their earnest prayers that he will be pleased, in this hour of severe distress, to strengthen the minds of your Royal Highness and of all the branches of your House, but more especially of her Majesty the Queen, and of that most amiable and exemplary Prince, whose poignant grief we more particularly deplore.

These expressions of condolence are humbly tendered with all reverence and affection, by

Sir, your Royal Highness's dutiful Servants,

On behalf of the Meeting,

John Lloyd, Sheriff.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg; which Addresses His Serene Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Serene Highness George Frederick Leopold, Duke of Saxe, Prince Cobourg of Saalfeld.

May it please your Serene Highness,

WE, the Gentry, Clergy, Merchants, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Liverpool, humbly beg to assure your Serene Highness of our heartfelt sympathy, and to offer our sincere condolence upon the lamented death of your late Illustrious Consort.

We had hoped to have approached your Serene Highness with far different feelings—with expressions of joy and congratulations, upon the birth of a future Monarch; but the Almighty has determined otherwise; and whilst we bow in dutiful submission to this afflicting dispensation, we shall never cease to venerate those high endowments and eminent qualities, which have enshrined their possessor in the hearts of a whole nation.

We will not intrude upon sorrows which should be sacred, further than to assure your Serene Highness of our esteem for the many virtues which your Serene Highness has displayed during your short abode amongst us, and of our unceasing gratitude for the affection with which you cherished our beloved Princess, and it is our sincere and earnest prayer, that He who heals the troubled heart, will administer to your Serene Highness that consolation which it is not in mortal power to bestow.

Thomas Case, Mayor, Chairman.

To which Address His Serene Highness was pleased to return the following Answer :

“ To Thomas Case, Esq. Mayor, Liverpool.

“ SIR,

“ I have this day had the honour of presenting to the Prince Leopold the Address of the Gentry, Clergy, Merchants and Inhabitants of the Town of Liverpool, on the late deplored events at Claremont.

“ The Prince Leopold requests you will receive, and convey to the Gentry, the Clergy, the Merchants, and the Inhabitants of the Town of Liverpool, His warmest acknowledgements for the feeling they have shewn in His calamities.

“ Though suffering under a grief that admits of no alleviation, the Prince Leopold is still sensible to those assurances of true affection, so feelingly manifested by the Town of Liverpool.

“ They will believe that however deep and lasting His own sufferings must be, He still shares with them that national calamity which all deplore—a dispensation so afflicting, so desolating, that we can only turn-to, and rest our hope in that Supreme Power, at whose Will it is inflicted, and pray that in His mercy and wisdom, He will direct it but to our temporal, and to our eternal benefit.

I have the honour, &c.

“ Robert Gardiner.

“ Claremont, December 5, 1817.”

To His Serene Highness George Frederick Leopold, Duke of Saxe, Prince of Cobourg of Saalfeld.

May it please your Serene Highness,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common Council of the Borough of Liverpool, in special Council assembled, humbly beg leave to approach your Serene Highness with our sincere expressions of condolence upon the calamity so recently sustained in the death of your amiable and Illustrious Consort, Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta.

Deeply as we lament an event which has blasted the brightest prospects of the British people, and which from its attendant circumstances, has rendered our affliction doubly grievous, we still derive the highest gratification from the consolatory reflection, that the last sufferings of the Royal Princess received from your Serene Highness every alleviation which domestic endearment could suggest, or conjugal affection bestow.

Animating by your example the subjects of this land to the performance of every moral and religious duty, may your Serene Highness ever continue to reside amongst us, restored in due season to the blessings of health, and enjoying every comfort and happiness which it is the lot of man to experience.

Given under our common seal, this 29th day of November 1817.

To which Address His Serene Highness was pleased to return the following Answer :

“ To Thomas Case, Esq. Mayor of Liverpool.

“ SIR,

“ I have this day had the honour of presenting to the Prince Leopold the Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common Council of the Borough of Liverpool, on the recent afflicting events at Claremont.

“ It is in Her praise and regret, in cherishing the recollection of Her virtues—Her ardent love and devotion to Her Country—in mourning its afflicting reverse of those bright hopes we so long had looked to, it is in these feelings, that sympathizing with His own irremediable grief, the nation have supported the Prince Leopold under a dispensation of unexampled suffering and woe. The Prince Leopold has to express His warmest acknowledgments on this occasion; and He trusts the Common Council of Liverpool will believe, that He receives with equal and consoling confidence, their assurances of attachment, and their participation in His own, and in the country's boundless calamity.

“ I have the honour, &c.

“ Robert Gardiner]

“ Claremont, December 5, 1817.

To His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Prince of Saxe Cobourg.

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgesses of the Borough of Devizes, in Common Council assembled.

SIR,

WE, the Mayor and Burgesses of Devizes, deeply participating in the affliction which has so suddenly and so severely torn aside that illusive veil of happiness, which but too recently your Serene Highness and this nation were permitted to assume, and cherishing the warmest feelings of affection and attachment for the family of our venerable and beloved Monarch, of which your Serene Highness is become so illustrious a Member, approach your Serene Highness with our most heartfelt condolence.

Under a calamity so immeasurable, we presume not to believe that we can offer any source of consolation that the piety and wisdom of your Serene Highness have not already suggested. If, however, the unaffected sympathy of all classes of his Majesty's subjects, in your Serene Highness's affliction, can tend to mitigate the severest pangs of bitter grief, a consolation may indeed be afforded by the universal and sincere mourning which now pervades these realms.

Deign also, Sir, to receive as an additional ray of cheering consolation, the high and unqualified admiration excited in us by every act of your Serene Highness from the earliest moment of your arrival amongst us, and which in the sad hour of trial has left upon our hearts indelible impressions of esteem, veneration, and gratitude.

We venture not to question the wisdom of, and much less to repine at, any event so manifestly and peculiarly marked by the immediate intervention of Providence; and we humbly and fervently pray, that in the furtherance of his inscrutable dispensations, God Almighty may realize the fondest wishes of the nation for the uninterrupted health of your Serene Highness, and that in his merciful bounty he will for a long succession of years, preserve the life of your Serene Highness, to cheer the hearts of a disconsolate people, and to perpetuate to us a brilliant example of domestic and public virtue.

Given under our common seal, in the Council Chamber of the said Borough, the 3d day of December, in the 58th year of his Majesty's reign.

John Tylee, Mayor.

By order of Council, Salmon.

To which Address His Serene Highness was pleased to return the following Answer :

" To John Tylee, Esq. Mayor, Devizes.

" SIR,

" I HAVE this day had the honour of presenting to the Prince Leopold the Address of the Mayor and Burgesses of Devizes, on the late deplored events at Claremont.

" The Prince Leopold assures the Mayor and Burgesses of Devizes, that their sincere and affectionate condolence has afforded him, and will ever be remembered by him with high and consoling confidence.

" They most justly appreciate his participation in the national sorrow ; in its deep and irremediable loss, and their assurances of sympathy, of affection and regard, have added increased influence to those sacred and revered ties that for ever rendered its interests and its griefs his own.

" I have the honour, &c.

Robert Gardiner.

" Claremont, December 6, 1817."

To His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Prince of Saxe Cobourg.

May it please your Serene Highness,

WE, the Mayor and Corporation, the Magistrates, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the City of Carlisle and its Vicinity, humbly present to your Serene Highness our most affectionate condolence, on occasion of the much lamented death of the Princess Charlotte, your Serene Highness's illustrious and beloved Consort.

When we contemplate a calamity so distressing to the nation, so peculiarly afflictive to yourself, we cannot in any adequate terms either express our own feelings, or sympathize with those of your Serene Highness.

We will not, most noble Prince, aggravate your sorrows by dwelling on the many virtues of her who, alas, is now no more : we will only add our assurances that they will long live in the memory of an affectionate people, and our persuasion that in the remembrance of them your Serene Highness will find your best and purest consolation.

If any mitigation of your grief can arise from prompt and universal testimonies of esteem and affection, we are sure those testimonies will not be wanting, but that they will flow warm and sincere from every part of the United Kingdom.

That your Serene Highness will derive the strongest support from seeing, in this event, the appointment of a wise and all-ruling Providence, we entertain no doubt ; and we also, after the bright example of resignation left us by your lamented Princess under the most trying circumstances, would comfort ourselves with her expressive words, " It is the Will of God."

To which Address His Serene Highness was pleased to return the following Answer :

" To John Hodgson, Esq. Mayor, Carlisle.

" SIR,

" I have this day had the honour of presenting to the Prince Leopold the Address of the Mayor, Corporation, Magistrates, and other Inhabitants of the City of Carlisle, on the recent deplored events at Claremont.

" The Prince Leopold feels most sensibly the interest the City of Carlisle have manifested in his calamities.

" He receives their condolence with full and earnest confidence in their affectionate attachment, and in their participation in his deep and boundless grief : their assurances of regard and unceasing sorrow will ever be remembered by the Prince, with feelings of the highest consolation he can now receive.

" I have the honour, &c.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS the Parliament stands prorogued to Tuesday the sixteenth day of December next, We, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued on the said sixteenth day of December to Tuesday the twenty-seventh day of January next ; and We have given order to the Lord High Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Great Britain, to prepare a Commission for proroguing the same accordingly. And We do further hereby, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice aforesaid, publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall, on the twenty-seventh day of January next, be held and sit for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs : And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said twenty-seventh day of January next.

Given at the Court at Brighton, the twenty-seventh day of November, one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, in the fifty-eighth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION,

Prohibiting His Majesty's Natural-born Subjects from serving or enlisting or entering themselves to serve in the Military Forces or Ships of War, raised or set forth by the Persons exercising or assuming to exercise the Powers of Government in certain Provinces and parts of Provinces in Spanish America, or in the Military Forces of His Catholic Majesty employed in Spanish America, or in His said Majesty's Ships of War.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS there unhappily subsists a state of warfare between His Catholic Majesty and divers Provinces or parts of Provinces in Spanish America: and whereas it has been represented to Us, that many of Our subjects have, without Our leave or license enlisted, or entered themselves to serve in the military forces or ships of war raised or set forth or intended to be raised or set forth by the persons, exercising or assuming to exercise the powers of Government in such Provinces or parts of Provinces, and that divers others of Our subjects are about in like manner to enter and enlist themselves: and whereas such practices are highly prejudicial to and tend to endanger the peace and welfare of Our Crown and Dominions, we do therefore hereby, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, strictly charge and command all and every of our natural-born subjects, of what degree or quality soever, not to serve in any such military forces or ships of war as aforesaid, and not to enlist or enter themselves to serve therein, and not to go beyond the Seas, or embark, in order to serve, or with intent to enter, or enlist themselves to serve in such military forces or ships of war: and it is at the same time Our Royal will and pleasure, and We do, by and with the advice aforesaid, hereby also strictly charge and command all and every of Our said subjects not to serve, or enlist, or enter themselves to serve in any of the military forces or ships of war raised or set forth, or to be raised or set forth, by His Catholic Majesty, and not to go beyond the Seas, or embark, in order, or to the intent to serve, or enter, or enlist themselves to serve in such military forces or ships of war; it is nevertheless Our Royal will and pleasure, that nothing herein contained, shall be deemed or taken to prohibit any of Our subjects, who are engaged at the time of the date of this Our Proclamation, in serving in the military forces of His Catholic Majesty, with Our leave or licence, from continuing to serve therein, provided that such Our said subjects do not serve with the military forces of His Catholic Majesty, when employed in Spanish America: and We do hereby, by and with the advice aforesaid, strictly require all Our said subjects duly to conform to Our commands herein contained, under pain of Our highest displeasure, and the utmost forfeitures, penalties, and punishments, to which by law they will otherwise be liable.

Given at Our Court at Brighton, the twenty-seventh day of November, one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, in the fifty-eighth year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS We have taken into consideration the state of the copper coin of this kingdom, and have deemed it expedient, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that all copper monies of this realm commonly called a halfpenny or a farthing, coined at His Majesty's Mint, and current in His Majesty's dominions, by virtue of any Proclamation prior to the twenty-sixth day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, should be called in and recoined.

And whereas in pursuance of an Order in Council, dated the twenty-first of January one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, considerable quantities of the said copper monies before-mentioned, have been received and exchanged at His Majesty's Mint, so that only a small portion of such monies now remain in circulation; We do, therefore, by this Our Royal Proclamation, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, think proper to declare and command, and We do declare and command, that no copper monies whatsoever (other than and except such copper monies as are now current, by virtue of His Majesty's Proclamation bearing date the twenty-sixth day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, or any Proclamation dated subsequent to the said twenty-sixth day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven) shall from henceforth be allowed to pass, or be current, in any payment whatsoever, within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

And we do further, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice aforesaid, declare and command that all persons holding any of the copper monies of this realm, commonly called a halfpenny or a farthing, coined at His Majesty's Mint, and current in His Majesty's dominions, by virtue of any Proclamation bearing date prior to the said twenty-sixth day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, who shall, on or before the thirty-first day of this instant December, bring the same to the Officers of His Majesty's Mint, in bags, containing fifty-six pounds weight avoirdupois each, and in quantities not less than three of such bags, and in tale not exceeding fifty-five pieces to the pound, or three thousand and eighty pieces to each bag of fifty-six pounds, shall thereupon receive the amount and value thereof according to the rate hereinafter specified (that is to say) for every such bag of fifty-six pounds weight, averaging fifty-five pieces to the pound, the sum of six pounds eight shillings and fourpence; for every such bag of fifty-six pounds weight, averaging fifty-four pieces to the pound, the sum of six pounds six shillings; for every such bag of fifty-six pounds weight, averaging fifty-three pieces to the pound, the sum of six pounds three shillings and eight pence, and so in proportion for any less average number of Pieces to the pound.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, the fifth day of December one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, in the fifty-eighth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

St. James's-Palace, December 13, 1817.

His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland has been pleased to appoint Sir John Hawker English, Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, and Doctor of Medicine of the University of Göttingen, of Lower Grosvenor-Street, to be one of the Surgeons of His Royal Highness's Household
