THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent ; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously :

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Oxford, lament that the peculiar circumstances of the present melancholy occasion, preclude us from availing ourselves of the accustomed and honourable distinction of personal access to the Throne, which we have enjoyed under the favour of His Majesty and his Royal predecessors.

But we humbly entreat that we may be permitted to submit in this manner (as best suited to the feelings of your Royal Highness, under so heavy a calamity) the dutiful expression of our heartfelt grief on the death of a Princess, who was alike endeared to us by her personal virtues, and by the relation in which she stood to your Royal Highness.

It is impossible that we should not, under all circumstances, mourn over the loss of any member of a Family, to which we are indebted for the preservation of our civil and religious liberties ; but that loss is now doubly afflicting, when the visitation is also of a nature to wound your Royal Highness's parental feelings.

We do not presume to suggest considerations of duty, or topics of consolation : but we cannot forbear to express the hope, that it will afford relief to your Royal Highness to reflect, that the hand which has afflicted you, is the Hand of Providence ; and that although the illustrious object of our regret has been summoned from this scene of probation too soon for our wishes, and for the happiness of your Royal Highness, she yet was spared until her private virtues had conciliated the love of the whole nation, and until her character was so far developed, as to justify the universal expectation of future greatness.

We indulge too the further hope, that it will alleviate the grief of your Royal Highness, to witness the unanimity with which all ranks of our fellow subjects press forward to pay the tribute of their sorrow to the memory of our departed Princess, and to tender at the same time, the homage of their condolence.

And while on this sad occasion we mingle our tears with the tears of the country, permit us to offer the renewed declarations of our attachment to your Royal Highness's Person, Family and Government, which we acknowledge to be the source of the greatest public and private blessings, and to which we feel ourselves unalterably bound by every tie of loyalty, affection and gratitude.

Given at our House of Convocation, under our common seal, this 11th day of December, in the Year of Our Lord 1817.

[Transmitted by Lord Grenville, Chancellor of the University, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE the Inhabitants of the Town of Wolverhampton, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with emotions of the most profound grief on the death of your Royal Highness's daughter, our truly lamented Princess Charlotte Augusta.

The hope of seeing a direct line of succession to the Throne of these realms is mournfully and unexpectedly extinguished.—The pride and glory of the British Empire is afflictively torn from us.

In proportion as our admiration of the virtues and amiable qualities of your Illustrious daughter was excited, so much more severe is the poignancy of our affliction at our country's irreparable loss.

May that Divine Providence which in the hour of adversity dispenseth comfort, extend to your Royal Highness every consolation, and arm your Royal Highness with fortitude to support the recent calamitous event.

On behalf and by the order of a Meeting of the Inhabitants of Wolverhampton, 1st of December 1817.

[Transmitted by Edward John Littleton, Esq. M. P. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

Unto His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful subjects the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Dumfries, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, and to express the deep sentiments of grief and regret, which we, in common with the rest of the nation, have felt on the lamented death of your amiable and exemplary daughter, the Princess Charlotte Augusta, whose virtues rendered her a pattern to her sex, and raised in us the fond expectation of beholding her an ornament to the Throne, and a blessing to the country.

While we bitterly deplore this melancholy event, upon which we beg leave sincerely to condole with your Royal Highness, we earnestly implore Almighty God, to enable you to support the heavy loss you have sustained, with that fortitude and resignation, which a due sense of religion, so necessary in the hour of affliction, can alone inspire.

By appointment of a General Meeting of the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply, this day assembled.

The Loyal Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Councilmen, and Burgesses of the Town of Cambridge.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom.

May it please your Royal Highness, most Gracious Prince,

WE, His Majesty's faithful subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Councilmen, and Burgesses of the Town of Cambridge, deeply sympathizing in the keen anguish of suffering with which your Royal Highness, Her Majesty the Queen, His Serene Highness Prince Leopold, and all the Royal Family are overwhelmed, beg leave most respectfully to offer the tribute of our condolence upon the melancholy event; which, occurring at a moment, and under circumstances so peculiarly mournful and heart-rending, has filled both the Palace and the Cottage with lamentation and sorrow.

We hailed the union of Her Royal Highness, your departed daughter, as an event most auspicious to the future prosperity and glory of England.

We followed her into the tranquil yet dignified scenes of her domestic life, and beheld in her faithful discharge of every filial and conjugal duty, in her silent unostentatious exercise of every Christian Charity, and in her entire devotion to all the sacred obligations of religion, the bright promise of an example, which could not have failed, under the Divine Blessing, to have diffused its influence most extensively and powerfully for the happiness of these kingdoms; nor in the contemplation of Her Royal Highness's domestic virtues, did we fail to mark and admire, in the proofs of her ardent attachment to the principles of our Constitution, the surest pledge of her anxiety to maintain the liberties and promote the welfare of her future people.

But it has pleased God, in his inscrutable wisdom, to blight the prospect in which we had too fondly indulged, and to awaken us, by a signal infliction of his power, to a recollection of our entire dependance upon His mercy.

May your Royal Highness, may His Serene Highness, (in whose unbounded devotion of himself to the happiness of His Royal Consort while living, and in whose manly though heart-broken sorrows and pious resignation at her loss, your Royal Highness, in common with all ranks of His Majesty's subjects, must find an ample source of mournful gratification) may you both find consolation in this agony of grief where alone it is to be found; and may we all be enabled to convert this national calamity individually to our moral and religious improvement.

Given under our common seal, this 4th day of December 1817.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Selkirk.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WITH feelings of poignant grief, we, the Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Selkirk, for ourselves, and as representing the community of the said Burgh, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, and in a manner the most dutiful and respectful, to offer our humble condolence on that severe affliction; with which it has pleased the Almighty Disposer of events to visit your Royal Highness and this nation, by the death of your Royal Daughter, the Princess Charlotte, consort of His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg. When we reflect on that change, which a few short weeks have made, and think of that moment to which your Royal Highness with Parental fondness looked forward, and which the subjects of these realms anticipated with the joyful expectation of the probability of a child being born, who might one day sway the sceptre over them, a happy and loyal people, and consider how sadly and how speedily all these hopes have been frustrated, and our joy turned into mourning, most deeply are we sensible how much your Royal Highness stands in need of consolation, and how much it is the duty of all your loving subjects, as far as in them lies, to endeavour to afford it. It having, however, been the will of the Almighty that your Royal Highness and the nation should suffer this sore trial, it is our duty with pious and humble resignation to bend to his will; and in the midst of sorrow it may well afford comfort to your Royal Highness's mind to reflect, that as the life of your Royal Daughter our beloved Princess was one of continued and most exemplary virtue, holding forth for the imitation of your subjects, a pattern of the most devoted filial and conjugal affection, so it created for her a love, which has erected to her memory an imperishable monument in the hearts of all your faithful subjects.

That it may please God to pour the balm of consolation into the wounded spirit of your Royal Highness, to preserve your life for many years, and to perpetuate the race of the Royal House of Brunswick on the Throne of these realms to latest generations, is the sincere wish and prayer of the Magistrates, Town Council, and Community of the Royal Burgh of Selkirk.

In whose name and by whose authority this is signed, and the seal of the Burgh appended, this 8th day of December 1817.

[Transmitted by Lord Napier, Lord Lieutenant of Selkirkshire, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, His Majesty's faithful and dutiful subjects, the Inhabitants of the Staffordshire Potteries, humbly beg your Royal Highness will accept our respectful condolence on the calamitous event which has deprived your Royal Highness of a beloved daughter, the presumptive Heir to the Throne. We deeply lament the loss of a Princess, the hope and pride of the nation; a loss which we feel with the greater poignancy from its having fallen upon us whilst we were fondly anticipating an event which would have filled the hearts of the whole people with joy, and would have given an additional pledge for the permanent occupation of the Throne of the United Kingdom, by the descendants of His Majesty.

Heavy as is the infliction, we would still hope that the unfeigned sorrow and deep sympathy of the whole body of His Majesty's subjects may have some power to mitigate the bitterness of your Royal Highness's grief, and to hasten the period when your Royal Highness will be able to recollect the virtues, amiable qualities and accomplishments of Her late Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte with a tender regret, unmixed with the overwhelming emotions of grief, for a recent loss. And we humbly offer our earnest wishes, for this and for all other blessings on your Royal Highness, and for the prosperity of your Royal House.

At a Special Public Meeting, held the 8th day of December 1817.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Glamorgan, His most respected, beloved, and aged Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, in County Meeting assembled, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of the deepest sorrow and sympathy, with expressions of condolence, humbly tendered with all reverence and affection, on the melancholy death of your Royal Daughter, the late Princess Charlotte Augusta, Consort of His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

We lament that the dispensation of Divine Providence, which is inscrutable to human understanding, has so deeply afflicted your Royal Highness, and also deprived the nation of those dearly encouraged hopes, that our adored Princess, who was the possessor of every virtue, might hereafter add lustre to the highest office in the State, maintain the honour and dignity of the Crown, and the happiness of the people; but grievous has been the disappointment to the father who mourns his child, and to the nation, in the irreparable loss sustained.

We feel also, that every tribute of regard and respect is due to that amiable and exemplary Prince, her august Consort, whose severe grief we deeply deplore, who was the companion in her virtuous and charitable acts, and whose excellent conduct has obtained the esteem and sympathy of all.

To expatiate more on such topics, would only tend to increase the affliction it is our endeavour to assuage. To these sentiments of sorrow and condolence, we beg to assure your Royal Highness of our most cordial attachment to your Person and Family; and we earnestly pray that your Royal Highness, who has already added so much glory to the British name, may long and prosperously govern the happiest and freest people of the world, and a succession of Sovereigns of the Illustrious House of Brunswick, may ever reign over this great empire.

Signed on behalf of the Meeting,

Thomas Bates Rous, Sheriff.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Burgesses of the Ancient Borough of Newport, in the Isle of Wight, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, with sentiments of unfeigned attachment and respect, to offer to your Royal Highness our heartfelt sympathy and condolence, on the late mournful and calamitous event of the death of Her Royal Highness Princess Charlotte Augusta of Wales.— An event which has deprived your Royal Highness of a dutiful and affectionate daughter, has laid prostrate the hopes of the country, and has taken from the world one of its loveliest and brightest ornaments. That our hearts are filled with the most poignant feelings of disappointment and regret, it will not be difficult for your Royal Highness, whose afflictions are so much heavier than our own, to believe.

If it were permitted to us to open the volume of futurity, we might there find sources of consolation and comfort that are now hidden from our sight; but as that is not permitted, we must look up with confidence to the Almighty disposer of events to lighten the burthen of our afflictions.—As men, as subjects, and as Christians, we may mourn for the loss we have sustained, but we must not question the wisdom and justice of Providence; we must not murmur at its decrees. The hand that inflicted the wound can heal it. The power that deprived us of our hopes can restore them.

That this hand and this power, which have so often in mercy been extended over us, may be again manifested in our behalf; that your Royal Highness may long live to administer the Government of a free, loyal, and enlightened people, and that the Throne of these kingdoms may be perpetuated in your Illustrious House, is our most fervent prayer.

In testimony whereof, we have hereunto set our Common Seal, this 6th day of December, in the 58th year of his Majesty's reign.

[Transmitted by Sir Leonard Worsley Holmes, Bart. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Magistrates and Council of the Borough of New Galloway, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of unfeigned sympathy and condolence on the death of your Illustrious Daughter, the presumptive Heir to the Crown of the British Empire; a Princess of unrivalled talents and virtues, and eminently distinguished for piety, charity, and other good works.

The death of a Princess so amiable, and of such transcendent promise, must be a severe trial to your Royal Highness, and an afflicting calamity and irreparable loss to these kingdoms.

Whilst we mourn under this severe dispensation of Providence, we bow with resignation to the will of Heaven, and we implore the Almighty disposer of all events to comfort and sustain your Royal Highness, and to shower down his best blessings on your head.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, in our presence, in Council assembled, at New Galloway, the 8th day of December 1817.

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The dutiful Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Dumbarton.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most loyal and affectionate subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Dumbarton, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, with the unfeigned expression of our grief for the late afflicting dispensation of Providence, by which the nation has been deprived of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta; and to offer to your Royal Highness our condolence on this distressing event.

As men and Christians, we must sympathize with the father, the husband, and other relatives, who mourn the fate of an amiable Princess, torn from the exemplary discharge of her duties in public and domestic life, and enjoy not even the consolation of cherishing a living image of her virtues. But when we connect with these sources of regret, the disappointment of our national prospects, the additional cloud thrown over that august Family, whose Royal dignity is but one of their claims to our attachment, and the bitter anguish with which the heart of your Royal Highness must be torn; we have no words in which to express our feelings—no quarter but one, to which we can look for comfort.

That the God of all consolation may visit your Royal Highness with that comfort, which trust in his fatherly wisdom and goodness, alone can inspire; that he may dry the tears of the afflicted surviving husband, and sorrowing Royal Family; and that he may over-rule all the unsearchable dispensations of his Providence, for the permanence of His Majesty's august House, and the prosperity of this realm—is the fervent prayer of,

May it please your Royal Highness, His Majesty's most dutiful, most loyal, and most devoted subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Dumbarton.

Signed in our name, in our presence, and at our appointment, by

Duncan Macfarlan, Moderator.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor and Burgesses, Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the Borough, Town, and Parish of Tiverton, in the County of Devon, impressed with the deepest sorrow, in common with all His Majesty's faithful subjects at the afflictive loss which your Royal Highness and the nation at large have sustained by the death of your Royal Daughter, the Princess Charlotte Augusta of Wales, humbly beg leave to offer to your Royal Highness our most sincere and affectionate condolence.

Though we are unavoidably led to deplore this awful event, not only as a domestic misfortune, but as a great national calamity, we bow with submission to the visitation of the Divine Providence, and whilst we cherish in our memory the affectionate recollection of the public and private virtues of the amiable Princess, whose loss we deeply lament, we devoutly implore the Supreme disposer of all events, to grant to your Royal Highness, to her beloved and disconsolate Consort, Prince Leopold, and all the Members of your august Family, that divine consolation and support which He only can bestow in this great and unexpected calamity: and that the protecting arm of His Providence may not be withdrawn from this great and highly favoured nation,

We beg leave on this melancholy occasion, humbly to renew the solemn assurances of our most inviolable attachment to your Royal Highness's sacred Person and Family, and to our excellent Constitution in Church and State; and we still fervently presume to hope, that there may never be wanting Heirs of your Illustrious House, to reign over these dominions to the latest posterity.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Harrowby, Lord President of the Council, and presented by Lord Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the Borough of Lancaster, in Council assembled, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, to express our heartfelt regret and unfeigned sorrow, at the irreparable loss which your Royal Highness and the nation have suffered by the unexpected death of your beloved, illustrious and only daughter, the Princess Charlotte Augusta.

We most respectfully and most sincerely condole with your Royal Highness on this heavy affliction, so deeply affecting your Royal Highness, and which we deplore as a great national calamity. Indulging as we do in the deepest sorrow on this lamented event, we humbly supplicate that Almighty Power, whom it has pleased thus to visit us, to alleviate the sorrows of your Royal Highness, and graciously to continue that protection to our country, which He has signally manifested on so many occasions.

In offering these our humble expressions of grief and condolence, we entreat your Royal Highness to accept the assurance of our unshaken loyalty and attachment to your Royal Highness's Person and Family.

Given under the Seal of the said Borough, the 29th day of November, in the year of our Lord 1817. Samuel Gregson, Mayor.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Frecholders and Heritors of the County of Roxburgh.

Most Gracious Prince,

SUBDUED by the great and sudden calamity, which it hath pleased Almighty God to inflict upon your Royal Highness, and upon the whole British Empire, and feeling most sensibly for the anguish of a parent on this awful dispensation of Providence, most earnestly do we entreat your Royal Highness to accept our humble and unfeigned sympathy.

It is not for us to dwell upon an event which we never can cease to deplore; it is not for us to presume to offer consolation when we know not where on earth to look for it; yet in the midst of our grief we cannot but reflect, that this visitation, severe as it is, has afforded to the world a signal proof of the soundness of heart, the steady principles, the devoted attachment of a great, a virtuous, and a loyal people.

May He who governs the destinies of man, mercifully vouchsafe to administer support and comfort to your Royal Highness, and to His Majesty's faithful and afflicted subjects.

Signed in our presence, at a County Meeting, held at Jedburgh, this 9th day of December 1817 years. Lothian, President.

[Transmitted by the Marquess of Lothian, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Magistrates, Town Council and Incorporations of the Burgh of Dumfries, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of the deepest sorrow, for the death of the Illustrious Princess Charlotte Augusta of Wales, the loss of whom we deplore as one of the greatest calamities that ever befel the kingdom, while at the same time we sincerely and affectionately condole with your Royal Highness for the afflicting dispensation which has deprived an affectionate father of a beloved and only daughter, dear to the nation from the bright example of every virtuous and amiable quality which, alas! in the short career allotted her by Divine Providence, she afforded to an admiring and grateful people.

The pious resignation of the illustrious Princess, in her last moments, to the will of Heaven, will, we trust, moderate the heavy affliction with which you have been visited, and enable your Royal Highness to derive consolation from the Almighty, from whom alone, in such trying circumstances, comfort can be obtained.

We are thankful for the many blessings we enjoy under your paternal government, from the influence of your wise councils; and while we bow with submission to the awful dispensation with which it has pleased the Supreme disposer of the universe to afflict us, we beg leave to add our most cordial attachment to the person and family of your Royal Highness.

Signed in our presence; in our name and by our appointment, at Dumfries, this 27th day of November 1817.

John Barker, Provost and Chief Magistrate.

[Transmitted by William Robert Keith Douglas, Esq. M. P. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, the undersigned, his Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bailiffs, Recorder, Deputy Recorder, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Bridgnorth and its vicinity, humbly beg leave to express to your Royal Highness, our deep affliction on the ever to be lamented death of your most illustrious daughter, the Princess Charlotte Augusta, the late Consort of His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

We weep over this great national calamity with more acuteness of sorrow, from a high sense of those noble virtues and rare excellencies of heart and mind, with which she was so eminently gifted; as these had already acquired to her universal affection and admiration, so had they excited the strongest hopes, that in the fullness of time she would (under the great examples of our beloved King and yourself,) have wielded the sceptre of this kingdom in such a manner as to have maintained its power and glory abroad, and upheld its liberties and Constitution at home.

We most unfeignedly deplore the extinction of these hopes, but at the same time we feelingly lament that this irreparable loss falls with accumulated pressure on your Royal Highness's parental feelings: we beg leave to offer to you our heartfelt condolence and sympathy in this time of affliction.

May your Royal Highness feel some consolation, in the recollection of her numerous virtues; may it afford some alleviation to your sorrows to know, that they are shared by a free but loyal and affectionate people; and above all, may you find comfort in a patient resignation to the dispensations of an ever merciful but inscrutable Providence.

Permit us to add our assurance of devoted attachment to your Royal person, and to express our fervent hopes, that the imperishable glory achieved for this great nation, under your auspices and counsels, may be perpetuated in your illustrious House.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Inhabitants of the Town of Plymouth Dock, and Parish of Stoke Damerel, in the County of Devon.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town of Plymouth Dock, and Parish of Stoke Damerel, in the County of Devon, humbly approach your Royal Highness, with the most profound sentiments of duty, respect, and affection; to express our heartfelt condolence on the death of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta of Wales, your most excellent, amiable, and much beloved daughter; and the extinction of her Royal issue: and to convey to your Royal Highness the expression of our grief, at the severely afflicting loss which your Royal Highness has sustained; and we beg to assure your Royal Highness, that we most unfeignedly participate in the distress which the melancholy event has occasioned to the nation at large.

We humbly desire to assure Your Royal Highness, that we did most sincerely rejoice in Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta's marriage, because with her transcendent accomplishments and brilliant qualities, united to a Prince of the most exalted and eminent virtues, promised every thing the nation could possibly wish—a happy and desirable progeny—a long continuance of reciprocal felicity, not only to themselves, but to her august family, and the whole British empire: and it is in proportion to those high expectations which we did cherish, that we now feel in the same degree depressed with the most poignant sorrow at her being suddenly taken from us, and our best hopes disappointed, which is deeply engraven on our hearts, as a private as well as public calamity.

We cannot presume to doubt but your Royal Highness will yield a humble and implicit acquiescence to the Almighty disposer of all human events, and we pray God to support your Royal Highness, under a loss as keen and severe as it has been sudden and unexpected.

May your Royal Highness enjoy a long and prosperous life, and may the succession to the Throne of this kingdom, be perpetuated for ages, in heirs to the Illustrious House of Brunswick.

Signed at the request and on behalf of the Meeting,

Jonathan Williams, Chairman, a Magistrate for the Counties of Devon and Cornwall.

To His Royal Highness George Augustus Frederick, Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Mayor, the Aldermen, the High Steward, the Burgesses and other Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Saint Alban, in Common Hall assembled, on Wednesday the 10th day of December 1817, having approached your Royal Highness in terms of congratulation, on the vast and extraordinary events which have brought this country to the highest pitch of political greatness, it is with a most melancholy feeling, that we now humbly offer our condolence on the calamity with which it has pleased the Almighty to visit your august House and this hitherto favoured nation. We most sincerely deplore the too early loss of that admirable Princess, who promised so fair to become the pride of the House of Brunswick, and the patroness of every thing great and estimable in these dominions. We enter into the paternal feelings of your Royal Highness, who has been bereft of the brightest gem which adorned your princely house; but we trust a sense of humility to the Divine Will, a confidence in Him who watches over the fate of nations, will enable you to support this great affliction with fortitude and resignation.

Accept, we implore your Royal Highness, our unfeigned condolence on this most calamitous event, and suffer us to assure you that none of His Majesty's subjects feel more anxious than we do, that it may please the Almighty to shield your bosom from future distress, that he may protect your Royal House, and establish the prosperity and happiness of the country committed to your paternal care and guidance.

Signed as Chairman, on behalf and at the unanimous request of the meeting,

T. F. Gape, Mayor.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Borough of Great Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk, in Common Council assembled, humbly crave leave to offer to your Royal Highness our most sincere condolence, on the afflicting occasion of the death of your Royal Highness's amiable and beloved daughter, the late Princess Charlotte Augusta.

As parents, we most sensibly participate with your Royal Highness, in the feelings and anguish which now assail your Royal bosom; as subjects, we deeply and sincerely deplore so great a national loss, and we fervently hope that the Almighty will be pleased, in the severity of his dispensations, to shield your Royal Highness with fortitude commensurate to so trying a visitation.

If sympathy is a balm, (and in private life we are taught so to estimate it,) we trust it is truly consolatory to your Royal Highness, to observe the whole empire, absorbed in unfeigned regret, affectionately participating in your present grief, and sincerely bewailing this great national calamity.

We beg on this lamentable occasion to offer to your Royal Highness, the expression of our continued and unaltered attachment and loyalty to your Royal Highness's person and government.

Given under our common Seal, in our Guildhall, this 12th day of December, in the fifty-eighth year of His Majesty's reign.

Samuel Paget, Mayor.

[Transmitted by the Mayor, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty, of the City of Norwich.

Impressed with sentiments of the deepest sorrow, we, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, in Common Council assembled, approach your Royal Highness to express our participation in the general regret and affliction, for the late lamentable loss the kingdom has sustained, by the premature and melancholy death of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte

Augusta, a loss which has at once bereaved your Royal Highness of a daughter, the most amiable and the most deservedly beloved; and deprived the country of its brightest hope and its most distinguished ornament.

We wish not unseasonably to obtrude on your Royal Highness's sufferings, much less to aggravate their severity by awakening the recollection of those eminent and endearing qualities, which blended the dignity of elevated rank and station with the charms of domestic virtue and retirement, and with the happiness of connubial affection—qualities which commanded and obtained universal love, esteem, and admiration; we rather hope that grief may be assuaged and anguish alleviated by such reflections, and that your Royal Highness, by a pious submission to the inscrutable dispensations of Divine Providence, may find sorrow mitigated and consolation administered in the well placed confidence; that the ever to be lamented Princess who trusted in God, will from the Father of Mercies receive the reward of her virtue, her piety and resignation. To that Almighty Being we now pray for the continuance of your Royal Highness's life, that the British Sceptre may be long swayed by your illustrious family, and that, under the auspices of the House of Brunswick, our posterity may possess the same freedom, happiness and prosperity, which we and our ancestors have enjoyed under their rule and government.

Given under the Common Seal of the said City, the 5th day of December, in the 58th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, and in the year of our Lord 1817.

[Transmitted by the Mayor, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Empire of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness;

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Sovereign, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the City of Armagh, beg leave to express to your Royal Highness, our unfeigned feelings of sorrow; on the melancholy death of her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte—feelings, which we are convinced may be truly termed national, and with which every worthy and intelligent mind must fully accord.

Though it is the duty of all to submit with resignation to the dispensations of Providence, we can never cease to lament the distressing event, which has at once deprived your Royal Highness of a beloved daughter, her illustrious Consort, of the object of his tenderest affections, and these Nations of the hope, that the succession to the Throne of her Royal Ancestors, would have been continued in their excellent Princess and her posterity.

We are aware how inadequate all language must be, to assuage the afflictions of a spirit so deeply wounded; but we trust, and truly hope, that the consolations of religion, and the influence of manly fortitude, will enable your Royal Highness, during a long life, to enjoy the high gratification of seeing the people of this widely-extended Empire united, prosperous, and happy, under the wisdom and excellence of your Royal Highness's Counsels and Government.

We entreat, Royal Sir, that you will graciously accept this sincere testimony of sympathy, respect, and attachment from your Royal Highness's obedient and faithful servants,

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Wexford, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with our most heartfelt and sincere condolence on the late severe dispensation of Providence, with which it has pleased the Almighty to visit your Royal Highness and this Empire.

The loss we deplore is one of the most severe recorded in the annals of this country. Never were more tears shed for a public calamity; for, by every individual it has been mourned as a private one, and long will this feeling remain in the hearts of His Majesty's loyal subjects.

That the Almighty Disposer of all events may support and comfort your Royal Highness and illustrious Family; and that the sympathy which is felt by His Majesty's subjects in your Royal Highness's affliction, may confirm and strengthen their loyalty and attachment to the House of Brunswick, is our earnest prayer.

WE, His Majesty's faithful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the City of Limerick, in Common Council assembled, beg leave humbly to approach your Royal Highness to offer our sincere and dutiful condolence upon the lamented event, which has deprived this nation of its highest hope, and consigned to the grave, in the bloom of youth, all that was lovely and amiable.

We sincerely sympathise in the deep affliction into which this unexpected blow has thrown your Royal Highness, and our only consolation is in indulging a hope, that time may reconcile you to the will of God, at whose dispensations none of us should repine.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's faithful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the City of Limerick, beg leave with profound respect to approach your Royal Highness, most humbly to express the deep sorrow we experience, in contemplating the melancholy event which has plunged the whole nation into such unexampled affliction, and consigned to a premature grave, under the most distressing circumstances, the future hope of every wellwisher to his country.

We sincerely sympathise with your Royal Highness, in deploring the heavy calamity that has befallen you, and with feelings of the most poignant regret, for the severe loss you have sustained, we presume to offer to your Royal Highness our unfeigned and dutiful condolence.

We trust we shall stand excused, in humbly submitting a hope, that measures may be adopted, with a view to fill up the frightful chasm that this double misfortune has made, in the succession to the Crown, and to ensure to our posterity the continuance upon the throne, of the immediate Descendants of our beloved Monarch, under whom we have been so long and so happily governed.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Bristol, in Common Council assembled, beg to approach your Royal Highness, under feelings of deep affliction, to offer our heartfelt tribute of condolence at the recent death of the Princess Charlotte Augusta, your Royal Daughter, and the Consort of Leopold George Frederick, Prince of Saxe Cobourg.

In our humble expressions of sorrow, we should in vain attempt to draw the character of the illustrious dead:—distinguished was her life by grace and virtues, which opened the brightest prospects to a nation's love—a melancholy grandeur reigns over her tomb, which is consecrated by a nation's tears.

We would bow with submission to the awful dispensation of the Divine Will, which has thus bereaved the kingdom of its fairest ornament, and its future hope. Great and irreparable is the loss sustained—but, amidst the general mourning of the nation, we flatter ourselves that your Royal Highness will derive consolation from its sympathetic feeling, and satisfaction in witnessing its strong and increasing attachment towards your Royal Person, Family, and Government.

We trust, under Divine Providence, that the sovereignty and glory of these realms may be perpetuated in the illustrious line of the House of Brunswick; and that the foundations of the British Throne may remain long fixed in the affections of a loyal people.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Burgh of Evesham, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the ancient and loyal Burgh of Evesham, approach your Royal Highness with feelings of the most heartfelt sympathy, to express our sorrow, and to offer our condolence on the inscrutable visitation of Providence, which has bereaved your Royal Highness of a dutiful and deservedly beloved daughter; which has cut off from the British nation the presumptive Heiress to the Crown of these realms.

We had fondly anticipated the hope of rejoicing on the birth of a future Sovereign to these dominions, in a direct line from your Royal Highness; but it has pleased the Almighty, for mysterious purposes, to dash the cup of joy from our lips, and to turn our pleasure into mourning; but we trust that the God of Mercy will incline his ear to the spontaneous supplications and prayers of a people, simultaneously offered up with fervent and awful earnestness to the Throne of Grace, to give that consolation to your Royal Highness, and to the whole of the Royal Family, which he alone can bestow; and to grant forgiveness and teach resignation to an humbled and sorrowing people, in the inexplicable dispensations of His unerring wisdom.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Linlithgow, in public Meeting assembled, deem it to be our duty, on the present occasion, humbly to address your Royal Highness, and to convey to your Royal Highness the sentiments of condolence, and of deep sympathy, with which we contemplate the recent events that have afflicted your Royal Highness and the nation.

It has been heretofore our good fortune to approach the Throne on happier occasions, and with heartfelt unanimity to swell the tide of national triumph. We now, in the discharge of a painful duty, but with the same sentiments of loyalty to the King, and of affectionate respect for your Royal Highness, desire to join in that universal expression of public sorrow, which has been so strongly excited by the disappointment of our hopes, and by the lamented death of your Royal Highness's august daughter, the Princess Charlotte of Wales.

The virtues of that Illustrious Person, and the union she had so happily formed with a Prince whose character we admire and revere, and in whose affliction we deeply sympathise, had justly tended to excite the fondest hopes, and to present the most auspicious prospect for the future.

The decrees of an unerring Providence, by destroying these hopes, and blighting that prospect, have involved the nation in gloom. But as Britons and as men, we feel justly proud of the nature and of the extent of that public feeling that has been called forth; and while we believe that it will eminently tend to draw closer those bands which, in every free State, should unite the Prince and the people, we feel persuaded that, under God, it will be the surest means of conveying to the breast of your Royal Highness that measure of consolation of which the melancholy occasion admits, and of which, it is our most earnest desire, that your Royal Highness, and the other branches of your Illustrious House, may participate in the fullest extent.

Participating, as we do, in the general feeling of grief, we humbly offer the tribute of sincere condolence, praying that the Almighty Disposer of events, may support your Royal Highness under this heavy affliction.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the ancient Royal Burgh of Inverness, deeply lamenting the irreparable loss recently sustained by your Royal Highness and the British Empire, sincerely alive to the suffering sorrow of the Parent, and participating in the universal regret of His Majesty's people, humbly approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of unfeigned grief on the unexpected calamity with which Almighty God hath seen fit to visit these realms, in depriving your Royal Highness of a beloved and only child, and the nation of its fondest hopes, under circumstances so peculiarly mournful and interesting.

It would ill become us to dwell on a subject which admits of no consolation, but that which Heaven affords; yet, as participation in sorrow often alleviates its bitterness, we beg to assure your Royal Highness, that no class of His Majesty's subjects more highly appreciated the many excellencies which distinguished the character of Her Royal Highness the late Princess Charlotte Augusta, and more deeply deplore her premature death, than, (may it please your Royal Highness), we, His Majesty's faithful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the ancient Royal Burgh of Inverness.

WE, His Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Clergy of the County of Moray, impressed with sentiments of profound veneration and affection for our beloved Sovereign and his august Family, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, at this mournful period of universal grief, to offer our sincere and heartfelt condolence on the lamented death of your Illustrious Daughter, her Royal Highness the late Princess Charlotte Augusta.

We deplore this calamitous event, so distressful to your Royal Highness's parental affection, so fatal to the nation's hope—which has alike filled the palace and the cottage with sorrow and dismay. Snatched by an untimely fate from domestic endearment and public admiration, the imperishable memory of Her Royal Highness's eminent virtues, of her talents, and of her exemplary conduct, alone remains embalmed in the afflicted bosom of her country.

Humbling ourselves under this awful dispensation of Divine Providence, and sympathising with your Royal Highness's overwhelming distress, we fervently pray Almighty God to vouchsafe you support and consolation, and to perpetuate the succession of these realms in Princes of your Royal House, inheriting those qualities which constitute the glory of Monarchs, and the happiness of their people.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's dutiful subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Forres, deeply afflicted by the recent and much-lamented loss sustained by your august Family, which we deplore both as a public and private misfortune, desire to express, in terms of sincere loyalty to our revered Sovereign—of dutiful attachment to your Royal Highness—and of high respect towards the Prince Leopold, our heartfelt condolence on the death of the late excellent Princess, your daughter.

We implore Almighty God to support your Royal Highness, and his Serene Highness your son-in-law, under a shock as keen and severe, as it has been sudden and unlooked for; and beg to assure your Royal Highness, that we unfeignedly participate in your sorrows upon this melancholy event.

May your Royal Highness enjoy a long and prosperous life; and may the succession to the Crown of this great empire continue for ages in heirs to the Illustrious House of Brunswick.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Peebles, beg leave humbly to approach your Royal Highness, with the respectful homage of our unfeigned sorrow and sympathy upon the afflicting and calamitous death of Her Royal Highness's Princess Charlotte Augusta of Saxe Cobourg, which presses so heavily on your Royal Highness, and your Illustrious House.

No language can adequately express the deep feelings of grief and sorrow that have pervaded us in common with all ranks of the community upon this mournful occasion; we participated in the joy of your Royal Highness and the nation-felt upon the marriage of your Royal daughter, and we had flattered ourselves; that under her and her family, our children would one day enjoy the same happiness; and freedom we have long experienced under our beloved Sovereign, and your Royal Highness.

It is with the deepest regret, we have seen the nation's hope so suddenly and unexpectedly blasted, at a time we fondly expected to have addressed your Royal Highness in the language of congratulation, upon the birth of an Heir to the Crown. But however much we deplore our national disappointment, our feelings are still more keenly alive to the sorrow and anguish this mournful event has occasioned to your Royal Highness ; we most sincerely sympathize in those feelings, and trusting that the unalterable attachment of sincere sympathy of a loyal people, which has been so universally expressed, may prove a source of consolation to your Royal Highness upon this melancholy dispensation, we fervently pray, that the Almighty may support you under the awful and mysterious interposition of his Providence, and may long preserve the life of our beloved Sovereign, and of your Royal Highness, that we and our posterity may continue to enjoy the blessings we have hitherto experienced under the paternal Government of the House of Brunswick.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Haddington, in a General Meeting, assembled this 9th December 1817.

WE, His Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Haddington, beg leave to express to your Royal Highness our participation in the sorrow so deeply felt by all classes of His Majesty's subjects, at the death of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta ; as a Member of your Royal House, she was dear to every bosom ; by her personal virtues, she added other and powerful claims on our affections ; and under this afflicting event, our sole consolation arises from the confident hope which we are taught by the highest of all authority to entertain, that under the un-erring dispensations of an all-just and all-merciful God, she is now reaping the abundant and precious reward of these virtues : we feel that from such a source alone, can your Royal Highness derive any mitigation of the deeply aggravated wound inflicted on your parental affections, and we earnestly pray, that Almighty God may in his grace, pour this consolation liberally into your Royal Highness's mind, and into the minds of her other illustrious and lamenting relatives.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Noblemen and Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Fife, in General Meeting assembled, this 11th December 1817.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen and Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Fife, with feelings of the most heartfelt grief, for the severe loss which your Royal Highness and the nation have sustained, by the death of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta, humbly beg leave to offer to your Royal Highness the expression of our condolence, on this most melancholy occasion : were we to attempt to expatiate on the peculiar circumstances attending this calamitous event, or on the distinguished virtues of the amiable and Illustrious Princess, whose loss we deplore—virtues which have endeared her to the whole British nation, we fear that we should but aggravate the grief which it is our wish to assuage ; but we venture to hope, that the expression of affliction which has so universally pervaded all ranks and descriptions of His Majesty's subjects, by proving their steady and unalterable attachment to your Royal Highness and your Illustrious House, may impart some degree of consolation to your Royal Highness's mind.

We humbly pray, that He who in his inscrutable wisdom has thought fit to inflict this awful dispensation, may, in mercy to your Royal Highness and the British nation, be pleased to enable your Royal Highness to bear it with fortitude and resignation, and to grant to your Royal Highness many years of health and prosperity.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Citizens, and Inhabitants of the ancient and loyal City of Worcester, in Common Hall assembled, this 5th day of December, under feelings of profound grief, beg to offer to your Royal Highness our unfeigned condolence, upon the late melancholy event, which has deprived your Royal Highness of your beloved daughter, and the nation of one of its brightest ornaments. Although, under the aggravation of the heavy affliction which your Royal Highness must now endure, we cannot aim at the possibility of consolation, it may certainly be yet permitted to us to hope, that the heartfelt condolence, and universal sympathy of a city (second to none in its loyalty and attachment to your Government), may, at a distant period, when your Royal Highness's mind can turn itself to worldly considerations, prove to your Royal Highness a source of gratification and relief. To afford that relief, even at the most distant period, will be to us the fulfillment of our utmost ambition ; the height of vanity and presumption could alone lead us beyond those circumscribed and defined limits ; if unassumed dignity, natural grace, and the splendid endowments of a virtuous mind, could have ensured a lengthened and happy termination of earthly existence, your loyal subjects might have humbly hoped, that Heaven would have spared them the mournful task of deploring the loss of our endeared Princess—our beloved friend—the pride of our country, and the admiration of the civilized world ! But 'tis past—reality has supplanted speculation—and the loveliest flower of our soil is cut off in its very blossoming—the paths of honour have lead but to the grave! The mysterious decree of Providence has willed it, and to Him alone, in whose hands are the issues of life and death, can we look for support. To that Almighty Being can your Royal Highness alone look for consolation, and may you be enabled by his divine inspiration to rise superior even to a calamity, so deep; so poignant, so afflicting, whilst we, your loyal subjects, resting in firm confidence, that such ordination, emanating from the Throne of Mercy, can never detract from the honour of your Crown, or the interests of your country, subscribe ourselves your Royal Highness's attached and devoted subjects.

We beseech your Royal Highness to believe, that we sympathize in the calamity as one family;—that we deplore the loss as that of our own child. We pray the Almighty to grant to your Royal Highness, and the several Members of your Royal House, His support and consolation in such extreme affliction, by the healing balm of Religion, the only consolation for us all in this destruction of our hopes

May your Royal Highness be long preserved to this nation for its happiness and welfare,—and may it be blessed with numerous succeeding generations of your Illustrious Family.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg; which Addresses His Serene Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Serene Highness the Prince of Saxe Cobourg and Saalfeld, &c. &c.

May it please your Serene Highness,

WE, the Members of the Faculty of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow, request leave to approach your Serene Highness with the most respectful, though most sincere, sentiments of condolence on the present mournful occasion. Topics of ordinary consolation it is not our purpose to offer, as they would be useless for you to hear; the calamity your Serene Highness has sustained, and which we in common lament, is felt to be irretrievable, and the agony of a husband and a father we well know time only can alleviate. Perhaps when the bitterness of recent sorrow has in some measure past away, a ray of comfort may spring up by reflecting on the exalted character and varied excellencies of the illustrious personage, whom we are now called upon to deplore; a Princess no less revered for her enlightened attachment to the best principles of our Constitution, those principles of freedom which originally seated her family on the Throne of these kingdoms, than endeared to all by the practice of every domestic virtue; a Princess whose memory has been embalmed by the tears of millions, and whose untimely and unlooked-for fate has carried into the bosom of every family in the land, a sincerity of grief which neither rank can purchase nor the authority of kings command. For the afflicted feelings of the beloved husband of her choice your Serene Highness may rest assured the public sympathy is no less deeply interested, nor is the respect inspired for your character, during your short residence among us, a less universal sentiment; and it remains only to express our humble and earnest prayer, that the well-merited esteem of a great people may at length prove a balm to sorrows unhappily too just and reasonable to be either of light endurance or of brief termination.

The Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the Shire of Ayr.

SIR,

IN requesting leave to address your Serene Highness at so early a period, after so fatal a disaster, so irreparable a loss sustained by your Serene Highness, in that sudden and unlooked-for calamity, which has deprived this Empire of its fond hopes, and your Serene Highness of your beloved consort, the exalted and admirable Princess Charlotte of Wales; we entreat your Serene Highness may deign to impute it to the anxious desire we entertain of making offer of our heartfelt condolence to your Serene Highness, whose sorrows we feel to be beyond all expression.

With assurances of the highest consideration and regard, we are, Sir, your devoted and most faithful servants, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the Shire of Ayr.

Signed by the Right Honourable the Earl of Eglinton, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Ayr, our Preses, in our name and by our appointment, at Ayr, the 1st day of December 1817, Eglinton, Preses.

To His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

WE, the Mayor, Corporation, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Plymouth, humbly request your Serene Highness's favourable acceptance of this Address, on occasion of the late calamitous event at Claremont, which hath wrung the hearts of a whole people, and filled every corner of the kingdom with weeping and mourning.

The acute sense which we have of our own loss teaches us in some measure to appreciate the magnitude of yours; and our hearts, most excellent Prince, affectionately sympathize with your sorrows under an affliction which so many endearing circumstances of a domestic nature combine with the virtues and talents of our august Princess, your late Royal Consort, to render almost inexpressibly poignant.

Your Serene Highness will, we trust, pardon us the liberty of accompanying our condolence, with assurances of the profound respect and esteem which we entertain for a Prince whose alliance with our lamented Princess had opened to them the fairest prospects of mutual happiness.

On behalf of the Mayor, Corporation, and Inhabitants, Thos. Miller, Mayor and Chairman.

To His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

May it please your Serene Highness,

WE, the Convener, Deacons, and Members of the Nine Incorporated Trades of the ancient and Royal Burgh of Dundee, humbly approach your Serene Highness with unfeigned sentiments of grief, at the late mournful event which has deprived you of an affectionate wife, and the British people of their favourite Princess. When we considered her amiable virtues, her love of her country, and her great acquirements in every kind of learning, which could add lustre to her high rank and station, we hailed with joy the prospect of a British empire being long and nobly governed, under so virtuous and amiable a Princess. But how mournful has been the reverse! At the very moment when our hopes were highest this amiable Princess has been snatched from the world, to the inexpressible grief of your Serene Highness and the British nation.—We would most anxiously wish to condole with your Serene Highness on this afflicting dispensation of Providence; and perhaps when time has blunted the edge of your grief, it will be a mournful consolation to know that it has been participated in by a generous people; and that it was their earnest hope, that the happy union between their Princess and the husband of her own choice would long subsist unbroken, and constitute the pleasure and happiness of an admiring nation.

We trust, notwithstanding the late afflicting event, that you will consider this country as your own; that you will remain amongst a nation which admires your virtues, and long receive its gratitude for the tender affection which you showed to their beloved Princess while alive.

Signed, by order and on behalf the Nine Incorporated Trades,

James Gellatly, Convenor.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the City of Durham.

May it please your Serene Highness,

WE, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the City of Durham, humbly beg leave to offer to your Serene Highness the expression of our sincerest condolence, and of our deepest sorrow on the premature and ever to be lamented death of the illustrious consort of your Serene Highness; a Princess, whose early loss is deplored throughout this extended empire as no common affliction, and with no transient grief, but is, and long will be, universally felt as a great national calamity; for, in her Royal Highness we beheld the purest example of conjugal affection, and the performance of every private and public duty. To your Serene Highness, the daily associate of her virtues, and who uniformly united with her in the practice of them, the loss of such a friend and companion must be irreparable; but we humbly trust that your distress will derive some alleviation from the knowledge, that it is so deeply and unfeignedly participated in by every description of persons in this nation, and that you will ever command their sincerest wishes and prayers for your future happiness.

Given under our common seal, the 2d day of December, in the year of our Lord 1817.

To His Serene Highness Leopold, Duke of Saxe and Prince of Cobourg.

SIR,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council, and Livery of the Town and County of the Town of Nottingham, approach you to express our unfeigned sympathy and condolence with your Highness, upon the afflicting death of your most illustrious Consort, Her late Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta.

The universal lamentations of the empire for their departed Princess, will by your Serene Highness be heard with emotions of sacred and grateful tenderness.

May their influence sooth the bitterness of your present sorrow—and may the conviction, yielded by religion, that every dispensation, however now severe, is the appointment of an All-wise, and All-gracious Providence, impart its benign and lasting support to the mind of your Serene Highness.

Given under the common seal, the 3d day of December 1817, in the mayoralty of John Houseman Barber, Esq.

H. Enfield, Town Clerk.

To His Serene Highness the Prince of Saxe Cobourg.

May it please your Serene Highness,

WE the Ministers of the Presbytery of Langholm, being met in our official capacity to deliberate on the affairs of that part of the Scottish Church to which we belong, cannot allow ourselves to return to our several dwellings, without expressing our sympathy with your Serene Highness on the late most melancholy event which has happened to you and to the nation, in the removal of your beloved consort and child to the World of Spirits. In proportion to our hopes, has been our grief. We looked forward with fond expectation to many happy days, from the continued life of the universally-admired and beloved Princess Charlotte; and flattered ourselves, that in the direct line of succession, the people of Great Britain would enjoy many blessings from the united Houses of Hanover and Saxe Cobourg; but these hopes have been disappointed; a mysterious, but wise Providence hath ordered otherwise, and it is our duty, and that of the nation, to submit.

Your Serene Highness, however, has most cause to lament; yet if the sympathy of the nation at home, and all the friends of the nation abroad, can be any consolation, that sympathy, in the warmest and most affectionate manner, is yours.

Nor will your Serene Highness, we trust, be unsupported in your present heavy trial by the comforts of religion; comforts which become valuable, in proportion to our need of them; for we are assured, that though our dearest friends be removed from our embrace, they are not lost to us for ever, since all who live in the Faith, and die in the hope of the Gospel, shall meet again in the Regions of Bliss, to be happy in God, and happy with each other.

That these delightful consolations and animating hopes may soothe the mind of your Serene Highness, is the devout wish of every Minister of the Presbytery of Langholm.

Signed in their name and presence, and by their appointment, at Langholm, this 1st day of December 1817,

-David Scott, Moderator.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS We have taken into consideration the state of the copper coin of this kingdom, and have deemed it expedient, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that all copper monies of this realm commonly called a halfpenny or a farthing, coined at His Majesty's Mint, and current in His Majesty's dominions, by virtue of any Proclamation prior to the twenty-sixth day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, should be called in and recoined.

And whereas in pursuance of an Order in Council, dated the twenty-first of January one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, considerable quantities of the said copper monies before-mentioned, have been received and exchanged at His Majesty's Mint, so that only a small portion of such monies now remain in circulation; We do, therefore, by this Our Royal Proclamation, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, think proper to declare and command, and We do declare and command, that no copper monies whatsoever (other than and except such copper monies as are now current, by virtue of His Majesty's Proclamation bearing date the twenty-sixth day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, or any Proclamation dated subsequent to the said twenty-sixth day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven) shall from henceforth be allowed to pass, or be current, in any payment whatsoever, within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

And we do further, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice aforesaid, declare and command that all persons holding any of the copper monies of this realm, commonly called a halfpenny or a farthing, coined at His Majesty's Mint, and current in His Majesty's dominions, by virtue of any Proclamation bearing date prior to the said twenty-sixth day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, who shall, on or before the thirty-first day of this instant December, bring the same to the Officers of His Majesty's Mint, in bags, containing fifty-six pounds weight avoirdupois each, and in quantities not less than three of such bags, and in tale not exceeding fifty-five pieces to the pound, or three thousand and eighty pieces to each bag of fifty-six pounds, shall thereupon receive the amount and value thereof according to the rate hereinafter specified (that is to say) for every such bag of fifty-six pounds weight, averaging fifty-five pieces to the pound, the sum of six pounds eight shillings and fourpence; for every such bag of fifty-six pounds weight, averaging fifty-four pieces to the pound, the sum of six pounds six shillings; for every such bag of fifty-six pounds weight, averaging fifty-three pieces to the pound, the sum of six pounds three shillings and eight pence, and so in proportion for any less average number of Pieces to the pound.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, the fifth day of December one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, in the fifty-eighth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

Foreign-Office, December 20, 1817.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to appoint Robert Melvil, Esq. to be His Majesty's Consul for the ports of Amsterdam, the Helder, Vlieland, the Texel, Terschelling, and Harkingen, in the dominion of His Majesty the King of the Netherlands.

Whitehall, December 18, 1817.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to grant unto Demetrius Grevis, of Ightham-Court-Lodge, in the parish of Ightham, in the county of Kent, Esq. son of Charles Grevis, of Bury St. Edmund's, in the county of Suffolk, Esq. by Elizabeth his wife, deceased, who was the daughter of Demetrius James, late of Ightham-Court-Lodge aforesaid, Esq. and cousin-german of Richard James, late of the same place, Esq. also deceased, His Majesty's royal licence and permission that he may, in compliance with a clause contained in the last will and testament of the said Richard James, take and use the surname of James in addition to and after that of Grevis, and bear the arms of James quarterly with those of Grevis; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the law of arms and recorded in the Herald's Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And His Royal Highness hath also been pleased to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, December 17, 1817.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Cam Gyde Heaven, of the city of Bristol, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, December 19, 1817.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Humphrey Hinton, of Much Wenlock, in the county of Salop, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, December 20, 1817.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed William Stares the younger, of Bishops Waltham, in the county of Southampton, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, December 6, 1817.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the morning of Sunday the 23d of last month, the woollen and worsted spinning mill, belonging to Messrs. Hooman, Pardoe, and Company, in Kidderminster, was totally destroyed by fire; and that there is reason to suppose the same was wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said mill), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE THOUSAND POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices in the said felony, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.—Five hundred pounds, part of the above reward, to be paid by Messrs. Hooman, Pardoe, and Company, and the remaining five hundred pounds to be paid by the Norwich Union Fire-Office.

Admiralty-Office, December 18, 1817.

THE following official notification has been received at this Office:

“ For the information of vessels destined for the Archipelago of Gothenburg and the Quarantine Port of Kånsö, notice is hereby given, that on the Island of Stora Kånsö a round tower has been built, high fifteen yards, terminating in a platform, with the upper part of brick, and the coping painted white.

“ This tower, which from the great height of the spot where it is raised, should be seen at an equal distance with the Light-house of Winga, is situated south, 71° east, of Winga; north, 20° west, of Yttra Tistlarna; and south, 71° east, by the compass, of Buskars-arm.

“ In entering these roads it is to be observed, that when a vessel has passed to the southward of Winga, she is to steer direct for the tower of Kånsö, until she arrives to the northward of Kånsö Tjärskär, situated west of Kånsö, and pointed out by a stone beacon. The entrance between Kängö and Vargö, and the Port of Vargo-hala, south of the tower, will then be seen, and the vessel may proceed by the northward of the tower, directly and without danger, to the Quarantine Port of Kånsö, navigating along the north and north west coasts of Kånsö.”

JOHN BARROW.

POST HORSE DUTIES.

Stamp-Office, London, December 16, 1817.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, by virtue of an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled “ An Act for letting to farm the Post Horse Duties, and for better securing and facilitating the recovery of the said Duties,” the Commissioners of Stamps will again put up to be let to farm, such of the said duties (which were granted by the Act of the forty-fourth year of His Majesty's reign, chap. 98) as shall arise in the district under mentioned, at the Stamp-Office, Somerset-Place, on Wednesday the 14th day of January next, between the hours of eleven and one, at a yearly rent, for the term of three years from the 1st day of February next inclusive, the highest bidder at the former letting of the said duties having failed to complete his contract for the same, pursuant to the conditions at such letting, wherefore the said

Commissioners of Stamps have declared such contract void :

No.	DISTRICT.	Annual Rent at which it will be put up.

	Carnarvonshire .....
	Denbighshire .....
	Flintshire .....
	Merionethshire and .....
	Montgomeryshire, with.....
	Shropshire .....

The district will be put up at the sum above set opposite thereto, which, if there be no bidding, will be gradually abated down to a certain point, or till a bidding shall be made. The highest bidder will be declared the farmer, and will be required to pay down immediately, in Bank notes, seven and a half per cent. upon the annual rent as a deposit; if no sufficient bidding shall be made, it will be withdrawn.

All persons intending to bid for the said duties, are to deliver in their proposals, addressed to the Commissioners at the Stamp-Office, Somerset-Place, at least three days previous to the said 14th day of January next, signed with their names, and stating the places of their abode, otherwise their proposals cannot be proceeded upon.

And no persons licensed to let horses for the purpose of travelling post, nor any one for their use, can be admitted to contract for the said duties.

By order of the Commissioners of Stamps,
Wm. Kappen, Secretary.

CONTRACT FOR DANTZIC, RIGA, OR MEMEL FIR TIMBER.

Navy-Office, December 15, 1817

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 31st instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's Yard at Sheerness with 852 loads of Dantzic, Riga, or Memel Fir Timber.

One half of the said quantity of timber to be delivered in January next, and the remainder to be delivered in February next.

A form of the tender may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty; nor any noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £1000, for the due performance of the contract.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

Navy-Office, December 4, 1817.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday the 23d instant, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, Commissioner Shield will put up to sale, in His Majesty's Yard at Plymouth, several lots of Old Stores, consisting of Old Rope, Shakings, Yarn, Junk, Hammocks, Buntin, Canvas, Iron, Beds and Bedding, Hemp Rubbish, &c. &c. &c.

all lying in the said Yard; and also

The Princess Charlotte Revenue vessel, of 175 tons burthen, lying at Plymouth.

Persons wishing to view the stores and vessel, must apply to the Commissioner of the Yard for a note of admission for that purpose.

Catalogues and conditions of sale may be had here, and at the Yard.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

Office of Ordnance, December 8, 1817.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give notice, that they will sell by public auction, at the Tower, on Monday the 22d instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely, sundry lots of new and old stores, consisting of Tarpaulins, blocks double and single, powder horns and pieces, casks of sizes, saddle bags and pieces, accoutrements of sorts and pieces, old brass furniture from arms broken up, copper (solder, &c. included), mixed metal, swords, hilts and pieces; and also nine lots of refined brimstone, which will be delivered at the Royal Powder Mills at Waltham Abbey.

The whole of the articles may be viewed upon application at the Principal Storekeeper's Office in the Tower, until the day of sale, except the article of brimstone, which may be inspected upon application to the respective Officers of the Ordnance at the Royal Powder Mills at Waltham Abbey.

Printed lists of the lots will be delivered to those persons who may apply for the same, at the Office of the Principal Storekeeper, in the Tower.

By order of the Board,

R. H. Crew, Secretary.

Office of the Gas Light and Coke Company,
London, December 16, 1817.

Notice is hereby given, that the transfer-books of this Company will close on the 24th instant, and so continue until the 10th day of January next.

By order of the Court of Directors,

J. Pedder, Secretary.

Imperial Insurance-Office, Sun-Court,
Cornhill, December 20, 1817.

Notice is hereby given, that a General Court of Proprietors will be held at this House, on Monday the 5th January next, between the hours of one and three o'clock in the afternoon, to elect four Directors and one Auditor, in the room of the Directors and Auditor who will then go out of office, in pursuance of the deed of settlement.

By order of the Board,

P. Milner, Accountant.
