

BY THE LORDS COMMISSIONERS OF HIS MAJESTY'S TREASURY.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the forty-third year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for permitting certain goods, imported into Great Britain, to be secured in warehouses without payment of duty," it is, amongst other things, enacted as follows, that it shall be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees of any of the goods, wares, or merchandise enumerated and described in the table hereunto annexed marked (A), and which shall be legally imported and brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure the same under the joint locks of the Crown, and the merchant, in any warehouse or warehouses situated at the Isle of Dogs, and belonging to the West India Dock Company, without payment, at the time of the first entry of such goods, wares, or merchandise, of the duties of Customs or Excise due on the importation thereof, subject nevertheless, to the rules, regulations, and restrictions directed by this Act; provided always, that no such goods, wares, or merchandise shall be so lodged or secured, unless and until such warehouses and other works, belonging or to belong thereto, shall be so far completed, that in the judgement of the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them, the same shall be fit and proper, in every respect, for the reception of such goods, wares, and merchandise, and wherein the same may respectively be safely and securely deposited and remain under the regulations and directions of this Act; and the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them, are hereby authorised and empowered, by writing under his or their hand or hands, to certify and make known his or their approbation of such warehouses, which certificate shall be published, three times at least, in the London Gazette, and in two or more public morning newspapers then usually circulated in London:

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, do, in pursuance of the said Act, certify and make known that the new vault, No. 2, situated upon the Rum Quay, on the south side of the said Company's import dock, and adjoining the West Wood Wharf, is, in our judgement, fit and proper for the reception of rum, being one of the articles enumerated and described in the said table annexed to the said Act, and wherein the same may respectively be safely and securely deposited and remain under the regulations and directions of the said Act: and we do hereby declare our approbation of the said vault for such purpose accordingly.

Given under our hands at the Treasury Chambers,
Whitehall, this 2d day of April 1818,

N. VANSITTART.
B. PAGET.
JOHN BARRY.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting certain goods imported into Great Britain, to be secured in warehouse without payment of duty," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees, of any goods, wares, or merchandise enumerated or described in the table hereunto annexed marked (C), and which shall be legally imported or brought into the port of London, to land any such goods without payment at the time of the first entry of such goods, wares, and merchandise, of the duties of Customs due on the importation thereof; and such goods may be lodged and secured at or in such places, and under such rules, regulations, and restrictions as the Commissioners of the Customs in England, or any four or more of them, shall approve and direct, upon the said importer, proprietor, or consignee entering into bond to His Majesty, his heirs, and successors, with one sufficient surety, to be approved of by the Collector and Comptroller of the Customs of the said port of London, in double the amount of the full duties due and payable on the importation of such goods, wares, and merchandise, with condition that such goods, wares, and merchandise shall be either duly exported in the manner and under such rules, regulations, and restrictions, so far as the same are applicable thereto, as by this Act are directed in respect of goods, wares, or merchandise secured in warehouses as aforesaid, and exported directly from thence, or that the full duties due and payable on the importation of such goods, wares, or merchandise shall be paid to the Collector, or other proper Officer of the Customs, within the space of twelve months from the date of the first entry of such goods; and it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them, shall deem it expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to any goods, wares, and merchandise not enumerated or described in either of the tables annexed thereto, and shall cause a list of such goods, wares, and merchandise to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend, and be construed to extend, to such goods, wares, and merchandise, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said tables respectively, at the time of passing the said Act:

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the powers vested in us in and by the said Act, do hereby declare, that it appears to us expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to the article of

Foreign Rape Seed,

legally imported or brought into the port of London (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies); and that such rape seed should be added to the list of goods, wares, and merchandise enumerated and described in the table annexed to the said recited Act marked (C); and that such
