Lord Chamberlain's Office, February 4, 1818.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness the Prince Regent will hold a Levee at Carlton-House, on Thursday the 12th instant, at two o'clock.

THE following Address has been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Address His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Most Worshipful Grand Patron of the United Fraternity of Ancient Free and accepted Masons of England.

The dutiful, loyal, and affectionate Address of the Right Worshipful the Provincial Grand Master and Provincial Grand Lodge of the Province of Somerset, and of the Worshipful Masters, Officers, and Brethren of the several constituted Lodges of the Ancient Fraternity of Free and accepted Masons, within the said Province, in Provincial Grand Lodge assembled, at Taunton, on Tuesday 30th December A. L. 5817.

Royal and Most Worshipful Sir,

In the universal grief which hath pervaded the nation, it was not possible that we, Royal and Most Worshipful Sir, should have remained unmoved by the subduing influence of that awful calamity which hath recently visited your parental heart.

Whilst in the premature death of your truly illustrious daughter, Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte of Wales, our nation's bright ornament and fondest hope, the whole British family became involved in one common sentiment of undissembled grief: we not only as loyal subjects devoted to the august House of Brunswick, but as members of a fraternity distinguished by your Royal Highness's patronage, and cherished by your Royal Highness's brotherly love, felt, perhaps in a peculiar degree, that awful dispensation of the will of Heaven.

Permit us, Royal and Most Worshipful Sir, to express a hope that the soothing influence of time may soften the intensity of your grief; and that the choicest benignities of the Grand Architect of the Universe, may unceasingly attend the progress of your days, until summoned by him to those regions beyond the grave, where the broken ties of kindred shall be re-united and confirmed by the bonds of immortality.

[Delivered by W. H. White, Esq. Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Freemasons, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]
