

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 3, 1818.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, December 27, 1817.

ORDERS for the Court's change of mourning, on Sunday the 4th January next, for Her late Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta, Daughter of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, and Consort of His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg, viz.

The Ladies to wear black silk, fringed or plain linen, white gloves, black and white shoes, fans and tippets, white necklaces and ear-rings.

Undress—White or grey lustrings, tabbies or damasks.

The Gentlemen to continue in black, full trimmed, fringed or plain linen, black swords and buckles.

Undress—Grey frocks.

The Court to change the mourning further on Sunday the 18th of January, viz.

The Ladies to wear black silk or velvet, coloured ribbons, fans and tippets, or plain white, or white and gold, or white and silver stuffs, with black ribbons.

The Gentlemen to wear black coats, and black or plain white, or white and gold, or white and silver stuff waistcoats, full trimmed, coloured swords and buckles.

And on Sunday the 1st of February next, the Court to go out of mourning.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons, and Clergy of the Diocese of Lincoln, with the deepest feelings of sorrow, humbly beg leave to express to your Royal Highness our unfeigned condolence on the late most awful and sudden visitation of Divine Providence, which has at once deprived your Royal Highness of a dutiful and beloved daughter, and the nation of a proud and fond hope of a successor to the Throne, most eminently qualified, by her distinguished virtues and endowments, to reign over a free and loyal people.

While we bow with pious resignation to the inscrutable will of the Supreme Disposer of all events, we earnestly pray, that He will in mercy mitigate the bitterness of Parental grief in your Royal bosom, by those consolations which He only can bestow; that He will be pleased long to preserve the invaluable life of your Royal Highness in peace and prosperity, and to perpetuate to these kingdoms, by continuing the posterity of our venerated Sovereign, those numerous blessings, civil and religious, which they have hitherto enjoyed under the Illustrious House of Brunswick.

George, Lincoln.

[Transmitted by the Bishop of Lincoln, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, His Majesty's faithful and loyal subjects, the Portreeve, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Honiton, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with expressions of our humble yet sincere condolence on the late melancholy event, which has plunged the wholen ation in to mourning and deeply interested every British heart. We cannot contemplate the many and distinguished virtues of your Illustrious Daughter the Princess Charlotte Augusta, without entering into the feelings of a Parent, suddenly bereaved of an only child, nor without lamenting the loss which the nation has sustained in its fondest and dearest hopes; but while we bow with resignation to the dispensations of Divine Providence, we trust, Sir, that the same Almighty Hand which has inflicted so severe a blow will be raised to support you under its weight, and soothe the anxiety of a loyal people. Sorrow, deep as yours, admits of little alleviation, yet some way