SATURDAY, DECEMBER 27, 1817.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, &c. &c. &c.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Corporation and Principal Inhabitants of Harwich.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses and Principal Inhabitants of the Ancient and Loyal Borough of Harwich, beg leave to approach the Throne, to offer to your Royal Highness the sincerest professions of our deep and earnest condolence upon an event, which must have inflicted upon the mind of your Royal Highness the most poignant feelings of parental anguish.

Greatly as we deplore the loss and untimely fate of that virtuous and amiable Princess, your illustrious Daughter, on whom this nation had long fixed its hopes, and ardently as we participate in the Father's grief; we yet hope that your Royal Highness, confiding in that Almighty Providence, by whose power alone King's rule and Empires are upheld, will receive consolation in the sympathies and affection of a generous, a loyal, and a sorrowing people.

Henry Deane, Mayor.

Harwich, 29th Nov. 1817.

[Transmitted by the Right Hon. Nicholas Vansittart, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth].

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Masters and Counsellors, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Totnes, thus humbly address ourselves to your Royal Highness, to express our sincerest sorrow for the complicated calamity which has befallen your Royal

House and the nation at large, by the unexpected and untimely death of the Princess your daughter, and her Royal progeny.

Yet, while we offer our condolence on this mournful occasion, we cannot but derive some consolation from the recollection of the many virtues which distinguished Her Royal Highness, both in domestic and public life; as well as from that Princely fortitude which her august Parent has frequently displayed in seasons of filial solicitude and political danger.

Conscious of the blessings which we have long enjoyed under the paternal Government of the House of Brunswick, we feel particularly anxious at this crisis to renew our assurances of an inviolable attachment to your Royal Highness, together with our most ardent hopes and prayers, that the Crown of this United Kingdom may be transmitted, through the same illustrious line, to the remotest generations.

[Transmitted by Thomas P. Courtenay, Esq. M. P. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth].

Unto His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Haddington, desire to join with our fellow subjects throughout the empire, in the expression of our sincere and heartfelt condolence, upon the late most calamitous event, with which it hath pleased the Almighty to visit your Royal Highness and the British Nation.

Attached as we are, by every tie of duty, gratitude and affection, to the Person and august family of our Sovereign, it is impossible that we should not largely participate in that universal sentiment of sorrow and regret, which has been excited by this most afflicting dispensation.

We know that, with all the distresses and adversities of this nation, the Father of his people has felt a parental sympathy. Shall not they, therefore, deeply feel that incurable wound, which has desolated his domestic happiness, and bereft him of the object of his tenderest affections.

We believe and are assured, that to the great and only source of consolation, the thoughts of your heart have been directed, by this severe visitation; and we are persuaded, that, next to the comforts of religion, there can be no more effectual antidote to the grief by which your Royal Highness is bowed down, than the assurance of the affectionate sympathy and condolence of all your loyal and dutiful subjects.

That the Gracious Power, from whose inflictions no rank nor station can exempt, but which never afflicteth but in mercy, may speedily restore to your Royal Highness the blessings of comfort and tranquillity, and that you may long be spared to reign in health and prosperity over a loyal and united people, is our earnest prayer.

Signed in name, and by appointment of the Magistrates and Common Council of the Burgh of Haddington, assembled this 13th day of December 1817 years, by John Martine, Provost.

[Transmitted by the Provost, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the City of Elgin, presume to approach your Throne to testify our sincere sympathy with your Royal Highness's feelings on the mournful occasion of the death of Her Royal Highness Princess Charlotte Augusta, by which you have lost a beloved only daughter, and the nation its brightest ornament and fondest hope.—No sorrow could be more deep and unaffected than that raised in our minds by the melancholy event—and if the assurances of the heart-felt condolence, love and unshaken attachment of your subjects, can in any degree alleviate the grief of your Royal Highness, we offer them, with that sincerity with which your splendid virtues, as our Ruler, inspire us, heightened by our sense of your severe affliction as a Father.

F. W. Grant, P.

[Transmitted by Col. F. W. Grant, M. P. and presented by Lord Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's dutiful subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Cullen, North Britain, humbly desire, with sentiments of heart-felt sorrow, to approach your Royal Highness, and to convey, in terms of sincere loyalty to our revered Monarch, of dutiful attachment to your Royal Highness, and of high respect towards the Prince Leopold, our unanimous expressions of condolence upon this distressing calamity recently sustained, in the untimely death of Her Royal Highness the late excellent Princess your daughter.

While we deeply deplore this severe dispensation; which has at once deprived the kingdom of its fairest ornament and its future hope, we also lament our own inability to administer adequate consolation; but we earnestly pray Almighty God, that He may inspire your Royal Highness and His Serene Highness your Son-in-law with fortitude and resignation under a visitation no less afflicting than it has been sudden and unexpected;—that you may enjoy a long and prosperous life;—and that the succession to the Crown of this Great Empire may continue for ages in the Illustrious House of Brunswick.

Signed, by our appointment and in our name, by,

F. W. Grant, P.

[Transmitted by Col. F. W. Grant, M. P. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common Council of the City of Canterbury, in Burghmote assembled.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common Council of the ancient City of Canterbury, in Burghmote assembled, humbly approach your Royal Highness with our unfeigned and sincere condolence, at your irreparable loss, in the premature and unexpected death of your most amiable daughter, the Princess Charlotte Augusta, Consort of His Serene Highness Leopold, Prince of Saxe Cobourg, an event which has deeply affected the whole nation.

From this union, so happily formed, and so honourably and virtuously supported, we had fondly anticipated a line of Princes, who would in due time have held and firmly supported the crown of these realms, and the blessings of our happy Constitution; but the inscrutable dispensations of Providence, to which we, with great humility, bow down, have otherwise decreed; and we can only now offer to your Royal Highness our deepest sympathy and regret at this lamented loss.

Given under the common seal of the said City, the 2d day of December 1817.

[Transmitted by S. R. Lushington, Esq. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Augustus Frederick, Prince of Wales, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Regent.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Mayor, Deputy Recorder, Magistrates, Aldermen, Freemen, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Dunheved, otherwise Launceston, in the County of Cornwall, with feelings of the most acute sorrow, beg leave submissively to approach your Royal Person, to offer our heartfelt condolence on the death of your Royal Highness's amiable and justly beloved daughter.

We feel, in common with our fellow subjects, that in her death the nation has at once been deprived of a bright example of public and private virtue, and the pleasing hope in which it had so long indulged, that the chain of succession in your Royal House would have remained unbroken.

Your Royal Highness mourns the loss of one whose filial affection would have soothed your decline of life, and have lessened the burthens of royalty; but if those feelings can be at all assuaged by our participating in them, we have a mournful satisfaction in thus conveying our sentiments to your Royal Highness, and, at the same time, assuring your Royal Highness of our loyalty and attachment to your Royal House.

[Transmitted by the Duke of Northumberland, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Augustus Frederick, Prince of Wales, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Regent.

WE, the Vyanders of the Borough of Newport, and Minister and Inhabitants of the Parish of St. Stephens, by Launceston, in the County of Cornwall, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Person with feelings of the utmost respect and sorrow, to express our sincere condolence on the severe loss which your Royal Highness has sustained in the death of the Princess Charlotte of Wales.

By your Royal Highness the privation of a beloved daughter, in whose filial affection you would have found an alleviation from the burthens of royalty, cannot but be acutely felt: the deep but not loud expression of sorrow which pervades all ranks of His Majesty's subjects, full plainly evinces how severely they too feel the loss of so bright an example of public and private virtue.

To express our participation in your grief, and our heartfelt sorrow at the late national calamity, we, the Vyanders of the Borough of Newport, and Minister and Inhabitants of the Parish of Saint Stephens, by Launceston, in the County of Cornwall, thus humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Person, at the same time assuring your Royal Highness of our loyalty and attachment to your Royal House.

[Transmitted by the Duke of Northumberland, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Inhabitants of the ancient and loyal City of Peterborough.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitants of the Ancient City of Peterborough, at all times most anxious for the welfare of your Royal Highness, and for the prosperity of the august House of Brunswick, should consider ourselves culpably deficient in our duty, did we remain silent, at a time when your Royal Highness has experienced one of the most heart-rending calamities to which human nature is incident, by that heavy dispensation which has deprived your Royal Highness of an only and beloved child, Her Royal Highness Princess Charlotte Augusta of Wales, and the nation of its pride and hope, the object of its warmest wishes; so justly endeared to both, by the acknowledged amiableness of Her Royal Highness's private character, and by the celebrity of her public virtues.

In the general feelings of regret, which this most untimely and afflictive event has universally inspired, we flatter ourselves that the avowal of our sincere participation, will graciously be accepted by your Royal Highness.

We earnestly supplicate that inscrutable Being, in whose hands are the issues of life and death, and whose mysterious wisdom has permitted the awful visitation, which we so deeply deplore, in His mercy to sooth and support your Royal Highness under it; and we fervently pray, that for the benefit of this and surrounding nations, He will long preserve the sacred life of your Royal Highness, and perpetuate the succession to the Crown, in the Protestant Illustrious House of Brunswick, to the latest posterity.

If this unfeigned tribute of our condolence, (in unison with the feelings displayed by the whole British Empire,) can, however remotely, tend to assuage the poignancy of parental sorrow, our most ardent wishes will be gratified: at least, by the transmission of these our genuine sentiments of sympathy, we shall have the satisfaction to reflect, that we have discharged the duty of loyal and devoted subjects.

[Transmitted by Doctor Strong, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the Borough of Hartlepool, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, with the sincere expression of our sorrow and regret, for the melancholy death of your Illustrious Daughter.

The love and affection which the nation entertained towards the Princess Charlotte, are best evinced by the universal sorrow which has burst forth from the hearts of all classes of his Majesty's subjects; and even under the pressure of this sudden calamity, it is hoped, this consideration will afford consolation to your Royal Highness.

It becomes our duty, as it is our inclination, to offer up our prayers to that mysterious Providence, whose dispensations are far beyond the stretch of human calculation, to strengthen the mind of your Royal Highness, (and the illustrious members of your House,) that you may support the present affliction with fortitude and resignation.

Darlington, Mayor.

Town Hall, Hartlepool, December 1, 1817; done at a Court of Aldermen.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Darlington, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the Ancient Borough of Ripon, in the County of York, in Common Hall assembled, unanimously beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, with the expression of our sincere condolence, on the much lamented death of Her late Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta.

Most firmly attached to your Royal Highness's person and government, we participate with the liveliest interest in every circumstance which can in any degree affect your Royal Highness's comfort and happiness.

We, however, devoutly trust, that the same good Providence which has permitted this calamity to befall your Royal Highness, and the nation, will support and console you under this severe trial and affliction.

May the same good Providence bless and keep our beloved Sovereign, long preserve your Royal Highness's most invaluable life, and perpetuate to our posterity the blessings of the paternal government of the illustrious House of Brunswick.

Given under our common seal, this 9th day of December, in the year of our Lord 1817, and in the 58th Year of His Majesty's reign.

By order, Peter Taylor, Town Clerk.

[Transmitted by the Right Hon. F. J. Robinson, M.P. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen, Lieutenantcy, Landholders, and Justices of the Peace of the County of Banff, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, to bewail the deep and irreparable loss which your Royal Highness and the British Empire have sustained, in the untimely demise of your Illustrious Daughter, Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta.

With feelings of the most poignant sorrow, we offer to your Royal Highness the respectful homage of our unfeigned condolence.

When we contemplate the many great and amiable qualities which adorned the character of that beloved and distinguished Princess, her untainted purity of principle, her undeviating rectitude of conduct, the unostentatious benevolence of her nature; when we dwell on the memory of her domestic virtues, her eminent accomplishments and attractive manners, we mourn over her loss as a bereavement inexpressibly afflicting to your Royal Highness, to her sorrowing Husband the Prince Leopold, whose correct and exemplary deportment so congenial to that of his illustrious Consort, has justly endeared him to the affections, and entitled him to the applause of every rank; and reflecting on those highly cultivated capacities of mind and understanding which so eminently fitted Her Royal Highness for discharging the arduous and important duties of that exalted station, which at a distant period we fondly hoped she was destined to fill, we bemoan this appalling event as a great national calamity.

Whilst we bow with humble submission to the will of Divine Providence, we confidently believe that benevolent dispensations only can flow from that unerring Being whose inscrutable wisdom directs the issues of life and death; and we anxiously trust that your Royal Highness will, with us, derive consolation from this conviction, joined to the pleasing hope, that the ever to be lamented Princess, whom we deplore, has attained the consummation of her happiness in a world of never-ending bliss.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, in a general meeting held at Banff, this 29th day of November 1817. Fife.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Fife, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Ancient Town of Stirling, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with our sincere condolence upon the ever-to-be-lamented death of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte of Wales, whose transcendent virtues held out so fair a prospect of future happiness to these lands.

But whilst we, in common with all His Majesty's subjects, most deeply deplore the irreparable loss which your Royal Highness and the nation have thus sustained, we deem it our duty to lift up our hearts in humble gratitude to the Wise Disposer of events for the inestimable blessings with which we are still so highly favoured under the mild and successful administration of your Royal Highness, and to offer up our fervent prayers for your preservation and prosperity.

Signed and sealed in our names, and by our appointment, at the Town House of Stirling, this 13th day of December 1817.

Thomas Wright, Provost.

[Transmitted by the Provost, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bishop of Oxford, the Dean and Chapter of Christ Church, and the Clergy of the Diocese of Oxford, humbly presume to offer to your Royal Highness our unfeigned sentiments of sorrow and condolence for the heavy and afflicting loss which your Royal Highness, and the nation at large, have so recently and so unexpectedly sustained: as men, we sympathize deeply in your sufferings as a parent; and, as Ministers of God's holy word, we beseech the Father of Mercy, that He may enable you to support this severe calamity with pious fortitude, and to set an example to the people of this land of patient and submissive resignation to the Almighty will. It is not for us to attempt, by any suggestions of ours, to mitigate the bitterness of your Royal Highness's affliction: but we may be permitted, we hope, without offence, to declare our belief that you possess a more than ordinary share of those consolations to which, in the hour of trial, the sufferer may with confidence appeal; these consolations are to be found, not only in the repeated sympathies of a loyal and generous people, who, from the highest to the lowest, participate in the sorrows of their Prince; nor in the recollection of the numerous talents and virtues which adorned the character of the Princess whom we have lost, but in the reflection, most soothing to a father's heart, that those talents and those virtues were matured and fostered under your Royal Highness's ever watchful care and guidance.

We devoutly pray, that considerations such as these may have their full effect in alleviating your Royal Highness's sorrows: and whilst we purposely abstain from dwelling upon an inscrutable dispensation of Providence, which, in all its circumstances, must be so painful to your feelings, we may be allowed, we trust, on this as on all other occasions, to repeat to your Royal Highness the assurance of our unalterable attachment to your Person and Government, and of our grateful sense of the invaluable blessings of civil and religious liberty, which this nation has so long enjoyed under the mild and equitable sway of your august family.

Edward, Oxford.

[Transmitted by the Bishop of Oxford, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Augustus Frederick Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and Duke of Cornwall.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Freemen, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Helleston, in the County of Cornwall.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Freemen, and Inhabitants, of Helleston, respectfully beg leave to approach your Royal Highness and to offer our heartfelt expressions of sympathy and condolence upon an event which has filled the whole nation with the deepest sorrow and affliction.

Whilst we view this empire deprived of its fondest hopes by the death of your beloved daughter, Her late Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta, and that too, at a moment and under circumstances which have rendered the calamity signal and unparalleled, we trust we bend with humble submission to the chastening hand of the Almighty, whose judgments are unsearchable, and His ways past finding out.

To enumerate the virtues which adorned Her late Royal Highness, would but add to the poignancy of a parent's anguish for the loss of such a daughter, but the remembrance of them will be fondly cherished, and even now affords the cheering hope that she has exchanged an earthly for an immortal crown.

No expressions of our grief can afford to your Royal Highness any consolation, but we devoutly pray the Almighty to bestow His comfort and support upon you.

At the request, and on behalf of the meeting,
H. M. Grylls, Mayor.

Dated 16th December 1817.

[Transmitted by Hugh Hammersley, Esq. M P. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg; which Addresses His Serene Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Most Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

WE, the undersigned, the Bailiffs, Recorder, Deputy Recorder, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Bridgnorth and its vicinity, cannot refrain from intruding on your sorrows to testify to you our affliction, and to offer our condolence on the irreparable loss you have sustained in the unexpected and calamitous death of your late illustrious and excellent consort.

We lament the disappointment of our hopes of a long succession of Kings from your alliance with her; and we abandon with grief the expectations we had formed, that the bright example of her virtues would long have continued to improve and make happy the present and rising generation; but we are certain that the memory of her virtues will be consecrated in the hearts of an affectionate people.

We fervently hope that your Serene Highness may find some alleviation of your sorrows in that resignation to "God's will," of which your ever-to-be-lamented consort, in the bitterest moment of trial, afforded so affecting and edifying an example.

In the name and on behalf of the meeting,
Richard Baker and James Milner, Bailiffs of Bridgnorth; Thomas Whitmore, Recorder; Richard Tyrwhitt, Deputy Recorder.

To His Serene Highness the Prince of Cobourg.

May it please your Serene Highness,

WE, the Bailiffs and Citizens of the City of Lichfield, sensibly affected, in common with all His Majesty's subjects, by the severe calamity with which your Serene Highness and the whole nation have been afflicted, beg leave, however reluctantly, to intrude upon your Serene Highness with our unfeigned sympathy and condolence on the lamentable occasion.

Though it were vain to offer to your Serene Highness any consolation in a season of such deep distress, whilst we deplore the melancholy event, we cannot refrain from assuring your Serene Highness, that the respectful remembrance of the virtues and accomplishments of an amiable Princess, and of your Serene Highness's private worth and character, will ever live in the hearts of an affectionate and loyal people.

John Stanly and William Snape, Bailiffs; and Step. Simpson, Town Clerk.

To His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Prince of Cobourg of Saalfeld.

May it please your Serene Highness,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Town of Beverley, in the County of York, in Common-Council assembled, humbly beg leave to express to your Serene Highness our sincere condolence and heartfelt sorrow at the late melancholy event of the death of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta of Wales.

We ardently admired the great endowments, virtues, and estimable qualities of our late illustrious Princess; and we deeply feel and deplore her loss.

We greatly esteem your Serene Highness for your affectionate attachment to your late amiable consort, and for your very proper and exemplary conduct on all occasions towards this kingdom.

We shall ever entertain the highest sentiments of regard for your Serene Highness; we pray for the restoration of your peace and happiness; and we shall at all times rejoice in every circumstance which shall tend to your Serene Highness's welfare.

Given under our common seal at Beverley aforesaid, the 1st day of December, in the 58th year of His Majesty's reign, John Arden, Mayor.

[Transmitted by the Mayor.]

To His Serene Highness the Prince of Saxe Cobourg.

The affectionate Address of condolence of the Inhabitants of Rochdale.

IN this memorable hour of unexampled affliction—we wait not to trace the page of history for precedents—we stop not to draw our rules of conduct from the cold formalities that distinguish ordinary events, but we hasten with mournful solicitude to convey to your Serene Highness a declaration of those feelings—too sadly, alas! in unison with your own.

Permit us then to mingle the bitterest tears of a weeping land with those that flow from the heart-rending sorrows of a widowed consort—the worthy partner of departed excellence!

We shrink with respectful reverence, from entering upon a description of that exalted character, conscious of our inability to delineate her shining perfections with their due lustre.

When memory, through the lapse of years, recalls this saddest of all scenes to our minds, the pangs of regret will ever be mixed with feelings of affection and gratitude towards him, the amiable object of our Princess's love, who brightened her path of life with joy, and with unceasing tenderness smoothed the pillow of sickness.

Signed, in the name and on the behalf of the Meeting, John Entwistle, jun. Chairman
Rochdale, December 3, 1817.

[Transmitted by John Entwistle, jun. Esq. Chairman.]

To His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Prince of Saxe Cobourg of Saalfeld.

WE, the Inhabitants of Brighthelmston and its vicinity, approach your Serene Highness with feelings of deep sympathy and sincere condolence on the recent awful visitation of Divine Providence, which has deprived the nation of its hope, and your Serene Highness of an amiable, illustrious, and most devoted consort, on whose invaluable life your happiness and our future prosperity so much depended.

On this melancholy occasion, it is not necessary for us to point your Serene Highness to the only source of consolation. Your exemplary and pious deportment, during a short residence amongst us, convinces us that religion at this moment sheds its soothing influence into your wounded heart. We most earnestly pray, that your Serene Highness may long live and be happy; and that with sorrowful remembrance of your irreparable loss, may be blended consoling reflections on the glorious destiny of the illustrious deceased, who is invested with an unfading crown, and seated on a throne which can never be moved.

Signed by order of the meeting,

Robert James Carr, Chairman; Thomas Attree, Town Clerk.

Brighthelmston, December 9, 1817.

Unto His Serene Highness Leopold Prince of Cobourg, &c. &c.

WE, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Royal Burgh of Irvine, in Council assembled, beg leave humbly to offer our respectful condolence to your Serene Highness, on the irreparable loss your Serene Highness has sustained, by the death of your amiable consort the Princess Charlotte, and the loss of the royal infant.—While we admire your Serene Highness's personal character, as well as the many virtues for which Her Royal Highness was so eminently distinguished, and which had endeared your Highnesses to the British nation, we sincerely sympathize with your Serene Highness, and all the members of the Royal Family, on this calamitous event.

That Almighty God may support your Serene Highness under this deep affliction, is the earnest prayer of, may it please your Serene Highness, His Majesty's loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Councillors of the Royal Burgh of Irvine.

Signed, by the Right Honourable the Earl of Eglinton, Provost, by appointment of the Magistrates and Council at Irvine, this 1st day of December 1817, Eglinton, Provost.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Eglinton.]

To His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

May it please your Serene Highness,

WE, the Inhabitants of Brixham (Torbay), at this time when the affliction to which your Highness has been compelled to submit, has excited the sympathies of this nation, humbly beg permission to express our sincere sorrow for the loss of a Princess, who (whilst she was beloved by your Highness, and giving joy and happiness to your conjugal state) was beloved and revered by all the subjects of the British dominions.

Your Highness lived in the just expectation of seeing your august, amiable, and Royal Consort (now no more) the Sovereign of this mighty empire; sharing with her the satisfaction which results from universal love and respect, and the gratifying hope of seeing the Throne of this united empire dignified by your illustrious offspring.

But it has pleased Almighty God to take Her Royal Highness and her infant from you; and whilst in humble submission you bend to His Divine appointment; with such sorrow as the Christian is permitted to indulge, your Highness is not without the consolation which springs from the assurance, that virtues such as her's can never perish.

Since your late royal alliance, your Highness has conciliated the affection of the British people by a life of exemplary and dignified morality, which will not be without its reward from Him who has power to give and to take away.

Our ardent prayer to Infinite Mercy is, that your Serene Highness may be strengthened with fortitude to bear the heavy affliction which you have been destined to suffer, and be blessed with health and peace throughout the remainder of your life.

Signed on the behalf of the above Inhabitants at their request, and as their Chairman, at a public meeting, this 2d day of December 1817,
C. M. Cumby, Commander, R. N.

[Transmitted by the Right Honourable Nicholas Vansittart.]

To His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg, &c. &c.

WE, the Mayor, Recorder, Justices, Bailiffs, and Capital Burgesses, and other Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Newcastle-under-Lyme, in the County of Stafford, now assembled, deeply sympathizing in the bitter and severe affliction into which your Serene Highness has been plunged, by the unexpected death of your Serene Highness's illustrious and universally beloved and lamented consort, the late Princess Charlotte Augusta, respectfully beg leave to offer to your Serene Highness our sincere and heartfelt condolence on so mournful and affecting an event.

Fearful at the same time of intruding upon your Serene Highness at a moment like the present, or of exciting afresh the poignancy of anguish and of grief, we forbear to dwell upon the amiableness of character, the personal virtues and endowments of one, who, with no less satisfaction than delight, we so lately witnessed, sharing with your Serene Highness the choicest blessings, the most interesting hopes, and splendid expectations that life or nature can afford; or to recall the sad vicissitude which has at once destroyed this fair fabric of happiness, and spread over a sorrowing land one deep and universal gloom, and shall only therefore entreat permission to express to your Serene Highness, our ardent prayers and hopes, that your Serene Highness may be sustained and comforted, under this heart-piercing privation: that the same Overruling Power which has inflicted, will infuse balm into the wound; and in His own good time restore to your Serene Highness that tranquillity and peace, which may enable your Serene Highness long to enjoy the respect, attachment, and esteem to which your Serene Highness has established so just and well-founded a claim, and which we are sensible will never cease to interest the hearts of an approving nation in your Serene Highness's future welfare.

John Nickisson, Mayor.

[Transmitted by James Caldwell, Esq.]

To His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Duke of Saxe, Margrave of Missen, Landgrave of Thuringen, Prince of Cobourg of Saalfeld.

THE Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Winchester, in Common Council assembled, with unfeigned sorrow and regret, beg leave to condole with your Serene Highness on the late melancholy event of the death of your most amiable and beloved consort; a Princess adorned with every virtue, and possessed of every accomplishment requisite for the consummation of conjugal happiness; a bright example for the imitation of her sex, in attaining to conjugal felicity; and though it hath pleased the Almighty, in the exercise of His unerring wisdom, to deprive your Serene Highness, and the nation at large, of the blessings of such transcendent worth; yet we feel the consolatory assurance of her being crowned with (a far more exceeding glory) a celestial crown, instead of one which the country fondly hoped, in due time, she would have worn as an honour to herself, and a blessing to an admiring people.

Great and irreparable as the loss must be, we trust and hope your Serene Highness (possessed as you evidently are of virtues similar in all respects to those of the illustrious deceased) will follow her example of pious resignation to the Divine Will, which alone can alleviate the bitter anguish of such severe affliction, and restore your Serene Highness to that tranquillity of mind so essential to your future health and happiness; blessings which we most ardently hope you will long continue to enjoy.

Given under the seal of our Corporation, this 4th day of December 1817.

To His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

May it please your Serene Highness,

WE the undersigned, Inhabitants of Sunderland, Bishop Wearmouth, Monk Wearmouth and the Vicinity, impressed with a deep sense of the heavy affliction with which it hath pleased the Supreme Disposer of events to visit your Serene Highness, by the death of your Royal Consort, the beloved Princess Charlotte Augusta, beg leave to offer to you our tribute of unfeigned condolence.

We most sincerely participate in the universal sympathy, regret and lamentation, that pervade His Majesty's dominions upon this awful event, which has deprived your Serene Highness and His Majesty's subjects at once of a Princess of eminent virtues and most distinguished worth; and of the hopes they had anxiously placed on Her Royal offspring.

We fervently offer up our prayers to Almighty God for the welfare of your Serene Highness, beseeching Him, that your Serene Highness, supported by the consolations of Religion, may be enabled to bear with fortitude and resignation the peculiarly afflictive dispensation, which has proceeded from His wise, but inscrutable Providence. May tranquillity of mind be soon restored to your Serene Highness, and may you long live in the enjoyment of health and happiness.

To His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick,
Duke of Saxe, Prince of Cobourg.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Chief Burgesses of the Ancient Borough of Newport, in the Isle of Wight, with feelings of unfeigned sorrow, beg leave to offer to your Serene Highness our tribute of condolence, on the irreparable loss which you have lately sustained. The personal character of your Serene Highness, and your unbounded attachment to one so dear to us as your late Royal Consort, whose untimely fate we all deplore, has endeared you to the nation; and though the cord which bound you to us has been cut a-sunder, and the hopes of seeing your posterity seated on the Throne of our Monarchs, have been destroyed, yet we assure your Serene Highness, that we shall long cherish the remembrance of the bright example which you and our amiable Princess held out to the world; we trust your Serene Highness will derive consolation from this remembrance, and that the Almighty disposer of events, will heal the wounds that he has inflicted in your Serene Highness's heart.

In testimony whereof, we have hereunto set our Common Seal, this 6th day of December, in the 58th year of his Majesty's reign.

To His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe
Cobourg of Saalfeld.

WE, His Majesty's faithful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the Town and Port of New Romney, in the County of Kent, most respectfully beg permission to assure your Serene Highness, that while most deeply deploring, in union with all the subjects of this kingdom, our own irreparable loss; we feel with reverence, the sad pre-eminence of your Serene Highness's grief, and should not presume to attract your Serene Highness's attention for a moment, but for the hope that the universal sympathy of a great and loyal nation, and its heartfelt tribute to the virtues of Her late Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte, might be acceptable to your Serene Highness's feelings. We pray earnestly for the restoration of your Serene Highness's health, and the mitigation of a sorrow which, although we deeply lament that your Serene Highness should endure, we glory in, as the highest tribute to her, on whom the fond hopes of this nation have long been fixed, and under whose offspring, directed to every virtue by your Serene Highness's wisdom and affection, we hoped our posterity would be governed to the latest ages.

Grateful to your Serene Highness for the happiness of our lamented Princess, and for the bright example of domestic virtue afforded to us by your Serene Highness, it must be considered by this nation as an inestimable blessing, that your Serene Highness's health and feelings should enable you to continue in the midst of us; but wherever your Serene Highness may be, the prayers and blessings of Great Britain will attend you.

Given under the Seal of our Corporation of New Romney aforesaid, the 6th day of December 1817.

To His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe
Cobourg.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Norwich.

WE, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, in Common Council assembled, with the most profound sorrow, respectfully beg leave to assure your Serene Highness how unfeignedly we sympathize in the premature and most afflicting decease of your Royal Consort, the Princess Charlotte Augusta.

We deplore this dire event as a national calamity—grief oppresses every heart, and the country, as one family, laments the irreparable loss of such combined excellence, goodness and greatness.

We implore the Almighty to grant your Serene Highness fortitude to endure this awful, this severe trial; and to afford your Serene Highness that true consolation, derived from exemplary piety and submissive resignation, and from the well-founded assurance, that your departed and justly-regretted Princess, is now receiving the reward of her exalted virtues.

Your Serene Highness will be pleased to accept the assurance of our high regard and attachment, with our prayer, that you may long continue to reside in a country, to which your manners and character are so congenial, and where your Serene Highness must be ever deservedly venerated and beloved.

Given under the Common Seal of the said City, the 5th day of December, in the 58th year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, and in the year of Our Lord 1817.

[Transmitted by the Mayor.]

To His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

FULLY sharing in the general sorrow, and entering into all your Serene Highness's agonized feelings, the Inhabitants of the Staffordshire Potteries, beg to offer their sincere and heartfelt condolence on the recent melancholy event, in the death of your Serene Highness's late Illustrious Consort, the Princess Charlotte.

We will not attempt to recount her virtues, nor dwell upon that loss, which each of us makes his own;—to partake of your griefs—to pour balm into your wounds, would rather be our office—and severe as the dispensation is, we must not forget that it was the will of that Almighty Power, who, however inscrutable his ways may be to man, "ordereth all things for his good."—A nation's sympathy commingles with your woes, and may the succouring hand of Heaven support your Highness in this season of trial, and administer those consolations which are no where else to be found !

At a special public Meeting, held the 8th day of December 1817.

John E. Heathcote, Chairman.

To His Serene Highness Prince Leopold George Frederick, Duke of Saxony, Prince of Cobourg Saalfeld.

SIR,

Permit the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Inhabitants, of the Town and County of the Town of Southampton and its neighbourhood, to approach your Serene Highness with their most sincere and heartfelt expressions of condolence, on the deplorable and universally lamented death of your illustrious Consort, Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta.

We most truly sympathize with your Serene Highness on this most melancholy occasion, and are fully sensible of the magnitude of your loss, and we ardently hope that your Serene Highness will be enabled, through the Divine assistance, to bear up against so severe a trial, and to submit to the Will of the Almighty with fortitude and resignation.

The welfare of your Serene Highness we have much at heart, and sincerely wish you may yet enjoy many years of health and comfort, in the esteem and respect of these nations.

To His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

May it please your Highness,

WE, the Mayor, Magistrates, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Clifton Dartmouth Hardness, with feelings of the deepest sorrow, most submissively approach your Serene Highness, offering our most sincere condolence on the late ever to be lamented death of your Royal and illustrious Consort, the Princess Charlotte Augusta of Wales, and your Royal Son.

We deplore that event, as we have lost in her, a most splendid example of public and private virtue.

Your Highness has, with the sorrow of a faithful and affectionate Husband, to mourn the departure of the most beloved Wife of your bosom, at an age when your hopes were in their fullest anticipation of years of uninterrupted happiness, and when the subjects of her Royal Grand-Father were contemplating your growing virtues, with sentiments of the most loyal attachment, profound respect, and liveliest admiration.

But though nature is warned by the kindest sympathy, to share the sorrows of your Highness, yet the dictates of our Holy Religion prohibit her faithful followers from repining, as men, without hope.

We patiently, therefore, yield to that Divine dispensation, which has now visited us, fervently praying, that the God of all mercies will fortify your mind with such resignation, as will reconcile you to that affliction which it is now your lot to suffer.

Since your alliance with your late ever to be regretted Princess, your Serene Highness has acquired the love and affection of the British nation ; and had Divine Providence permitted the Throne of these realms to have descended to Her Royal Highness, your Serene Highness would have received with her such demonstrations of sincere attachment, as the generous loyalty of British subjects, voluntarily offers to those who rule them with judgment and equity.

We therefore, the Mayor, Magistrates, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of Clifton Dartmouth Hardness, approach your Serene Highness, under the hope that these our feelings will be received as an humble tribute of that veneration and respect which is most justly due to the memory of departed excellence.

Signed on the behalf of the Mayor, Magistrates, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Clifton Dartmouth Hardness, and at their request as their Chairman, this 20th day of November 1817, at the Guildhall of the said Borough.

Nich. Brooking, Jun. Mayor.

To His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg Saalfeld.

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Town of Plymouth Dock, and Parish of Stoke Damerel, in the County of Devon.

May it please your Serene Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town of Plymouth Dock, and Parish of Stoke Damerel, in the County of Devon, presume to approach your Serene Highness, at this period of general affliction, to present the homage of our unfeigned sorrow, on the mournful occasion of the untimely death of the Royal Consort of your Serene Highness, the deeply lamented Princess Charlotte Augusta of Wales.

Whilst we dwell on the virtues of our late illustrious and beloved Princess—contemplate her interesting youth, her cultivated mind, and those amiable qualities which held forth the highest promise of a life of virtue and innocence to herself, happiness to her family, glory to the country, and example to the world ; when we see this bright ornament of the State, the nation's best hope, the darling of the people, taken from us for ever, at a moment when England fondly anticipated occasion for joy ; we are indeed overwhelmed with the weight of this heavy trouble, while we are taught by another awful lesson, humbly to reverence the all-wise, but hidden ways of a Divine and inscrutable Providence.

With feelings of the most poignant grief for the irreparable loss we have sustained, in common with the whole " British Family," we find ourselves almost unfitted to offer that condolence to your Serene Highness, which our respect and ardent attachment would prompt us to attempt. But we fervently pray that your Serene Highness may find that consolation in our Holy Religion, which may tend to lull the memory of this dire calamity ; and that, supported through this awful visitation by the same Almighty power which has thus afflicted us, you may long be preserved to a people, to whom, by your virtues and sufferings, you are now more than ever endeared.

Signed at the request and on behalf of the Meeting, Jonathan Williams, Chairman, a Magistrate for the Counties of Devon and Cornwall.

Dated, at the Town Hall, Plymouth Dock, December 8, 1817.

[Transmitted by the Rev. Jonathan Williams.]

To His Serene Highness Prince Leopold, of Saxe-Cobourg.

The respectful and affectionate Address of the Noblemen, Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Justices of the Peace of the County of Edinburgh.

May it please your Serene Highness,

WE, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Justices of the Peace of the County of Edinburgh, respectfully beg leave to convey to your Serene Highness the expression of our poignant grief for the irreparable loss which your Serene Highness has sustained by the death of your beloved Consort, the Princess Charlotte Augusta, which has plunged the whole British nation into the deepest affliction.

Most sincerely have we participated in your sorrow, and sympathised with your Serene Highness's feelings on this most melancholy occasion. With fond regret we could dwell at length on every virtue of that amiable and illustrious Princess, who, to every quality that could ornament and dignify the high station which she was destined to fill, added every grace that could sweeten domestic life, and endear her to all around her; did we not fear that we should thereby renew and increase that heart-rending woe which we anxiously wish it were in our power to diminish.

We however venture to hope, that the mind of your Serene Highness may find some degree of consolation from beholding the manner in which this awful dispensation of Providence has been received by the whole nation.

We have endeavoured to bear it with patience and resignation, resting in the full assurance of hope, that she whose loss we deplore, has exchanged the transitory splendour of an earthly diadem for a crown eternal in the Heavens.

We humbly pray that the God of all grace and consolation may strengthen and comfort your Serene Highness in the midst of your afflictions.

Signed in name, and by authority of the Meeting.
Morton.

To His Serene Highness Prince Leopold, of Saxe-Cobourg.

WE, the Mayor and Burgesses, Gentlemen, Clergy, and other inhabitants of the Borough Town, and Parish of Tiverton, in the County of Devon, beg permission to approach your Serene Highness with our respectful and sincere condolence on the late severe and lamentable affliction in which your Serene Highness as well as the whole Royal Family and the nation in general, have been unexpectedly involved by the premature death of your Royal and Illustrious Consort.

We most sincerely participate, in common with all our fellow-subjects, in that deep feeling of grief and sorrow which has pervaded all classes of the British people on this mournful occasion; and whilst we cherish in our memory the affectionate recollection of the many public and private virtues of the late amiable Princess, whose loss we severely deplore, we humbly trust that your Serene Highness may receive some alleviation of your present severe affliction from the tender sympathies and regards of an affectionate and united people; and we fervently pray, Almighty God of His great mercy to vouchsafe to your Serene Highness that true Christian fortitude and devout resignation to the Divine Will, from which alone real consolation can be expected.

Signed, at the request and on the behalf of the Meeting,
S. Walker, Mayor.

To His Serene Highness Leopold, Prince of Saxe-Cobourg, &c.

May it please your Serene Highness,

FLATTERED as we feel ourselves as Britons, by the partiality which we know your Serene Highness has uniformly expressed for our national character; we, the Inhabitants of the Town of Wolverhampton, also trust, that the high sentiments of regard which are thus entertained, are neither misplaced nor undeserved. Continue, Illustrious Sir, to entertain them, and repose them on a people who know how to appreciate your moral worth,—proudly hoping still to consider you as intimately united with their common destiny: that strong link of brotherhood, we hope will never be broken, till the power who forms and dissolves our frames, shall translate you to a better world, and re-unite you to the society of one, in whose loss we deeply sympathize—one whose virtues were fitted for a brighter sphere, and who, we doubt not, is removed from the prospect of an earthly, to the enjoyment of a celestial Crown.

James Hordern.

On behalf, and by the Order of a Meeting of the Inhabitants of Wolverhampton.

December 1, 1817.

To His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe-Cobourg.

May it please your Highness,

WE, the Mayor, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Okehampton, approach your Serene Highness with feelings of the utmost respect and sorrow, and humbly beg leave to offer our deep and sincere condolence on the melancholy event which has so severely affected both your Serene Highness and each individual in His Majesty's dominions.

Your Highness's exemplary conduct in all the relations of domestic life, has brought your severe loss home to the hearts of us all, and while we deplore for ourselves an Heiress to the Crown, in whom we saw attachment to our laws and liberties, and a pattern of moral excellence to those whom she was to govern—we enter into the feelings of the husband, and condole with your Highness as a man.

We venture, however, Sir, to offer one consideration to you, which, although it proves the magnitude of our mutual loss, must open to you a source of consolation; we mean the unparalleled attachment and veneration which the public and private virtues of the illustrious dead had gained in the hearts of all ranks of His Majesty's subjects.

As your Highness has so completely participated in setting this bright example to the nation, so have you in receiving the honourable meed of its unbought love—and your widowed heart must feel comfort beyond all that this world can give, in reflecting that the piety of her whom we deplore will not be forgotten before the King of Kings.

To the protection of that Great Being, we commend your Highness, with our humble and ardent prayers for your consolation.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

B 2

WHEREAS the Parliament stands prorogued to Tuesday the sixteenth day of December next, We, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued on the said sixteenth day of December to Tuesday the twenty-seventh day of January next; and We have given order to the Lord High Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Great Britain, to prepare a Commission for proroguing the same accordingly. And We do further hereby, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice aforesaid, publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall, on the twenty-seventh day of January next, be held and sit for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said twenty-seventh day of January next.

Given at the Court at Brighton, the twenty-seventh day of November, one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, in the fifty-eighth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

Prohibiting His Majesty's Natural-born Subjects from serving or enlisting or entering themselves to serve in the Military Forces or Ships of War, raised or set forth by the Persons exercising or assuming to exercise the Powers of Government in certain Provinces and parts of Provinces in Spanish America, or in the Military Forces of His Catholic Majesty employed in Spanish America, or in His said Majesty's Ships of War.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS there unhappily subsists a state of warfare between His Catholic Majesty and divers Provinces or parts of Provinces in Spanish America: and whereas it has been represented to Us, that many of Our subjects have, without Our leave or license enlisted, or entered themselves to serve in the military forces or ships of war raised or set forth or intended to be raised or set forth by the persons, exercising or assuming to exercise the powers of Government in such Provinces or parts of Provinces, and that divers others of Our subjects are about in like manner to enter and enlist themselves: and whereas such practices are highly prejudicial to and tend to endanger the peace and welfare of Our Crown and Dominions, we do therefore hereby, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, strictly charge and command all and every of our natural-born subjects, of what degree or quality soever, not to serve in any such military forces or ships of war as aforesaid, and not to enlist or enter themselves to serve therein, and not to go beyond the Seas, or embark, in order to serve, or with intent to enter, or enlist themselves to serve in such military forces or ships of war: and it is at the same time Our Royal will and pleasure, and We do, by and with the advice aforesaid, hereby also strictly charge and command all and every of Our said subjects not to serve, or enlist, or enter themselves to serve in any of the military forces or ships of war raised or set forth, or to be raised or set forth, by His Catholic Majesty, and not to go beyond the Seas, or embark, in order, or to the intent to serve, or enter, or enlist themselves to serve in such military forces or ships of war; it is nevertheless Our Royal will and pleasure, that nothing herein contained, shall be deemed or taken to prohibit any of Our subjects, who are engaged at the time of the date of this Our Proclamation, in serving in the military forces of His Catholic Majesty, with Our leave or licence, from continuing to serve therein, provided that such Our said subjects do not serve with the military forces of His Catholic Majesty, when employed in Spanish America: and We do hereby, by and with the advice aforesaid, strictly require all Our said subjects duly to conform to Our commands herein contained, under pain of Our highest displeasure, and the utmost forfeitures, penalties, and punishments, to which by law they will otherwise be liable.

Given at Our Court at Brighton, the twenty-seventh day of November, one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, in the fifty-eighth year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS We have thought fit to order that certain pieces of gold money should be coined, which should be called "half sovereigns or ten shilling pieces," each of which should be of the value of ten shillings, and that each piece should be of the weight of two pennyweights thirteen grains $\frac{6,370}{10,000}$ troy weight of standard gold, according to the weights approved of and confirmed by Us in Council, in pursuance of an Act made in the fourteenth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for regulating and ascertaining the weights to be made use of in weighing the gold and silver coin of this kingdom;" and We have further thought fit to order that every such piece of gold money, so ordered to be coined as aforesaid, shall have for the obverse impression the head of His Majesty, with the inscription "Georgius III. Dei Gratia:" and the date of the year; and for the reverse the ensigns armorial of the United Kingdom, contained in a shield, with the inscription "Britanniarum Rex. Fid. Def.:" with a newly invented graining on the edge of the piece: and whereas pieces of gold money of the above description have been coined at His Majesty's Mint, and will be coined there, in pursuance of Orders which We have given for that purpose: We have therefore, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, thought fit to issue this Proclamation; and We do hereby, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, ordain, declare, and command, that the said pieces of gold money so coined, and to be coined as aforesaid, shall be current and lawful money of the kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and shall be called "half sovereigns or ten shilling pieces," and shall pass and be received as current and lawful money of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; and every of such pieces, not weighing less than two penny weights, thirteen grains and one quarter, shall pass and be received as of the value of ten shillings of lawful money of Great Britain and Ireland in all payments whatsoever.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the tenth day of October one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, in the fifty-seventh year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS We have taken into consideration the state of the copper coin of this kingdom, and have deemed it expedient, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that all copper monies of this realm commonly called a halfpenny or a farthing, coined at His Majesty's Mint, and current in His Majesty's dominions, by virtue of any Proclamation prior to the twenty-sixth day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, should be called in and received.

And whereas in pursuance of an Order in Council, dated the twenty-first of January one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, considerable quantities of the said copper monies before-mentioned, have been received and exchanged at His Majesty's Mint, so that only a small portion of such monies now remain in circulation; We do, therefore, by this Our Royal Proclamation, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, think proper to declare and command, and We do declare and command, that no copper monies whatsoever (other than and except such copper monies as are now current, by virtue of His Majesty's Proclamation bearing date the twenty-sixth day of July of thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, or any Proclamation dated subsequent to the said twenty-sixth day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven) shall from henceforth be allowed to pass, or be current, in any payment whatsoever, within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

And we do further, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice aforesaid, declare and command that all persons holding any of the copper monies of this realm, commonly called a halfpenny or a farthing, coined at His Majesty's Mint, and current in His Majesty's dominions, by virtue of any Proclamation bearing date prior to the said twenty-sixth day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, who shall, on or before the thirty-first day of this instant December, bring the same to the Officers of His Majesty's Mint, in bags, containing fifty-six pounds weight avoirdupois each, and in quantities not less than three of such bags, and in tale not exceeding fifty-five pieces to the pound, or three thousand and eighty pieces to each bag of fifty-six pounds, shall thereupon receive the amount and value thereof according to the rate hereinafter specified (that is to say) for every such bag of fifty-six pounds weight, averaging fifty-five pieces to the pound, the sum of six pounds eight shillings and fourpence; for every such bag of fifty-six pounds weight, averaging fifty-four pieces to the pound, the sum of six pounds six shillings; for every such bag of fifty-six pounds weight, averaging fifty-three pieces to the pound, the sum of six pounds three shillings and eight pence, and so in proportion for any less average number of Pieces to the pound.

Given at Our Court at Carlton-House, the fifth day of December one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, in the fifty-eighth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

At the Court at Carlton-House, the 10th October 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the thirty-first of May last, for prohibiting the exportation of gunpowder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of November next; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth, therefore, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of November next), presume to transport any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt-petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

MEMORANDUM.

The name of the Lieutenant restored to full-pay in the 21st Foot, is John Leavach, and not William Leavock, as stated in the Gazette of the 20th December 1817.

The Commission of Ensign W. Murray as Lieutenant in the 47th Foot, is dated 22d, and not the 23d January 1817, as stated in the Gazette of the 20th December 1817.

The name of the Ensign appointed to the 89th Foot on the 27th November 1817, is Thursby, and not Thurby, as stated in the Gazette of the 20th December 1817.

Whitehall, December 10, 1817.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto John Widdowson, of Northwich, in the County Palatine of Chester, Esq. a Gentleman Pensioner of Peter-House College, in the University of Cambridge, His Majesty's royal licence and authority that he and his issue may take and use the surname of Cheshire, in lieu of his present surname of Widdowson, and bear the arms of Cheshire only, out of grateful and affectionate respect to the memory of his maternal great uncle John Cheshire, late of Hartford-Hall, in the said County Palatine of Chester, Esq. deceased, and in compliance with an injunction contained in his will; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, December 6, 1817.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the morning of Sunday the 23d of last month, the woollen and worsted spinning mill, belonging to Messrs. Hooman, Pardoe, and Company, in Kidderminster, was totally destroyed by fire; and that there is reason to suppose the same was wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said mill), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE THOUSAND POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices in the said felony, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.—Five hundred pounds, part of the above reward, to be paid by Messrs. Hooman, Pardoe, and Company, and the remaining five hundred pounds to be paid by the Norwich Union Fire-Office.

*Army Pay-Office, Horse Guards,
December 24, 1817.*

Notice is hereby given, that the pensions granted to the Widows of Officers of the Army and Marines, due this day, will be in course of payment at this Office, on the 8th January next, between the hours of eleven and two o'clock:

The pay of Adjutants of Local Militia, of Officers retired from the late Royal Veteran Battalions, and of Officers retired under the Acts, 51st and 52d George 3d, on the 15th January next:

The allowances to General Officers (not being Colonels of Regiments), the pensions granted to Officers who have sustained injury in the service, and likewise the allowances as of His Majesty's Royal Bounty, on the 22d January next, between the hours aforesaid, Saturdays excepted.

By order of the Paymaster-General,
Robt. Webber, Cashier.

Admiralty-Office, December 18, 1817.

THE following official notification has been received at this Office:

"For the information of vessels destined for the Archipelago of Gothenburg and the Quarantine Port of Kängsö, notice is hereby given, that on the Island of Stora Kängsö a round tower has been built, high fifteen yards, terminating in a platform, with the upper part of brick, and the coping painted white.

"This tower, which from the great height of the spot where it is raised, should be seen at an equal distance with the Light-house of Winga, is situated south, 71° east, of Winga; north, 20° west, of Yttra Tistlarna; and south, 71° east, by the compass, of Buskars-arm.

"In entering these roads it is to be observed, that when a vessel has passed to the southward of Winga, she is to steer direct for the tower of Kängsö, until she arrives to the northward of Kängsö Tjärskär, situated west of Kängsö, and pointed out by a stone beacon. The entrance between Kängsö and Vargö, and the Port of Vargo-hala, south of the tower, will then be seen, and the vessel may proceed by the northward of the tower, directly and without danger, to the Quarantine Port of Kängsö, navigating along the north and north west coasts of Kängsö."

JOHN BARROW.

POST HORSE DUTIES.

Stamp-Office, London, December 16, 1817.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, by virtue of an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for letting to farm the Post Horse Duties, and for better securing and facilitating the recovery of the said Duties," the Commissioners of Stamps will again put up to be let to farm, such of the said duties (which were granted by the Act of the forty-fourth year of His Majesty's reign, chap 98) as shall arise in the district under mentioned, at the Stamp-Office, Somerset-Place, on Wednesday the 14th day of January next, between the hours of eleven and one, at a yearly rent, for the term of three years from the 1st day of February next inclusive, the highest bidder at the former letting of the said duties having failed to complete his contract for the same, pursuant to the conditions at such letting, wherefore the said Commissioners of Stamps have declared such contract void:

No.	DISTRICT.	Annual Rent at which it will be put up.
16.	NORTH WALES, viz.
	Anglesea.....	£ 8000
	Carnarvonshire
	Denbighshire
	Flintshire
	Merionethshire and Montgomeryshire, with.....
	Shropshire

The district will be put up at the sum above set opposite thereto, which, if there be no bidding, will be gradually abated down to a certain point, or till a bidding shall be made. The highest bidder will be declared the farmer, and will be required to pay down immediately, in Bank notes, seven and a half per cent. upon the annual rent as a deposit; if no sufficient bidding shall be made, it will be withdrawn.

All persons intending to bid for the said duties, are to deliver in their proposals, addressed to the Commissioners at the Stamp-Office, Somerset-Place, at least three days previous to the said 14th day of January next, signed with their names.

and stating the places of their abode, otherwise their proposals cannot be proceeded upon.

And no persons licensed to let horses for the purpose of travelling post, nor any one for their use, can be admitted to contract for the said duties.

By order of the Commissioners of Stamps,
Wm. Kappen, Secretary.

Lottery-Office, Somerset-Place,
December 20, 1817.

THE Commissioners appointed for managing the Lotteries do hereby give notice, that numbers of tickets and shares in all preceding lotteries may be examined at this Office every day, between the hours of ten and three, with their registers of benefits and blanks.

And the Commissioners appointed to take in the benefit tickets of the first and second lotteries 1817, do hereby give notice, that they will attend at their Office in Somerset-Place, on Thursday the 8th day of January next, from ten o'clock in the forenoon to two o'clock in the afternoon, to take in and enter the benefit tickets of the said lotteries to be exchanged for certificates, pursuant to the Act of Parliament in that behalf.

And for better dispatch thereof, the said Commissioners will take in and enter the benefit tickets of the A class of each of the said lotteries at one seat, and the benefit tickets of the B class at another seat; and the persons possessed thereof are directed to bring with their tickets separate lists thereof, marked A and B, formed in numerical order, distinguishing stock from money prizes, and adapted to each of the said lotteries, and at the bottom of each list to write the name and proper addition of the person entitled to the value of the said tickets.

And the said Commissioners also give further notice, that certificates for the value of the said tickets will be delivered out on Monday the 12th day of January next, at one o'clock in the afternoon; after which the said Commissioners will take in and enter tickets in their usual monthly entry; and all persons are desired to take notice, they must bring duplicates of their lists when they come for their certificates.

The Commissioners also give notice, that tickets brought to this Office for payment, the checks of which are torn or destroyed, will not be entered for payment without a bond being given to indemnify the said Commissioners for granting certificates for the same.

CONTRACT FOR DANTZIC, RIGA, OR MEMEL FIR TIMBER.

Navy-Office, December 15, 1817

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 31st instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's Yard at Sheerness with
