The Gentlemen to continue in black, full trimmed, fringed or plain linen, black swords and buckles.

Undress—Grey frocks.

The Court to change the mourning further on Sunday the 18th of January, viz.

The Ladies to wear black silk or velvet, coloured ribbons, fans and tippets, or plain white, or white and gold, or white and silver stuffs, with black ribbons.

The Gentlemen to wear black coats, and black or plain white, or white and gold, or white and silver stuff waistcoats, full trimmed, coloured swords and buckles.

And on Sunday the 1st of February next, the Court to go out of mourning.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bishop, Dean, Chancellor, Archdeacon, Prebendaries and Clergy of the Cathedral Church and Diocese of Peterborough, whose names are hereunto subscribed, humbly presume to approach the Throne with this expression of our condolence on an event which has deprived your Royal Highness of a beloved daughter, and your august House of one of its brightest ornaments, whilst it has disappointed the dearest hope, and fondest expectations of the whole British Empire.

But deeply as we sympathize with the parental sorrows of your Royal Highness, we find comfort in the reflection that you are surrounded by Illustrious Members of your family, who partake of your private afflictions and your public cares; we are persuaded also, that your Royal Highness has amply experienced those high and holy consolations, which the religion of Christ alone holds out in every season of distress; and we earnestly pray, that you may still be enabled to manifest the same pious submission to the Will of that Gracious Being, whose dispensations, however mysterious, and, however afflicting, are always founded in wisdom, and tempered with mercy.

J. Peterborough.

[Transmitted by the Bishop of Peterborough, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of Condolence of the Portreeve, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the Borough of Tavistock and its Vicinity.

WE, your Royal Highness's loyal and faithful servants, the Portreeve, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the Borough of Tavistock, most respectfully beg leave to offer our sincere condolence on an event which has overwhelmed, not only your Royal Highness, but the whole nation, with grief and mourning. It must, however, be a consoling reflection to your Royal Highness, that the virtues of your late lamented daughter, have procured from the whole nation that respect which rank and power alone can never claim; and we most devoutly hope, that the Sovereign Disposer of all things, tempering judgment with mercy, will still raise up others of the Illustrious House of Hanover, to perpetuate those affections which prove that a whole nation can feel, as though it were one family.

Signed, on behalf of the Freeholders and Inhabitants of the Borough of Tavistock and its Vicinity. William Gill, Portreeve.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, High Steward, Bailiffs, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Dorchester, in the County of Dorset, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with the unfeigned expression of our most sincere and heartfelt condolence, on the irreparable loss which your Royal Highness and the nation have sustained by the death of your Royal Highness's illustrious and ever-to-be-lamented daughter, the Princess Charlotte of Wales.

While we deeply deplore the melancholy event which has at once deprived the kingdom of its fairest ornament and its future hope, we trust your Royal Highness will derive some alleviation of your grief, from the universal sympathy which pervades all ranks of His Majesty's loyal subjects; and with renewed assurances of our ardent attachment to your Royal Highness's Person and Government, we earnestly pray, that there may never be wanting a descendant of the Illustrious House of Brunswick to wield the sceptre of these realms.

Morgan Yeatman, Mayor.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough and Parish of Barnstaple and its Neighbourhood, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of affectionate attachment and unfeigned condolence on the recent visitation of Providence, which has fallen so heavily on your Royal Highness, and rendered the whole empire a scene of unaffected sorrow and mourning.

The deprivation which you, Sir, have so peculiarly to deplore, is doubtless to be numbered among the severest and sharpest calamities of life; and, although we would cautiously avoid any expression that might tend to revive or aggravate your sense of the immense and irreparable loss which has wrung your paternal heart with anguish; yet, we cannot but become sharers in your sorrows, when we reflect on the high interests involved in the fate of your illustrious and ever-to-be-lamented daughter; and contemplate the virtues and accomplishments that distinguished her, and threw a glory over even the duties and obligations of her exalted station.

Over hopes and expectations so grievously frustrated by her demise, we may be allowed to mourn, though we venture not to question the procedure of Him, who in his severest dispensations ever exercises mercy, and, if properly improved by us, will direct them to our good: besides the consolations of religion, we presume to suggest to your Royal Highness a source of no inconsiderable comfort, in the strong testimonies of loyal and affectionate attachment, which this mournful Providence has universally called forth to you and your Illustrious House.

We will trespass on your Royal Highness no further, than to assure you of our most earnest intreaty to the Almighty, to comfort and support you in this season of bitter affliction, and in restoring you to health and happiness, to continue to us the inestimable blessings of that wise and constitutional Government, under which we have so much reason to rejoice.

Signed, at the request of the Meeting,
Samuel Bremridge, Mayor.
Barnstaple, Dec. 15, 1817.

[Transmitted by Henry Drake, Esq. the Town Clerk, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders of the County of Durham, beg leave to express to your Royal Highness our deep affliction at the melancholy event which has so suddenly deprived your Royal Highness of a beloved daughter; His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of a virtuous, highly accomplished, and affectionate wife; and these realms of a Princess, through whom we entertained hopes that the succession to them would be long continued in your Royal Highness's posterity.

Though these hopes have unfortunately been disappointed, it is not for us to arraign or scrutinize the ways of Providence, but, with humble submission to the Divine Will, we pray that the Almighty may enable your Royal Highness, and His Serene Highness Prince Leopold, to support, with pious resignation, this sudden, severe, and trying calamity.

If the sympathy of a free, loyal, and generous people can in any degree tend to alleviate the poignant grief of your Royal Highness, and of your distressed son-in-law, never was it more universally, nor more sincerely manifested than on the present mournful occasion, which must prove to the world in what a high degree His Majesty's faithful subjects participate in every thing that concerns the welfare of your Illustrious House, how firm their allegiance is to their revered Sovereign, and how zealous their attachment to your Royal Highness, to whom may the Almighty grant a life full of years and glory.

W. Hutchinson, High Sheriff.

[Transmitted by W. Hutchinson, Esq. High Sheriff for the County, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, his Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Northampton, humbly approach your Royal Highness with sentiments of sincere condolence and deep affliction, on the irreparable loss which your Royal Highness and the nation have sustained, in the lamented death of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte.

Firmly attached to the person and family of your Royal Highness, we beheld, with the highest satisfaction, the recent union of your Illustrious Daughter with the Prince Leopold; an union accompanied by every circumstance which could justify our most sanguine expectations, whether we looked to the ripening virtues of our beloved Princess, or the amiable and estimable character of her august Consort.

We participate, in common with the whole Empire, in the poignant grief which your Royal Highness must have felt as a parent on this mournful occasion; but we humbly trust, that the same Almighty Hand which has inflicted the blow, will support your Royal Highness under the pressure of so severe a dispensation.

Signed, in the name and at the unanimous request of a Public Meeting of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Northampton, held at the County Hall the 16th day of December, 1817.

Charles Knightley, Sheriff.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Town and Borough of Ipswich, in Great Court assembled, impressed with feelings of the deepest grief at the sudden and deplorable calamity which it has pleased the Almighty to inflict upon your Royal Highness and this nation, in the death of your Royal Highness's beloved daughter, the Princess Charlotte Augusta, Consort of His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with our sincerest expressions of condolence upon this awful and distressing event, which has alike enveloped your Royal Highness and your people in indescribable sorrow and dismay.

Although, as Christians, we acknowledge it to be our duty to bear this calamitous visitation of Providence with resignation, yet, we feel your Royal Highness's and our own irreparable loss, as husbands, as parents, and as men; we shall ever lament her death as a misfortune which has deprived your Royal Highness of a beloved child, and presumptive Heiress to the Throne, and bereft the nation of a future Sovereign, whose eminent virtues had endeared her to a loyal and affectionate people.

Whilst we presume to hope your Royal Highness will derive some consolation, in this moment of sorrow, from the recollection, that the memory of your departed daughter will ever live in the hearts of Englishmen, and be revered by succeeding generations, we shall not fail to implore the Almighty Disposer of Events to alleviate the sufferings of your Royal Highness, by future blessings on your august Person and on your Family.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of the Corporation of Huntingdon, in Common Council assembled, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with expressions of our heartfelt grief and condolence at the lamented death of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta, consort of His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

When we contemplate the amiable qualities, splendid endowments of mind, and transcendent virtues that adorned Her Royal Highness, and rendered her as illustrious in moral excellence as elevated in rank, we feel the impossibility of finding consolation for such a loss, from any source, but a sense of duty in submitting to the inscrutable decrees of Divine Wisdom. Nor should we satisfy our feelings, not to state to your Royal Highness our assurance of the unfeigned sincerity with which, in common with the whole nation, we sympathize in the sufferings of His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg, for the loss of one, whose high merits, his mind so well enabled him to appreciate. We beg your Royal Highness to accept our fervent prayers for the restoration of that peace of mind which has been so deeply wounded, for your health and happiness, long to govern a nation deeply impressed with their present calamity, but endeared to your Royal Highness's Family by the strongest ties of duty and affection.

Given under the common Seal of the Corporation, the 17th day of December 1817.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses and other Inhabitants of the Borough Town of Malden, in the County of Essex, beg leave, with feelings of the utmost respect and sorrow, submissively to approach your Royal Highness and humbly offer our sincere condolence on the loss which your Royal Highness and the nation in general have sustained, by the ever to be lamented death of the Princess Charlotte of Wales and Her Royal Infant.

We humbly pray that Divine Providence will support your Royal Highness under this heavy affliction, and beg leave to conclude with a repetition of those sentiments of attachment, which, as we have always felt, so we have ever been ready to express to your Royal Highness's illustrious Person and Family.

The dutiful and affectionate Address of the Magistrates and Council of the City of Brechin, in Scotland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Magistrates and Council of the City of Brechin, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, and to express our grief at the severe and irreparable loss which your Royal Highness has lately sustained, by the lamented death of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte, which has filled every heart with sorrow, and came home to our breasts a sudden shock of calamity.

The deep feelings of regret which we experience, in common with the rest of the kingdom, are too painful to dwell upon: we pray for every consolation, and beg permission to assure your Royal Highness of our steady loyalty and attachment to your Royal House and Person.

Signed, by appointment of the Magistrates and Council of the City of Brechin, sitting in Council, this 6th day of December 1817.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Mayor, Deputy Recorder, Town Clerk, Sheriffs, Common Council, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the County of the Borough of Carmarthen, deeply afflicted by the recent and lamented loss which your Royal Highness hath sustained, and which we deplore both as a public and as a private calamity, humbly beg leave to offer to your Royal Highness, with the most unfeigned sympathy and loyalty, our heartfelt condolence on the death of the late excellent and amiable Princess Charlotte: we pray God to support your Royal Highness under so severe an affliction, entreating you to yield a humble acquiescence to the will of the Almighty. May your Royal Highness enjoy a long and happy life, and the succession to the Crown continue for ages in your illustrious house.

Unto His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, the loyal and dutiful subjects of His Majesty, the Ministers of the Presbytery of Lauder, met at Lauder this 2d day of December 1817, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness and to express the deep sorrow and sincere sympathy which we feel in our hearts, on account of the great and grievous affliction with which it has pleased Providence to visit your Royal Highness and the nation, in the ever to be lamented deaths of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte of Wales and Her Royal Infant.

In this season of sadness and sorrow, while we humble ourselves under that awful dispensation of a mysterious Providence, which, at one fatal stroke, has bereaved us and our country of our fondest hopes, and filled with all the bitterness of woe the hearts of a truly loyal and affectionate people; at the same time, without intruding into the deeper sorrows of a disconsolate father, of a once happy husband, but now a desolate widower, and of the other afflicted relatives of our dear departed Princess; we humbly offer our sincere and heartfelt condolence on this mournful occasion, and present our earnest prayers to Almighty God, that He may administer such consolations of His grace as alone can soothe and solace the soul of the mourner, and that He may continue to protect from danger, and to prolong the days of your Royal Highness, and to impart to you, in His goodness, every earthly and every heavenly blessing.

To His Royal Highness George Augustus Frederick Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and Duke of Cornwall.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Corporation, and Inhabitants of Falmouth, in the County of Cornwall.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful, faithful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Corporation and Inhabitants of Falmouth, most respectfully beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, and to express our unfeigned sentiments of sorrow and condolence for the very severe affliction with which it has pleased Almighty God to visit your Royal Highness and the United Kingdom at large, by the death of your illustrious daughter, her late Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte of Wales and Saxe-Cobourg.

But whilst in common with all our fellow subjects, we deeply deplore this great and unexpected loss, we at the same time bend with resigned submission to the chastening hand of the Almighty; always remembering, that every thing is in the power of Him who knows when to give and when to take away; and resting in the full assurance that she, to whom we looked forward with the fondest hopes as the future Monarch of these realms, and the upholder our Religion, Laws, and Liberties, now wears an Immortal Crown in the Regions of Eternal Bliss. And we pray that Providence, ever beneficent and gracious, will support your Royal Highness under this heavy dispensation, and by its healing power soothe your grief and enable you to continue and promote the honour and welfare of these dominions, and the maintenance of true religion and virtue.

We beg leave also to renew to your Royal Highness our unabated fidelity, and cordial attachment to the Illustrious House of Brunswick, and to assure your Royal Highness of our zealous determination and pledge, by every means in our power to support the just exercise of the authority of Government, and to maintain the British Constitution as by Law established.

WE, the Bailiff, Aldermen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Kidderminster, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with the most unfeigned expressions of sympathy and condolence for the much-lamented death of your late amiable and illustrious daughter, the Princess Charlotte.

Contrite and resigned, we bow with all humility to the mournful and mysterious dispensation, and sincerely hope and pray, that the same inscrutable Providence, which has permitted so afflicting an event, may administer consolation to your Royal Highness, and make all things work together for good to the nation.

The Address and Condolence of the Chancellor, Rector, Principal, and Professors of His Majesty's Marischal College, and University of Aberdeen.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Principal, and Professors of His Majesty's Marischal-College and University of Aberdeen, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with the expressions of our deep sorrow, and heartfelt condolence on the recent and unexpected decease of your Royal Highness's amiable, virtuous, and accomplished daughter, the Princess Charlotte, and of the infant of which she was delivered;—an event which has plunged your Royal Highness, the Royal Family, and the whole British Nation in overwhelming affliction.—In this affliction we participate with that spontaneous and warm sensibility which characterizes the British Nation, and distinguishes both the congratulations and the condolence of the free-born heart. We fervently pray the Almighty Disposer of all events, who has inflicted this national calamity, to comfort and support your Royal Highness, and the other Members of the Royal Family, under His afflicting hand, to enable you and them to submit, with resignation, to His wise and holy will, and to render this dispensation conducive to those religious and moral dispositions which all His afflicting dispensations are calculated to produce and improve. These are the sincere prayers of, May it please your Royal Highness, the Chancellor, Rector, Principal, and Professors of His Majesty's Marischal-College and University.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of Kingston-upon-Hull.

Most Gracious Prince,

WITH sentiments of unfeigned sorrow for the recent lamentable event, which bath so deeply affected every heart, we beg leave to approach your Royal Highness: we feel diffidence in presuming to offer condolence to an afflicted Father, mourning the irreparable loss he has sustained, by the death of his only and justly beloved child; nevertheless, we cannot forbear to express our grief for the anguish which we are fully persuaded must rend the heart of our revered Prince, or cease to deplore this sudden and untimely extinction of the nation's brightest hope, by snatching from us, in the prime of youth, a Princess endeared to the country by every tie which could render her estimable in the hearts of a loyal and affectionate people; for in her were centred all the virtues which we, in common with all His Majesty's subjects, admire in a British Queen, endowed with a powerful and highly cultivated mind, exemplary in her domestic conduct, and amiable in the exercise of every religious and social duty.

In this season of affliction, we offer our earnest prayer to that Divine Power, whose judgements are ever tempered with mercy, that He will be pleased in this hour of calamity to strengthen and support the minds of your Royal Highness and of all the branches of your Illustrious Family.

Given under our common seal, this 8th day of December, in the 58th year of His Majesty's reign.
George Schonswar, Mayor.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of Edinburgh, the most loyal and dutiful subjects of His Majesty, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with profound respect; and to present the expressions of our unfeigned and deep condolence with the heavy affliction which has fallen on your Royal Highness and the family of our beloved and venerable Sovereign, by the death of your illustrious daughter the Princess Charlotte Augusta.

The talents, the accomplishments, the principles, the virtues, and the piety of that distinguished personage, had deservedly endeared her with peculiar tenderness to the affectionate feelings of her Royal Father; while we, in common with the whole British people, had marked these eminent qualities in her character with the utmost respect, admiration, and love, and had fondly indulged the flattering anticipation, that a Princess so accomplished was destined, by a gracious Providence, to promote, in her august person, the lustre of the Royal House, the dignity of the Throne, and the prosperity and glory of the empire; objects which we know have ever been most dear to the heart of your Royal Highness.

Deign then, Sir, to receive our humble assurance, that we deplore, with the most poignant sympathy, this calamitous dispensation, which has agonized and disappointed, by so fatal and mournful a reverse, at once the private paternal affections, and the public patriotic hopes of your Royal Highness.

Signed, in our name, and by our appointment, and the seal of the City affixed hereto, at Edinburgh, the 10th day of December 1817.

Kincaid Mackenzie, Lord Provost.

[Transmitted by the Lord Provost, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, the Portreeves, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Ashburton, venture to approach your Royal Highness with our condolence on the death of the Princess Charlotte of Saxe Cobourg and her offspring, of a Princess whose virtues in domestic life gave promise of what she would have been in public life, had it pleased the Almighty Disposer of events to have prolonged her existence. We would not long intrude on the hallowed sanctuary of grief; we feel of what little service, to allay the agitations of sorrow, can be the lamentations and regrets even of the whole empire; but if any consolation can, under such circumstances, reach the heart of your Royal Highness, some consolation may spring from a knowledge of that unbounded loyalty, that sincere affection, and real affliction, which the nation has, on this mournful occasion, so universally displayed.

When your Royal Highness can contemplate, with some degree of calmness, the mark of unfeigned respect which has thus been paid to the memory of this distinguished branch of the illustrious House of Brunswick, of which this country has been deprived, that contemplation must afford satisfaction to your Royal Highness, as it evinces a national regard for its Princes, in proportion to their virtues.

Rob. Abraham, Andrew Tucker, Portreeves.

[Presented by Lord Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Commonalty, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Hertford, beg leave to offer our condolence on the heavy loss which your Royal Highness and the nation have sustained in the death of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta. We are sensible that it is not for us to suggest to your Royal Highness those topics which afford to a father the only solid ground of consolation on so melancholy an occasion, and we fear that by dwelling on those amiable qualities and excellent virtues which so eminently adorned the Princess whose loss we deplore, we might excite feelings which we desire only to soothe; of this however we are confident, that your Royal Highness must derive comfort in your affliction from the deep impression which this mournful event has made upon the hearts of the whole nation. We trust, that that Power which has conducted us safely through great and numerous perils will still grant us its protection, and that your Royal Highness and your august Family may long continue to reign over an affectionate and loyal people.

To these expressions of dutiful respect to your Royal Highness, we humbly beg leave to add our sincere condolence with His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold, in whose sorrow also we take an unfeigned interest, and whose conduct has secured to him the respect and affection of a generous and sympathizing nation.

Edward Ellis, Mayor.

[Transmitted by Nicholson Calvert, Esq. M. P. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Bishops of the Episcopal Church in Scotland, humbly beg leave to express to your Royal Highness how deeply our hearts, and the hearts of all the Clergymen and Laymen of our Communion, are penetrated by sorrow for that affliction with which your Royal Highness and the British empire have been so lately visited.

Of the loss which the empire at large has sustained, all ranks and degrees of the people appear to be duly sensible; and numbers of them must know, by experience, what are the personal feelings of an affectionate parent on being bereft by death of a virtuous, dutiful, and accomplished child. But the feelings of your Royal Highness on being so unexpectedly, and in such circumstances, deprived of a daughter so illustrious, born to such high prospects, and so well qualified to adorn the elevated station which she appeared destined to fill, must be such as no other man in the empire has ever experienced, and such as very few, if any, are able adequately to conceive.

In the midst of this universal and deep-rooted grief, one consolation remains both to your Royal Highness and the nation. Although she, whose untimely fate is so justly deplored, hath not lived to wear an earthly Crown, there is no room to doubt, but that, for the sake of Him in whom alone she reposed her trust, and "whose doctrine," during her short career, she endeavoured to "adorn in all things," she hath now "received a Crown of Glory that fadeth not away."

That the Father of Mercies, even the God of all comfort, may pour into the heart of your Royal Highness every consolation which such reflections afford: that He will impress on the minds of all His Majesty's subjects, a deep sense of the blessings which they enjoy under the vigorous yet mild administration of your Royal Highness; and that, "turning the hearts of the disobedient to the wisdom of the just," He may unite them all in so strong an attachment to your Royal Person, as shall afford to your Royal Highness the consolation which must arise from your looking on every Briton as the dutiful child of Him who has long been the nursing Father of all His people, is the earnest prayer of His Majesty's and your Royal Highness's most dutiful subjects and servants,

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, the Principal, and Professors of the University of Glasgow, in Senate assembled, prompted by the most lively feelings of duty and affection, humbly approach your august Person, to express our unfeigned sympathy and condolence, on the occasion of the mournful dispensation, with which it has pleased the Almighty to afflict your Royal Highness, his Serene Highness the Prince of Saxe Cobourg, the Royal Family, and every class of His Majesty's subjects.

While the distinguished virtues and accomplishments of the departed Princess, which shed a lustre over her exalted rank, and her happy union with an amiable and highly esteemed Prince, had universally excited in the minds of your people, high expectations of the blessings, which a lineal succession from your Royal Person, might have conferred on these realms, the lamentable event which we now deplore, in a moment disappointed these pleasing hopes, and filled all ranks of men, with grief and sorrow inexpressible.

While we bow with reverence to the Will of Heaven, permit us, most Gracious Prince, in our own name, and in that of the youth under our care, to offer up our fervent prayers, that your Royal Highness, and every branch of the Royal Family, may receive Divine Support, under this heavy trial, and may be comforted by the sympathetic feelings of a dutiful and loyal people, as the pledge of their inviolable attachment to your Royal Person, and to the Illustrious House of Brunswick.

Signed, and sealed in our name, and by our appointment, at Glasgow College, the 11th day of December 1817, by

Montrose:

William Taylor, Principal

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Gloucester, humbly beg to approach your Royal Highness with the most sincere expressions of sorrow, at an event which has deprived your Royal Highness of a beloved and affectionate daughter, and your people of a Princess whom they adored, and from whom they fondly anticipated the happiest continuance of the blessings they have received under the sway of the House of Brunswick.

From our own feelings, we can too well judge of the bitterness of your Royal Highness's grief, at this most distressing calamity; yet we trust, your Royal Highness will pardon our intrusion, if we thus implore your Royal Highness to accept that consolation which affection can best afford, in the sympathy of a dutiful and loyal people.

Signed, by order of the Meeting,

Henry C. Lippincott, High Sheriff:

[Transmitted by H. C. Lippincott, Esq. High Sheriff for the County, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, His Majesty's dutiful, loyal and affectionate subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town of Wakefield and its Vicinity, beg leave humbly to approach your Royal Highness with the language of sincere sorrow and condolence on the present afflictive occasion.

Severe indeed is the calamity which it has pleased Providence to bring upon your Royal House, and upon the whole Kingdom, by the unexpected and deeply lamented death of your amiable and accomplished daughter.

We feel that language is inadequate to pourtray the deep gloom and affliction which this calamitous dispensation has diffused around, and we venture not to attempt the too arduous task:

But with hearts penetrated with grief, we humbly offer to your Royal Highness the tribute of our unfeigned sorrow for the irreparable loss which your Royal House has sustained. Anxiously do we implore the Supreme Disposer of all events, who has dealt the blow, to impart also, strength to support it; and with his wonted kindness towards this highly favoured land, to turn even this calamity to good. May He ever protect and support, with his Almighty Hand, your Royal Highness and your Illustrious House, to defend and secure, to the latest posterity, the constitutional rights and liberties of the British Isles.

On behalf of the Meeting; at which this Address was unanimously adopted;

I have the honour to subscribe myself, your Royal Highness's most dutiful, most faithful, and very humble servant;

Jeremiah Todd Naylor,

Chairman of the Meeting, and Constable of the Town of Wakefield.

[Transmitted by J. T. Naylor, Esq. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Northampton, humbly request that your Royal Highness will accept our sincere and heartfelt condolence on the late most calamitous event which has deprived your Royal Highness of a beloved and amiable daughter, overwhelmed the country with the deepest concern, and disappointed its fondest hopes, at a time when it was anticipating circumstances which would have filled every heart with joy.

We could be silent, Royal Sir, from the most profound respect to your paternal sorrows, but your exalted mind will deign, in the midst of affliction, to accept the sympathy and dutiful attachment of a loyal and affectionate people.

May every present consolation be yours, which can attend a sorrowing parent, and every future blessing which can dignify a great and illustrious Prince.

Signed by order of the Meeting,

John Barrett, Mayor.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Master, Assistants, and Members of the Company of Merchants of the City of Edinburgh, incorporated by Royal Charter, ratified in Parliament, beg leave humbly to approach your Royal Highness to express those feelings of sincere regret which we experienced from an event which has so suddenly involved this Kingdom in such deep and universal sorrow; and with sentiments of the most heartfelt grief, humbly to offer to your Royal Highness, in common with the rest of our fellow-subjects, the homage of our condolence on this occasion, where your Royal Highness has to mourn the loss of an only and amiable child, and where we have to regret the death of a Princess, not more endeared to us by those virtues which so eminently adorned her private character, than by those endowments which promised the accomplishment of the hopes so fondly entertained of her, as the future Sovereign of these realms.

While we thus humbly and sincerely sympathize with your Royal Highness in your present affliction, we pray that the Almighty Disposer of Events may give you fortitude and resignation to endure it.

Signed, in name and by appointment of a General Meeting of the Company, this 10th day of December 1817, William Patison, Master.

[Transmitted by William Patison, Esq. Master, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

The affectionate and dutiful Address of the Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Dunbar, in Council assembled.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Dunbar, have assembled together, humbly to present our deep expression of grief, in the severe and afflicting loss which your Royal Highness has recently sustained. And while we sincerely lament that the amiable and much beloved Princess is now no more, we can truly affirm, that the irreparable loss has visited us in our dwellings, with the most heartfelt private as well as public calamity.

On such a trying occasion, alas! in our humble walk in life, we have nothing to offer but our prayers, that your Royal Highness may feel resigned to the will of the Almighty Disposer of all Events, under the consolatory reflection, that "He alone knows, in his inscrutable Providence, what is good for us better than we do."

We most sincerely sympathize in your Royal Highness's feelings, and unfeignedly offer the humble assurance of our dutiful condolence, as the genuine sentiments which unite all ranks of the British people in loyalty and affection for the family of their good and venerable Sovereign.

At the Council Chamber, Dunbar, 15th December, 1817,

William Hume, Provost.

[Transmitted by the Provost, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg; which Addresses His Serene Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitants of the City of Waterford, beg leave to approach your Serene Highness, and with heartfelt sorrow to offer our condolence on the ever to be lamented death of your amiable and illustrious consort the Princess Charlotte Augusta.

In common with all the subjects of the realm, we deeply bewail the premature extinction of these virtues which adorned her exalted rank, and raised the highest expectations of her future excellence throughout the whole British empire.

We present to your Serene Highness our most earnest wishes for your prosperity and happiness, together with our ardent prayers, that you may be enabled through Divine Providence, to sustain with fortitude and resignation the severe and affecting calamity, with which it has pleased the Supreme Disposer of Events to visit your Serene Highness and the nation at large.

Saml. Morgan, Mayor, Chairman.

Waterford, December 11, 1817.

[Transmitted by the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and presented by Sir Robert Gardiner.]

To His Serene Highness Leopold Prince of Saxe Cobourg.

WE, the Mayor, Sheriffs and Commonalty of the City of Cork, in Court of D'Oyer Hundred assembled, sincerely affected by the recent and irreparable loss that your Serene Highness has sustained by the untimely death of your most amiable consort, Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte of Wales, beg leave to offer our most sincere condolence upon that melancholy event; an event the more to be lamented, as afflicting a Prince who has endeared himself to the people of this empire, by his amiable and conciliating manners in private life, and by his unexampled discretion and prudence in public.

Done, under the Common Seal of said City, the 12th day of December 1817.

Thomas Gibbings, Mayor.

[Transmitted by the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and presented by Sir Robert Gardiner.]

At a meeting of the Noblemen, Clergy, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Meath, convened by the High Sheriff at Navan, on Saturday the 13th of December, the following resolutions passed unanimously :

Resolved,

THAT we most cordially sympathize with His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg, on the disastrous event that dissolved the endearing ties that united him to the most lovely and virtuous of women, at the moment that promised to draw those ties closer, and to render them more dear to his heart, by adding the feelings of a father to those of the most affectionate and the best beloved of husbands.

Resolved,

That the Representatives of the County be requested to communicate respectfully, and through the proper channel, this resolution to His Serene Highness, with our earnest wishes that he may be enabled to yield to this complicated misfortune with patience and resignation, and may yet enjoy many years of health and happiness ; solacing himself with the reflexion that he fully appreciated the merits, and with all the sympathies of a congenial heart, and a perfectly corresponding truth and warmth, returned the love of his incomparable Princess, and assured that he has for ever secured to himself the esteem, the respect, and the affections of the whole British people.

Ferdinand Meath M'Veagh, High Sheriff of the County of Meath.

[Transmitted by the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and presented by Sir Robert Gardiner.]

To His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg, &c. &c. &c.

May it please your Highness,

WE have not hitherto laid before you the unfeigned sentiments of sympathy and affliction which we have experienced at the untimely death of the Princess Charlotte of Wales and her infant.

It was not that we felt less strongly or less promptly than others, the extent of our loss, and of her virtues, but perhaps appreciating more fully the magnitude of your grief, we felt reluctant earlier to intrude on its retirement.

The same blow has swept away, by her death, the dearest blessings of your life, and the brightest hopes of our continued national felicity and renown.

Her short, though elevated, career has closed ; but her great and good qualities have left behind them an immortal name.

Her probity, her private honour, domestic virtues, and devoted attachment to the sacred principles on which British liberty and happiness are founded, will never be forgotten.

They afford an eminent example of that strength of character, and native virtue which, at so early an age, are rarely to be met with in the page of history ; they rose superior to the temptations of youth and rank, and have left us to deplore one far more distinguished by exalted worth than by elevated station.

That character and those virtues are now beyond the reach of envy, and our praises can no longer incur the charge of flattery.

You cheered the progress and soothed the difficulties of her exalted career ; and may that recollection mitigate your sorrow for her loss, and enable you to enjoy that happiness which your virtues have so well deserved.

Samuel Maddox, Mayor.

[Transmitted by the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and presented by Sir Robert Gardiner.]

To His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

The respectful Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Kilkenny, legally convened on the 11th day of December 1817.

May it please your Serene Highness,

THOUGH we feel unfeigned reluctance to intrude on the retirement of your grief, emotions of a stronger nature impel us to lay before you those sentiments of deep sorrow with which we are inspired, by the untimely death of your illustrious consort and her infant.

That event, which it has pleased the Ruler of the universe to ordain, has swept away at once from you the dearest blessings of life, from an illustrious family one of its proudest ornaments, and from a nation its brightest hopes of future felicity and renown.

We trust that honourable ambition which prompted you to pursue with her that elevated career, which has for ever endeared her memory to Britain, will yield you some consolation, from the proud and immortal name it has conferred on her whom you have loved and lost.

In her life we saw a bright example of that probity, that private honour, and those domestic virtues which distinguish and ennoble the British character, and perhaps beyond all other causes, have contributed to render that nation great, free, prosperous, and happy.

In her we fondly traced those principles which have given the rule of this empire to her ancestors, and maintained their throne unshaken amidst the wreck of surrounding nations.

Severe to herself, though alive to the sufferings of others, she deeply felt the distress which this people had sustained in their great, successful and necessary conflict ; disdained useless pomp and luxury, and limited her expenditure within the narrowest bounds consistent with the splendour of her exalted station.

But although her life has now fled, and with it the well-founded hopes of these realms, yet we shall always cherish the grateful recollection of her virtues, as an example of that conduct which, when displayed in Princes, is the surest source of national prosperity, and of individual renown.

Your Serene Highness pursued with her this course; you partook in her sacrifices, and soothed her with domestic affection; and may you still, though deprived of her, enjoy every happiness that life can yet bestow.

Thos. Neville, High Sheriff of the County of Kilkenny.

[Transmitted by the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and presented by Sir Robert Gardiner.]

To His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Prince of Saxe Cobourg.

May it please your Serene Highness,

WE, the Mayor, the Aldermen, the High Steward, the Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Saint Alban, in Common Hall assembled, on Wednesday the 10th day of December 1817, humbly offer to your Serene Highness our most unfeigned condolence on the late melancholy event, which has deprived your Serene Highness of one, whose virtues would have ensured the happiness of your future life, and whose conduct gave a bright example of domestic and public worth; the loss of which cannot be too deeply lamented by every rank and degree of His Majesty's subjects. We deplore the untimely end of that high promise and expectance to which she seemed destined to be called. We deplore the extinction of those hopes, the fulfilment of which would have raised to your Serene Highness a worthy race of Kings, and added to the strength and durability of the Throne of these dominions. We deplore that unutterable anguish with which it has pleased the Almighty to afflict your Serene Highness, who, although as yet a stranger amongst us, has, in conjunction with our beloved lamented Princess, gained our whole esteem and affection; but we are fearful of adding to those sorrows, by expressing the whole of our feelings and our grief; we shall, therefore, content ourselves by paying this heartfelt tribute of respect to your Serene Highness, and, in offering our condolence, to express our most anxious wishes for your future happiness and welfare.

Signed, as Chairman, on behalf and at the unanimous request of the meeting,

T. F. Gape, Mayor.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS the Parliament stands prorogued to Tuesday the sixteenth day of December next, We, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued on the said sixteenth day of December to Tuesday the twenty-seventh day of January next;

and We have given order to the Lord High Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Great Britain, to prepare a Commission for proroguing the same accordingly. And We do further hereby, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice aforesaid, publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall, on the twenty-seventh day of January next, be held and sit for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said twenty-seventh day of January next.

Given at the Court at Brighton, the twenty-seventh day of November, one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, in the fifty-eighth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION.

Prohibiting His Majesty's Natural-born Subjects from serving or enlisting or entering themselves to serve in the Military Forces or Ships of War, raised or set forth by the Persons exercising or assuming to exercise the Powers of Government in certain Provinces and parts of Provinces in Spanish America, or in the Military Forces of His Catholic Majesty employed in Spanish America, or in His said Majesty's Ships of War.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS there unhappily subsists a state of warfare between His Catholic Majesty and divers Provinces or parts of Provinces in Spanish America: and whereas it has been represented to Us, that many of Our subjects have, without Our leave or license enlisted, or entered themselves to serve in the military forces or ships of war raised or set forth or intended to be raised or set forth by the persons, exercising or assuming to exercise the powers of Government in such Provinces or parts of Provinces, and that divers others of Our subjects are about in like manner to enter and enlist themselves: and whereas such practices are highly prejudicial to and tend to endanger the peace and welfare of Our Crown and Dominions, we do therefore hereby, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, strictly charge and command all and every of our natural-born subjects, of what degree or quality soever, not to serve in any such military forces or ships of war as aforesaid, and not to enlist or enter themselves to serve therein, and not to go beyond the Seas, or embark, in order to serve, or with intent to enter, or enlist themselves to serve in such military forces or ships of war: and it is at the same time Our Royal will and pleasure, and We do, by and with the advice aforesaid, hereby also strictly charge and command all and every of Our said subjects not to serve, or enlist, or enter themselves to serve in any of the military forces or ships of war raised or set forth, or to be raised or set forth, by His Catholic Majesty, and not to go beyond the Seas, or embark, in order, or to the intent to serve, or enter, or enlist themselves to serve in such military forces or ships of war; it is nevertheless Our Royal will and pleasure, that nothing herein contained, shall be deemed or taken to prohibit any of Our subjects, who are engaged at the time of the date of this Our Proclamation, in serving in the military forces of His Catholic Majesty, with Our leave or licence, from continuing to serve therein, provided that such Our said subjects do not serve with the military forces of His Catholic Majesty, when employed in Spanish America: and We do hereby, by and with the advice aforesaid, strictly require all Our said subjects duly to conform to Our commands herein contained, under pain of Our highest displeasure, and the utmost forfeitures, penalties, and punishments, to which by law they will otherwise be liable.

Given at Our Court at Brighton, the twenty-seventh day of November, one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, in the fifty-eighth year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

Whitehall, December 27, 1817.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed George Markham, of Stokesley, in the county of York, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, December 6, 1817.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the morning of Sunday the 23d of last month, the woollen and worsted spinning mill, belonging to Messrs. Hooman, Pardoe, and Company, in Kidderminster, was totally destroyed by fire; and that there is reason to suppose the same was wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said mill), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE THOUSAND POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accom-plise or accomplices in the said felony, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.—Five hundred pounds, part of the above reward, to be paid by Messrs. Hooman, Pardoe, and Company, and the remaining five hundred pounds to be paid by the Norwich Union Fire-Office.

POST HORSE DUTIES.

Stamp-Office, London, December 16, 1817.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, by virtue of an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for letting to farm the Post Horse Duties, and for better securing and facilitating the recovery of the said Duties," the Commissioners of Stamps will again put up to be let to farm, such of the said duties (which were granted by the Act of the forty-fourth year of His Majesty's reign, chap. 98) as shall arise in the district under mentioned, at the Stamp-Office, Somerset-Place, on Wednesday the 14th day of January next, between the hours of eleven and one, at a yearly rent, for the term of three years from the 1st day of February next inclusive, the highest bidder at the former letting of the said duties having failed to complete his contract for the same, pursuant to the conditions at such letting, wherefore the said Commissioners of Stamps have declared such contract void:

No.	DISTRICT.	Annual Rent at which it will be put up.
16.	NORTH WALES, viz.
	Anglesea	} £ 8000
	Carnarvonshire
	Denbighshire
	Flintshire
	Merionethshire and Montgomeryshire, with Shropshire

The district will be put up at the sum above set opposite thereto, which, if there be no bidding, will be gradually abated down to a certain point, or till a bidding shall be made. The highest bidder will be declared the farmer, and will be required to pay down immediately, in Bank notes, seven and a half per cent. upon the annual rent as a deposit; if no sufficient bidding shall be made, it will be withdrawn.

All persons intending to bid for the said duties, are to deliver in their proposals, addressed to the Commissioners at the Stamp-Office, Somerset-Place, at least three days previous to the said 14th day of January next, signed with their names, and stating the places of their abode, otherwise their proposals cannot be proceeded upon.

And no persons licensed to let horses for the purpose of travelling post, nor any one for their use, can be admitted to contract for the said duties.

By order of the Commissioners of Stamps,
Wm. Kappen, Secretary.

TO THE RIGHT HONOURABLE THE LORDS COMMISSIONERS OF HIS MAJESTY'S TREASURY.

WE, Commissioners appointed by an Act of the 26th Geo. 3. cap. 31, intituled "An Act for vesting certain sums in Commissioners at the end of every quarter of a year, to be by them applied to the reduction of the National Debt," do hereby certify, that the Capital Stock which has been purchased by and transferred to us on account of the Public Funded Debts of Great Britain and Ireland consolidated, up to the 26th day of November 1817, inclusive (in Great Britain), is as follows; viz.

		Capital Stock.	Interest or Yearly Dividend thereon.
