

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 17, 1818.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, his Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Yeomanry, Freeholders of the County of Somerset, humbly entreat permission to tender to your Royal Highness the dutiful expressions of our heartfelt sorrow on the decease of her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta.

Our sorrow is enhanced by the prematurity of the event and by the frustration of the hopes which we entertained of seeing the offspring of so amiable a Princess capable of succeeding, at a distant day, to the throne of this realm.

But heavy as are our grief and disappointment, we have the consolation of reflecting that the illustrious Princess lived long enough to have acquired the admiration and affection of the nation, and to have set an example of conjugal and domestic virtue most congenial to British habits and feelings.

It is not for us to suggest topics of consolation to your Royal mind, but we cannot refrain from hoping that after the paroxism of woe is passed, your Royal Highness will find them in the same considerations which afford it to his Majesty's loyal subjects.

While we thus in unison with the country at large offer our sincere condolence to your Royal Highness, we seize the occasion of renewing the assurances of our firm attachment to the person and family of your Royal Highness.

Philip John Miles, Sheriff.

[Transmitted by the Sheriff of the County, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Aldermen, Minister, Churchwardens, and Inhabitants of the Borough and Parish of Fowey, in the County of Cornwall.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the loyal Aldermen, Minister, Churchwardens, and other Inhabitants of the Borough and Parish of Fowey, in your Royal Highness's Duchy of Cornwall, most humbly crave leave to condole with your Royal Highness, and to express our heartfelt grief for the severe stroke with which Almighty God has seen fit to afflict this nation, in the death of an amiable and ever to be lamented Princess, every trait of whose character commands our admiration, and we hope may excite our humble imitation.

But while those virtues constrain us the more deeply to deplore our loss, they furnish us with an assurance of her eternal gain; and when we contemplate the height of her felicity in the heavenly Kingdom, adorned with that Crown of Glory which fadeth not away; we trust this consideration will alleviate the sorrow which your Royal Highness must naturally feel for the premature loss of a beloved daughter.

With satisfaction and pleasure we express our unfeigned and firm attachment to the ruling Government and Constitution of our Country, and to every branch of his Majesty's illustrious family.

That Divine Providence may long continue your illustrious family on the throne of this United Kingdom, and to reign over a loyal and happy people, is among the most ardent wishes and prayers of your Royal Highness's faithful and devoted Servants, the Aldermen, Minister, Churchwardens, and Inhabitants of the Borough and Parish of Fowey, in the County of Cornwall.

[Delivered by William Lowndes, Esq. and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, his Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Councillors of the