

welfare of these dominions, and the maintenance of true religion and virtue.

We beg leave also to renew to your Royal Highness our unabated fidelity, and cordial attachment to the illustrious House of Brunswick, and to assure your Royal Highness of our zealous determination and pledge, by every means in our power to support the just exercise of the authority of Government, and to maintain the British Constitution as by Law established.

Given under the common seal of the Corporation, this 10th day of December, in the 58th year of His Majesty's Reign, and in the Year of our Lord 1817; by order of the Meeting,

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, the Bailiff, Aldermen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Kidderminster, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with the most unfeigned expressions of sympathy and condolence for the much-lamented death of your late amiable and illustrious daughter, the Princess Charlotte.

Contrite and resigned, we bow with all humility to the mournful and mysterious dispensation, and sincerely hope and pray, that the same inscrutable Providence, which has permitted so afflicting an event, may administer consolation to your Royal Highness, and make all things work together for good to the nation.

Signed on behalf of the meeting,

William Boycot, High Bailiff.

[Transmitted by the Town-Clerk, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The Address and Condolence of the Chancellor, Rector, Principal, and Professors of His Majesty's Marischal College, and University of Aberdeen.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Principal, and Professors of His Majesty's Marischal-College and University of Aberdeen, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with the expressions of our deep sorrow, and heartfelt condolence on the recent and unexpected decease of your Royal Highness's amiable, virtuous, and accomplished daughter, the Princess Charlotte, and of the infant of which she was delivered;—an event which has plunged your Royal Highness, the Royal Family, and the whole British Nation in overwhelming affliction.—In this affliction we participate with that spontaneous and warm sensibility which characterizes the British Nation, and distinguishes both the congratulations and the condolence of the free-born heart. We fervently pray the Almighty Disposer of all events, who has inflicted this national calamity, to comfort and support your Royal Highness, and the other Members of the Royal Family, under His afflicting hand, to enable you and them to submit, with resignation, to His wise and holy will, and to render this dispensation conducive to those religious and moral dispositions which all His afflicting dispensations are calculated to produce and improve. These are the sincere prayers of, May it please your Royal Highness, the Chancellor, Rector, Principal, and Professors of His Majesty's Marischal-College and University.

Signed in the name, and by appointment of the Faculty, by, Huntly, Chancellor; Charles Forbes, Rector; W. L. Brown, Principal and Professor of Divinity.
Aberdeen, November 26, 1817.

[Transmitted by the Marquess of Huntly, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of Kingston-upon-Hull.

Most Gracious Prince,

WITH sentiments of unfeigned sorrow for the recent lamentable event, which hath so deeply affected every heart, we beg leave to approach your Royal Highness: we feel diffidence in presuming to offer condolence to an afflicted Father, mourning the irreparable loss he has sustained, by the death of his only and justly beloved child; nevertheless, we cannot forbear to express our grief for the anguish which we are fully persuaded must rend the heart of our revered Prince, or cease to deplore this sudden and untimely extinction of the nation's brightest hope, by snatching from us, in the prime of youth, a Princess endeared to the country by every tie which could render her estimable in the hearts of a loyal and affectionate people; for in her were centred all the virtues which we, in common with all His Majesty's subjects, admire in a British Queen, endowed with a powerful and highly cultivated mind, exemplary in her domestic conduct, and amiable in the exercise of every religious and social duty.

In this season of affliction, we offer our earnest prayer to that Divine Power, whose judgements are ever tempered with mercy, that He will be pleased in this hour of calamity to strengthen and support the minds of your Royal Highness and of all the branches of your Illustrious Family.

Given under our common seal, this 8th day of December, in the 58th year of His Majesty's reign.
George Schonswar, Mayor.

[Transmitted by Earl Fitzwilliam, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of Edinburgh, the most loyal and dutiful subjects of His Majesty, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with profound respect; and to present the expressions of our unfeigned and deep condolence with the heavy affliction which
