SATURDAY, JANUARY 10, 1818.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Augustus Frederick Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and dutiful Address of the United Grand Lodge of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons of England.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WITH the most poignant feelings of distress, we presume to approach your Royal Highness, the Illustrious Grand Patron of our Order, and to offer our sincere condolence, in this season of public calamity, when it has pleased the Grand Architect of the Universe, so severely to afflict your Royal Highness and your august House; when youth, rank and virtue have sunk before us into the tomb; when the brightest hopes of a whole nation have been suddenly blasted, and every family and every individual plunged into profound grief.

Whether we consider the death of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta, as a public, or as a private loss, we are equally unable to do justice to its magnitude.—Gifted with every virtue which can dignify our nature, Her Royal Highness exhibited to the world a pre-eminent example of domestic affection, of private beneficence and public rectitude.

While we thus feel the extent of our loss, we contemplate with no small satisfaction the consolation which your Royal Highness must derive from the spontaneous and universal sympathy which has been exhibited by every class of our countrymen: at once a proof of the estimation in which they hold the illustrious dead, and of their loyalty and attachment to the Throne.

May the Supreme Disposer of Events enable your Royal Highness and the afflicted and amiable consort of our late beloved Princess, the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg, to meet this inscrutable decree with firmness and resignation; and may your Royal Highness and your illustrious family long continue to reign over a free, loyal and happy people.

Given in Grand Lodge, this 3d day of December, A. L. 5817, A. D. 1817.

Augustus Frederick, G. M.

[Delivered by the Grand Secretary, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George the PRINCE REGENT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most loyal and faithful subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Scots Presbytery, in London and in its Vicinity, connected with the Established Church of Scotland, met in Presbytery, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with the highest sentiments of affection, gratitude and esteem, to express our most sincere condolence under this very painful dispensation, with which Almighty God has been pleased to visit your Royal Highness and the whole nation.—Several years ago, when your amiable daughter Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta was a child, we observed with the greatest satisfaction that your Royal Highness placed her under the care of those who were not only well qualified to give her a polite, but also a religious education, and that the young Princess very early made it appear that her mind was deeply impressed with an abiding sense of vital Christianity.

We also, with great pleasure and with much gratitude to God, observed that Her Royal Highness continued to the very last to adorn her exalted station by a most regular performance of every relative and religious duty.

We sincerely hope that the pleasing recollection, of your Royal Highness's solicitude to have your daughter thoroughly grounded in the principles of our most Holy Protestant Religion, and that God so abundantly blessed those means, will tend greatly to mitigate your grief on this very trying occasion.

We shall ever feel it to be our bounden duty most humbly and most earnestly to pray, that the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of Mercies, may pour into your afflicted mind those consolations which alone can afford adequate support under such a painful bereavement.

Signed, in our name and by our appointment.

William Nicol, Moderator.

Scots Church, Swallow Street, London 17th of December 1817.

[Delivered by the Rev. Dr. Nichol, and the Rev. Mr. Manuel, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

Unto His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's faithful and loyal subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Clergy of the County of Sutherland, and Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal Borough of Dornoch, in general meeting assembled, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, and to express the grief of our hearts on the late most melancholy and afflicting dispensation of Divine Providence, which hath seen fit to remove from this world her late Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta your daughter, and to blight the hopes of His Majesty's loyal and affectionate people.

To his illustrious family, however, but in particular to your Royal Highness, it must be some consolation to know, that a nation warmly attached to them, participates in their sorrow, and feelingly sympathizes with your Royal Highness in the loss of an only child, in circumstances peculiarly distressing.

The recollection of her high attainments and virtuous conduct, will be ever most fondly cherished by us,—and we earnestly pray Almighty God, that He may be pleased to preserve His Majesty's illustrious family, and descendants from them, worthy of the House of Brunswick, long to reign over the free, the loyal and affectionate people of the British Empire

Signed, in our name and presence, and by our appointment, by Lieut. Colonel Alexander Sutherland, of Culmally, our Preses, at Dornoch, this 26th day of December 1817.

Alex. Sutherland, Preses.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the Queen's County.

May it please your Royal Highness,

Were it permitted to individuals or to nations to enjoy an uninterrupted course of happiness and prosperity, or could our prayer, Sir, joined with your's, have arrested the hand of death, we should not now have the painful task of approaching your Royal Highness with sentiments of the most sincere sorrow and condolence on the loss which your Royal Highness and the nation at large have sustained by a late most afflicting dispensation. In congratulation on the many splendid achievements which have distinguished that short period of our history in which your Royal Highness has been called upon to hold the reins of Government, and which have led to the restoration of order, and to the general pacification of Europe, we have most cordially participated; and we should now deem ourselves wanting as loyal subjects, as fathers, and as men, were we to withhold the expression of our sentiments of sympathy and condolence on the unparalleled loss which you, Sir, and the nation at large have experienced in the premature death of an amiable, an accomplished, and an only child, the future hope of a great nation, the presumptive Heiress to the Crown of these realms. We attempt not, Sir, the vain task of assuaging your grief, or of extenuating the mighty loss which we have all sustained. We trust, nevertheless, that your Royal Highness may derive some consolation from the reflection, that she had lived long enough to develop a character which called forth, together with every sentiment of paternal and conjugal affection, the unanimous admiration and love of every party, and of every individual in the British nation: and that although called by the mysterious decrees of Providence (prematurely, as it appears to us) to fulfil a higher destiny, yet that the bright example of domestic worth which she held forth, will make a lasting and useful impression, will stimulate to every social and domestic virtue, and be engraven on the hearts of the latest posterity.

Walter Dixon Borrowes,

High Sheriff, Queen's County.

[Transmitted by the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Louth, assembled by the High Sheriff, in the County Court-house, deeply deploring the melancholy event which has so lately afflicted your Royal House, and baffled the fondest hope of these realms, humbly beg leave to assure your Royal Highness of the sincere and heartfelt grief with which we submit this offering of our condolence.

If to declare our firm and ardent attachment to your Royal Highness, and to His Majesty's Illustrious Family, can in this hour of distress convey one moment's alleviation to your royal breast, we shall have the greatest satisfaction in your Royal Highness receiving these expressions of our condolence, as a renewed assurance of the fervor and unalterable devotion of that attachment.

J. Marun, High Sheriff.

[Transmitted by the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Kildare.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Kildare, humbly be leave to approach your Royal Highness on the late mournful event of the death of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte, and with the deepest concern to express our heartfelt grief at this afflicting calamity, which has deprived your Royal Highness of an illustrious and beloved daughter, and this nation of a Princess, endeared to us not only by her exalted situation, but by the many public and private virtues for which Her Royal Highness was so conspicuous.

We pray that the Almighty Disposer of Events may enable your Royal Highness to support with fortitude and resignation this afflicting dispensation of his Providence; and we hope that your Royal Highness may feel some consolation from the universal sorrow which, on this mournful occasion, pervades all ranks in the British empire, flowing, as it does, from the hearts of a people firmly attached to their Sovereign and the Constitution.

Signed, by the desire of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Kildare, William Henry Carter, Sheriff.

[Transmitted by the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

THE Committee of the Synods of Presbyterians in Ireland, distinguished by the name of Seceders, beg leave most humbly to offer the tribute of their most sincere and tender sympathy on the deplorable event that has overwhelmed the nation in heartfelt sorrow.

Interested as we must be in every thing that affects the personal happiness of your Royal Highness, and in the occupant of the British Throne, we deeply lament the premature removal of your august daughter and her Royal Infant. The hopes with which her talents and virtues had inspired an admiring nation, now blasted, excite in us sentiments of the tenderest condolence with your Royal Highness, and humble us before the throne of God, who, to punish or to try a nation, sometimes removes their earthly confidence and hope; reserving to himself the glory of disposing of nations as well as of individuals.

May Jehovah ever be your comfort, strength, and shield.

Signed by order,

John Rogers, Chairman.

Unto His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The dutiful Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Tain.

WE, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Tain, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with the sincere, heartfelt expressions of our sympathy and condolence, on the recent afflictive dispensation with which a wise Providence has been pleased to visit your Royal Highness. We had participated in the general anticipations of joy, from prospects that were before us as a nation; and now that the Almighty has been pleased to blast them, and spread a heavy gloom over our national hopes, by the ever-to-be-lamented death of your Royal Daughter, our nation's pride, we beg leave to assure your Royal Highness that we feel our full share of the loss, which has filled your royal heart with bitter anguish; and pray that your Royal Highness may be consoled under what we, in common with the whole British nation, regard as a heavy national calamity.

We beg leave to renew our expression of dutiful homage and attachment to your Royal Highness's person and Government.

Signed, in our name, presence, and by our appointment, at Tain, this 22d day of December 1817 years, by

Wm. Murray, Provost.

[Presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

Unto His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, the Proprietors, Magistrates, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the Isle of Skye, beg leave to offer our sincere condolence to your Royal Highness upon the awful calamity which the nation has experienced.

In the hope that it may be grateful to your Royal Highness to know that even the remotest and most secluded Glens of the Highlands feelingly participate in the general grief, we venture to approach you with expressions of our sorrow, and to trust that that Power which alone can alleviate distress, will mitigate the sufferings of your Royal Highness, and in time restore that tranquillity of mind, so painfully lacerated by your recent affliction; and we beg leave to assure you, that no class of the community are more attached to His Majesty's Family and Government than, May it please your Royal Highness, the Proprietors, Magistrates, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the Isle of Skye.

Signed, in the name and by appointment of the meeting, by James Mac Leod, Preses.

Portree, 19th December 1817.

[Transmitted by Charles Grant, Esq. M.P. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Northumberland, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with the homage of our sincere condolence on the late melancholy and most unexpected event, which has deprived your Royal Highness of an only child, the pride and hope of her country, and His Majesty's subjects of a beloved Princess, whose happy marriage we hailed with transport, as the probable means of perpetuating on the throne of these kingdoms a line of Princes descended from the illustrious House of Brunswick.

The disappointment of these lofty hopes has overwhelmed His Majesty's loyal subjects with a sorrow unparalleled in any period of our history, and must convince your Royal Highness how deeply the feelings of His Majesty's subjects are engaged in the preservation of a dynasty, to which they owe their public security and private happiness.

We also farther request permission to assure your Royal Highness, that our attachment to your Royal Family and person will remain firm in any circumstances of danger, difficulty, or misfortune. We trust, that under the heavy affliction with which it has pleased God to visit this land, some alleviation of grief will be derived to your Royal Highness from the strongly expressed and heartfelt sympathy of the whole British nation.

Signed on behalf of the County, this 31st day of December 1817, by me, Thos. John Clavering, Sheriff.

[Transmitted by the Duke of Northumberland, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful, loyal and affectionate subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgesses, Clergy, and Inhabitants, of the Borough of Pontefract, and the Nobility, Gentry, and Clergy of the Vicinity, under the pressure of an event, so awful and so deeply afflicting to every member of the Royal Family, and to the nation at large, but more particularly, to your Royal Highness, as the recent death of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte of Wales, beg leave to assure your Royal Highness, that in no part of His Majesty's dominions, is the irreparable loss more sincerely deplored, than by ourselves.

In contemplating the awful dispensations of Providence, and bowing the knee to the Almighty's Will, we are persuaded, that the feelings of your Royal Highness will find the truest comfort, in your just sense of religion, and while we offer our condolence to your Royal Highness, we trust we shall be joined by every good and loyal subject in His Majesty's realms, in tendering our prayers to Almighty God, to shower down upon your illustrious Family every comfort and consolation, under so trying and sorrowful an event.

That your Royal Highness may long live to enjoy the blessing of uninterrupted health and happiness, is the sincere and ardent prayer, of His Majesty's faithful subjects, and your Royal Highness's most dutiful and affectionate servants.

Thomas Oxley, Mayor.

[Transmitted by Viscount Pollington, M. P. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most faithful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Burgh of Inveraray, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, to express our sentiments of tender sympathy and deep sorrow, for the heart-rending loss which your Royal Highness, and the whole British people have sustained, in the unexpected and untimely death of your illustrious daughter, the Princess Charlotte of Wales. Participating as we do in the general feeling of grief, which this calamitous event has occasioned, we humbly offer our most sincere condolence, together with our prayers that the Supreme Ruler of the universe may sooth the sorrows of your Royal Highness, and comfort and support you under this severe affliction.

That your Royal Highness may long live, and that your illustrious family may continue to rule over a free and a loyal people, to the latest posterity, is the fervent prayer of, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Burgh of Inveraray.

Colin Campbell, Provost.

[Transmitted by the Provost, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Dalkeith, beg leave humbly to approach your Royal Highness, and to express our deep sorrow and heartfelt condolence, on account of the late most afflicting dispensation of Divine Providence, in your Royal Highness's family.

We cannot think of the death of Her late Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta of Wales, and of her infant son, without feelings of regret too big for words to utter. Such conspicuous worth and amiableness, so untimely cut off, is calculated to fill the heart with no ordinary measure of grief.

We sympathize in the strongest manner with your Royal Highness's parental feelings on this most lamentable event, and know that in so doing we coincide in sentiment with the whole British people. High indeed were the nation's hopes from the eminent virtues of this most accomplished Princess, and joyfully did it anticipate the era, when a long line of her illustrious descendants should successively fill the Throne, and be the means of continuing to future generations that prosperity and happiness, which we of the present age have so signally enjoyed, under the paternal sway of our beloved Sovereign, and of your Royal Highness. But the ways of Providence are inscrutable by mortals. These hopes have been destroyed, and we are left to weep our irreparable loss. We weep not however for the illustrious dead: we weep for ourselves; we know that the righteous, when their earthly house of this tabernacle is dissolved, have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

That Almighty God may ever afford your Royal Highness that consolation which the world cannot give, is our most ardent and constant prayer.

Signed in our name, in our presence, and by our appointment, at Dalkeith, this 23d day of December 1817.

Thomas Scott, Moderator, P. T.

[Transmitted by the Viscount Melville, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg; which Addresses His Serene Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

WE, the Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Town and Borough of Ipswich, in the County of Suffolk, in Great Court Assembled, humbly offer to your Serene Highness our most earnest condolence, on the death of the Princess Charlotte Augusta, your Serene Highness's illustrious and beloved consort, an event, which, equally deplorable as unexpected, has filled our hearts with grief, and excited a similar feeling of sorrow throughout the United Kingdom.

If this awful calamity, which has frustrated our most fond and ardent hopes, have made so deep an impression on the public mind, how much more acutely must it affect the bosom of your Serene Highness, who have been thus prematurely deprived of the object of your dearest affection, and her lovely offspring, a Princess beloved for every estimable quality which could endear her to a British people.

Whilst we reflect on this mournful and distressing occurrence, we most deeply sympathise with your Serene Highness on so awful a visitation of Divine Providence, to which we doubt not, your Serene Highness submits with Christian resignation.

Though prompted by our feelings, thus to address your Serene Highness upon this painful subject, it has not been without considerable reluctance we could bring ourselves to trespass on your retirement at this awful moment of acute sorrow, fearing it might increase those melancholy sensations in the mind of your Serene Highness, which it is our anxious desire to assuage; at the same time, we trust it will afford some degree of consolation to your Serene Highness to know, how deeply we participate in your heartfelt sorrow, at an event which has torn from us an inestimable Princess, whom we fondly hailed as our future Sovereign, and who, under Providence, would have adorned the Throne of her illustrious ancestors.

Given under our common seal, the 19th day of December, in the year of our Lord 1817.

[Transmitted by R. A. Chickitt, and John Round, Esqrs. M. P. and presented by Sir R. Gardiner.]

To His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold, of Saxe-Cobourg.

WE, the Nobility, Clergy, Gentry, and Freeholders of the County of Hertford, fully sensible of the irreparable loss we have experienced in the too early death of our beloved Princess, your Royal Consort, approach your Serene Highness with our unfeigned expressions of condolence. Whilst we bow with submission to the will of Providence, we deplore this sad event, which has extinguished the high hopes we entertained of seeing Her Royal Highness and her progeny seated on the throne of these realms. We looked not only to the blessings of her mild and virtuous reign, but to the emulating effect of her example upon a rising line of successors.

We deplore it, as having snatched from our view the instructive pattern of a virtuous and domestic female character, of one who shed from her eminence an useful influence over all, and which has received its melancholy proof of estimation in the universal grief and despondency of the whole nation.

But it was you, Sir, who could best appreciate the worthiness of our lamented Princess; and it is to you we wish to express the participation of a grief we are assured is equally sincere and profound.

We venerate your sorrows; but let us not irreverently intrude upon them, by expatiating more widely upon our own. God forbid that we should aggravate those feelings, which it is not in our power to console.

May that piety, which was a distinguishing excellence of your Royal Consort, support you, Sir, under the pressure of your heavy affliction, and may it gradually lead your mind to that tranquillity which can be attained by no other guidance.

In the name and on behalf of the meeting,

Edm. Morris, High Sheriff.

[Transmitted by the High Sheriff, and presented by Sir Robert Gardiner.]

To His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Prince of Saxe Cobourg and Saalfeld.

May it please your Serene Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Wexford, beg leave to assure your Serene Highness, that none of His Majesty's faithful subjects have sympathised more deeply than we have done in the dreadful calamity that has overwhelmed your Serene Highness with sorrow, and plunged the empire into grief and mourning.

We offer our most heartfelt condolence, and pray the Almighty to strengthen and support your Serene Highness in this severe trial.

From the moment your Serene Highness was known to this country, every heart felt love and respect for your many virtues. These feelings have daily increased, and the dreadful stroke which has separated you, Sir, from that beloved object we all deplore, has but drawn still closer the tie that unites all hearts to one so deservedly dear to her. This consideration, we trust, will induce your Serene Highness still to continue among a people who entertain such sentiments towards you, and who will never cease to feel the most lively interest in the temporal and eternal happiness of your Serene Highness.

Will. Aug. Le Hunte, High Sheriff County of Wexford, Ireland.

[Transmitted by the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and presented by Sir Robert Gardiner.]

To His Serene Highness the Prince of Cobourg.

May it please your Serene Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most loyal subjects, the Inhabitants of the Queen's County, beg leave to offer to your Serene Highness the sincere tribute of our grief and condolence on the unspeakable loss which your Serene Highness and the nation at large have sustained, in the premature death of your Illustrious Consort, the late Princess Charlotte Augusta.

The pattern of conjugal affection and domestic happiness, which appeared in the conduct of your Serene Highness and of your late Royal Consort, while it held forth a bright example of private worth, afforded at the same time a strong indication of those virtues, which at some future period (had it so pleased the great Disposer of Events) she would have been called upon to exercise.

May the affliction, which you cannot cease to feel for your unparalleled loss, be mitigated by the reflection, that while your conduct has commanded the esteem, your misfortune has ensured the sympathy, of every individual of the British nation.

Walter Dixon Borrowes, High Sheriff, Queen's County.

[Transmitted by the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and presented by Sir Robert Gardiner.]

To His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

THE Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Cork, beg leave to offer to your Serene Highness their most sincere and heartfelt condolence on the great and irreparable loss you have sustained in the death of your beloved and most amiable Consort. In her your Serene Highness has lost your choicest blessing—the British Empire its brightest ornament—its fondest hope.

We hailed the auspicious day which saw our beloved Princess united to a Prince whose personal worth and estimable qualities made him the object of her choice, a choice sanctioned and approved by her Royal Parent, and confirmed by the unanimous suffrage of the British nation.

In proportion as our feelings were animated by the brilliant prospects presented to our hopes, have they been depressed by their unexpected and melancholy termination. To recount the blessings which were expected to flow from that happy union, to dwell on the recital of those distinguished virtues, those endearing qualities, now lost to your Serene Highness and to the empire, could but tend to aggravate those deep-laid sorrows which we should in vain attempt to assuage, and in which we so sincerely participate—we shall long continue to deplore them in silence. The remembrance of them is indelibly impressed on our hearts; and we shall ever retain for your Serene Highness that profound respect and affection which your public and private character have so deservedly obtained from the British empire.

Signed on behalf of the County,

J. Townsend, Sheriff.

King's Old Castle, County of Cork,

20th Dec. 1817.

[Transmitted by the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and presented by Sir Robert Gardiner.]

To His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe-Cobourg.

The Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Limerick.

ON the melancholy event which has plunged these kingdoms in the deepest distress, we beg leave to approach your Serene Highness with the expression of our earnest sympathy and regret.

To manly fortitude, patience, and submission to the will of Heaven, qualities which you have shewn yourself eminently to possess, we must refer you for consolation, and ability to sustain the heavy calamity that now bows you to the earth.

The nature of your sorrow is such as forbids us to dilate upon it; but the time will arrive, when the recollection of the high place you hold in the public estimation, and which we but feebly describe, cannot fail to alleviate that grief, in which the whole empire takes the liveliest concern; and it will also be most grateful to you to feel, that you are now by your virtues as closely linked to us in affection, as you were heretofore united to us by political adoption.

John Low, High Sheriff.

[Transmitted by the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and presented by Sir Robert Gardiner.]

Unto His Serene Highness Leopold Prince of Saxe Cobourg, &c.

The affectionate and respectful Address of the County of Ross.

WE, the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, Justices of the Peace, and other Heritors of the County of Ross, beg leave to approach your Serene Highness with the assurances of our sincerest sympathy and condolence on the severe affliction with which it has pleased Providence to visit the family of your Serene Highness, in the death of your amiable and ever to be lamented Consort.

Overwhelmed as we ourselves are, in common with our fellow countrymen, by the suddenness, and severity of the blow which has fallen upon us, we are ill-qualified to administer consolation to the lacerated heart of your Serene Highness.

We would not intrude on the melancholy indulgence of your Serene Highness's grief, but we wish to assure your Serene Highness that those amiable qualities by which your Serene Highness is so eminently distinguished, are known and appreciated by, and have acquired the genuine respect and esteem of the inhabitants of even the remotest parts of the British empire. And it is our most earnest prayer, that your Serene Highness may be supported under the pressure of your present heavy affliction, and enjoy a long period of future happiness and prosperity.

Signed in name, in presence, and by appointment of the Meeting, held at Dingwall, 10th Dec. 1817.

Hector Mackenzie, His Majesty's Lieutenant for the County of Ross.

[Transmitted by the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and presented by Sir Robert Gardiner.]

To His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

WE, the Bailiff, Aldermen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Kidderminster, beg leave to offer our sincerest condolence with your Serene Highness, for the bereavement which your Serene Highness has experienced by the death of your late Royal and beloved Consort, the Princess Charlotte.

Though aware that nothing but the consolation of Heaven can bring effectual relief to the wounded heart of your Serene Highness, yet we cannot but express our admiration of your uniformly tender solicitude to promote the happiness of her Royal Highness, and our hope that the consciousness of having so done your duty, and thereby won the gratitude of the British nation, together with a well-grounded hope of enjoying an eternity of blessedness with her whose loss you now deplore, may afford you support in these hours of trial, and reconcile you in some measure to the mournful and afflicting event.

Signed on behalf of the Meeting,

William Boycot, High Bailiff.

[Transmitted by the High Bailiff, and presented by Sir Robert Gardiner.]

To his Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Bedford, assembled, presume, though not without hesitation, in moments consecrated to private sorrow, respectfully to offer our sincere condolence to your Serene Highness, and to express that profound grief which we experience in common with the rest of this nation, upon the premature and lamentable death of your late beloved Consort, the Princess Charlotte Augusta.

Deeply as we deplore our national, our incalculable loss, we feel no less acutely for that sustained by your Serene Highness, whose union with our lamented Princess was hailed by the general voice of the United Kingdoms with unfeigned satisfaction—a satisfaction progressively augmented and confirmed by the gratifying display of all those amiable and endearing virtues which adorned the domestic life of your illustrious Consort and your Serene Highness, affording at once a bright example, and an earnest of future hopes.

Humbly trusting that the cordial manifestation of a whole people's regard and sympathy will not be unwelcome to the afflicted feelings of your Serene Highness, we earnestly pray, that the same Almighty hand which, guided by unerring wisdom, has thought fit to inflict so painful a wound, may vouchsafe a degree of comfort and support commensurate to your sufferings under this most calamitous and awful visitation.

Signed in behalf of the Meeting,

Samuel Crawley, Sheriff.

[Transmitted by the High Sheriff, and presented by Sir Robert Gardiner.]

To His Serene Highness Leopold Prince of Saxe Cobourg.

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town of Wakefield and its vicinity, beg leave to approach your Serene Highness with the humble tribute of our sincere condolence on your great, your irreparable loss.

It has pleased the Supreme Being to take from you a Princess whose virtues and accomplishments were the Admiration of all, but whose transcendent worth none like your Serene Highness could really appreciate. It has pleased the Supreme, and this consideration, we are sensible, will afford you strength to support an affliction which our feeble language would in vain attempt to describe.

Impressed with a feeling of this severe affliction, with hearts overwhelmed with sorrow, we present to your Serene Highness these expressions of our sympathy and affection, though sensible how unable we are to administer to you that consolation we should rejoice to impart.

May that Power, which has dispensed the affliction, dispense also balm to heal the painful wound—May the Lord of Heaven and Earth long preserve your Serene Highness, and extend his Almighty protection to those virtues which have made you dear to Britons, and made your sorrows sacred in the eyes of a great, a generous, and an affectionate people.

On behalf of the Meeting at which this Address was unanimously adopted, I have the honour to subscribe myself your Serene Highness's most faithful, most obedient, and very humble servant,

Jeremiah Todd Naylor, Chairman of the Meeting, and Constable of the Town of Wakefield.

[Transmitted by the Constable, and presented by Sir Robert Gardiner.]

To His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

SIR,

WE, His Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough and Parish of Barnstaple and its Neighbourhood, request permission to approach your Serene Highness with expressions of the most lively concern, and most sincere condolence on the late melancholy event, which has overwhelmed you with the bitterest affliction, and laid prostrate the fairest hopes and expectations of the whole British Empire.

In adverting to this dark and dreadful visitation, we are fearful of intruding upon your sacred sorrows, and of reviving, if not of aggravating, the distressed pressure of those feelings, with which you mourn over the desolation of your once delightful prospects, and of the happiness you so recently enjoyed. We consider it, however, our bounden duty to assure your Serene Highness of the unfeigned and warm interest we take in every thing that concerns you, and of the sympathies which your afflictive destiny has produced. We consider it as a tribute due to your distinguished worth, to express our conviction, that the moral, intellectual and religious principles, which have been so eminently displayed during your residence among us, in the uniform discharge of every domestic, social and public duty, have not only conciliated the esteem, but will for ever endear you to the best affections of the British Nation.

Under such impressions, allow us, Sir, to offer our most heartfelt condolence in this severe visitation of Providence, while we recommend you with all earnestness to the Great Comforter of the afflicted, and implore Him to support you under this trial, and to restore you to tranquillity and peace.

Signed, at the request of the Meeting:

Samuel Bremridge, Mayor.

Unto His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg, &c. &c.

The respectful and affectionate Address of the Heritors, Householdors, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Parish of Kelso, in public Meeting assembled, at Kelso, this 29th day of November 1817.

May it please your Serene Highness,

WE, the Heritors, Householdors, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Parish of Kelso, beg leave in your peculiar circumstances of complicated distress, humbly to solicit your Serene Highness's acceptance of this sincere tribute of our unfeigned respect and condolence.

Thankful as we have ever been for the privileges and blessings which as Britons we inherit and enjoy, we have been accustomed to regard, as with kindred affection, the joys and sorrows of that Illustrious House, under whose mild and paternal sway, these privileges and blessings are confirmed and secured: but never in the annals of our country, did the public hopes follow with more animated joy, or cherish with fonder affection, any of the race of our Princes, than the Illustrious Female whose early promise, progressive accomplishments, and public and private virtues, made her the object of admiration and love. Anticipating as we did the continuance of the Royal Line in her person, never did we feel an interest more lively, or emotions more afflicting, than on occasion of the recent dark and mysterious dispensation of Heaven, which has at once deprived her Royal Parents of an only and most beloved child, your Serene Highness of the purest sources of domestic felicity, and the United Kingdom of its most buoyant and ardent hopes—hopes which have been blasted on the very eve of their accomplishment.

To your Serene Highness, the chosen partner of her heart, we know not how to offer consolation; meanwhile, confidence in the goodness and submission to the unerring Will of the Almighty Disposer of human affairs, is a duty every way becoming our condition as dependent creatures, and as Christians—a duty, of which, in the moment of her severe trial, and on the eve of her own departure, she afforded a striking and memorable example. The change is, to her, we trust, the commencement of eternal happiness, and the remembrance of her Christian graces, blended as it must be with the confident hope in her present felicity, may lead your Serene Highness, whilst emulating her virtues, to the cheering prospect of a participation of her bliss in a higher and holier state of being.

Subscribed in name, and by appointment of the Meeting.

[Transmitted by the Duke of Roxburghe, and presented by Sir Robert Gardiner.]

Unto His Serene Highness Leopold Prince of Saxe Cobourg, &c. &c.

May it please your Serene Highness,

WE, the Provost, Magistrates and Councillors of the Ancient Burgh of Haddington, presume to approach your Serene Highness, with the humble, but sincere expression of our deep sympathy and condolence.

We remember, with fond and fruitless regret, the virtues and the graces, which have been prematurely consigned to the grave. Upon them, your Serene Highness had built your hopes of a life of happiness. In them, a loyal and affectionate people saw the earnest of a long season of prosperity. We bow before that decree of an All-wise Ruler, which hath blasted these hopes and prospects. It is our consolation to reflect, that in all His dispensations there is mercy;—and to know that, under a trial which the unassisted reason of man could not have sustained, your Serene Highness has been supported by a strength greater than that of man.

But a few days have passed, since we regarded your Serene Highness as the Consort of our future Sovereign. We are now proud to claim you as a fellow-citizen and fellow-subject; and, amid the oppression of our grief, we can yet be gratified by the thought, that the same virtues, which have adorned your exalted station, and which, if it had pleased God, would have illustrated your union with our Sovereign, will yet be displayed upon the destined theatre of their exertion.

May your grief be speedily assuaged, by the consolations of Religion, by the lenient hand of time, and by the assurance of the universal, the respectful, and the affectionate attachment of the British Nation. May you long be spared, to assist it by your counsels, and to instruct it by your example; and after a long life of virtue and of usefulness, may you rejoin the objects of your dearest affections in that better Country, where sorrow and seperation are unknown.

Signed, in name and by appointment of the Magistrates and Council assembled, at Haddington, this 13th day of December 1817.

John Vartine, Provost.

To His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe-Cobourg.

Most Excellent Prince,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Clergy of the County of Elgin, regarding with high approbation, the prudence and propriety with which you have uniformly filled your exalted station in this country, beg leave to present to your Serene Highness our most cordial expressions of sympathy and condolence, on the unexpected and deplorable death of your august Consort; an event that has not only given a deep and painful wound to the tender feelings of your own heart, but also to those of all ranks in the British Empire. That most amiable Princess, by her condescending mildness of temper, her undeviating rectitude of conduct—her unostentatious piety—her diffusive benevolence—and her exemplary discharge of all the relative duties, while she made the most indelible impression on your Highness's mind, rendered herself at the same time the delight and admiration of every sincere lover of our King and Country, and excited our ardent hopes, that the blessings of that mild and paternal Government, which we have ever enjoyed under the Illustrious House of Brunswick, would, through her, be handed down to our latest posterity. It has, however, pleased the great Disposer of all Events, to blast these flattering prospects, and we must now acquiesce in His will, all whose dispensations ultimately terminate in good.

May that Almighty Being, who has inflicted this calamitous stroke, support your Serene Highness under it, and console you with the assurance, that the virtuous will be again conjoined with those kindred souls, whom they here esteemed and loved, in a happier world.

W. Grant, M. P. for the County of Moray.

To His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold, of Saxe-Cobourg.

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Berwick, beg leave to offer to your Serene Highness our sincere sympathy and heartfelt condolence on the death of your illustrious and amiable Consort, the Princess Charlotte Augusta, an event which has overwhelmed us and the whole nation with the deepest affliction.

We are unwilling on this melancholy occasion to intrude on your feelings, or to disturb the indulgence of private sorrow; but we cannot avoid assuring your Serene Highness, that your Royal Consort had, by her amiable qualities, and the fulfilment of every duty incumbent on her exalted station, endeared herself to the whole British nation, which will never cease to regret her sudden and untimely loss.

We are further induced to address your Serene Highness, from a desire to express our sense of your own good qualities and virtues, displayed during the short time you have been known to us, and to assure you, that you have rendered yourself so much an object of affectionate regard to the British people, that we shall always pour forth our ardent wishes for your welfare and prosperity.

Signed, in our name and by our appointment, by our Preses, the Earl of Home, at Greenlaw, the 16th day of December 1817.

To His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe-Cobourg.

WE, the Mayor, Deputy Recorder, Town Clerk, Sheriffs, Common Council, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the County of the Borough of Carmarthen, deeply deploring the great and irreparable loss which your Serene Highness and the English nation have sustained, in the lamented death of your illustrious and amiable Consort, humbly beg leave to offer to your Serene Highness our condolence on that calamitous event. We beheld with heartfelt pleasure the union between our beloved Princess and your Serene Highness; and as we participated in the joy excited by that union, so do we now deeply share your grief; and we beg leave to offer to your Serene Highness that tribute of regard and attachment which is so justly due to your own personal merits, and to your late alliance with a Princess so dear to Britons. That the Almighty may enable your Serene Highness to sustain, with Christian fortitude and resignation, your irreparable loss, is our constant and earnest prayer.

John Hughes, Mayor of Carmarthen.

Carmarthen, 18th December 1817.

[Transmitted by the Mayor, and presented by Sir Robert Gardiner.]

To His Serene Highness the Prince of Saxe-Cobourg.

WE, the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Chester, most respectfully present to your Serene Highness the tribute of our condolence and unfeigned sorrow on the irreparable loss your Serene Highness has sustained in the death of your amiable and ever-to-be-lamented Consort. We had cherished the hope of your enjoyment of a long series of domestic happiness, and had fondly anticipated from it a succession of virtuous and patriotic Sovereigns. The inscrutable wisdom of Providence has disappointed these hopes, and it is our duty to submit, humbly praying the Almighty to support you under this severe infliction.

We beg to assure your Serene Highness that your numerous virtues have endeared you to the British nation, and that we shall ever feel a cordial interest in your future happiness.

By order of the meeting,

Richard Brooke, High Sheriff.

[Transmitted by the Sheriff of the County, and presented by Sir Robert Gardiner.]

To His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Duke of Saxony, Margrave of Misnia, Landgrave of Thuringia, Prince of Cobourg Saalfeld, &c. &c. &c.

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, Freeholders and Heritors of the County of Roxburgh.

Most illustrious Prince,

DEEPLY affected by the heavy calamity which has befallen your Serene Highness, a calamity which has drawn forth the tears of the whole British nation, we most earnestly offer our sincere and heartfelt condolence.

At this period of universal tribulation, perhaps we may be indulged in expressing our high respect for the character of your Serene Highness, as a Prince, as a soldier, as a man; confidently hoping that the energies of a pious and well disciplined mind may enable your Serene Highness, manfully to bear up against so grievous and heart-breaking an affliction.

May your Serene Highness long continue to dwell amongst a free, a loyal, and a feeling people, that we may constantly have before our eyes a living memorial of the great and exalted virtues, public and private, characterizing that union which it hath pleased Almighty God thus suddenly to dissolve.

Signed in our presence, at a County meeting held at Jedburgh, this 9th day of December, 1817.

Lothian, Provost.

[Transmitted by the Marquess of Lothian, and presented by Sir Robert Gardiner.]

To His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

May it please your Serene Highness,

WE, his Majesty's loyal and attached subjects, the Portreeve, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Honiton, beg leave to approach your Serene Highness, and with feelings of the utmost respect and sorrow, to offer to your Serene Highness our heartfelt condolence on the irreparable loss you have sustained by the sudden and lamented death of your illustrious and Royal consort. While we sincerely participate in your grief as a husband and a parent, we cannot but deeply feel this afflictive dispensation of Providence, which has blighted the nation's dearest hopes, and bereaved it of its fairest prospects. We venture not to obtrude on your sensibility, or to increase the poignancy of that sorrow, which fills the bosom of your Serene Highness, by recalling to your memory the many and transcendent virtues of the Princess Charlotte Augusta, for the best eulogium is the nation's grief. Mysterious as are the ways of Providence we bend with resignation to the Divine will, convinced that all its decrees are founded in unerring wisdom. And we fervently pray that your Serene Highness may receive fortitude and strength at the hands of that Being, who, while he apportions national chastisements, administers domestic consolation.

William Loyde, Portreeve.

To His Serene Highness the Prince of Saxe Cobourg.

The respectful Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Peebles.

WE, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Peebles, beg leave to approach your Serene Highness, and to assure your Serene Highness that we sincerely sympathise in your affliction, and that we deeply deplore that severe dispensation, with which it has pleased Providence to visit the family of your Serene Highness, in the death of your amiable and ever-to-be-lamented consort.

We pray that your Serene Highness may be enabled successfully to exert that fortitude which becomes your manly character, and that in pious resignation to the will of the Almighty, and in possessing, with the consciousness of deserving the universal love and good opinion of this Country, you may in future enjoy every comfort which this world can bestow.

Signed in our name; and by our appointment, and the Seal of the Burgh affixed hereto, at Peebles, the 15th day of December 1817.

James Ker, Provost.

[Transmitted by the Provost, and presented by Sir Robert Gardiner.]

To His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

WE, the Portreeve, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Tavistock, and its vicinity, beg to assure your Serene Highness how sincerely we sympathize in your affliction. If to know that it is shared by others can be any alleviation to sorrow, your Serene Highness must be conscious that there is not an individual in these Kingdoms but calls your loss his own. Fully sensible, however, amid such deep distress, that He, who has afflicted, can alone give consolation, we most fervently pray that the Almighty will enable your Serene Highness to undergo so great a trial with that resignation and submission to his will, which, when the poignancy of grief is over, may ultimately draw from you the grateful confession—"It is good for me that I have been afflicted."

Signed on behalf of the Freeholders and Inhabitants of the Borough of Tavistock, and its vicinity.

William Gill, Portreeve.

To His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Prince of Saxe Cobourg.

May it please your Serene Highness,

WE, the Magistrates, Town Council, and Incorporations of the Burgh of Dumfries, humbly beg leave to offer to your Serene Highness our most affectionate and sincere condolence for the irreparable loss you have sustained, in the lamented death of the Princess Charlotte, the illustrious and beloved consort of your Serene Highness. We cannot find language adequate to express our feelings.

or the real sympathy we entertain for your Highness on account of an event which has filled every bosom with the deepest anguish, and which we regard as a great national calamity. If any consolation can be derived in such an awful dispensation, we would seek it in the many amiable qualities and virtues of her who is now removed from us, and in that resignation to the Divine will, so bright an example of which the illustrious Princess, in her last moments, has left us to imitate.

Signed in our presence, in our name, and by our appointment, at Dumfries, this 27th day of November 1817 years.

John Barker, Provost and Chief Magistrate.

To His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick Prince of Saxe Cobourg.

May it please your Serene Highness,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the Ancient Borough of Hartlepool, beg leave humbly to present to your Serene Highness, the expression of our sincere condolence, on the melancholy death of your most Illustrious Consort the Princess Charlotte.

The anguish which overpowered every other feeling, on the sudden and fatal termination of our most sanguine hopes, now gives place to the most tender sympathy for the agonized feelings of a husband and a father; and we devoutly pray that Providence may give you strength to bear this appalling visitation with pious resignation, and that the excess of your grief may find some alleviation and even comfort, in the words of that angelic spirit, whose untimely fate we all deplore, that "it is the Will of God."

Darlington, Mayor.

To His Serene Highness George Frederick Prince of Saxe Cobourg.

May it please your Serene Highness,

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Suffolk, desirous of expressing in common, with other parts of the kingdom, the sorrow we feel at the calamity which has awaited your Serene Highness and the nation at large, beg leave to address your Serene Highness in sincere and unfeigned language of condolence.

We are desirous also of thus recording the high sense we entertain, of the exalted virtues of your late illustrious and beloved Consort, as well as of those which have distinguished the character of your Serene Highness from your first introduction to this country.

We trust, in discharging this painful but necessary duty, we shall not add to the poignancy of your Serene Highness's sufferings, but rather hope they may find some mitigation from the general assurances of a nation's esteem—and above all we most anxiously hope that the same all-wise and all-powerful hand which has so severely wounded your Serene Highness's feelings, may administer such timely and religious comfort as will soothe and reconcile your suffering mind to this awful dispensation of Heaven.

Signed at the request and on behalf of the County, Rt. Harland. Sheriff.

[Transmitted by the High Sheriff, and presented by Sir R. Gardiner.]

To His Serene Highness Leopold, Duke of Saxe, and Prince of Cobourg.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Chesterfield, in Common Council assembled, beg leave to express our anxious solicitude to alleviate the sorrow and distress which your Serene Highness has sustained by the awful dissolution of the union between our beloved Princess and your Serene Highness.

We beg to assure your Serene Highness, that we feel very sensibly the affecting loss you have sustained, but forbear dwelling upon so mournful a subject, as by so doing we may tend to aggravate your Highness's affliction. We therefore can only allow ourselves to assure your Serene Highness that as we participated in the felicity of your alliance, so now with great esteem and reverence for your Serene Highness's virtues and character, we deeply deplore your sorrows and affliction.

We beg to tender to your Serene Highness our tribute of respect and veneration, so justly due to your own eminent goodness, and to the memory of a Princess, whose irreparable loss has come home to our breasts with a heartfelt shock of private calamity.

Given under the Common Seal, the 11th day of December 1817.

John Elam, Mayor.

To His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Duke of Saxe, Margrave of Misnia, Landgrave of Thuringia, Prince of Cobourg of Saalfeld.

May it please your Serene Highness,

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and others, Freeholders of the County of Berks, respectfully beg leave to approach your Serene Highness with feelings of heartfelt grief and condolence on the awful calamity, which by the inscrutable dispensation of Almighty God, has destroyed the happiness of your Serene Highness's domestic life, and at the same time disappointed the fond and ardent hopes of the nation.

Gratified, as we are persuaded your Serene Highness has been by the feelings which have been manifested in a degree, and to an extent wholly unexampled, by all ranks and descriptions of persons throughout the kingdom, we are confident that your Serene Highness will, with ourselves, derive the best consolation from a pious and humble submission to the will of Him, in whose hands are the issues of life and death, and on whom our only sure dependance can be placed.

We cannot close this Address without expressing our earnest hopes that we may have the happiness of witnessing in your Serene Highness as early an alleviation of your sufferings as the magnitude of the calamity will admit of, and that the country which has been equally the scene of your comforts and your affliction, may still have the just pride and satisfaction of retaining within it, the bright and salutary example of your virtues.

William Stone, Sheriff.

To His Serene Highness Prince Leopold, of Saxe-Cobourg, &c. &c.

WE, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Kirkaldy, in Council assembled, respectfully solicit permission to offer to your Serene Highness the assurance of our unfeigned sympathy and condolence on that affecting event which so peculiarly interests your Serene Highness, and which has plunged the people of the British empire in the deepest sorrow.

We are unwilling to intrude upon your Serene Highness in this hour of distress, but if the poignancy of grief can be in any degree alleviated by a participation in it, the sympathy of a whole nation may afford some, however inadequate, consolation to your Serene Highness.

We are anxious to testify to your Serene Highness the sense which we have of those qualities which have so endeared you to this country, and we shall always feel the utmost solicitude for your Serene Highness's future welfare and prosperity.

Signed in name, and by appointment of the Magistrates, and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Kirkaldy, in Council assembled, this 23d day of December 1817.

John Ford, Provost.

[Transmitted by Sir R. Ferguson, and presented by Sir Robert Gardiner.]

AT the Court at Brighton, the 30th day of December 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for regulating the trade between the subjects of His Majesty's colonies and plantations in North America and in the West India Islands and the countries belonging to the United States of America, and between His Majesty's said subjects and the Foreign Islands in the West Indies," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty in Council, by Order or Orders to be issued and published from time to time, to authorise, or by Warrant or Warrants under His sign manual, to empower the Governor of Newfoundland for the time being, to authorise, in case of necessity, the importation into Newfoundland of bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, from any of the territories belonging to the said United States, for the supply of the inhabitants and fishermen of the Island of Newfoundland, for the then ensuing season only; provided always, that such bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, so authorised to be imported into the Island of Newfoundland, shall not be imported except in conformity to such rules, regulations, and restrictions as shall be specified in such Order or Orders, Warrant or Warrants respectively, and except by British subjects, and in British-built ships, owned by His Majesty's subjects, and navigated according to law:

And whereas it is expedient and necessary, that provision be made for fully supplying the inhabitants and fishermen of the Island of Newfoundland, for the ensuing season, with bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, His Royal Highness the Prince Regent doth thereupon, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, hereby order and declare, that for the supply of the inhabitants and fishermen of the Island of Newfoundland, for the ensuing season only, bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, may be imported into the said island from any of the territories belonging to the said United States, by British subjects, and in British-built ships, owned by His Majesty's subjects, and navigated according to law, and which within the space of nine months previous to the time of such importation, have cleared out from some port of the United Kingdom of Great Britain or Ireland, or other His Majesty's dominions in Europe, for which purpose a licence shall have been granted by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England or Scotland, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Revenue in Ireland, or any other person or persons who may be duly authorised in that kingdom respectively, in the manner and form herein-after mentioned; which licence shall continue and be in force for nine calendar months from the day of the date upon which such licence is respectively granted, and no longer; provided that no such licence as aforesaid, granted after the thirtieth day of September next, shall be of any force or effect: and His Royal Highness is hereby further pleased to order, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that the master or person having the charge or command of any ship or vessel to whom such licence shall be granted, shall, upon the arrival of the said ship or vessel at the port, harbour, or place in the said Island of Newfoundland where he shall discharge such bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, deliver up the said licence to the Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs there, having first indorsed on the back of such licence the marks, numbers, and contents of each package of bread, flour, Indian corn, and the number of live stock, under the penalty of the forfeiture in the said Act mentioned; and the Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs at Newfoundland, is hereby enjoined and required to give a certificate to the master or person having the charge or command of such ship or vessel, of his having received the said licence so indorsed as before directed, and to transmit the same to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England or Scotland, or to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Revenue in Ireland respectively, by whom such licence was granted. Chetwynd.

FORM OF LICENCE.

By the Commissioners for managing and causing to be levied and collected His Majesty's Customs, Subsidies, and other Duties in [where]

WHEREAS [the name of the person] one of His Majesty's subjects, residing at [place where] hath given notice to us the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs [in Great Britain, or Revenue in Ireland] that he intends to lade at [some port of the United States of America] and import into [some port of Newfoundland] in the [ship's name] being a British-built ship [describing the tonnage and what sort of vessel] navigated according to law, whereof [master's name] is master, bound to [where]; and it appearing by the register of the said ship [ship's name] whereof [master's name] is master, that the said ship, the [ship's name] was built at [place where] and owned by [owner's name] residing at [place where] all His Majesty's British subjects, and that no foreigner, directly or indirectly, hath any share, part, or interest therein.

Now be it known, that the said [person's name] hath a licence to lade on board the said ship, [ship's name] at and from any port or place belonging to the United States of America, bread, flour, Indian corn, or live stock, the produce of the said United States, and no other article whatever; and to carry the said bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, to some port or place in the Island of Newfoundland; and on the arrival of the said ship at any port, harbour, or place of discharge in Newfoundland, the master or person having the charge or command of the said ship, is required and enjoined to deliver up the said licence to the Collector or other proper Officer of His Majesty's Customs there, and to indorse on the back thereof the marks, numbers, and contents of each package of bread, flour, Indian corn, and the number of live stock, and shall thereupon receive a certificate thereof from the said Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs.

This licence to continue in force for calendar months from the date hereof.

POST HORSE DUTIES.

Stamp-Office, London, December 16, 1817.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, by virtue of an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for letting to farm the Post Horse Duties, and for better securing and facilitating the recovery of the said Duties," the Commissioners of Stamps will again put up to be let to farm, such of the said duties (which were granted by the Act of the forty-fourth year of His Majesty's reign, chap. 98) as shall arise in the district under mentioned, at the Stamp-Office, Somerset-Place, on Wednesday the 14th day of January next, between the hours of eleven and one, at a yearly rent, for the term of three years from the 1st day of February next inclusive, the highest bidder at the former letting of the said duties having failed to complete his contract for the same, pursuant to the conditions at such letting, wherefore the said Commissioners of Stamps have declared such contract void;

No. DISTRICT.

Annual Rent at which it will be put up.

16. NORTH WALES, viz.

Anglesea.....	}	£8000
Carnarvonshire
Denbighshire
Fliatshire
Merionethshire and Montgomeryshire, with.....
Shropshire

The district will be put up at the sum above set opposite thereto, which, if there be no bidding, will be gradually abated down to a certain point, or till a bidding shall be made. The highest bidder will be declared the farmer, and will be required to pay down immediately, in Bank notes, seven and a half per cent. upon the annual rent as a deposit; if no sufficient bidding shall be made, it will be withdrawn.

All persons intending to bid for the said duties, are to deliver in their proposals, addressed to the Commissioners at the Stamp-Office, Somerset-Place, at least three days previous to the said 14th day of January next, signed with their names, and stating the places of their abode, otherwise their proposals cannot be proceeded upon.

And no persons licensed to let horses for the purpose of travelling post, nor any one for their use, can be admitted to contract for the said duties.

By order of the Commissioners of Stamps,
Wm. Kappen, Secretary.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

LIGHT-HOUSES ON CAPE CLEAR ISLAND, SOUTH WEST COAST OF IRELAND, AND ON ARRAN ISLAND, GALWAY BAY, WEST COAST OF IRELAND.

The Corporation for preserving and improving the Port of Dublin, &c. give notice, that a Light-house has lately been erected on Cape Clear Island, from which a light will be exhibited on the evening of Friday the 1st of May next, and from thence continue lighted from sun-set to sunrise. The light to be exhibited will be of a bright colour, on the revolving principle, and will attain its greatest magnitude once in every two minutes.

Cape Clear Island, on which the Light-house is erected, is situate off the south west coast of Ireland, and county of Cork, and bears by compass from Too-Head W. $\frac{1}{2}$ N. 12 miles, and from Brow-Head E. S. E. distance 13 miles.

And also on the same evening, a light will be exhibited from the Light-house now erected on the island of Arran. This will also be a revolving bright light, and will attain its greatest magnitude once in every three minutes.

Arran Island, on which this Light-house is erected, is situate off the coast of Galway, and the entrance to that Bay, and bears by compass from Hag's-Head, N. by W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W. 16 miles; from Gulin-Head S. $\frac{1}{2}$ W. about 8 miles; from Black-Head, within the Bay, W. by N. $\frac{1}{2}$ N. 18 miles; and from Mutton Island W. $\frac{1}{2}$ N. distance 29 miles.

N. B. On the S. W. coast, between these two lights, there is a steady light exhibited on Loop-Head, at the entrance of the River Shannon.

By order,

John Cossart, Sec.

Ballast-Office, Dublin, December 18, 1817.

To the Owners and Occupiers of Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, in the Township of Althorpe, in the County of Lincoln, and all other Persons interested therein.

I, James Fenton, Clerk, Rector of the parish and parish church of Althorpe, in the county of Lincoln, do hereby give notice, that an application will be made by me at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be holden at Kirton, in the division of Lindsey, in the said county, in and for the said division, in the week after the Feast of Easter now next ensuing, to have two persons named or appointed by the Justices then and there assembled, to be, together with a third to be named and chosen by such two persons, arbitrators or referees for enquiring into and ascertaining, by or from or by means of the London Gazette, or by such ways or means as they shall think equitable or proper, the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat within the said county of Lincoln, for the twenty-one years then last past, in pursuance of a certain Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for dividing and enclosing the open fields and common in the township of Althorpe, in the county of Lincoln, and for draining the same and certain enclosed lands within the said township."—Dated this 31st day of December 1817.

James Fenton, Rector of Althorpe.

Notice is hereby given, that pursuant to an Act of Parliament passed in the 34th year of the reign of his present Majesty, intituled, "An Act to divide and improve allot and inclose, the open fields, meadows, commons, heath ground, and other open and uninclosed lands in the parish of Skillington, in the county of Lincoln; and also certain parts of a common or heath-ground, called the intercommon, within or adjoining to the same." I, the Rev. Richard Hutchins Whitelock, Vicar of Skillington aforesaid, do intend to apply at the first Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held in and for the division of Kesteven, in the said county of Lincoln, in the week after the Feast of Easter now next ensuing, to have three persons named or appointed by the Justices then and there assembled, to be arbitrators or referees for enquiring into, and ascertaining by, or from, or by means of the London Gazette, or otherwise, as in the said Act is directed, the average price of a Winchester bushel of good marketable wheat, within the said county of Lincoln, for the twenty-one years now last past, in order, and to the intent, that the said three arbitrators or referees, or the major part of them, may by their report, to be made and delivered to the Court of Quarter Sessions, to be held in the first week after the Feast of the Translation of St. Thomas the Martyr then next ensuing, set forth such average price, agreeably to the directions of the said Act, for the purpose of reascertaining the corn rent to be paid to me as Vicar of Skillington aforesaid, in the manner therein mentioned. Dated the 1st day of January 1818.

Richard Hutchins Whitelock

LONDON.

At the General Session of the Peace of our Lord the King, holden for the City of London, at the Guildhall, within the said City, on Monday the 1st of December, in the Fifty-eighth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Third, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland King, Defender of the Faith, before Christopher Smith, Esq. Mayor of the City of London, Sir William Leighton, Knight, Joshua Jonathan Smith, Esq. Samuel Birch, Esq. Aldermen of the said City, Sir John Silvester, Bart. Recorder of the said City, John Thomas Thorp, Esq. one other of the Aldermen of the said City, and others their Fellows, Justices of our said Lord the King, assigned to keep the Peace of our said Lord the King within the said City; and also to hear and determine divers Felonies, Trespases, and other Misdeeds committed within the said City;

BE it remembered, That the Inspector of Corn Returns hath, in open Court, presented and delivered to the Lord Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen, assembled at this present Session, a certain book, into which the states of accounts of the aggregate quantities, prices, and average prices of English barley, beans, pease, rye, wheat, rapeseed, and oats, bona fide sold and delivered from the 11th of August last to the 8th of November last by each and every person carrying on the trade or business of a corn-factor in the City of London or suburbs thereof, have been made up, formed, computed, and distinguished, and fairly and properly inserted; and hath verified upon his oath, that the same have been fairly, correctly, and properly made up, formed, and computed, to the best of his power, skill and judgment, and according, so far as in him lay, to the true intent and tenor of the Act of Parliament in that behalf; and the general average prices of each of the said respective sorts of corn and grain thereby appearing to the said Lord Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen, they do, in pursuance of the said Act, deem and certify the same to be as follows, viz.

Barley	2	4	8	Average price per quarter on the last six weeks.
Beans	2	4	1
Pease	2	8	9
Rye	1	16	10
Wheat	3	19	7	Average price per quarter on the last twelve weeks.
Rapeseed	4	18	2
Oats	1	6	9

And do hereby order and direct, that the said general average prices be published in the London Gazette once in four several weeks immediately succeeding this present Session.

By the Court,
THOMAS SHELTON, Clerk of the Peace.

London, January 9, 1818.

ALL persons having any claims or demands on the estate of Robert Bowser, late of Holborn, in the City of London, Cordwainer, deceased, are requested to transmit accounts thereof to Mr. Jobson, Solicitor, Castle-Street, Holborn, London, within two months from this date (if they have not already done so), or in default thereof they will be excluded from all participation in the division of the said deceased's estate and effects; and all persons indebted to the said estate are requested forthwith to pay the amount of their respective debts to the said Mr. Jobson.

DEMERARY AND ESSEQUIBO.

IN pursuance of authority received from his Honour the President of the Honourable the Court of Criminal and Civil Justice for the United Colony of Demerary and Essequibo, bearing date the 9th day of October 1817, the Deputy First Marshal of said United Colony, doth by these presents, in the name and on behalf of F. P. Van Berckel and William Brummell, in capacity as Deliberating Executors under the last will and testament of William Postlethwaite, deceased, summons by edict, ad valvas curiæ, all known and unknown Creditors to the estate of William Postlethwaite, deceased, to appear in person or by proxy, before the Honourable Court of Criminal and Civil Justice for the said United Colony of Essequibo and Demerary, at their ordinary Session, to be holden at the Court-House, in George-Town, on the 16th of February 1818, and following days, in order to render in their respective claims, properly attested, and in due form; whereas in default of which, will be proceeded against the non-appears according to law.—Demerary, October 10, 1817.

J. D. HALEY, Deputy First Marshal.

DEMERARY AND ESSEQUIBO.

THE undersigned, in his capacity of Deputy First Marshal of the Honourable Court of Justice for the United Colony of Demerary and Essequibo, advertises by these presents, for the first, second, and third times, that he will, by virtue of a sentence of the said Court and the subsequent executions, expose and sell, at public execution sale, in the month of June 1818, the coffee plantation Mindenburg, with all its buildings, slaves, and further appurtenances, situated in the West Bank of the river Demerary, in behalf of J. S. Massé, in capacity as General and Special Attorney of Everandus Mekern and Anna Geertruide his wife, plaintiff, versus the representative or representatives of plantation Mindenburg.

The judicium of præ and concurrentia in the net proceeds of the said plantations, will be held by the said Honourable Court of Justice three months after the day of sale.

For which reason, all those that may pretend to have any right, title, or interest to the net proceeds of said plantation, are herewith by him the undersigned, Deputy First Marshal, summoned to appear, in person or by their attorney, on the day appointed for hearing, which will be holden in these colonies, by the Honourable Court of Justice, in the month of August 1818, in order to lay their claims in due form, under the penalty that against the non-appears will be proceeded as the law directs.

The inventory of the above property, is daily to be seen on application to J. Steer, Esq. at Mr. Dobie's, 14, Kenton-Street, Brunswick-Square, London.—Demerary and Essequibo, June 30, 1817.

J. D. HALEY, Deputy First Marshal.
