AT the Court at Brighton, the 30th day of December 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

A 2

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for regulating the trade between the subjects of His Majesty's colonies and plantations in North America and in the West India Islands and the countries belonging to the United States of America, and between His Majesty's said subjects' and the Foreign Islands in the West Indies," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty in Council, by Order or Orders to be issued and published from time to time, to authorise, or by Warrant or Warrants under His sign manual, to empower the Governor of Newfoundland for the time being, to authorise, in case of necessity, the importation into Newfoundland of bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, from any of the territories belonging to the said United States, for the supply of the inhabitants and fishermen of the Island of Newfoundland, for the then ensuing season only; provided always, that such bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, so authorised to be imported into the Island of Newfoundland, shall not be imported except in conformity to such rules, regulations, and restrictions as shall be specified in such Order or Orders, Warrant or Warrants respectively, and except by British subjects, and in British-built ships, owned by His Majesty's subjects, and navigated according to law:

And whereas it is expedient and necessary, that provision be made for fully supplying the inhabitants and fishermen of the Island of Newfoundland, for the ensuing season, with bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, His Royal Highness the Prince Regent doth thereupon, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, hereby order and declare, that for the supply of the inhabitants and fishermen of the Island of Newfoundland, for the ensuing season only, bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, may be imported into the said island from any of the territories belonging to the said United States, by British subjects, and in British-built ships, owned by His Majesty's subjects, and navigated according to law, and which within the space of nine months previous to the time of such importation, have cleared out from some port of the United Kingdom of Great Britain or Ireland, or other His Majesty's dominions in Europe, for which purpose a licence shall have been granted by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England or Scotland, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Revenue in Ireland, or any other person or persons who may be duly authorised in that kingdom respectively, in the manner and form herein-after mentioned; which licence shall continue and be in force for nine calendar months from the day of the date upon which such licence is respectively granted, and no longer; provided that no such licence as aforesaid, granted after the thirtieth day of September next, shall be of any force or effect: and His Royal Highness is hereby further pleased to order, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that the master or person having the charge or command of any ship or vessel to whom such licence shall be granted, shall, upon the arrival of the said ship or vessel at the port, harbour, or place in the said Island of Newfoundland where he shall discharge such bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, deliver up the said licence to the Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs there, having first indorsed on the back of such licence the marks, numbers, and contents of each package of bread, flour, Indian corn, and the number of live stock, under the penalty of the forfeiture in the said Act mentioned; and the Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs at Newfoundland, is hereby enjoined and required to give a certificate to the master or person having the charge or command of such ship or vessel, of his having received the said licence so indorsed as before directed, and to transmit the same to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England or Scotland, or to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Revenue in Ireland respectively, by whom such licence was granted. Chetwynd.

FORM OF LICENCE.

By the Commissioners for managing and causing to be levied and collected His Majesty's Customs, Subsidies, and other Duties in [where]

WHEREAS [the name of the person] one of His Majesty's subjects, residing at [place where] hath given notice to us the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs [in Great Britain, or Revenue in Ireland] that he intends to lade at [some port of the United States of America] and import into [some port of Newfoundland] in the [ship's name] being a British-built ship [describing the tonnage and what sort of vessel] navigated according to law, whereof [master's name] is master, bound to [where]; and it appearing by the register of the said ship [ship's name] whereof [master's name] is master, that the said ship, the [ship's name] was built at [place where] and owned by [owner's name] residing at [place where] all His Majesty's British subjects, and that no foreigner, directly or indirectly, hath any share, part, or interest therein.

Now be it known, that the said [person's name] hath a licence to lade on board the said ship, [ship's name] at and from any port or place belonging to the United States of America, bread, flour, Indian corn, or live stock, the produce of the said United States, and no other article whatever; and to carry the said bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, to some port or place in the Island of Newfoundland; and on the arrival of the said ship at any port, harbour, or place of discharge in Newfoundland, the master or person having the charge or command of the said ship, is required and enjoined to deliver up the said licence to the Collector or other proper Officer of His Majesty's Customs there, and to indorse on the back thereof the marks, numbers, and contents of each package of bread, flour, Indian corn, and the number of live stock, and shall thereupon receive a certificate thereof from the said Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs.

This licence to continue in force for calendar months from the date hereof.

Signed by us the _____ at the _____ this _____ day of _____ one thousand eight hundred and _____ Licence to import bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, into the Island of Newfoundland.

Crown-Office, March 21, 1818.

MEMBER returned to serve in this present PARLIAMENT.

Burghs of Anstruther, Easter, &c.

The Right Honourable Alexander Maconochie, Lord Advocate of Scotland, in the room of Sir John Carmichael Anstruther, Bart. deceased.

Whitehall, March 6, 1818.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that between the hours of two and three o'clock on the morning of Wednesday the 18th ultimo, the house of Mrs. Harpur, of Falkenham, in the county of Suffolk, was burglariously entered by three persons disguised in masks, who went up stairs to the chamber of Mrs. Harpur, and after demanding her money by threats (they standing on each side of her bed, armed), proceeded to rife the house, and took away 55l. in Bank of England notes, and other property;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the robbery above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence. The said reward of one hundred pounds to be paid by Mr. William Harpur, of Stratton Hall, near Ipswich.

Whitehall, February 28, 1818.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the night of Saturday the 14th instant, a barn and stack of oats, belonging to Mrs. Dehany, at Pickhurst Farm, in the parish of Hayes, near Bromley, in the county of Kent, were feloniously set on fire, whereby a large barn, with some implements of husbandry and a large quantity of oats, were totally consumed;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said barn and stack of oats), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as is before excepted) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—One half of the reward above-mentioned to be paid by the said Mrs. Dehany, and the other half thereof to be paid by the Phoenix Fire Office, in London.

Whitehall, February 10, 1818.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that the dwelling-house of Mr. George Bird, in the parish of Greenwich, in the county of Kent, was entered in the night of Saturday last the 7th instant, by some person or persons unknown, who most inhumanly and barbarously murdered the said Mr. George Bird, and his servant, Mary Simmons, and afterwards rifled the house;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said atrocious murders, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them, (except the person or persons who actually perpetrated the said murders), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the inhabitants of the parish of Greenwich, to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted); to be paid on the conviction of any one or more of the offenders by John Bicknell, Esq. Vestry Clerk of the said parish.

Whitehall, February 10, 1818.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, about nine o'clock on the evening of Monday the 20th of January last, some evil-disposed person maliciously fired a gun, loaded with a leaden bullet, at Mr. William George, foreman to the journeymen Fullers, employed at Crawley-Mill, in the county of Oxford, the property of Mr. Robert Collier, jun. whereby the life of the said William George was in imminent danger;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired the said gun), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH:

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Master and Corporation of Blanket Weavers, at Witney, in the said county, to any person or persons (except as is before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, January 31, 1818.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that about two o'clock, on the morning of Wednesday the 14th instant, two men knocked at the door of one William Hindry, of Filby, in the county of Norfolk, who is employed for the purpose of protecting the game belonging to Charles Lucas, Esq. upon which the said William Hindry and two persons who were with him, as his assistants, were induced to go out of doors, and after proceeding about thirty yards, they were attacked by a body of men, consisting of about fourteen, with blacked faces, and their persons otherwise disfigured, and armed with guns, bludgeons, and other weapons, who, with violent threats, compelled the said William Hindry and his two assistants to shew them over the grounds for the purpose of killing game;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said daring outrage, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them who shall discover his accomplices therein, so that they, or some of them, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Charles Lucas, Esq. to any person or persons who shall discover the men concerned in the daring outrage before mentioned, so that they, or some of them, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

Whitehall, January 31, 1818.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, between six and seven o'clock in the morning of Thursday the 22d instant, half a barley rick, situate in a field belonging to Mr. Joseph Samuel Hollis, of the Parish of Timsbury, in the county of Southampton, was wilfully set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons, and that the same was entirely destroyed;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said barley rick), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWENTY GUINEAS is hereby offered, by the said Mr. Joseph Samuel Hollis, to any person or persons (except as is before excepted) who shall discover the person or persons who set the said barley rick on fire, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

THE Creditors under a Deed of Trust of William White, late of the Island of Jamaica, Esq. deceased, and of John White and John Edwards, late of Fen-Court, Fen-church-Street, in the City of London, Merchants, deceased, may receive a further Dividend equal to two years interest on the amount of their respective debts under the Trust Deeds, on Monday the 4th day of May 1818, between the hours of Twelve and Three, and on every following Monday between the hours of Twelve and Two, by applying on those days at the Chambers of Messrs. J. and W. Lowe and Cowburn, No. 2, Tanfield-Court, Temple, to sign a receipt for the same.

MATTHEW CORNABY'S CREDITORS.

Whereas Matthew Cornaby, of Lowestoft, in the County of Suffolk, Twine-Spinner, did on the 2d day of July last execute a conveyance and assignment of his estate and effects to Peter Backham, of Lowestoft aforesaid, Carrier, and Samuel Haward, of the same place, Grocer, in trust for the benefit of the Creditors of the said Matthew Cornaby as should execute the said deed within two months from the date thereof; and whereas no notice was given in the London Gazette of such conveyance and assignment within the said two months, now the said Trustees do hereby give notice to such of the Creditors of the said Matthew Cornaby as have not executed the said deed, that they will pay such Creditors the same dividend as will be due to the Creditors who have executed the said deed, provided such Creditors who have not yet executed the same make application to the said Trustees for a dividend on their respective debts within twenty days from the date of this advertisement.—Dated at Lowestoft, the 16th day of March 1818.

By order of the Trustees,
ROBERT STERRY LOCKWOOD, Solicitor.

To be sold by auction, by Mr. Charles Wood, before the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued and now in prosecution against Edward Weaver and Charles Weaver, both of the City of Gloucester, Pin-Manufacturers, Dealers, Chapmen, and Copartners, at the Boothall Inn, in the City of Gloucester, on Thursday the 23d day of April 1818, at the hour of Four in the Afternoon, subject to such conditions as shall be then produced, and in such lots as shall be then agreed upon, the following estates and effects:

A dwelling-house with the garden thereto belonging, situate in King-Street, in the Parish of Saint Michael, in the said City of Gloucester, and late the residence of Mr. Edward Weaver.

An extensive warehouse with the tenement and appurtenances thereto belonging, situate in the Parish of Saint Michael, on the east side of King-Street aforesaid, and late in the occupation of Messrs. Weaver and their tenant Mr. Thomas Woodliffe.

A dwelling-house with the garden, stable, and appurtenances thereto belonging, situate in the Parish of Saint Catherine, and at the extremity of King-Street aforesaid, and now in the occupation of the said Mr. Woodliffe, as tenant thereof.

Forty-one hundred pound shares of and in a certain concern at Cronebane, in the County of Wicklow, in Ireland, called the Associated Irish Mine Company.

The life interest of Mr. Charles Weaver, after the decease of his present wife, in all that capital dwelling-house, late the residence of the said Charles Weaver, pin-manufactory, buildings, and appurtenances thereto belonging, situate on the west side of King-Street aforesaid, with the garden opposite thereto, in the Parishes of Saint Michael and Saint Aldate.

The shares and interests of the said Bankrupts in the lands, mines, buildings, and other property belonging to a certain copper and brass company, called the Macclesfield Copper Company.

Eleven shares in the Gloucester and Berkeley Canal: Certain English, Scotch, and Irish patents lately obtained by the said Charles Weaver, jointly with Mr. John Leigh Bradbury, for heading pins.

The interest of Mr. Bradbury in the same patents was assigned to the said Charles Weaver, subject to the payment, during the continuance of such patents, of an annuity of 300l. to Mr. Bradbury, in case he should so long live, and, in case of his death, then to the payment of an annuity of 150l. to his Executors, with power for Mr. Bradbury to defeat such assignment, and resume his moiety of and in same patents in default of payment of said annuities, and for said Charles Weaver and his assigns to determine said annuities, the said Mr. Bradbury thereupon again becoming entitled to his said moiety.

One hundred and twenty-seven new machines constructed for heading pins, under the aforesaid patents, and all other the machinery, implements, and utensils, used with and belonging to the said patents.

The machinery, implements, and utensils used with and belonging to the said manufactory carried on in King-Street.

The estate for life of the said Charles Weaver, after the decease of his present wife, in the annual interest of 2000*l*. covenanted by the settlement made upon their marriage, to be paid within six months after the decease of Mrs. Weaver's father.

For a view of such parts of the above described property as are situate in Gloucester, apply to Mr. Charles Wood, Auctioneer, Gloucester, and for further particulars thereof, as also of all other the above described estates and effects, to John Baker, Esq. Blagdon, Somerset; Thomas Jones, Esq. Bristol; Messrs. Wilton, Solicitors, Gloucester; and Messrs. Torrey and James, Newnham, Gloucestershire, Solicitors to the Assignees, appointed under the said Commission.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Bowsher against Perry and others, with the approbation of Joseph Jekyll, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale-Room of the said Court, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on Friday the 17th day of April next, in eight lots;

Several undivided shares late of John Jelly (a Bankrupt), of and in several valuable freehold ground-rents, secured on and payable out of divers messuages and premises, situate in the City of Bath.

Also of and in several freehold and leasehold messuages, tenements, and premises, also situated in the said City of Bath, and at Bradford, in the County of Wilts.

Also the entirety of a large garden and premises, situate in the Parish of Walcott, near the said City of Bath, now in the possession of Mr. Edwards.

Particulars of the premises may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane; of Mr. Bowsher, Norfolk-Crescent, Bath; Messrs. Horne and Rogers, Solicitors, 31, Lincoln's-Inn-Fields, London; Mr. Isaac Cooke, Solicitor, Bristol; and of Messrs. Lamberts, Deane, and Taylor, Gray's-Inn, London.

TO be peremptorily re-sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a certain Cause Benge v. Hawes, between Charles Thomson, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale Room, Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on Tuesday the 24th day of March 1818, between the hours of One and Two o'Clock in the Afternoon;

All the estate and interest of the late William Reddall, Denis, deceased, in and to a freehold dwelling-house, No. 60, in Upper Thames-Street, London, the corner of Queenhithe, now in the occupation of _____ a yearly tenant.

Particulars may be had at the Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, of Messrs. Steadman and Uthoff, Solicitors, Holborn-Court, Gray's-Inn, London; and of Mr. Toyse, Fishmongers-Hall, London.

WHEREAS, Randle Underhill, late of Forbidge, in the Parish of Castle Church, in the County of Stafford, Yeoman, deceased, did in and by his last will and testament, dated 20th day of March, 1787 (amongst other things), give and bequeath unto his wife, Isabel Underhill, all the rest, residue, and remainder of his personal estate, as also all his real estate, of what denomination or kind soever, or where-soever situate, for and during the term of her natural life, and after her decease he gave and bequeathed the same to Trustees therein named, upon trust to sell all his said real estate, and the monies arising therefrom, as also all the rents and advantages thereof, together with all the rest, residue, and remainder of his personal estate; which he directed should be paid and equally divided share and share alike, between and amongst his and his wife's nephews and nieces, the eldest named, and the survivor, or survivor of them, viz. Ann Mansfield, Mary Martin, John, Mary, and James Whitfield, Catherine, and Frances Pendsill, Mary Field, alias Parrill, Thomas Peake, Edward and Catherine Hoghton, and Henry Stych, his wife's great nephews; and
