

Whitehall, February 10, 1818.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that the dwelling-house of Mr. George Bird, in the parish of Greenwich, in the county of Kent, was entered in the night of Saturday last the 7th instant, by some person or persons unknown, who most inhumanly and barbarously murdered the said Mr. George Bird, and his servant, Mary Simmons, and afterwards rifled the house;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said atrocious murders, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them, (except the person or persons who actually perpetrated the said murders), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the inhabitants of the parish of Greenwich, to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted); to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders by John Bicknell, Esq. Vestry Clerk of the said parish.

Whitehall, February 10, 1818.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, about nine o'clock on the evening of Monday the 20th of January last, some evil-disposed person maliciously fired a gun, loaded with a leaden bullet, at Mr. William George, foreman to the journeymen Fullers, employed at Crawley-Mill, in the county of Oxford, the property of Mr. Robert Collier, jun. whereby the life of the said William George was in imminent danger;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired the said gun), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Master and Corporation of Blanket Weavers, at Witney, in the said county, to any person or persons (except as is before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, January 31, 1818.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that about two o'clock, on the morning of Wednesday the 14th instant, two men knocked at the door of one William Hindry, of Filby, in the county of Norfolk, who is employed for the purpose of protecting the game belonging to Charles Lucas, Esq. upon which the said William Hindry and two persons who were with him, as his assistants, were induced to go out of doors, and after proceeding about thirty yards, they were attacked by a body of men, consisting of about fourteen, with blacked faces, and their persons otherwise disfigured, and armed with guns, bludgeons, and other weapons, who, with violent threats, compelled the said William Hindry and his two assistants to shew them over the grounds for the purpose of killing game;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said daring outrage, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them who shall discover his accomplices therein, so that they, or some of them, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Charles Lucas, Esq. to any person or persons who shall discover the men concerned in the daring outrage before mentioned, so that they, or some of them, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

Whitehall, January 31, 1818.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, between six and seven o'clock in the morning of Thursday the 22d instant, half a barley rick, situate in a field belonging to Mr. Joseph Samuel Hollis, of the Parish of Tinsbury, in the county of Southampton, was wilfully set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons, and that the same was entirely destroyed;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said barley rick), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWENTY GUINEAS is hereby offered, by the said Mr. Joseph Samuel Hollis, to any person or persons (except as is before excepted) who shall discover the person or persons who set the said barley rick on fire, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

THE Commissioners for Paving, &c. that part of the parish of Clerkenwell, called St. James's, hereby give notice, that at a meeting held by them at their Watch-House, in Spa-Fields, on
