SATURDAY, JANUARY 31, 1818.

The Speech of the Lords Commissioners to both Houses of Parliament, on Tuesday the 27th day of January 1818.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

WE are commanded by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent to inform you, that it is with great concern that He is obliged to announce to you the continuance of His Majesty's lamented indisposition.

The Prince Regent is persuaded that you will deeply participate in the affliction with which His Royal Highness has been visited, by the calamitous and untimely death of His beloved and only child the Princess Charlotte.

Under this awful dispensation of Providence, it has been a soothing consolation to the Prince Regent's heart, to receive from all descriptions of His Majesty's subjects the most cordial assurances, both of their just sense of the loss which they have sustained and of their sympathy with His parental sorrow: And amidst His own sufferings, His Royal Highness has not been unmindful of the effect which this sad event must have on the interests and future prospects of the kingdom.

We are commanded to acquaint you, that the Prince Regent continues to receive from Foreign Powers, the strongest assurances of their friendly disposition towards this country, and of their desire to maintain the general tranquillity.

His Royal Highness has the satisfaction of being able to assure you, that the confidence which He has invariably felt in the stability of the great sources of our national prosperity has not been disappointed.

The improvement which has taken place in the course of the last year in almost every branch of our domestic industry, and the present state of public credit, afford abundant proof that the difficulties under which the country was labouring were chiefly to be ascribed to temporary causes.

So important a change could not fail to withdraw from the disaffected, the principal means of which they had availed themselves for the purpose of fomenting a spirit of discontent, which unhappily led to acts of insurrection and treason; And His Royal Highness entertains the most confident expectation that the state of peace and tranquillity to which the country is now restored, will be maintained against all attempts to disturb it, by the persevering vigilance of the Magistracy, and by the loyalty and good sense of the People.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

The Prince Regent has directed the estimates for the current year to be laid before you.

His Royal Highness recommends to your continued attention the state of the Public income and expenditure of the country; and He is most happy in being able to acquaint you, that since you were last assembled in Parliament the revenue has been in a state of progressive improvement in its most important branches.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

We are commanded by the Prince Regent to inform you, that He has concluded Treaties with the Courts of Spain and Portugal, on the important subject of the Abolition of the Slave Trade.

His Royal Highness has directed, that a copy of the former Treaty should be immediately laid before you, and He will order a similar communication to be made of the latter Treaty, as soon as the ratification of it shall have been exchanged.

In these negotiations, it has been His Royal Highness's endeavour as far as circumstances would permit, to give effect to the recommendations contained in the joint Addresses of the two Houses of Parliament, and His Royal Highness has a full reliance on your readiness to adopt such measures as may be necessary for fulfilling the engagements into which He has entered for that purpose.

The Prince Regent has commanded us to direct your particular attention to the deficiency which has so long existed in the number of places of Public worship belonging to the Established Church, when compared with the increased and increasing population of the country.

His Royal Highness most earnestly recommends this important subject to your early consideration, deeply impressed, as He has no doubt you are, with a just sense of the many blessings which this country, by the favour of Divine Providence, has enjoyed, and with the conviction, that the religious and moral habits of the People are the most sure and firm foundation of National prosperity.

Westminster, January 31, 1818.

THIS day, the Lords being met, a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorised by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal, signed by the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, for declaring His Majesty's Royal Assent to an Act agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of the Honourable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Act, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to

An Act to repeal an Act, made in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to continue an Act, to empower His Majesty to secure and detain such persons as His Majesty shall suspect are conspiring against His Person and Government.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg; which Addresses His Serene Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

May it please your Serene Highness,

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Yeomanry, Freeholders of the County of Somerset, humbly beg leave to approach your Serene Highness, and to declare how sincerely we participate in the general sorrow with which this kingdom is afflicted by the premature demise of your late illustrious consort, a sorrow proportioned to the high expectations of the blessings which might have been conferred on this realm, by a succession of Monarchs from the union of a Princess of so high promise with a Prince of congenial virtues.

We trust that the sympathy thus shewn by the people of this kingdom in the grief of your Serene Highness, will impress your Serene Highness with a favourable opinion of the British character.

The depth and sincerity of that grief we have witnessed with reverential admiration; and we trust that, by the mercy of God, it will be gradually assuaged, and that your Serene Highness will be permitted, by Divine Providence, to enjoy for many years that happiness which your virtues have so well deserved.

Philip John Miles, Sheriff.

[Transmitted by the High Sheriff, and presented by Sir Robert Gardiner.]

To His Serene Highness Leopold Prince of Saxe Cobourg.

May it please your Serene Highness,

WE, the Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Brecon, humbly beg your Serene Highness to accept our sincere condolence on the severe loss which you and the nation at large have sustained by the agonizing event which has deprived us of her who, in fulfilling so well the duties of her domestic station, gave the fairest presage to the nation, that she would shed equal lustre upon the character of a Sovereign.

Impressed, as we are, with the most acute feelings of grief, let us not repine at the inscrutable will of Providence.

It may, we trust, add something to the consolation of your Serene Highness to be assured, that we, in common with all ranks of His Majesty's subjects, are highly sensible of your unvaried kindness and attention to our beloved Princess, by which you have acquired the everlasting gratitude, respect, and regard of the whole British Empire.

On behalf of the County of Brecon,
C. C. Clifton, High Sheriff of the County of Brecon.

[Transmitted by C. C. Clifton, Esq. High Sheriff, and presented by Sir Robert Gardiner.]

To His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Norfolk, beg leave to offer to your Serene Highness the assurances of our sincere condolence, upon an event which has afflicted the whole nation with one common feeling of sorrow and regret.

The merited respect and esteem which your Serene Highness's conduct in private and public life had obtained, were sufficient to induce the people of this country to hope, that by the recent union of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta with your Serene Highness, the Crown of these realms might have been continued for successive generations, in the posterity of your late illustrious consort and yourself. But the hopes of the nation are suddenly destroyed; the public sorrow is aggravated by the recollection of the amiable qualities and virtues of that Princess whose death we lament; and her loss is felt by the country with grief only inferior to that which your Serene Highness experiences.

Under a visitation so afflicting we trust that your Serene Highness will derive comfort and support from the consolations of religion; from the consciousness of having discharged in an exemplary manner the duties of life; and from an assurance of the general testimony of respect, affection, and sympathy expressed by the people of this country towards the person of your Serene Highness.

Signed, in the name, and at the request of a public meeting of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Norfolk, held at the Shirehall, the 13th day of January 1818, H. Burroughes, Sheriff.

[Transmitted by H. Burroughes, Esq. High Sheriff, and presented by Sir Robert Gardiner.]

To His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Duke of Saxe, Margrave of Misnia, Landgrave of Thuringia, Prince of Cobourg Saalfeld, &c.

May it please your Serene Highness,

WE, the Deputies from the several Congregations of Protestant Dissenters in and about the Cities of London and Westminster, beg leave most sincerely to express our unfeigned condolence with your Serene Highness on the overwhelming dispensation of Providence, with which it has pleased the Allwise God to visit you, by removing as in an instant that excellent and amiable Princess, who formed at once the chief happiness of your life, and the fond hope of the British nation; and this too at the moment when their warmest wishes appeared to have received their full accomplishment.

With your Serene Highness and the whole nation we sincerely sympathise, and do most earnestly entreat the Supreme Ruler who governs all things according to His own will, to over-rule this great national affliction for good, and whilst He is thus awfully shewing the vanity and uncertainty of all earthly joys, that He would support and comfort your Serene Highness with those consolations which He, and He alone can afford, and make His blessing to rest upon you.

Signed, by order of the meeting,

Wm. Smith, Chairman.

[Transmitted by the Rev. Wm. Smith, and presented by Sir Robert Gardiner.]

Unto His Serene Highness the Prince of Saxe Cobourg.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Burgh of Kirkby in Kendal, beg leave for a moment to interrupt the meditations of your melancholy retirement, to assure your Serene Highness of our heartfelt sympathy, and to offer our sincere condolence upon the lamented death of your late illustrious consort. In common with our fellow subjects we must ever deplore that fatal event, which wrested from your Serene Highness all the endearing happiness of the husband, with the fondly anticipated bliss of a parent.

With your lamented consort have expired the first pride and best hope of this kingdom, and whilst her inestimable virtues form the theme of universal eulogy, we are sensible how acutely the deepest sensations of grief must be imparted to the breast of your Serene Highness.

We are conscious how ineffectual are the best endeavours of sympathising humanity, to sooth afflictions so exquisitely poignant; and it is our sincere and earnest prayer that He who alone can pour the balm of comfort into the wounded heart, and assuage the sufferings of agonized affection, will administer that consolation to your Serene Highness, which it is not in the power of man to bestow.

Given under the common seal of the Burgh of Kirkby in Kendal, the 10th day of January 1818.

Jonathan Hodgson, Mayor.

[Transmitted by Richard Howard, Esq. and presented by Sir Robert Gardiner.]

Unto His Serene Highness, Prince Leopold of Saxe-Cobourg, &c.

The condoling Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Burgh of Tain.

WE, His Majesty's faithful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Burgh of Tain, address your Serene Highness under impressions of deep sorrow, at the distressed and afflicting dispensation with which Providence, in his unaltering wisdom, hath visited your Serene Highness and this nation.

To comfort the widowed husband's grief, and the childless parent's blasted hope, under circumstances so unexpected and unhappy, is only in the power of God, not of man: but to sympathize and feel in your sorrow, and to offer our condoling tribute of respect on the much lamented death of your illustrious consort, the Princess Charlotte Augusta, is our duty as faithful and loyal subjects, attached to His Majesty's Family and Government.

We therefore present our earnest prayer, that your Serene Highness may be supported under your deep affliction, by that Supreme Being of whom the sorrowing never require consolation in vain.

Signed, in our name, presence, and by our appointment, at Tain, this 22d day of December 1817 years, by

Wm. Murray, Provost.

[Transmitted by the Provost, and presented by Sir Robert Gardiner.]

Unto His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Royal Burgh of Inverary, beg leave to offer your Serene Highness our most sincere and heartfelt condolence on the death of your illustrious and amiable consort the Princess Charlotte Augusta.

We are fully aware that in relation to your Serene Highness, to whom your justly lamented consort was particularly endeared by her manifold amiable and estimable virtues, your grief on the melancholly occasion must be inexpressible. We are therefore desirous to avoid intrusion on your private feelings: but with the expression of our condolence, we also beg leave to assure your Serene Highness, that as the beloved partner of the lamented Princess's choice in the most sacred of all connections, and on account of your own many virtues and good qualities, we shall always esteem you as the deserved object of our highest respect and warmest regard.

We sincerely pray that Almighty God may sanctify your affliction and afford you that support and fortitude in your distress which he alone is able to impart.

Colin Campbell, Provost.

To His Serene Highness Leopold George Prince of Saxe Cobourg.

May it please your Serene Highness,

WE, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of St. Andrews, with hearts filled with the deepest sorrow, beg leave to offer to your Serene Highness the assurance of our most sincere sympathy and condolence on the premature and melancholly death of your illustrious and much-lamented consort the Princess Charlotte.

To us, and to the British nation, Her Royal Highness had, from her earliest years, been an object of the tenderest interest and solicitude; and from the time that your Serene Highness was united by marriage to that amiable and much-lamented Princess, you shared deeply in that solicitude which we bore for her.

We refrain, however, from entering into the particulars of this most melancholly and distressing event, lest by so doing we might recall to the mind of your Serene Highness recollections which, in the present state of your feelings, it may be better to banish.

The shock was so severely felt by ourselves, that we can hardly conceive what must have been the feelings of your Serene Highness, to whom it had every possible circumstance to aggravate its weight. We fear that your sorrow, for the present, may be such as to forbid consolation; but we trust when time shall, in some measure, have alleviated your affliction, that it will afford you some comfort to find that all ranks of men in the kingdom condole with you, and share deeply in your grief.

With this hope, we offer to your Serene Highness this tribute of our condolence, and the assurance that we shall ever feel a lively interest in your comfort and happiness.

Signed, in the name, in the presence, and at the appointment, of the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of St. Andrews, by William Ferrie, Moderator.

To His Serene Highness Leopold Prince of Saxe Cobourg.

May it please your Serene Highness,

WE, the Inhabitants of the Town and Vicinity of Coleshill, in the county of Warwick, feeling no slight reluctance to obtrude ourselves upon your Serene Highness under the pressure of your recent sorrow, yet humbly trust, that united with your Serene Highness by the bonds of a common loss, we may be allowed to alleviate by our tenderest sympathy the greatness of your domestic affliction. We have witnessed with grateful admiration your conjugal affection to our lamented Princess: in the exercise of the same benevolent and exalted virtues, we are persuaded you will find the surest source of future consolation; and confiding in this hope, and in the sure, though inscrutable goodness of Providence, we implore for your Serene Highness a fortitude and resignation as conspicuous as your trial.

Carew Thomas Elers, Curate of Coleshill.

[Transmitted by D. Dugdale, Esq. M. P. and presented by Sir Robert Gardiner.]

Unto His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

May it please your Serene Highness,

WE, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Edinburgh, beg leave to offer to your Serene Highness, with every feeling of respect and sympathy, our most sincere and affectionate condolence on the death of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta, your late illustrious consort.

We recollect in her, with a melancholly pleasure, the bloom and vigour of youth, which seemed to give the promise of so many years; the eminent accomplishments which adorned her mind and character; the amiable affections with which she blessed and gladdened the scenes of domestic life; the unostentatious but substantial virtues by which she was distinguished, and which contribute not more to the happiness of the cottage, than to the dignity of the palace and the throne.

We deeply lament the disappointment of those bright and cheering prospects which the whole British nation derived from the august Princess, but of which the awful decree of Heaven has so suddenly deprived us. And we say, from the sincerity of our hearts, that her widowed husband must ever be regarded with gratitude and respect by the people of Great Britain, for the attachment which he felt, and the duty which he paid to one so justly dear to us; for the precious example in private life which they gave together to the high and low; for the promise they held out to us of those public benefits which their virtues might have secured to the country; and for the hopes which they afforded us, in which every good subject of His Majesty participated, of a race of Princes to bless our children and our children's children. It is with sincere affection that we sympathize in the sorrows of a husband who has been so severely afflicted, and whose personal and domestic character has reflected on him greater honour than he could have derived from the most exalted station. And with our heartfelt sympathies, we would mingle our earnest prayer to Almighty God, the God of all comfort, that He would be pleased to impart to your Serene Highness those strong consolations which alone can bind up the broken heart, and which this world can neither give nor take away.

Signed in name, presence, and by appointment of the Presbytery of Edinburgh, at Edinburgh, the 31st day of December, in the year 1817, by David Ritchie, Moderator.

To His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

May it please your Serene Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Antrim assembled, approach your Serene Highness with sentiments of the deepest affliction, in offering our sincere condolence on the death of your Serene Highness's consort, the late Princess Charlotte Augusta, our beloved Princess.

This distressing event with which the Almighty has been pleased to visit your Serene Highness and the country, affects them as a national calamity; but they fully sympathize in the afflictions of your Serene Highness; blessed as you were with the affections of so inestimable a consort, enjoying all the delights of domestic felicity, the irreparable blow must be grievous.

The nation mourn this dire event with deep and undisguised sorrow.—The palace and the cottage mourn—throughout the whole land they deplore this awful dispensation—there has been snatched from the people a Princess endowed with every virtue, enthroned in the hearts of a loyal and affectionate nation, one in whom their best and fondest hopes were centered.

May the Almighty disposer of all Events, under this severe affliction, support your Serene Highness, and afford you consolation and resignation in this time of trial.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 30th day of December 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for regulating the trade between the subjects of His Majesty's colonies and plantations in North America and in the West India Islands and the countries belonging to the United States of America, and between His Majesty's said subjects and the Foreign Islands in the West Indies," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty in Council, by Order or Orders to be issued and published from time to time, to authorise, or by Warrant or Warrants under His sign manual, to empower the Governor of Newfoundland for the time being, to authorise, in case of necessity, the importation into Newfoundland of bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, from any of the territories belonging to the said United States, for the supply of the inhabitants and fishermen of the Island of Newfoundland, for the then ensuing season only; provided always, that such bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, so authorised to be imported into the Island of Newfoundland, shall not be imported except in conformity to such rules, regulations, and restrictions as shall be specified in such Order or Orders, Warrant or Warrants respectively, and except by British subjects, and in British-built ships, owned by His Majesty's subjects, and navigated according to law:

And whereas it is expedient and necessary, that provision be made for fully supplying the inhabitants and fishermen of the Island of Newfoundland, for the ensuing season, with bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, His Royal Highness the Prince Regent doth thereupon, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, hereby order and declare, that for the supply of the inhabitants and fishermen of the Island of Newfoundland, for the ensuing season only, bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, may be imported into the said island from any of the territories belonging to the said United States, by British subjects, and in British-built ships, owned by His Majesty's subjects, and navigated according to law, and which within the space of nine months previous to the time of such importation, have cleared out from some port of the United Kingdom of Great Britain or Ireland, or other His Majesty's dominions in Europe, for which purpose a licence shall have been granted by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England or Scotland, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Revenue in Ireland, or any other person or persons who may be duly authorised in that kingdom respectively, in the manner and form herein-after mentioned; which licence shall continue and be in force for nine calendar months from the day of the date upon which such licence is respectively granted, and no longer;

provided that no such licence as aforesaid, granted after the thirtieth day of September next, shall be of any force or effect: and His Royal Highness is hereby further pleased to order, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that the master or person having the charge or command of any ship or vessel to whom such licence shall be granted, shall, upon the arrival of the said ship or vessel at the port, harbour, or place in the said Island of Newfoundland where he shall discharge such bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, deliver up the said licence to the Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs there, having first indorsed on the back of such licence the marks, numbers, and contents of each package of bread, flour, Indian corn, and the number of live stock, under the penalty of the forfeiture in the said Act mentioned; and the Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs at Newfoundland, is hereby enjoined and required to give a certificate to the master or person having the charge or command of such ship or vessel, of his having received the said licence so indorsed as before directed, and to transmit the same to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England or Scotland, or to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Revenue in Ireland respectively, by whom such licence was granted. Chetwynd.

FORM OF LICENCE.

By the Commissioners for managing and causing to be levied and collected His Majesty's Customs, Subsidies, and other Duties in [where]

WHEREAS [the name of the person] one of His Majesty's subjects, residing at [place where] hath given notice to us the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs [in Great Britain, or Revenue in Ireland] that he intends to lade at [some port of the United States of America] and import into [some port of Newfoundland] in the [ship's name] being a British-built ship [describing the tonnage and what sort of vessel] navigated according to law, whereof [master's name] is master, bound to [where]; and it appearing by the register of the said ship [ship's name] whereof [master's name] is master, that the said ship, the [ship's name] was built at [place where] and owned by [owner's name] residing at [place where] all His Majesty's British subjects, and that no foreigner, directly or indirectly, hath any share, part, or interest therein.

Now be it known, that the said [person's name] hath a licence to lade on board the said ship, [ship's name] at and from any port or place belonging to the United States of America, bread, flour, Indian corn, or live stock, the produce of the said United States, and no other article whatever; and to carry the said bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, to some port or place in the Island of Newfoundland; and on the arrival of the said ship at any port, harbour, or place of discharge in Newfoundland, the master or person having the charge or command of the said ship, is required and enjoined to deliver up the said licence to the Collector or other proper Officer of His Majesty's Customs there, and to indorse on the back thereof the marks, numbers, and contents of each package of bread, flour, Indian corn, and the number of live stock, and shall thereupon receive a certificate thereof from the said Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs.

This licence to continue in force for calendar months from the date hereof.

Signed by us the _____ at the _____ this _____ day of _____ one thousand eight hundred and _____

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Christopher Dobson, of Northallerton, in the county of York, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, January 31, 1818.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that about two o'clock, on the morning of Wednesday the 14th instant, two men knocked at the door of one William Hindry, of Filby, in the county of Norfolk, who is employed for the purpose of protecting the game belonging to Charles Lucas, Esq. upon which the said William Hindry and two persons who were with him, as his assistants, were induced to go out of doors, and after proceeding about thirty yards, they were attacked by a body of men, consisting of about fourteen, with blacked faces, and their persons otherwise disfigured, and armed with guns, bludgeons, and other weapons, who, with violent threats, compelled the said William Hindry and his two assistants to shew them over the grounds for the purpose of killing game;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said daring outrage, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them who shall discover his accomplices therein, so that they, or some of them, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Charles Lucas, Esq. to any person or persons who shall discover the men concerned in the daring outrage before mentioned, so that they, or some of them, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

Whitehall, January 31, 1818.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that between six and seven o'clock in the morning of Thursday the 22d instant, half a barley rick, situate in a field belonging to Mr. Joseph Samuel Hollis, of the Parish of Timsbury, in the county of Southampton, was wilfully set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons, and that the same was entirely destroyed;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said barley rick), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWENTY GUINEAS is hereby offered, by the said Mr. Joseph Samuel Hollis, to any person or persons (except as before excepted) who shall discover the person or persons who set the said barley rick on fire, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

Whitehall, January 21, 1818.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that a most violent and felonious outrage was committed on the night of Friday the 9th instant, in a wood belonging to John Vernon, Esq. at Wherstead, in the county of Suffolk, upon his game-keepers and their assistants, by a gang of poachers, armed with guns, bludgeons, and other offensive weapons; and that two of the keepers were severely and dangerously wounded by guns loaded with balls, fired at them by the poachers, and several others were most cruelly and inhumanly beaten, wounded, and otherwise ill treated;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonious outrage above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the persons who actually fired the said guns), who shall discover his accomplices therein, so that they, or some of them, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said John Vernon, Esq. to any person or persons (except as before excepted), who shall discover the men who so feloniously fired the said guns as aforesaid, so that they, or some of them, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

Whitehall, January 24, 1818.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that an anonymous letter was addressed to Lady Nepean, through the Post-Office at Bridport, on Friday the 5th of December last, threatening to murder her, and to burn her house;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons who wrote and sent the said letter, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any person privy to the writing or sending the said letter, who shall discover the person or persons who actually wrote and sent the same, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person who shall give such information to Mr. Nicholetts, of Bridport, as shall lead to the conviction of the person or persons guilty of writing and sending the said letter; such reward to be paid by the said Mr. Nicholetts of Bridport.

POST HORSE DUTIES.

Stamp-Office, London, January 20, 1818.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, by virtue of an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for letting to farm the Post Horse Duties, and for better securing and facilitating the recovery of the said Duties," the Commissioners of Stamps will again put up to be let to farm, such of the said duties (which were granted by the Act of the forty-fourth year of His Majesty's reign, chap. 98) as shall arise in the district under mentioned, at the Stamp-Office, Somerset-Place, on Wednesday the 18th day of February next, between the hours of eleven and one, at a yearly rent, for the term of three years from the 1st day of February next inclusive, the highest bidder at the former letting of the said duties having failed to complete his contract for the same, pursuant to the conditions at such letting, wherefore the said Commissioners of Stamps have declared such contract void:

No.	DISTRICT.	Annual Rent at which it will be put up.
10.	Hertfordshire	} £ 11,000
	Huntingdonshire, with Wands-ford Inn

The district will be put up at the sum above set opposite thereto, which, if there be no bidding, will be gradually abated down to a certain point, or till a bidding shall be made. The highest bidder will be declared the farmer, and will be required to pay down immediately, in Bank notes, seven and a half per cent. upon the annual rent as a deposit; if no sufficient bidding shall be made, it will be withdrawn.

All persons intending to bid for the said duties, are to deliver in their proposals, addressed to the Commissioners at the Stamp-Office, Somerset-Place, at least three days previous to the said 18th day of February next, signed with their names, and stating the places of their abode, otherwise their proposals cannot be proceeded upon.

And no persons licensed to let horses for the purpose of travelling post, nor any one for their use, can be admitted to contract for the said duties.

By order of the Commissioners of Stamps,
Wm. Kappen, Secretary.

Office of the Commissioners for investigating the Debts of the late Nabobs of the Carnatic, No. 11, Manchester-Buildings, Westminster, January 29, 1818.

IN conformity to the 19th clause of the deed of agreement between the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, of the one part, and the creditors of the late Nabobs of the Carnatic, of the other part, the Commissioners appointed under that agreement give notice, that a continuation of the schedule of native claims for salary and allowances, published in a list under date the 2d January 1817, has been published in two separate lists, under date the 31st December 1817 and 23d January 1818, and, like the former schedule, put up at the India-House, where notices are commonly placed, in order that all such persons as shall have any interest to oppose or impeach the same, may have sufficient opportunity so to do.

George Parkhouse, Secretary.

Admiralty-Office, January 29, 1818.

WIDOWS' PENSIONS.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy, receiving pensions from the Charity established for their relief, will be paid their pensions due to the 31st December last, at No. 10, New-Square, Lincoln's-Inn, by Edward Finch Hatton, Esq. the Paymaster of the said Charity, viz.

The Widows of Flag-Officers, Superannuated Rear-Admirals, Captains, Commanders, Lieutenants, and Masters, on Tuesday the 10th of next month;

The Widows of Surgeons, Purser, and Boat-swains, on Wednesday the 11th;

And the Widows of Gunners and Carpenters, on Thursday the 12th; and on every succeeding Thursday, between the hours of ten and twelve.

And notice is further given, that remittance bills will be sent on the 10th of next month, to those Widows resident in the country, who have requested to be paid their pensions near their respective residences.

J. W. CROKER,

Navy-Office, January 31, 1818.

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed money for the payment of half-pay to Sea Officers, from the 1st October to the 31st December 1817, according to His Majesty's establishment in that behalf; these are to give notice, that the several payments will begin to be made at the Pay-Office, by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, at ten o'clock in the morning, on the following days, viz.

On the 9th, 10th, and 11th of February, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attornies.

On the 12th, 13th, 16th, and 17th of February, to Lieutenants and Chaplains, and their Attornies.

On the 18th and 19th of February, to Masters, Surgeons, and Pursers, and their Attornies.

After which the lists will be recalled the first and third Wednesday in every month, that all persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and bring with them the affidavit required, touching their not having enjoyed the benefit of any public employment, either at sea or on shore, during the time they are to be paid their half-pay; and in case any of the said Officers should not be able to attend themselves, but employ Attornies for that purpose, that the said Attornies do produce the like affidavit from the persons they are employed by.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce attested copies of such leave, before the half-pay can be paid.

And as by Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious Method for the Payment of Officers belonging to His Majesty's Navy," it is enacted by the twentieth clause of the said Act, "that if any Commissioned or Warrant Naval Officer who shall be entitled to receive Half-Pay, and shall be desirous to receive and be paid the same at or near the place of his residence, he may apply to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, in London, to have such Half-Pay paid at or near the place of his residence, &c. in the manner pointed out by the said Act;" and by a further Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for enabling the Officers in His Majesty's Navy, and their representatives, to draw for and receive their half-pay," it is enacted by the first and third clauses of the said Act, "that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of his half-pay, shall be desirous of drawing a bill of exchange for the same upon the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill, he shall signify such desire, by letter, to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy; and that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of half-pay, shall be desirous of having his half-pay paid to him by extract at any of His Majesty's Dock-Yards where Clerks for the "payment of wages for the Navy shall reside, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill or bill of exchange, he is to apply either to the proper Clerk, at the Navy Pay-Office, in London, or at the Pay-Office at such Dock-Yard, signifying such his desire;" notice is hereby further given, that the half-pay ending the 31st December 1817, will commence paying on the 9th of next month; and all persons desirous of drawing for or of having their half-pay remitted to them, may apply as above directed.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act above recited, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of the Act.

Office of Ordnance, January 16, 1818.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give notice, that proposals will be received at their Office in Pall-Mall, on or before Monday the 2d day of February next, from such persons as may be willing to contract for

The removal of the Ashes, Dust, and Soil, that may accumulate from time to time at His Majesty's Barracks at Woolwich.

Further particulars, together with the terms and conditions of the contract, may be known by application to Mr. Hay, the Barrack-Master at Woolwich, and also at the Secretary's Office, in Pall-Mall aforesaid, any day between the hours of ten and four o'clock; where the proposals must be delivered, sealed up, and indorsed "Proposals for Ashes, &c. Woolwich;" but no proposal can be admitted after the said 2d day of February next, at twelve o'clock at noon of the same day; neither will any tender be noticed, unless the party making it, or an agent in his behalf, shall attend.

By order of the Board,

R. H. Crew, Secretary.

CONTRACT FOR FLOCK BEDS AND BOLSTERS.

Navy-Office, January 28, 1818.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 11th of February next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's Yard at Deptford with Flock Beds and Bolsters.

Patterns of the beds and bolsters, and a form of the tender, may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty; nor any noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £1000, for the due performance of the contract.
