THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, the High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Dublin, with feelings of the deepest sorrow and regret for the irreparable loss of Her Royal Highness the late Princess Charlotte Augusta, most respectfully approach your Royal Highness, and while we humbly desire to submit to the dispensation with which it has pleased the Almighty by this sad event to visit the people of this realm, but more particularly the afflicted parent and consort of this ever to be lamented Princess, beg to offer, with the most heartfelt concern, our tribute of sympathy upon so melancholy and awful an occasion, and to express our faithful attachment to your Royal Highness's person and family, trusting that the allwise Providence which has thus in its inscrutable wisdom brought a nation's hope so low, may enable your Royal Highness and her afflicted Consort, to support, with resignation and fortitude, this great calamity.

Compton Domville, High Sheriff for the County of Dublin.

[Transmitted by the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Augustus Frederick, PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Tipperary.

ACCUSTOMED as your Royal Highness has been to the congratulations of a loyal and gratified people, on the splendid triumphs of your anticipated reign, it is with sentiments of deep regret, that we are now compelled to approach the Throne, in the altered tone of suffering and humiliation; and for the purpose of offering to your Royal Highness our humble assurances, that we truly and cordially participate in your parental affliction, upon the pressure of that heavy calamity, with which it has pleased Providence to visit your Royal House, and the nations committed to your Royal Highness's Government.

It would be most unfitting for us to endeavour, in the idle hope of administering the empty semblance of unreal comfort, to extenuate the mighty loss which we have all sustained. The Inheritress of the Crowns of these realms, and the first born and only offspring of your Royal Highness, during whose short but auspicious rule these nations have risen to an unprecedented pitch of glory, has sunk into an untimely grave—in the full maturity of all her high endowments and endearing virtues—and surrounded by the hopes and undivided affections of all His Majesty's subjects. Let our tears, and those of your Royal Highness continue to flow in copious streams; we must not seek to defraud our legitimate sorrows of their just prerogative.

From the contemplation however of this deplorable calamity there is one consideration, to which the mind may still turn, and dwell upon it with melancholy satisfaction. The object of our sorrows, though she is gone for ever from amongst us, will long continue to survive in our grateful recollections—as the glowing example of all the tender charities and endearing connections of domestic life—and in the early confidence, with which she had inspired those of every rank and degree, that she would have reigned in the affections of her people—when called to fulfil—had it been so ordained by the Sovereign Disposer of all human events—those high destinies, to which she had been born.

This is the true source of that pure and genuine consolation, which we presume thus respectfully to offer to your Royal Highness.

Vere Dawson Hunt, Sheriff.

[Transmitted by the Lord Lieut. of Ireland, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the principal Inhabitants of the Town and Vicinity of Balbriggan.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the principal Inhabitants of the Town and Vicinity of Balbriggan, respectfully beg leave to express to your Royal Highness our unfeigned condolence on the late eventful calamity, as unparalleled as it was unexpected, by which your Royal Highness has sustained so irreparable a loss. In vain shall we search the records of former times, for an occurrence so teeming with affliction. Still your Royal Highness will reflect with some, though a mournful, satisfaction, upon that sympathy, in which all His Majesty's subjects have so deeply partaken. Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte, lived in the hearts of the British people. She was endeared to them, as the heiress of the illustrious House of Brunswick; She was endeared to them by the independent and high principled energy of her mind—She was endeared to them by her mild and domestic virtues. Well may your Royal Highness feel a pride, in having been the parent of a pattern of excellence so exalted; of one, whose example will not merely extend to the present age, but be handed down by history for the imitation of posterity.

May your Royal Highness, on this most melancholy occasion, reap that comfort, which the consciousness of a people's sympathy can bestow; and obtain, from a higher source, that more effectual consolation, which nothing earthly can supply.

Geo. Hamilton, Chairman.

[Transmitted by the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

Most Gracious Prince,

WE, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common Council of the ancient and loyal City of Exeter, in Chamber assembled, deeply impressed with the acutest feelings of sorrow and regret, most humbly offer to your Royal Highness our sincere condolence on the irreparable loss which the Royal Family and the whole nation have sustained by the ever-to-be-lamented death of your illustrious Daughter, the presumptive Heiress to the Throne of this United Kingdom.

We most cordially sympathize in the mournful feelings of your Royal Highness on this lamentable event, aggravated by the bitter and sudden disappointment of the fondest hopes and expectations; but we trust that a due submission to the inscrutable decrees of Divine Providence, and a firm reliance on its future support, will assuage the grief your Royal Highness must experience both as a Parent and a Sovereign, and will at length prepare the mind of your Royal Highness to receive that comfort and consolation, which, under the blessing of God, the love of your affectionate people is calculated to afford.

We most humbly request your Royal Highness will allow us to express our feelings of gratitude for the judicious care by which the estimable qualities of our lamented Princess were fostered and improved, and to add our strongest assurances of unfeigned and continued loyalty to your Royal Person and Family.

Given under our common seal, at the Guildhall of the said City, this 8th day of December, in the year of our Lord 1817.

[Transmitted by William Courtenay, Esq. Member for the City of Exeter, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Borough and Town of Weymouth, and Melcombe Regis, in the County of Dorset.

SIRE,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty of this Borough, humbly approach you with dutiful expressions, of our unfeigned grief for the great and irreparable loss your Royal Highness in particular and the nation at large have sustained, in the afflicting event of the death of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta; a loss that the inhabitants of this Town can more fully estimate than less favoured parts of the empire, having been personally observers of Her Royal Highness's many virtues and excellencies during her residence amongst us.

Your Royal Highness has one consolation to lighten the weight of this heavy stroke, it has called forth a renewed and unequivocal testimony of the devoted attachment of all ranks to the illustrious House of Brunswick, to a degree that has never been exceeded, and in all the various ways which the unaffected feelings of the mourning heart would naturally and promptly inspire.

May your Royal Highness be preserved to our country, to wield for many years the sceptre of authority with the same paternal care and wisdom as has hitherto distinguished your supreme government.

[Transmitted by W. H. H. Tizard, Esq. acting Town Clerk, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, his Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Inhabitants of Weymouth and Melcombe Regis, beg the permission of presenting to your Royal Highness the tribute of our affliction and sorrow on the mournful event which has taken from you an affectionate and beloved daughter, and from this nation her rising and second hope.

We, whom she had honoured with her residence in this place during two successive seasons, were favoured with a personal demonstration of those virtues which adorned her mind, and of those feelings which animated her heart. We remarked that condescending but dignified affability which she displayed towards all classes and orders. We had repeated proofs of her sympathy with human distress. We saw her liberal hand always open to relieve the wants of the poor and unfortunate. We observed the interest which she took in the general happiness of mankind; but what must always be considered of the highest importance in that elevated station which we did fondly hope she was destined in the course of nature to fill, we beheld her distinguished attachment to the Christian religion, exemplified by her regular attendance on the services of the church, and by a devotional spirit, abstractedly employed in the performance of her solemn duties. We have been eye-witnesses of these things, and we know from the universal and applauding voice of the nation, that in the endowments which embellish and sweeten domestic life, she was a pattern of imitation to all the families of the kingdom.

On the contemplation of such accomplishments and conduct, in so young a person, we pause with inexpressible admiration and regret. Why the Divine Providence has so unexpectedly removed all this various excellence from the world, it is not for us, limited reasoners, to question. We must bow with submissive acquiescence in this apparently severe dispensation; but we dwell, and ever will dwell, on her dear memory, with tears and mourning.

We offer up our most earnest prayers to Almighty God, that he would be graciously pleased to alleviate the affliction of your Royal Highness by his efficacious consolations; and we fervently implore that he would preserve your most valuable life to the utmost days of man, for the welfare of His Majesty's people committed to your care; and that your administration of the sovereignty may end, though far remote be that hour, in the same undiminished glory with which it has commenced.

[Transmitted by H. H. Tizard, Esq. Town Clerk, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and others, Freeholders of the County of Berks, humbly approach your Royal Highness with feelings of the deepest sorrow and most respectful condolence on the late awful dispensation of Almighty God, which has bereft your Royal Highness of a virtuous and beloved daughter, and at the same time disappointed the hopes of a loyal and affectionate people.

But, whilst we are persuaded that the universal manifestation of genuine grief and sympathy, which has been called forth on this most afflicting occasion, cannot but be highly gratifying to the feelings of your Royal Highness, we are assured that your Royal Highness will derive your chief and best consolation, from a pious and humble submission to the unerring decrees of an all-wise and all-merciful Creator.

William Stone, Sheriff.

[Transmitted by William Stone, Esq. High Sheriff for the County of Berks, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the undersigned Inhabitants of Sunderland, Bishop Wearmouth, Monk Wearmouth, and the vicinity, impressed with a deep sense of the heavy affliction with which it hath pleased the Supreme Disposer of events to visit your Royal Highness and the nation, by the death of your Royal Daughter, the beloved Princess Charlotte Augusta, beg leave to offer to you our tribute of unfeigned condolence.

We most sincerely participate in the universal sympathy, regret, and lamentation, that pervade His Majesty's dominions upon the awful event, which has deprived your Royal Highness and his Majesty's subjects at once of a Princess of eminent virtues and most distinguished worth, and of the hopes they had anxiously placed on her Royal Offspring.

We fervently offer up our prayers to Almighty God for the welfare of your Royal Highness, and for the prosperity of the nation, beseeching him that your Royal Highness, supported by the consolations of religion, may be enabled to bear with fortitude and resignation, the peculiarly afflictive dispensation which has proceeded from His wise but inscrutable Providence.

May tranquillity of mind be soon restored to your Royal Highness, and may you long live in the enjoyment of health and happiness, and in the hearts of a free and loyal people.

[Transmitted by John George Lambton, Esq. M. P. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, Regent of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Berwick-upon-Tweed, in Guild assembled, beg to offer to your Royal Highness the sincere tribute of our condolence, on the melancholy event which has recently occurred, in the ever-to-be-lamented death of your Illustrious Daughter, the Princess Charlotte of Wales—an event which has left you, her Royal Father, childless, and a loyal nation bereaved of the fondest object of their affections.

Few indeed are the national calamities which disturb the serenity of domestic happiness, and fewer still the public misfortunes, which fall with a blighting power on the universal hope. But this grief, alas! is now ours; and in pouring forth to your Royal ear the unaffected sympathy of our hearts, while we thus aim at administering consolation to your breast by sharing its sorrows, we seek also some alleviation to our own in the utterance of our grief.

May we venture to remind your Royal Highness that the memorial of her virtues stands on the imperishable record of a voluntary national fast; and that her name, thus consecrated, will be handed down to future generations, not only as the heirress of the most powerful Crown in Europe, but as the object of a nation's hope while living; and in death, as calling forth this unprecedented expression of a nation's regret. To this testimony of our pious and tearful recollections we would direct your Royal mind for consolation, in so much as it may confirm your hope, that, though the brightest jewel in your Crown is for ever gone, yet the diadem which you wear is upheld by the trusty hands and sound hearts of a whole British people—who participate in the joys and sufferings of every branch of your Illustrious House.

Deeply do we feel and deplore our loss—but in resignation to the will of God, in our loss, we acknowledge her gain; and we pray that that Being “who hedges thrones,” and “by whom Princes reign,” may take you under his Holy Protection, support your spirit now in the time of his visitation, and grant you a long and happy reign over an affectionate, loyal, and independent people.

Given under our Common Seal, at Berwick-upon-Tweed aforesaid, this 1st day of December, in the 58th year of his Majesty's reign, and in the year of our Lord 1817.

David Stow, Mayor.

To his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the City of Durham.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of Durham, sympathizing in common with all His Majesty's subjects in the inexpressible grief and heartfelt sorrow, into which the early and ever-to-be-lamented death of Her late Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta, the presumptive Heiress to the Crown of these realms, has plunged your Royal Highness and the whole kingdom; humbly beg leave to offer to your Royal Highness our sincere condolence on that melancholy and awful visitation of Providence, which hath taken from your Royal Highness an only child, eminently distinguished for her filial love and the practice of every domestic duty, and hath taken from us a bright and lovely example of every moral and religious virtue; which, united to a firm attachment to the true principles of the British Constitution, held out the fairest hope of the future: such a loss we deeply deplore as a great national calamity, but we rely on the goodness of that Almighty Power, whose decrees are inscrutable, to assist and protect your Royal Highness, and to continue the prosperity and blessings which this nation has enjoyed under the reign of the Illustrious House of Brunswick.

Given under our common seal, the 2d day of December, in the year of Our Lord 1817.

[Transmitted by Thomas Wilkinson, Esq. Town Clerk, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To his Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Radnor, Inhabitants of that part of the Kingdom peculiarly connected with your Royal Highness, viewing with the most profound sorrow, the paternal affliction with which your Royal Highness is overwhelmed by the lamentable death of your beloved daughter Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta, beg leave to offer to your Royal Highness, our heartfelt expressions of sympathy and condolence.

We, in common with his Majesty's affectionate and loyal subjects, had viewed with anxious hope and satisfaction the many excellent virtues and amiable qualities which Her Royal Highness had so early developed. We had been gratified also with beholding the promise of happiness which the union of Her Royal Highness with his Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Cobourg, held out to themselves and the country, and being deeply sensible of the blessings we enjoy under the benign sway of the Princes of the Illustrious House of Brunswick, we had looked forward to enjoy, through her, a continued prolongation of them. We cannot therefore but deplore the melancholy death of Her Royal Highness with deepest sorrow and affliction.

Humbly submitting to the Divine will, we devoutly pray the Almighty to bestow his comfort and support on your Royal Highness, and on His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Cobourg, in this unexpected and most severe affliction. And we dutifully offer to your Royal Highness our most sincere assurances, that in no circumstances of sorrow or of trial shall we ever be found wanting in affectionate loyalty to the Throne or in cordial attachment to our happy Constitution.

Signed, at the request of the County Meeting,

Penry Powell, Sheriff of the County.

[Transmitted by Penry Powell, Esq. Sheriff for the County, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Town of Southampton, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, to endeavour to express our unfeigned grief at the late most severe and deplorable affliction with which it has pleased the Almighty to visit your Royal Highness, in the death of the best, most amiable and affectionate of daughters, Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta.

Deeply as the loss of such a daughter must afflict your Royal Highness, and severely as her most Illustrious Consort His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg must feel so unexpected a calamity, we in common with all His Majesty's loyal subjects, consider her Royal Highness's death as a still greater loss to the nation at large.

That a Princess so exemplary in every private virtue, and so eminently fitted to adorn the Throne of these realms, who might also have been expected hereafter to hold the sceptre with that wisdom and prudence, and that affection for the welfare of her subjects which the people of these nations have experienced from her predecessors of the Illustrious House of Brunswick, and who might also have been the mother of a Royal line to continue such blessings amongst us, should be so prematurely taken away, is an event which overwhelms us with regret and disappointment.

But we sincerely hope and ardently pray, that the Almighty who has in his inscrutable wisdom taken to himself this exemplary Princess, will be pleased in his mercy to continue to us a succession of Princes of that line of the House of Brunswick, who have so paternally reigned over us.

[Transmitted by the Mayor, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Ministers of the Presbytery of Inverness, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with the homage of our most sincere condolence on the heavy calamity with which it has pleased Almighty God to visit your Royal Highness and the whole British empire, in the early death of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte of Wales and her infant son. While as subjects of the Divine Government, we desire to submit with unreserved acquiescence to the appointments of unerring Wisdom, as men and Britons, we cannot but deplore the sudden extinction of so many hopes. That your Royal Highness may derive all that comfort from the truths and hopes of the Gospel which, more especially under griefs like yours, they are so graciously adapted to yield, and that after proving a public blessing for many years, your Royal Highness may be united to your justly beloved and lamented daughter in a better world, are the earnest prayers of, may it please your Royal Highness, His Majesty's most obedient, most faithful, and most loyal subjects, the Ministers of the Presbytery of Inverness.

Signed, in our name and presence, and by our appointment, by Alex. Rose, Moderator. Inverness, December 2, 1817.

[Transmitted by Charles Grant, jun. Esq. M.P. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's most loyal and devoted subjects, the Heritors, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of Peace, and Magistrates of the County of Bute, assembled at Rothesay, at a general meeting, beg leave humbly to offer to your Royal Highness the expression of our condolence upon the heavy affliction with which your Royal Highness as a father is now visited. We do also, upon public grounds, most deeply grieve for and lament the calamity, by which these kingdoms and your Royal Highness, as the high representative of their Sovereign, are deprived of their dearest hope.—We should not now intrude upon your Royal Highness, but that we consider it a duty, however melancholy, in proof of the affection and loyalty which we do truly bear to your Royal Highness's person and Government.

Signed in our name and by appointment, this 20th day of November 1817.

Archd. Moore, Vice-Lieutenant.

[Transmitted by the Marquess of Bute, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George, PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Renfrew.

IT is with the deepest sorrow, and the most cordial sympathy, and at same time with unshaken loyalty, and the most profound respect that we venture to approach your Royal Highness at this time, to express our condolence on the melancholy event of the much lamented death of your Royal Highness's dearly beloved daughter the Princess Charlotte, the pride of the nation, the hope of this kingdom, and the pattern of every thing virtuous and praiseworthy; our hopes and expectations, which were highly raised from such fair and flattering prospects, are sadly disappointed, and our joy, alas! has turned into mourning, but it was the will of the Sovereign disposer of every event.

We cordially sympathise with the afflicted husband Prince Leopold, under the irreparable loss he has sustained.

That the God of all grace and consolation may support your Royal Highness under the distressing dispensation of Providence, that He may long preserve the valuable life of your Royal Highness, and that your Royal Highness may long continue to reign over a free, happy, and loyal people, is the sincere prayer of, may it please your Royal Highness your devoted servants, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of Renfrew, in Common Council assembled.

Signed in presence and by appointment of the meeting, by Robert King, Provost.

Renfrew, December 2, 1817.

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Bailiffs and Citizens of the City of Lichfield.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bailiffs and Citizens of the City of Lichfield, deeply participating in the present general grief, beg leave to offer to your Royal Highness our respectful and sincere condolence on the melancholy calamity with which your Royal Highness and the whole nation have been afflicted; an event to be deplored, in proportion as the just expectations of your Royal Highness and the nation's fairest hopes, founded on the character and virtues of an amiable and accomplished Princess, have unhappily been disappointed.

We fervently hope your Royal Highness may long live to reign in the hearts of His Majesty's loyal subjects, and that the hereditary succession to the Crown of these realms, in a line of Princes descended from the illustrious House of our revered Sovereign, may be preserved for the security and happiness of ourselves and our posterity.

John Standly, }
William Snape, } Bailiffs.
Stephen Simpson, Town Clerk.

[Transmitted by Thomas Jervis, Esq. High Steward of the City of Lichfield, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects the Inhabitants of the City of Lichfield, and of the close of the Cathedral Church adjoining, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with our humble but heartfelt condolence on the late melancholy event, which has covered the land with mourning, from the palace to the cottage.

It does not become us to aggravate your Royal Highness's feelings by enumerating the mournful particulars of the loss we deplore, nor may we presume to intrude upon your grief with such topics of consolation as we could suggest. but we pray, as in duty and affection bound, that divine comfort and blessing may descend from above, upon your Royal Highness and every branch of the Royal Family, and upon that highly respected Prince, who, adopted by marriage into your august House, has borne so overwhelming a share of this public calamity.

May the Almighty grant, that heirs may never be wanting to the illustrious House of Brunswick, and that under their mild and paternal Government, this enviable nation may continue prosperous and happy to the latest posterity.

[Transmitted by Thomas Jervis, Esq. High Steward of the City of Lichfield, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Town of Beverley, in the County of York, in Common Council assembled, humbly beg leave to present to your Royal Highness our sincere and heartfelt condolence on the recent great and irreparable loss which your Royal Highness and the whole nation have sustained, in the lamentable death of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta of Wales, the beloved daughter of your Royal Highness.

Sincerely devoted to His Majesty our gracious Sovereign, and happy under the mild and firm administration of his Government by your Royal Highness, we cannot but be deeply afflicted at the demise of any member of the Royal House of Brunswick: how much then must we feel! since Divine Providence has deprived us of her whose dawning virtues filled every heart with joy, in expectation of one day adding lustre to the Throne of the British empire?

We pray, in common with all His Majesty's loyal subjects, that Almighty God may be the support of your Royal Highness under this heavy affliction, and long preserve your Royal Highness in health, prosperity, and peace.

Given under our common Seal, at Beverley aforesaid, the 1st day of December, in the fifty-eighth year of His Majesty's reign.

John Arden, Mayor.

Unto His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, Ministers of the Gospel in the Presbytery of Caithness, met at the celebration of the communion, beg leave to express to your Royal Highness our sincerest sentiments of sympathy and condolence, on the present most afflicting dispensation of Providence towards your Royal Personage and Family and most affectionate Lieges of these realms, by which their most eager expectations and flattering prospects of joyous congratulation have been so painfully disappointed and changed, and clouded with the deepest shade of sorrow.

May the same Divine Arbiter, who hath sent such cause of dejection and grief, be yet pleased, in his infinite wisdom and benignity, to sooth the afflictions and cheer the hearts of royalty; may He pour out abundantly the healing balm of sympathy and comfort—and confidence in himself; grant unto your Royal Highness everlasting consolation and good hope through his grace, revive and elevate your drooping spirits, excite and confirm every devout recollection and grateful acknowledgement of favours conferred and continued; vouchsafe assistance, support, and direction for the future, and compensate and remunerate your Royal Highness and your illustrious House, and your affectionate subjects, for every trying exercise of resignation to the supreme Will of Heaven; may He yet be pleased long to spare and protect your Royal Highness, you and your House and all the surviving members of the Family of our most beloved Sovereign, to be the vigilant and faithful, the successful and happy guardians of the interests and rights, sacred and civil, of these extensive realms, superadding to them all personal and domestic, royal and national blessings, and finally satisfy and crown every desire in celestial felicity and joy.

Such, may it please your Royal Highness, are the prayers and ardent wishes of your most loyal and dutiful subjects and servants, the Ministers of the Presbytery of Caithness.

Unto His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT, exercising the Government in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty.

WE, His Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subject, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Selkirk, much affected with the severe affliction with which it has pleased Divine Providence to visit the Royal Family by the sudden and unexpected death of the Princess Charlotte of Wales, and her infant child; beg leave to approach the Throne, with profound grief, and to offer to your Royal Highness our expressions of sincere condolence, on this very melancholy event. While we desire to acquiesce devoutly in the Sovereign appointment of the Supreme Ruler of the Universe; we, at the same time deeply participate in those painful sensations which this afflictive dispensation must have occasioned to your Royal Highness and to all the other Members of your Illustrious House. We trust, however, that your Royal Highness will be supported by those consolations which our Holy Religion imparts to its genuine professors. While we lament the early demise of a Princess, eminently distinguished for piety and virtue, your Royal Highness may rest assured that we shall not fail to inculcate the principles of religion, good order, and attachment to His Majesty's Person and Government.

That the God and Father of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ may sustain and long preserve His Majesty the King; that he may protect the person and prosper the Administration of your Royal Highness; that He may pour down His choicest blessings upon Her Majesty the Queen, and all the other branches of the Royal Family; and that a succession of Protestant Princes, descended from the Illustrious House of Brunswick, may sway the sceptre of these realms, and reign over a free, loyal and happy people, to the latest ages, are the prayers of, may it please your Royal Highness, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Selkirk.

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Winchester, in Common Council assembled, with the most heartfelt sorrow and regret, beg leave to condole with your Royal Highness, on the late afflicting event of the death of your amiable and beloved Daughter the Princess Charlotte; a Princess adorned with every virtue and accomplishment to endear her to a fond parent and an affectionate people; the premature loss of a Princess endowed with so many transcendent qualities, in the bloom of youth; and at so interesting a moment, cannot fail to have caused the deepest and most unfeigned sorrow, in the breasts of all His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, but in none more than in the bosoms of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of this ancient City. Deeply as we are affected at this awful and unexpected visitation of an All-wise Providence, as well from a sympathetic feeling with your Royal Highness, as also by a deep sense of the loss the Nation at large has sustained, in being deprived of its brightest ornament in a Princess possessed of so many inestimable virtues; we feel the consolatory hope, that the known fortitude of your Royal Highness on the most trying occasions, aided by the religious disposition of your mind, will enable you in due time to remove the bitter cup of affliction, and restore to you many years of health, tranquillity and happiness.

Given under the seal of our Corporation, this 4th day of December 1817.

[Transmitted by Phillip Williams, Esq. Recorder of the City, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness;

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects; Noble en, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Essex, deeply participating in the distress, so universally felt throughout the empire, beg leave to offer to your Royal Highness, the sincere tribute of our heartfelt sorrow, and affectionate condolence; on that most melancholy event, which has deprived your Royal Highness of an only child, whose private virtues were sufficient to gratify the fondest wishes of parental love.

To Your Royal Highness, however, and Her Illustrious Consort, it more particularly belongs to estimate this heavy misfortune, in the fulness of its domestic calamity, nor would we, even in the humble expression of our sympathetic feelings; presume to intrude rashly into the sacred recesses of paternal or connubial affliction.

But we trust, Sir, that we may be permitted to recollect, that your Royal offspring was also the daughter of England! one to whom from race, from education, and from personal character, Britons were justified in turning their eyes, in the full and well grounded confidence, that whenever in the course of nature, Providence should please to call her to the throne, the blessings they have so long enjoyed, under the mild and liberal rule of the House of Brunswick, would have been continued: unimpaired.

We cannot but lament that hopes so flattering should have been doomed to prove delusive.

But we will dwell no longer on an evil of which we can neither diminish the magnitude nor mitigate the impression.

The only appropriate consolation, which we can venture to propose as worthy of your Royal acceptance, is in the additional proof, which this sad occasion has drawn forth, of the zealous attachment to your Royal house and person, which pervades every district of the country, and of the unbounded loyalty which the virtues of Princes will never fail to call forth, in the moment of adversity, from the hearts of a grateful, a generous and an affectionate people.

John Hall, High Sheriff, by and in the name and on behalf of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Essex, 6th of December 1817.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses, of the Borough of Leicester, in Common Hall assembled.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, his Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Leicester, presume to approach your Royal Highness with feelings of the most affectionate attachment to your Royal Highness's person, family and government, and, though indisposed to intrude upon the privacy of domestic sorrow, we would offer to your Royal Highness the dutiful tribute of our unfeigned condolence. We feelingly participate in your Royal Highness's personal sufferings, and deeply deplore the severe calamity with which it has pleased Almighty God to afflict your Royal Highness and the nation, in the death of the Princess Charlotte. We venture to hope that your Royal Highness will experience some consolation under your heavy affliction, in the sympathizing sorrow which pervades all classes of his Majesty's subjects; but it is for Him alone whose inscrutable Providence has permitted this chastening visitation effectually to sustain your Royal Highness under it. We humbly pray that the Supreme disposer of events will give to your Royal Highness, to your Royal House, and to that illustrious mourner, the beloved Consort of your Royal Daughter, that peace which the world cannot give.

We pray that he may long preserve the valuable life of your Royal Highness for the protection and welfare of this kingdom: that he will transmit to our latest posterity, the blessings of the paternal sway of the House of Brunswick, and that he will unite the hearts of the people in an ardent and devoted attachment to the family of their Sovereign, and to that glorious Constitution of which he is the protecting father and the head.

Signed by the unanimous order of the Common Hall, Thomas Burbidge, Town Clerk.

To His Royal Highness GEORGE PRINCE REGENT, &c. &c.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Portreeve, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Penryn, in the County of Cornwall, beg leave to lay before your Royal Highness, our sentiments of sincere condolence on the very severe affliction with which your illustrious Family, and the Nation at large, have been visited, on the death of her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte: a loss the more deeply to be deplored, as her virtues had excited in the nation the fondest hopes, that her future reign would have maintained inviolate, our Religion, our Laws, and our Liberties.

Your Royal Highness will, next to the comforts of religion, derive consolation from the universal expression of love and affection displayed on this melancholy occasion by a loyal people, who, bending with resigned submission to this awful dispensation, will yet unite in fervent Prayers to the Almighty that he will not withdraw his protecting arm from this Kingdom, but continue to bless your Royal Highness in the execution of that authority with which you are invested, enabling you to promote most effectually the welfare of the People, the honour and security of these Dominions, and the maintenance of true Religion and Virtue.

[Transmitted by Henry Swan, Esq. Member for the Borough, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Oakhampton, approach your Royal Highness with feelings of the utmost respect and sorrow, and humbly beg leave to offer our deep and sincere condolence on the melancholy event which has so severely affected both your Royal Highness and each individual in his Majesty's dominions—an event which has deprived your Royal Highness of a Daughter, whose filial piety would have been a constant balm to the cares of your high situation, and his Majesty's subjects of a Princess, who, had she been spared to us, would have maintained inviolate our religion, our liberties, and our laws.

We check our own complaints, and endeavour to draw a useful lesson from this heavy dispensation, by reflecting to whom "belong the issues from death." We are persuaded that your Royal Highness has considered this, and that you submit in pious resignation.

We venture, however, Sir, to offer one consideration to you, which, although it proves the magnitude of our mutual loss, must open to you a source of consolation—we mean the unparalleled attachment and veneration which the public and private virtues of the illustrious dead had gained in the hearts of all ranks of his Majesty's subjects. This must carry sincere gratification to your Highness's parental breast—whether you Consider it as marking the character of the nation which Providence has called you to govern, or reflect that the piety of her whom we deplore will not be forgotten before the King of Kings.

To the protection of that Great Being we commend your Royal Highness, with our humble and ardent prayers for your consolation.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address of His Majesty's loyal subjects the Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply, of the County of Stirling.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply, of the County of Stirling, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, with assurances of our most sincere condolence on the much lamented death of your illustrious Daughter, an event which has struck a severe blow at the happiness of your Royal Highness as an affectionate father, and has plunged the whole nation into the deepest distress and affliction.

WE sympathise most warmly with your Royal Highness on this awful and unlooked for dispensation, and feel as if we too had lost a beloved child.

The recollection of the eminent virtues of this most amiable Princess must ultimately prove a source of consolation to your Royal Highness, and will embalm her memory in the hearts of the British People; but as Men and Christians we feel, that on such an occasion we must look to the highest source for comfort, and we therefore humbly implore the all-wise Disposer of every human event, that he may be pleased to grant to your Royal Highness that peace which the blessings or calamities of this world can neither give nor take away, and that he may long spare your Royal Highness in health and prosperity, to the prayers of an affectionate and loyal people.

Subscribed in name, and by appointment of the Meeting, by Thomas Graham Stirling, Esq. of Airth, Chairman, at Stirling, the 28th day of November, 1817 years.

Thomas Graham Stirling.

[Transmitted by the Duke of Montrose, K. G. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most faithful and loyal subjects, the Members of the Presbytery of Abertarf, met in Presbytery, take the liberty of approaching the Throne with sentiments of the profoundest reverence and devotion, and of the most unfeigned attachment to his Majesty's Royal Person and Family, to proffer to your Royal Highness our tribute of sympathy and condolence, awakened by a calamitous event which we regard with the deepest concern.

At a time when it has pleased the Supreme Disposer of all things to visit your Royal Highness with the severest domestic affliction, and all the Royal Family with an irreparable loss, and to plunge the whole nation, amidst its triumphs, into public mourning, for purposes to men inscrutable, but assuredly the wisest and most salutary, we would beg leave to mingle our feelings of sorrow with your's, and with the general grief which pervades all ranks in his Majesty's dominions.—The demise of the Princess Charlotte of Wales, who is represented by those who had the best access to know Her Royal Highness as possessing those accomplishments, virtues and graces which constitute the ornament of the sex, and those qualifications befitting Her exalted station and splendid prospects; who was the cherished hope of a delighted and admiring people, as well as the darling of an affectionate parent, and, who withal entertained correct notions of religion,—must have excited over the British Empire but one emotion of the sincerest regret, and most genuine heart-felt lamentation. The fairest expectations have withered in the bloom.

If the same destiny await the illustrious and the ignoble—the renowned and the obscure—the Father and the Offspring—the Monarch who rules nations and the lowliest cottager—the admonition is awfully impressive. If the lofty Cedar of Lebanon, which rears its head on high, is subject to the same laws of dissolution, with the humble hyssop that creeps to the wall;—If nature proclaims aloud that the same principles of mortality are inherent in all the works of creation; your Royal Highness will be piously disposed to acknowledge and adore the Omnipotent hand which has pointed the fatal arrow.

That the recent disastrous dispensation of Providence may be sanctified to all, by the giver of every good and perfect gift. That he who has inflicted the wound, may graciously vouchsafe to heal it, and pour into the heart of your Royal Highness the balm of consolation, bestow on you the oil of joy for mourning, and the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; and that after your Royal Highness shall have passed the most momentous period of human existence, he may give you in exchange for Royalty which is often beset with thorns, and always accompanied with cares and anxieties; a Crown incircled with glory that is imperishable, and for a terrestrial inheritance, an unfading and eternal one in the Heavens, are the earnest prayers of,

May it please your Royal Highness, His Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal subjects, Ministers of the Presbytery of Abertarf, met in Presbytery.

Fort Augustus, 26th Nov. 1817.

[Transmitted by the Rev. William Fraser, Moderator, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth].

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg; which Addresses His Serene Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Duke of Saxe, Margrave of Meissen, Landgrave of Thuringuen, Prince of Cobourg of Saalfeld, &c.

WE, the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Corporation, and other Inhabitants of the ancient and loyal Town of Guildford, in the County of Surrey, beg leave most humbly to offer our condolence to your Serene Highness, on the great and irreparable loss which your Serene Highness and the British empire have recently sustained, in the death of Her late Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta.

When we reflect on those valuable qualities which adorned the presumptive heiress of the British Throne, and which had excited in this nation the most pleasing expectations, we feel the deepest grief at the irreparable calamity which our country has sustained. Your Serene Highness may read in the universal sorrow which pervades the empire, the best and most unequivocal testimony to the worth of her whose loss all ranks of the people deplore.

Your affectionate attachment to your august Consort while living, and your conduct when it seemed good to the Almighty Disposer of Events to remove from you, and us, a Princess so highly and deservedly esteemed, endear your Serene Highness to a nation of which she was the brightest hope.

May God, whom it has pleased thus to bring on you the severest of human afflictions, enable your Serene Highness to submit with pious resignation to the dispensations of his inscrutable Providence, and may you here long continue to enjoy that respect and attachment which you have so well merited of the British people, and hereafter attain to a re-union with the object of your affection, in that blessed state where a separation can no more be feared.

Signed, by order and on behalf of the Mayor, &c.
Joseph Hocklen, Town Clerk.

To His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Duke of Saxe, Margrave of Misnia, Landgrave of Thuringia, Prince of Cobourg of Saalfeld.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Reading, in the County of Berks.

May it please your Serene Highness,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Reading, in the County of Berks, beg leave to approach your Serene Highness with our heartfelt expressions of sorrow and condolence upon the great and unexpected calamity, with which it has pleased the Almighty to visit your Highness, and the people of this Empire.

When we contemplate the promise of private and public happiness of which this afflicting event has deprived your Serene Highness and this United Kingdom, under circumstances peculiarly affecting, we are impressed with feelings, which we find it impossible to express in any adequate terms.

WE beg leave however to assure your Serene Highness, that while, as Christians, we bow with submission to this awful dispensation of Providence, we can never cease to recollect, with a deep though melancholy satisfaction, the bright example which your short-lived union with our beloved and deeply lamented Priucess, afforded to a feeling and a loyal people.

Thos. Sowdon, Mayor, Chairman.

To His Serene Highness the Prince of Saxe-Cobourg.

The Address of the Mayor, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of Christ Church, in the County of Southampton and the Neighbourhood.

AMIDST the lamentations of the whole nation for the very deeply afflicting loss of your late royal Consort, influenced as those have been by a strong sense of the weight of that misfortune as bearing upon His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, and on every branch of the royal Family, as well as on the interests of these Kingdoms, it is impossible not to turn our attention towards your Serene Highness, on whom that loss presses with a bitterness of sorrow that has admitted of no alleviation.

The conduct of your Serene Highness has so effectually endeared you to the people of this country, as would induce them to share in every grief with which your Serene Highness might be visited, but in this instance, connected as the in-appreciable calamity is with their own happiness, their sense of it is proportionably alive to its magnitude.

May the Almighty Power, which has inflicted this sorrow on your Serene Highness, enable you to sustain the weight of it.

To His Serene Highness Prince Leopold, Duke of Saxe Cobourg.

SIR,

WE, His Majesty faithful subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the Borough of King's Lynn, in the County of Norfolk, in Council assembled, humbly beg leave, in the melancholy approach to your Serene Highness, to add our tribute of sympathy and sorrow to the mournful emotions of every inhabitant of the British empire.

The loss of one, on whom the hopes of a whole nation were ardently fixed, has excited a sensation of grief throughout the country scarcely ever equalled, in the occurrence of any former national calamity.

Short, Sir, has been the period of your connubial felicity, but sufficient to display your exemplary virtues to an admiring and grateful people. They are universally felt and celebrated: whilst all unite in the wish and prayer that your affliction may be mitigated by the remembrance of so much early excellence; and that the sure hopes of religion may impart to your Serene Highness the purest consolation.

Given, under our common seal, at our Guildhall, the 27th day of November, in the year of our Lord, 1817.

To His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

May it please your Serene Highness,

WE, His Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Recorder, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Warwick, do most sincerely sympathise with your Serene Highness in your deep and unfeigned sorrow for the loss of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta.

We look back with affection and admiration to the bright assemblage of virtues which distinguished her character as a Daughter, a Wife, a Princess, and a Christian. We trust that through future generations, her example will have the most salutary influence upon every class of our fellow-subjects. We bow down with becoming resignation to that awful dispensation of Providence, which has deprived our country of the numerous and inestimable blessings to which we looked forward with well-founded confidence, when by the will of the Almighty she should have ascended the throne of these realms, and united in her favour every heart and every voice, by a wise, firm, and constitutional administration of public affairs.

We acknowledge with gratitude all the solid advantages which our forefathers and ourselves have hitherto enjoyed under the Government of her illustrious Family; and most earnestly do we implore the protection of Heaven to them and their descendants.

Signed on behalf of the Mayor, Aldermen, Recorder, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Warwick, the 25th day of November 1817,

John Bohun Smyth, Mayor.

To His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Prince of Cobourg, &c. &c. &c.

WE, the Magistrates and the other Members of the Town Council of the City of Perth, in Common Council assembled, beg leave to approach your Serene Highness to offer our heartfelt expressions of condolence for the irreparable loss you have sustained, by the death of your royal and most amiable Consort.

We hope, that while you piously submit to this dispensation of the Most High, it will contribute in some degree to your consolation, that your affliction is participated by the whole of a generous people, who truly loved the virtues of their Princess, and held in the highest estimation the person of your Serene Highness as the worthy object of her preference.

The period of the domestic virtue and felicity of your union, short, alas, as it has been, has left an indelible impression on the hearts of all ranks in the empire, and will transmit to the latest posterity a source of regret, that they have so soon been deprived of the increasing and important effects it must have produced.

We trust in God that you will live long among us an adopted British subject, possessing the cordial regards of this great people, and feeling a deep interest in the destinies of that powerful nation, of whose Crown your lamented Consort was the presumptive heiress; and enjoying the happiness arising from the consciousness that her memory, dear to you, as your attachment to her was unbounded, will be handed down to the latest posterity in terms corresponding to her conspicuous merits.

Signed, in name and by appointment of the Council, and the common seal of the City appended hereto. Laur. Robertson, Provost.

To His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

May it please your Serene Highness,

WE, the Magistrates and Town Council of Dundee, beg leave to condole with your Serene Highness on the late mournful event. Your Royal Consort, the Princess Charlotte, by her amiable disposition, love for her country, and great acquirements in all matters befitting her high station, had endeared herself to the nation, over which it was hoped she was destined to reign. She was also distinguished by all that gives value to private life, by her affection as a daughter, and by her sincere attachment to the husband of her choice. But in the full prospect of a long and happy life, she was suddenly cut off, to your inexpressible grief. The people regard your affliction as their own, and anxiously desire to administer to your consolation; they hope that you will still adopt this country for your home; and we are assured that the lively interest they will always take in every thing which concerns your welfare, shall evince to your Serene Highness, that your affectionate kindness to their beloved Princess has made a deep and lasting impression on their grateful minds.

Given under the common seal of the Burgh, this 27th day of November, in the year 1817,

Alex. Riddoch, Provost.

To His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Duke of Saxe, Prince of Cobourg of Saalfeld.

WE, the Mayor, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Marlborough, beg permission to express to your Serene Highness our unfeigned grief, and to offer our humble but sincere and respectful condolence, on the irreparable and most afflicting loss which your Serene Highness has sustained, by the lamented decease of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte.

No event has ever been more deeply or universally deplored by His Majesty's subjects. The demonstrations of the inestimable value placed on the beloved object on whom the country has fixed its fondest hopes—of the national grief and disappointment suffered by the death of our lamented Princess and her offspring, and of the sympathy felt for your Serene Highness under an affliction so severe, have been spontaneously manifested by the nation at large. We have fully participated in those feelings, and in the sentiments of high estimation and affectionate regard for your Serene Highness so universally entertained; and we fervently supplicate the Almighty to afford your Serene Highness that alleviation to your sufferings which He alone can bestow.

On behalf and at the request of the Burgesses and Inhabitants of Marlborough, John Wentworth, Mayor.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

Whereas We have taken into consideration the state of the copper coin of this kingdom, and have deemed it expedient, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that all copper monies of this realm commonly called a halfpenny or a farthing, coined at His Majesty's Mint, and current in His Majesty's dominions, by virtue of any Proclamation prior to the twenty-sixth day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, should be called in and recoined.

And whereas in pursuance of an Order in Council, dated the twenty-first of January one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, considerable quantities of the said copper monies before-mentioned, have been received and exchanged at His Majesty's Mint, so that only a small portion of such monies now remain in circulation; We do, therefore, by this Our Royal Proclamation, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, think proper to declare and command, and We do declare and command, that no copper monies whatsoever (other than and except such copper monies as are now current, by virtue of His Majesty's Proclamation bearing date the twenty-sixth day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, or any Proclamation dated subsequent to the said twenty-sixth day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven) shall from henceforth be allowed to pass, or be current, in any payment whatsoever, within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

And we do further, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice aforesaid, declare and command that all persons holding any of the copper monies of this realm, commonly called a halfpenny or a farthing, coined at His Majesty's Mint, and current in His Majesty's dominions, by virtue of any Proclamation bearing date prior to the said twenty-sixth day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, who shall, on or before the thirty-first day of this instant December, bring the same to the Officers of His Majesty's Mint, in bags, containing fifty-six pounds weight avoirdupois each, and in quantities not less than three of such bags, and in tale not exceeding fifty-five pieces to the pound, or three thousand and eighty pieces to each bag of fifty-six pounds, shall thereupon receive the amount and value thereof according to the rate hereinafter specified (that is to say) for every such bag of fifty-six pounds weight, averaging fifty-five pieces to the pound, the sum of six pounds eight shillings and fourpence; for every such bag of fifty-six pounds weight, averaging fifty-four pieces to the pound, the sum of six pounds six shillings; for every such bag of fifty-six pounds weight, averaging fifty-three pieces to the pound, the sum of six pounds three shillings and eight pence, and so in proportion for any less average number of Pieces to the pound.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, the fifth day of December one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, in the fifty-eighth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

Whitehall, December 15, 1817.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Frederick Fisher, of Doncaster, in the county of York, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, December 6, 1817.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the morning of Sunday the 23d of last month, the woollen and worsted spinning mill, belonging to Messrs. Hooman, Pardoe, and Company, in Kidderminster, was totally destroyed by fire; and that there is reason to suppose the same was wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said mill), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE THOUSAND POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices in the said felony, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.—Five hundred pounds, part of the above reward, to be paid by Messrs. Hooman, Pardoe, and Company, and the remaining five hundred pounds to be paid by the Norwich Union Fire-Office.

Provident Institution for Life Insurance and Annuities.

In compliance with the requisition of a majority of the Directors of the above Institution, I hereby appoint a Special General Meeting of the Shareholders of the said Institution to be holden at the Office of the said Institution, in Southampton-Street, Covent-Garden, in the City of Westminster, on Wednesday the 24th day of December instant, at the hour of twelve at noon, for the purpose of taking into consideration a proposed contract and arrangement between the said Institution and a provincial establishment for life assurance, for the sale and transfer to the said Provident Institution of the business and concerns of the country establishment, and for investing the Court of Directors of the said Institution with all proper authorities for carrying the said contract into execution, being the objects specified in the said requisition.

J. T. Barber Beaumont, Managing Director

POST HORSE DUTIES.

Stamp-Office, London, December 16, 1817.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, by virtue of an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for letting to farm the Post Horse Duties, and for better securing and facilitating the recovery of the said Duties," the Commissioners of Stamps will again put up to be let to farm, such of the said duties (which were granted by the Act of the forty-fourth year of His Majesty's reign, chap. 98) as shall arise in the district under mentioned, at the Stamp-Office, Somerset-Place, on Wednesday the 14th day of January next, between the hours of eleven and one, at a yearly rent, for the term of three years from the 1st day of February next inclusive, the highest bidder at the former letting of the said duties having failed to complete his contract for the same, pursuant to the conditions at such letting, wherefore the said Commissioners of Stamps have declared such contract void:

No.	DISTRICT.	Annual Rent at which it will be put up.
16.	NORTH WALES, viz.
	Anglesea . . . . .	} £ 8000
	Carnarvonshire . . . . .
	Denbighshire . . . . .
	Flintshire . . . . .
	Merionethshire and . . . . .
	Montgomeryshire, with . . . . .
	Shropshire . . . . .

The district will be put up at the sum above set opposite thereto, which, if there be no bidding, will be gradually abated down to a certain point, or till a bidding shall be made. The highest bidder will be declared the farmer, and will be required to pay down immediately, in Bank notes, seven and a half per cent. upon the annual rent as a deposit; if no sufficient bidding shall be made, it will be withdrawn.

All persons intending to bid for the said duties, are to deliver in their proposals, addressed to the Commissioners at the Stamp-Office, Somerset-Place, at least three days previous to the said 14th day of January next, signed with their names, and stating the places of their abode, otherwise their proposals cannot be proceeded upon.

And, no persons licensed to let horses for the purpose of travelling post, nor any one for their use, can be admitted to contract for the said duties.

By order of the Commissioners of Stamps,
Wm. Kappen, Secretary.
