At the General Session of the Peace of our Lord the King, holden for the City of London (by adjournment), at Justice-Hall, in the Old Bailey, within the Parish of Saint Sepulchre, in the Ward of Farringdon Without, in London aforesaid, on Wednesday the 18th of February, in the Fifty-eighth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Third, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland King, Defender of the Faith, before Christopher Smith, Esq. Mayor of the City of London, Sir John Perring, Barquet, Sir Charles Flower, Baronet, Joshua Jonathan Smith, Esq. Alderman of the said City, Sir John Silvester, Bart. Recorder of the said City, John Atkins, Esq. one other of the Aldermen of the said City, and others their Fellows, Justices of our said Lord the King, assigned to keep the Peace of our said Lord the King within the said City; and also to hear and determine divers Felonies, Trespases, and other Misdemeanors committed within the said City;

BE it remembered, That the Inspector of Corn Returns hath, in open Court, presented and delivered to the Lord Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen, assembled at this present Session, a certain book, into which the states or accounts of the aggregate quantities, prices, and average prices of English barley, beans, pease, rye, wheat, rapeseed, Oatmeal, and oats, bona fide sold and delivered from the 10th day of November last to the 7th day of February instant, by each and every person carrying on the trade or business of a corn-factor in the City of London or suburbs thereof, have been made up, formed, computed, and distinguished, and fairly and properly inserted; and hath certified upon his oath, that the same have been fairly, correctly, and properly made up, formed, and computed, to the best of his power, skill and judgment, and according, so far as in him lay, to the true intent and tenor of the Act of Parliament in that behalf; and the general average prices of each of the said respective sorts of corn and grain thereby appearing to the said Lord Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen, they do, in pursuance of the said Act, deem and certify the same to be as follows, viz.

Barley	2	6	4	} Average price per quarter on the last six weeks.
Beans	2	6	6
Pease	2	8	11
Rye	2	5	5
Wheat	4	9	11
Rapeseed	0	6	0	} Average price per bush on the last six weeks.
Oatmeal	1	9	5

Oats 1 9 0 } Average price per quarter on the last twelve weeks.

And do hereby order and direct, that the said general average prices be published in the London Gazette once in four several weeks immediately succeeding this present Session.

By the Court,
THOMAS SHELTON, Clerk of the Peace.

TO IRONFOUNDERS.

TO be sold by auction, by Messrs. Williamson and Schofield (by order of the Commissioners in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued and now in prosecution against Mr. Ebenezer Elliott the younger, of Masbrough, in the Parish of Rotherham, and County of York, Ironfounder, Dealer and Chapman), at the House of Mr. S. Oldfield, the Crown Inn, in Rotherham aforesaid, on Monday the 30th day of March 1818, between the hours of Five and Seven o'Clock in the Evening, subject to such conditions of sale as will be then and there produced,

All that valuable and extensive foundry, most desirably situate at Masbrough aforesaid, comprising a spacious moulding house, with two drying stores, air furnaces, brass furnaces, two cupolas, suitable machinery, wood cranes, smiths' and joiners' shops, turning lathe, two large warehouses, counting house, and all other necessary appurtenances, all which premises are in the most complete order and condition, and ready for working; a patent steam engine, and engine house, with blowing cylinder, and blowing machine, by Vaughan, all nearly new, and in complete repair; also a very neat and comfortable messuage, or dwelling house, suitable for the residence of a family, lately occupied by the said Ebenezer Elliott, with all requisite out-offices, a good stable, gig house, &c. and a very large and productive garden.

The site of the above premises contains 3870 superficial square yards, and are held by lease from the Proprietors of the River Dun Company, for a term of fifty-three years, from the 8th August 1801, at the annual ground rent of 15l. 9s.

The foundry, with the wharf and crane, adjoin upon the navigable River Dun, by which a communication is open to the Sea, as well as to the inland parts of the country, and the intended new canal from Tinsley to Sheffield, renders this estate more truly desirable, and offers, from its situation, an advantageous opportunity to any person desirous of entering into the above business.

The premises may be viewed, and every other information obtained, on application to Mr. Matthew Chambers, Thorncliffe-Iron-Works, or to Messrs. Wheatley and Badger, Solicitors, Rotherham, at whose Offices a plan of the estate may be seen.

TO be peremptorily re-sold, pursuant to an order of the High Court of Chancery, made in the Causes Ladbroke against Prior, Ladbroke against Prior, and Tomkins against Ladbroke, with the approbation of William Alexander, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale Room of the Court, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on Tuesday the 14th day of April 1818, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon;

A freehold malt house, situate close to the River Thames, at Mortlake, in the County of Surrey, with a brick-built stable and a piece of ground adjoining, now in the occupation of Mr. Gray, as tenant at will, at the annual rent of 80l. being lot no. 4 of the former sale; and a leasehold malt house, also situate close to the River Thames, at Mortlake aforesaid, held by lease from the Trustees of the Poor at Mortlake, for an unexpired term of thirty-five years from Lady Day 1817, subject to the yearly rent of 13l. clear of all deductions, (except land tax, parish and other rates, lately occupied by Mr. Richard Andrews, at the yearly rent of 105l. but now unoccupied, being lot no. 5 of the said former sale.

Printed particulars whereof may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings aforesaid; of Messrs. Windus and Holtaway, Southampton-Buildings; of Messrs. Jenkins, James, and Abbutt, New Inn; of Messrs. Hall and Wigley, Salters-Hall, Cannon-Street; of Messrs. Marriott and Blamire, Gray's-Inn; at the Auction-Mart, opposite the Bank; at the Exchange Coffee House; at the King's Arms, Mortlake; and of Mr. Stanton, Hitchin, Herts.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order made in the Cause Wathen versus Sujith, with the approbation of Joseph Jekyll, Esq. one of the Masters of the High Court of Chancery, at the Public Sale-Room, in Southampton-Buildings,
