

Here from Rome the day before this Order was sent to the Archbishop. Monsieur de Louvois returned on Monday last from Flanters. Three or four days since several Ecclesiasticks were sent Prisoners to the Bistile, for having, as is imagined, written and spoken too freely concerning the late proceedings of the Clergy.

Whitehall, June 28. The following Address from New-Sarum has been presented to His Majesty, who received it very Graciously.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty.

Dread Sovereign,

WE Your Majesties most truly Loyal and Obedient Subjects, whose Names are hereunto subscribed, Members of the Corporation of Your Majesties City of New-Sarum, finding to our great grief, That neither Your Majesties most just Government, (the Beneficial Effects whereof, we so plentifully, and securely enjoy) nor Your unparalleled Mercy, and frequent Pardons, can ever Oblige some Factions Spirits, to their Duty, (no plain an Instance whereof, we find in that most Seditious and Traiterous Paper of Association, produced in the Proceedings at the Old-Baily against the Earl of Shaftsbury) do humbly conceive it our Duty, upon this occasion, to Address our selves to Your Majesty, and hereby declare to Your Majesty, and the World, our utter Detestation and Abhorrence both of the said Association, and all other Designs of the like Nature, which tend to the Subversion of our Established Religion and Government; We do therefore desire to offer, and humbly to lay at Your Majesties Feet, our Lives and Fortunes, which we shall be ever ready (according to our Duty) cheerfully to spend, in defence and support of Your most Sacred Person, Crown, and Dignity, Heirs, and Lawful Successors, the English Civil Government, and Protestant Religion, as now by Law Established.

And we cannot but further profess our thankfulness to God for his great Goodness unto us in the so sudden and perfect late recovery of you Majesties Health, and in the preservation of your Royal Brother from the late danger he was in; beseeching the Almighty continually to bless your Majesty, and all the Royal Family, with Health, Length, and Prosperity of days. In testimony whereof we have hereunto subscribed our Names, the Four and twentieth day of Jan, in the Four and thirtieth Year of your Majesties Reign.

Falmouth, June 24. The 13th Instant was experimented at North-Drown, not far from this place, Dr. Becker's Engine for Draining of Mines, which did effect beyond expectation, and may be of great use to this Country.

Blimouth, June 27. Yesterday His Majesties Ship the Assistance, Commanded by Sir Robert Robinson, Sailed from hence for the Downs; And this day the Diamond Brigat, Captain Jones Commander, sailed for New-found-land.

Westminster, June 30. This day Thomas Paking, and Samuel Shute Esquires, Sheriffs of London, were upon a Writ of Habeas Corpus, brought by the Lieutenant of the Tower, to the Kings-Bench-Bar; where, after having pleaded Not Guilty to the Information exhibited against them (and others) by Mr. Attorney General, they were admitted to Bail.

Trinity-House, July 1. 1682.

All Commanders, Masters of Ships or Vessels, and Pilots are desired to take notice, That there are two Buoys now laid, one about half a Cables length to the South-East of the Wreck on the middle ground off of Lee; the other upon the Flats as near to the Wreck as conveniently could be, which formerly was called the Fareway-Buoy.

Westminster and Middlesex.

Whereas one Philip Brown did lately pretend to discover to the Church Wardens and Vestries of several Parishes within this County and Liberty, a considerable Annual Revenue given them for the use of the Poor, by the Charity of some well-disposed Person, upon Condition he might have the Revenue thereof for the first year only, which afterwards was reduced into Articles of Agreement between the said Brown and some of the Church-Wardens aforesaid; And it having since been made appear unto Us in our Petty-Sessions held for the said City and Liberty, That the said Brown's Discovery was a Project, for a prosecution of old Penal Statutes, (which if put in execution) would prove vexatious and of dangerous Consequence to His Majesties Subjects: We have therefore thought fit to cause such Writings as have been made in the Premises that came to our hands, to be this day vacated and given order for the prosecution of the said Brown for his illegal Practices in the Premises, of which we thought fit to give publick notice, that no farther proceedings may be therein. Dated the 29th day of June 1682.
