SATURDAY, JANUARY 17, 1818.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, his Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Yeomanry, Freeholders of the County of Somerset, humbly entreat permission to tender to your Royal Highness the dutiful expressions of our heartfelt sorrow on the decease of her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta.

Our sorrow is enhanced by the prematurity of the event and by the frustration of the hopes which we entertained of seeing the offspring of so amiable a Princess capable of succeeding, at a distant day, to the throne of this realm.

But heavy as are our grief and disappointment, we have the consolation of reflecting that the illustrious Princess lived long enough to have acquired the admiration and affection of the nation, and to have set an example of conjugal and domestic virtue most congenial to British habits and feelings.

It is not for us to suggest topics of consolation to your Royal mind, but we cannot refrain from hoping that after the paroxism of woe is passed, your Royal Highness will find them in the same considerations which afford it to his Majesty's loyal subjects.

While we thus in unison with the country at large offer our sincere condolence to your Royal Highness, we seize the occasion of renewing the assurances of our firm attachment to the person and family of your Royal Highness.

Philip John Miles, Sheriff.

[Transmitted by the Sheriff of the County, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Aldermen, Minister, Churchwardens, and Inhabitants of the Borough and Parish of Fowey, in the County of Cornwall.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the loyal Aldermen, Minister, Churchwardens, and other Inhabitants of the Borough and Parish of Fowey, in your Royal Highness's Duchy of Cornwall, most humbly crave leave to condole with your Royal Highness, and to express our heartfelt grief for the severe stroke with which Almighty God has seen fit to afflict this nation, in the death of an amiable and ever to be lamented Princess, every trait of whose character commands our admiration, and we hope may excite our humble imitation.

But while those virtues constrain us the more deeply to deplore our loss, they furnish us with an assurance of her eternal gain; and when we contemplate the height of her felicity in the heavenly Kingdom, adorned with that Crown of Glory which fadeth not away; we trust this consideration will alleviate the sorrow which your Royal Highness must naturally feel for the premature loss of a beloved daughter.

With satisfaction and pleasure we express our unfeigned and firm attachment to the ruling Government and Constitution of our Country, and to every branch of his Majesty's illustrious family.

That Divine Providence may long continue your illustrious family on the throne of this United Kingdom, and to reign over a loyal and happy people, is among the most ardent wishes and prayers of your Royal Highness's faithful and devoted Servants, the Aldermen, Minister, Churchwardens, and Inhabitants of the Borough and Parish of Fowey, in the County of Cornwall.

[Delivered by William Lowndes, Esq. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, his Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Councillors of the Royal Burgh of Inverkeithing, impressed with the deepest sorrow, beg leave to offer to your Royal Highness our unanimous condolence upon the late very melancholy event, and great national calamity sustained by the premature death of her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta.

We must long continue to lament this severe dispensation of Providence, so afflicting to your Royal Highness, and which has deprived the nation of the illustrious object of their future hopes, the presumptive heiress to the Crown, endeared to all by the virtues which she so conspicuously manifested in the relations of private life, as well as by her known attachment to that excellent constitution of Government, by which this nation has been distinguished above all the other nations in the world.

Signed in name and by appointment of the Magistrates and Town Council convened at Inverkeithing, the 6th day of January 1818.

Robert Walker, Provost.

[Transmitted by the Provost, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

Unto His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Edinburgh, beg leave to offer to your Royal Highness our heartfelt condolence, on the deep and unlooked for affliction with which it has pleased Almighty God to visit your Royal house, and the British empire, in the death of her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta, and in the consequent disappointment of those bright and interesting hopes, with which her character and situation had animated every rank of the people.

We sympathize with unfeigned respect and affection in the severity of that dispensation which has fallen so heavily on your Royal Highness's domestic comfort. In doing so, we participate in the feelings of every order of men in His Majesty's dominions; and we heartily join them in deploring this most melancholy and unexpected event as a great national calamity.

It is with every sentiment of loyalty and gratitude, that we recollect the long series of public and private blessings which this favoured country has enjoyed under the protection of your Royal Highness's illustrious House, and under the parental reign of our venerable Sovereign.

And, while we bow with humility and resignation before the decree of Heaven, which has so suddenly deprived a loyal people of that estimable Princess, to whom they looked up with so much delight and expectation, we trust that the God of all Grace will vouchsafe to your Royal Highness, every personal consolation of which your aggravated affliction can admit; and that his Almighty Providence will continue to uphold the strength and splendour of his Majesty's Throne, and his august family, through many generations.

Signed in name, presence, and by appointment of the Presbytery of Edinburgh, at Edinburgh, the 31st day of December, in the year 1817,

by David Ritchie, Moderator.

[Transmitted by the Rev. David Ritchie, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Antrim, assembled, most humbly offer to your Royal Highness the assurance of our most sincere and heartfelt condolence on the lamentable death of your august daughter the Princess Charlotte Augusta; a death which has blighted the fairest and fondest hopes of the nation, and plunged it into universal woe.

To participate in the grief of the Crown on the death of a Princess, is the natural effusion of sentiment in a loyal people; on this occasion we bewail the loss of a Princess who has been taken from the world amidst all the enjoyments that earthly happiness could give, future prospects promise, or virtue attain.

The hearts of the nation were anxiously fixed on an event which would have secured to your illustrious House and the empire (by another tie), the blessings of a succession to the Throne, in a descendant from our lamented Princess, whose early, though matured virtues and genius, had given to her the proudest promise of her future greatness.

The Almighty God has ordained it otherwise. He has chastened us in our vain hope; and only to the consolation of Religion can your Royal Highness and the people flee for resignation to His Divine will.

On this calamitous event we again pour out our most humble but unfeigned condolence, and sincerely pray that the gracious God may be pleased to grant to your Royal Highness and your august House comfort and consolation under this heavy affliction.

Donegall, Chirman.

[Transmitted by His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George PRINCE REGENT, &c. &c. &c.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Freeholders of the ancient and Royal Manor of Carlow, beg leave most humbly to approach you, to sympathize in that affliction which is occasioned by the death of Her Royal Highness Princess Charlotte Augusta.

We wish not to intrude too long upon these moments sacred to grief; but in the hope that you will regard, as some alleviation of your Royal Highness's sorrow, this expression of our heartfelt condolence, we offer it in unison with the rest of His Majesty's subjects.

Benedict Hamilton, Chairman.

[Transmitted by His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg; which Addresses His Serene Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

May it please your Serene Highness,

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Northumberland, beg leave to present to your Serene Highness our sincere condolence on the late unfortunate event, which has deprived your Serene Highness of the choicest blessings of life, and England of a Princess, who possessed the hearts of the nation, and whose auspicious union with your Serene Highness had encouraged the most flattering anticipations of its future prosperity.

We can with truth assure your Serene Highness that we make no formal professions of sympathy on this occasion, but that the high respect with which the character of your Serene Highness at first inspired us, having been augmented by every circumstance under which that noble character has developed itself, embitters our regret for a loss which has been deeply felt by all, but has fallen upon your Serene Highness with peculiar severity.

Signed on behalf of the County, this 31st day of December 1817, by me, Thos. John Clavering, Sheriff.

[Transmitted by the Duke of Northumberland, and presented by Sir Robert Gardiner.]

To His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Yeomanry of the County of Devon, venture to offer to your Serene Highness the assurance of our heartfelt condolence on an event which has overwhelmed us all in one common calamity.

We should be cautious of intruding on the sacred recess of sorrow which belongs to your Serene Highness's present situation; but if the sympathies of a nation could effect any alleviation—if grief, by being participated, could admit of any diminution, at least the tears of a whole people may afford that consolation.

But our further motive for addressing your Serene Highness, is to testify the sense which we have of those qualities which, during the short time they have been known to us, have so endeared you to this country, that we shall never cease to pour forth our most ardent vows for your Serene Highness's future welfare and prosperity.

On behalf of the County,

Walter Roberts, Sheriff.

[Transmitted by Sir Walter Roberts, Exeter, and presented by Sir Robert Gardiner.]

To His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects and servants, the Bailiff, Recorder, Justices, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the very ancient and loyal town of Wenlock, in the County of Salop, with the profoundest feelings of sorrow, respectfully approach your Serene Highness with our condolence at an event which has so recently spread mourning and consternation over this whole land.

Under a visitation so awful and so afflicting, and upon a subject so delicate and so distressing, we really want words to express our grief, and find it difficult to convey our sentiments in terms suitable to the occasion; and yet, whilst we so largely partake of that affliction and distress, which, doubtless, at this moment rend your Serene Highness's breast, we cannot altogether stifle their expressions; and although it cannot be imagined that our grief, deep and general as it is, can in any degree equal the anguish of a husband's pangs, yet as we have ever known sorrow to be soothed by sympathy, and affliction to be alleviated by participation, we confidently hope that your Serene Highness may find some consolation in the assurance that you do not grieve alone, but that the feelings of the whole population of this vast empire, wheresoever scattered over the four quarters of the globe, are in perfect unison with your own.

But another motive for addressing your Serene Highness arises out of the anxiety we feel to testify the high sense we entertain of those rare and amiable qualities which, during the short time we have had the happiness of being known to you, have so endeared you to this country, that we shall never cease to pour forth our most ardent vows to Heaven for your Serene Highness's future welfare and prosperity, and that the gracious, wise, and adorable Author of our Being may always have you in his more especial keeping.

Townsend Forester, Bailiff.

[Transmitted by Cecil Weld Forester, Esq. and presented by Sir Robert Gardiner.]

To His Serene Highness the Prince of Saxe Cobourg.

May it please your Serene Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful, loyal, and affectionate subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgesses, Clergy, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Pontefract, and the Nobility, Gentry, and Clergy of the vicinity, sharing with your Serene Highness in the affliction arising from that calamity which the whole nation deplores, most respectfully present this our address of condolence on the premature dissolution of the dearest of your earthly connexions; a connexion by which you became allied to the whole British people, and by the memory of which, that alliance will be perpetuated to the end of your life. And we assume the privilege of assuring your Serene Highness, of our fervent sympathy in your sorrow on the present occasion, and our affectionate esteem of your exalted character.

Thos. Oxley, Mayor.

[Transmitted by Viscount Pollington, M.P. and presented by Sir Robert Gardiner.]

To His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

May it please your Serene Highness,

WE, the Provost, Magistrates, and Common

Council of Paisley, most respectfully approach your Serene Highness, with homage of condolence on the afflictive and universally lamented death of the Princess Charlotte of Wales, in whom all the best hopes and future expectations of the nation were concentrated.

We participate most sincerely in the feeling universally expressed on account of an event so very unexpected and so calamitous, and as human power cannot assuage the poignancy of grief, we earnestly implore that Divine consolation which can alone enable your Serene Highness to endure so severe a trial with fortitude and resignation.

We would offer to your Serene Highness sentiments of exalted respect and esteem, and trust that we shall long be enabled to recognise you as a subject and distinguished ornament of the British empire.

Signed in our name and presence, the 16th December 1817, William Carlile, Provost.

[Transmitted by the Provost, and presented by Sir Robert Gardiner.]

AT the Court at Brighton, the 30th day of December 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for regulating the trade between the subjects of His Majesty's colonies and plantations in North America and in the West India Islands and the countries belonging to the United States of America, and between His Majesty's said subjects and the Foreign Islands in the West Indies," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty in Council, by Order or Orders to be issued and published from time to time, to authorise, or by Warrant or Warrants under His sign manual, to empower the Governor of Newfoundland for the time being, to authorise, in case of necessity, the importation into Newfoundland of bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, from any of the territories belonging to the said United States, for the supply of the inhabitants and fishermen of the Island of Newfoundland, for the then ensuing season only; provided always, that such bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, so authorised to be imported into the Island of Newfoundland, shall not be imported except in conformity to such rules, regulations, and restrictions as shall be specified in such Order or Orders, Warrant or Warrants respectively, and except by British subjects, and in British-built ships, owned by His Majesty's subjects, and navigated according to law:

And whereas it is expedient and necessary, that provision be made for fully supplying the inhabitants and fishermen of the Island of Newfoundland, for the ensuing season, with bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, His Royal Highness the Prince Regent doth thereupon, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, hereby order and declare, that for the supply of the inhabitants and fishermen of the Island of Newfoundland, for the ensuing season only, bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, may be imported into the said island from any of the territories belonging to the said United States, by British subjects, and in British-built ships, owned by His Majesty's subjects, and navigated according to law, and which within the space of nine months previous to the time of such importation, have cleared out from some port of the United Kingdom of Great Britain or Ireland, or other His Majesty's dominions in Europe, for which purpose a licence shall have been granted by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England or Scotland, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Revenue in Ireland, or any other person or persons who may be duly authorised in that kingdom respectively, in the manner and form herein-after mentioned; which licence shall continue and be in force for nine calendar months from the day of the date upon which such licence is respectively granted, and no longer; provided that no such licence as aforesaid, granted after the thirtieth day of September next, shall be of any force or effect: and His Royal Highness is hereby further pleased to order, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that the master or person having the charge or command of any ship or vessel to whom such licence shall be granted, shall, upon the arrival of the said ship or vessel at the port, harbour, or place in the said Island of Newfoundland where he shall discharge such bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, deliver up the said licence to the Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs there, having first indorsed on the back of such licence the marks, numbers, and contents of each package of bread, flour, Indian corn, and the number of live stock, under the penalty of the forfeiture in the said Act mentioned; and the Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs at Newfoundland, is hereby enjoined and required to give a certificate to the master or person having the charge or command of such ship or vessel, of his having received the said licence so indorsed as before directed, and to transmit the same to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England or Scotland, or to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Revenue in Ireland respectively, by whom such licence was granted. Chetwynd.

FORM OF LICENCE.

By the Commissioners for managing and causing to be levied and collected His Majesty's Customs, Subsidies, and other Duties in [where].

WHEREAS [the name of the person] one of His Majesty's subjects, residing at [place where] hath given notice to us the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs [in Great Britain, or Revenue in Ireland] that he intends to lade at [some port of the United States of America] and import into [some port of Newfoundland] in the [ship's name], being a British-built ship [describing the tonnage and what sort of vessel] navigated according to law, whereof [master's name] is master, bound to [where]; and it appearing by the register of the said ship [ship's name] whereof [master's name] is master, that the said ship, the [ship's name] was built at [place where] and owned by [owner's name] residing at [place where] all His Majesty's British subjects, and that no foreigner, directly or indirectly, hath any share, part, or interest therein.

Now be it known, that the said [person's name] hath a licence to lade on board the said ship, [ship's name] at and from any port or place belonging to the United States of America, bread, flour, Indian corn, or live stock, the produce of the said United States, and no other article whatever; and to carry the said bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, to some port or place in the Island of Newfoundland; and on the arrival of the said ship at any port, harbour, or place of discharge in Newfoundland, the master or person having the charge or command of the said ship, is required and enjoined to deliver up the said licence to the Collector or other proper Officer of His Majesty's Customs there, and to indorse on the back thereof the marks, numbers, and contents of each package of bread, flour, Indian corn, and the number of live stock, and shall thereupon receive a certificate thereof from the said Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs.

This licence to continue in force for calendar months from the date hereof.

Signed by us the _____ at the _____ this _____ day of _____ one thousand eight hundred and _____ Licence to import bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, into the Island of Newfoundland.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

LIGHT-HOUSES ON CAPE CLEAR ISLAND, SOUTH WEST COAST OF IRELAND, AND ON ARRAN ISLAND, GALWAY BAY, WEST COAST OF IRELAND.

THE Corporation for preserving and improving the Port of Dublin, &c. give notice, that a Light-house has lately been erected on Cape Clear Island, from which a light will be exhibited on the evening of Friday the 1st of May next, and from thence continue lighted from sun-set to sunrise. The light to be exhibited will be of a bright colour, on the revolving principle, and will attain its greatest magnitude once in every two minutes.

Cape Clear Island, on which the Light-house is erected, is situate off the south west coast of Ireland, and county of Cork, and bears by compass from Too-Head W. $\frac{1}{2}$ N. 12 miles, and from Brow-Head E. S. E. distance 13 miles.

And also on the same evening, a light will be exhibited from the Light-house now erected on the island of Arran. This will also be a revolving bright light, and will attain its greatest magnitude once in every three minutes.

Arran Island, on which this Light-house is erected, is situate off the coast of Galway, and the entrance to that Bay, and bears by compass from Hag's-Head, N. by W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W. 16 miles; from Gulin-Head S. $\frac{1}{2}$ W. about 8 miles; from Black-Head, within the Bay, W. by N. $\frac{1}{2}$ N. 18 miles; and from Mutton Island W. $\frac{1}{2}$ N. distance 29 miles.

N. B. On the S. W. coast, between these two lights, there is a steady light exhibited on Loop-Head, at the entrance of the River Shannon.

By order,

John Cossart, Sec.
