

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday June 26. to Thursday June 29. 1682.

Legborne, June 15.

THe 10th Instant, Sir Thomas Dereham, Envoy Extraordinary from his Majesty of Great Britain to the Great Duke of Tuscany, had his Publick Audience of his Highness, to which he was conducted from his House in Florence by a Gentleman of the Great Dukes Bedchamber, with his Highnesses First and Second Coaches. In the first were the Envoy and the said Gentleman of the Bedchamber; attended with several of the Great Dukes Liveries: In the second four English Gentlemen of Quality; and in a third the Envoys Secretary, and these were followed by the Envoys Coach empty, with six of his Liveries. Being arrived at the Palace, he was conducted into Lodgings prepared for him, where he found Tables covered with all sorts of Refreshments: Sometime after he went to his Audience, the English Gentlemen going before him, and the Swiss Guards, and Officers of the Court making a Lane through all the Lodgings till he came into the great Dukes Presence, who having made him cover, the Portiere was drawn: And having staid about an hour with his Highness, Sir Thomas returned in the same manner to his Lodgings, where he was entertained at a very great Supper by the Dukes Officers: He was received by all the other Princes with the like Ceremony, and after three days Treatment in this manner, was re-conducted to his House.

Genova, June 17. The 13th Instant arrived here a great Genouese of 50 Guns laden with Sugars, and two Dutch Ships, one from Holland with Piece Goods, and the other from Bourdeaux. Here is likewise arrived the Patience from Marseilles, bound for Venice. The 8th Instant sailed from hence the Tarmouth, and the next the Negnio, for England. A Bark arrived here lest Monsieur du Quesne three days since with 14 Ships great and small, off of Cape Melo, bound for Toulon.

Vienna, June 21. There are Letters from Hungary, which say, That the Turks are encamped in a very considerable Body near Offen, and that they will assist Count Teckely with 20000 Men in order to the making him Prince of Transylvania; and we are told that upon these motions of the Turks, the Emperor has resolved to encrease his Forces towards Hungary, and that the Margrave of Baden shall encamp with 10000 Men near Raab, the Palatine of Hungary with 12000 Hungarians near Rebau, Count Caprara with 8000 Men in Upper Hungary, Count Palphi with 6000 near Nembusel, and Count Rabata with 6000 near the Berg-Towns; which together will make 42000 Men. Count Lestie, who is to Command the Imperial Troops that are now marching towards the Rhine, has received all his Orders and Instructions, and will part hence in a day or two; and Count Waldeck will very quickly follow him.

Hamburg, June 30. The King of Denmark is returned to Copenhagen, but it is reported he will be very suddenly in these parts again. It was said some days since, that the Swedish Fleet was at Sea, and that that had occasioned the King of Denmark's so hasty return home, but we since find it to be a mistake.

Brussels, June 30. The Marquis de Grana employs himself with indefatigable diligence, for the putting the Forces of these Countries into the posture which the present state of things seems to demand, and the making the necessary provision for their subsistence, wherein his Excellency has been very much encouraged by the last Spanish Letters, which, as we are informed, assured his Excellency of effectual Supplies for the supporting his Excellency in the designs he has for the good of these Countreys. From Luxemburg we have an Account, That the Marquis de Bedmar parted from thence some days since with the four Italian Regiments, intending to pass by Water to Trier, and from thence to Cologne, &c. Part of the Spanish Recruits are arrived at Ostend, and the rest are daily expected. We have an account of a very sad Accident that happened the other day near Bruges, the occasion this; A Captain and some of his Officers going into a Warren to divert themselves with the Shooting of Rabbits, the Gentleman that owned the Warren, (who had forbid them Shooting there without his leave) with his Son, another Gentleman his Friend, and two or three Servants, went out to oblige them to retire; which the Captain and those with him not doing, they fell upon each other, and in the Dispute the Gentleman, his Son, and his Friend, and the Captain and one of his Officers were killed upon the place: Of which his Excellency being informed, he has sent down the Sur-Intendant to examine the matter, that Justice may be done upon those that were in this Action, and are remaining alive.

Whitball, June 27. The following Address has been Presented to His Majesty, who received it very Graciously.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty.

Most Sacred and Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Common Council, Free Burgers, and other Inhabitants of Your Majesties antient Burrough of Richmond in Your County of York, having seen a Printed Paper, Intituled, The Paper which was seized in the Earl of Shaftsbury's Closet, by Francis Gwyn Esq; one of the Clerks of Your Majesties most Honourable Privy Council, and produced in the Old-Bayly in November last, and there Sworn to be found in the Earl of Shaftsbury's Closet; And seriously considering the most Treasonable and Seditionous Association therein contained, do in all-humility acknowledge our selves deeply obliged, by our Christian Duty and Allegiance, due to Your Majesty jectly, solemnly and unanimously to declare from the bottom of our hearts, our utter Abhorrence and detestation of the said Associations and all other Associations, Covenants, or Engagements whatsoever, (not directed, warranted, and approved by Your Majesty) and all and every the Convivers, Maintainers, and Abettors of any and every such Associations, Covenants or Combinations; and shall endeavour to discover all such as shall not declare their Abhorrence and Detestation, of those and all such-like doings, being justly doubtful, that if such Persons shall be permitted publicly to poison Your Majesty's Sacred Person and Life may be in great danger of destruction, and Your truly Christian and Loyal Subjects brought into the like Confusions they were under your most Memorials; when the wicked and basest of Men plundered the Bishop, imprisoned the Religion, and took away the Lives of all the would not cost off all true Religion and Loyalty, and were as a Disruption of Democracy, and as last considered the most glorious Martyr, Your Father of happy Blessed Memory, all which Miseries, we hope by Your Majesty's long life, (for which we shall ever pray) and the happy return of the most incomparable King of Great Britain, may be prevented, and we also do pray for the whole of our Kingdoms, which by your means that Kingdom of Scotland (as themselves acknowledge) together, and we hereby subscribing this, we will upon all occasions engage our Lives and Fortunes in defence of Your Majesty's Sacred Person, Your Heirs and Lawful Successors; the Church of England, and the Government of the Kingdom, as by Law is now Established, against all and every Contrivance, and Opposition whatsoever, and when Your Majesty shall please to call Your Parliament, we will do our utmost endeavour to choose such Representatives for the four Burroughs, as shall answer the true Intentions of Your Majesty's Writ for their Election, and Your Majesty's gracious speech at their Convening; in all which, if we are not to fail, our Names hereunto subscribed with the assistance of our Hqs. In witness whereof, we have hereunto subscribed our Names, and caused our Common Seal to be fixed at the General Assemblies of the said Burroughs, by Adjournment in the Common Hall of the said Burroughs, the Twentieth day of June, in the fourth and thirtieth Year of Your Majesty's reign.

Falmouth June 22. The 20th Instant came in here the General's Merchant bound for Carolina, having on board about 100 Passengers that are going to settle there. And the next day, the Samuel of London bound with about 120 Passengers for Pennsylvania; and the Prince's of London bound for Guinea.

Plimouth, June 23. This day arrived here his Majesty's Ship the Assistance, commanded by Sir Robert Robinson in 20 days from Cadix.

Whitehall, June 26. This Morning the Council met extraordinary, and the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Sheriffs of London attending, and giving His Majesty an Account of what had passed on Saturday last at the Guildhall, and several Persons having been examined upon Oath, it appeared to His Majesty, That the Lord Mayor, having on the 24th of this Instant June called a Common-Hall, for the Confirming and Electing the Sheriffs for the year ensuing; and having afterwards thought fit, with the Advice of the Court of Aldermen, to Adjourn the Common-Hall till Tuesday morning, Mr.

 Pilkington and Mr. Shute, the Sheriffs, had not withstanding gone on with the Poll, which had occasioned a very great Riot.

Whereupon the two Sheriffs were by Order of the Board taken into Custody by a Sergeant at Arms, and committed Prisoners to the Tower by the following Warrant;

W Hereas it appears to his Majesty in Council, upon hearing of the Lord Mayor of London, and also upon the Examination of divers Witnesses upon Oath, That Thomas Pilkington and Samuel Shute Esquires, Sheriffs of London, upon the 24th of June Instant, did promote and encourage a most enormous Riot within the said City, to the manifest endangering of the Publick Peace; These are therefore in His Majesty's Name to require you to receive into your Custody the Bodies of the said Thomas Pil-kington and Samuel Shute herewith sent unto you, and them safely to keep till they shall be delivered by the course of Law; For which this shall be your Warrant. At the Council Chamber at Whitehall the 26th June 1682.

Directed to the Lieutenant of the Tower.
 And signed by the Lords of the Council.

And it was ordered by His Majesty in Council, That Mr. Attorney-General do forthwith exhibit an Information in the Kings-Bench against Thomas Pil-kington and Samuel Shute Esquires, Sheriffs of London, and Henry Arnib Esq, one of the Aldermen of the said City, and such others as upon Examination shall be found to have been Promoters and Encouragers of the said Disorders, Riot, and that he do proceed against them according to the utmost severity of Law.

T Here is to give Notice, That Mr. French Goldsmith within Temple-Bar is appointed by the Right Reverend Henry Lord Bishop of London, to receive the Moneys Collected throughout England and Wales for the Repair of the great and ancient Church at St. Alban, and his Receipt shall be a sufficient Discharge to any Person that shall pay any such Moneys, and return the Duplicates therewith.
 And the Persons intrusted with the Repairs, do humbly request the most Reverend the Archbishop, and the Right Reverend the Bishops, and the Respective Archdeacons and Peculiars to further the speedy Collection and Payment thereof, according to the Tenure of his Majesty's Letters Patents in that behalf, bearing Date the 24th of February, 1682.

Advertisements.

Methodus Plantarum nova, Brevitatis & Perspicuitatis causa Synoptice in Tabulis Exhibita; Cum novis Generum tum, sumorum tum subalternorum Cha-racteristicis; Observationibus nonnullis de semine Plantarum & I. dice Copioso. Auctore Franc. Raini, M. A. e Societate Regia. Sold by Hen. J. Ashburn, and John Kerley, at the Role in St. Paul's Church-Yard.

Instructions for Playing a Thorough-Base upon the Guitarre, or other Instruments: With Choice Examples and Directions how to take the Delicacy of all Records, and apply them in their proper places, by Nicholas Mattei. Sold by John Cur at the Middle-Temple-Gate.

L Off at Windsor a little black Greyhound bitch very well shaped, with white spots on the Belly, and a Silver Coller about the Neck; Whoever brings her to Dr. Fulham's Houle at Windsor, or to the Porter of the Cock-Pit at Whitehall, so as she be recovered, shall have two Guineas Reward.