Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, APRIL 7, 1818.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 6th of April 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

THIS day the Right Honourable George Henry Rose was, by command of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, sworn of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

Whitehall, April 7, 1818.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to declare and ordain, that Field-Marshal His Serene Highness Prince Leopold-George-Frederick of Saxe-Cobourg of Saalfeld, late Consort of Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte-Augusta, deceased, shall henceforth, upon all occasions whatsoever, be styled and called "His ROYAL HIGHNESS," before his name and such titles as now do, or hereafter may, belong to him:

And to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

College of Arms, April 7, 1818.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to declare and ordain, that Field-Marshal His Royal Highness Prince Leopold-George-Frederick of Saxe-Cobourg of Saalfeld shall, for the future, use and bear the royal arms (without the inescutcheon of Charlemagne's crown, and without the Hanoverian royal crown) differenced with a label of five points argent, the centre point charged with a rose gules, quarterly with the arms of His illustrious House, the royal arms in the first and fourth quarters:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in this College.

Carlton-House, April 6, 1818.

This day the Baron de Stierneld, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from His Majesty the King of Sweden, and the Baron de Gerning, Envoy Extraordinary from His Serene Highness the Landgrave of Hesse Hombourg, accompanied by the Baron de Krane, Marshal of the Court of His Serene Highness, had their first private audiences of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent to deliver their respective credentials; to which they were introduced by Lord Viscount Castlereagh, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and conducted by Robert Chester, Esq. Assistant-Master of the Ceremonies.

Queen's-Palace, April 6, 1818.

This day the Baron de Stierneld, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from His Majesty the King of Sweden, and the Baron de Gerning, Envoy Extraordinary from the Landgrave of Hesse Hombourg, accompanied by the Baron de Krane, Marshal of the Court of His Serene Highness, had audience of Her Majesty; to which they were introduced by the Earl of Morton, Her Majesty's Lord Chamberlain, and conducted by Robert Chester, Esq. Assistant-Master of the Ceremonies.

Downing-Street, April 6, 1818.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to appoint General His Grace the Duke of Richmond, &c. K. G. to be Captain-General and Governor in Chief of the Provinces of Lower and Upper Canada, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, and the Islands of Prince Edward and Cape Breton,

BY THE LORDS COMMISSIONERS OF HIS MAJESTY'S TREASURY.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the forty-third year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for permitting certain goods, imported into Great Britain, to be secured in warehouses without payment of duty," it is, amongst other things, enacted as follows, that it shall be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees of any of the goods, wares, or merchandise enumerated and described in the table hereunto annexed marked (A), and which shall be legally imported and brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure the same under the joint locks of the Crown, and the merchant, in any warehouse or warehouses situated at the Isle of Dogs, and belonging to the West India Dock Company, without payment, at the time of the first entry of such goods, wares, or merchandise, of the duties of Customs or Excise due on the importation thereof, subject nevertheless, to the rules, regulations, and restrictions directed by this Act; provided always, that no such goods, wares, or merchandise shall be so lodged or secured, unless and until such warehouses and other works, belonging or to belong thereto, shall be so far completed, that in the judgement of the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them, the same shall be fit and proper, in every respect, for the reception of such goods, wares, and merchandise, and wherein the same may respectively be safely and securely deposited and remain under the regulations and directions of this Act; and the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them, are hereby authorised and empowered, by writing under his or their hand or hands, to certify and make known his or their approbation of such warehouses, which certificate shall be published, three times at least, in the London Gazette, and in two or more public morning newspapers then usually circulated in London:

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, do, in pursuance of the said Act, certify and make known that the new vault, No. 2, situated upon the Rum Quay, on the south side of the said Company's import dock, and adjoining the West Wood Wharf, is, in our judgement, fit and proper for the reception of rum, being one of the articles enumerated and described in the said table annexed to the said Act, and wherein the same may respectively be safely and securely deposited and remain under the regulations and directions of the said Act: and we do hereby declare our approbation of the said vault for such purpose accordingly.

Given under our hands at the Treasury Chambers,
Whitehall, this 2d day of April 1818,

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting certain goods imported into Great Britain, to be secured in warehouse without payment of duty," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees, of any goods, wares, or merchandise enumerated or described in the table hereunto annexed marked (C), and which shall be legally imported or brought into the port of London, to land any such goods without payment at the time of the first entry of such goods, wares, and merchandise, of the duties of Customs due on the importation thereof; and such goods may be lodged and secured at or in such places, and under such rules, regulations, and restrictions as the Commissioners of the Customs in England, or any four or more of them, shall approve and direct, upon the said importer, proprietor, or consignee entering into bond to His Majesty, his heirs, and successors, with one sufficient surety, to be approved of by the Collector and Comptroller of the Customs of the said port of London, in double the amount of the full duties due and payable on the importation of such goods, wares, and merchandise, with condition that such goods, wares, and merchandise shall be either duly exported in the manner and under such rules, regulations, and restrictions, so far as the same are applicable thereto, as by this Act are directed in respect of goods, wares, or merchandise secured in warehouses as aforesaid, and exported directly from thence, or that the full duties due and payable on the importation of such goods, wares, or merchandise shall be paid to the Collector, or other proper Officer of the Customs, within the space of twelve months from the date of the first entry of such goods; and it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them, shall deem it expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to any goods, wares, and merchandise not enumerated or described in either of the tables annexed thereto, and shall cause a list of such goods, wares, and merchandise to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend, and be construed to extend, to such goods, wares, and merchandise, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said tables respectively, at the time of passing the said Act:

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the powers vested in us in and by the said Act, do hereby declare, that it appears to us expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to the article of legally imported or brought into the port of London (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies); and that such rape seed should be added to the list of goods, wares, and merchandise enumerated and described in the table annexed to the said recited Act marked (C); and that such rape seed should be lodged and secured at or in such places as the Commissioners of the Customs in England, or any four or more of them, shall approve and direct, under the regulations and directions of the said Act: and we do further declare, that from and after the publication of this our certificate in the London Gazette, conformable to the directions of the said Act, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend, and be construed to extend; to all such rape seed in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the table annexed to the said Act marked (C), at the time of the passing the same Act.

Whitehall, April 4, 1818.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that in the night of Thursday the 19th of March last an atrocious robbery was committed upon Richard Savory, the lock-keeper and collector of the City's tolls, at Teddington lock, by three men (from their language and manner supposed to be barge-men of the lowest class) who entered the toll-house, situate in the hamlet of Ham and Hatch, in the county of Surrey, one of them having previously induced him, under a false pretence, to open the door, violently beat and ill-treated him, and stole, took, and carried away about £17 in Bank notes and silver;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the atrocious act above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement; a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the Committee for Improving the Navigation of the River Thames, to any person or persons who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders to conviction, or cause them or any of them to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid. The said reward to be paid on such conviction, by Mr. Stephen Leach, Clerk of the Works, at the City Navigation Barge, near Kew-Bridge.

Whitehall, March 30, 1818.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that some evil-disposed persons did, on the 8th day of February last, assemble in the yard adjoining the dwelling-house of Mr. Dyball, at Edgefield, in the county of Norfolk, and after having proceeded to break the lower windows of the house, they fired a gun or pistol; loaded with slugs and shot, into the bed-room of the said Mr. Dyball;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired the said gun or pistol), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered, by the parish of Edgefield, to any person or persons (except as before excepted) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence, the said reward to be paid by Mr. Richard Funnell, of Stodey.

Whitehall, March 24, 1818.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that about five o'clock on the morning of Monday the 27th January last, the corn stacks, barn, stables, and other buildings belonging to Mr. John Barns, of Lessingham, in the county of Norfolk, were wilfully set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons;

And whereas it hath also been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness, that between seven and eight o'clock on the evening of Wednesday the 28th January last, the straw stack belonging to Mr. Philip Betts, of Happisborough, in the said county, was wilfully set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felonies; is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set the said corn and straw stacks, &c. on fire) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Gentlemen, owners and occupiers of land in the neighbourhood where the offences were committed, to any person or persons (except as is before excepted) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

Whitehall, March 6, 1818.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that between the hours of two and three o'clock on the morning of Wednesday the 18th ultimo, the house of Mrs. Harpur, of Falkenham, in the county of Suffolk, was burglariously entered by three persons disguised in masks, who went up stairs to the chamber of Mrs. Harpur, and after demanding her money by threats (they standing on each side of her bed, armed), proceeded to rifle the house, and took away 55l. in Bank of England notes, and other property;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the robbery above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence. The said reward of one hundred pounds to be paid by Mr. William Harpur, of Stratton Hall, near Ipswich.
