SATURDAY, APRIL 11, 1818.

Queen's-Palace, Tuesday, April 7, 1818.

THIS evening at eight o'clock, the solemnity of the marriage of Her Royal Highness the Princess Elizabeth, daughter of His Majesty, with His Serene Highness Frederick-Joseph-Louis-Charles-Augustus, Landgrave and Hereditary Prince of Hesse Hombourg, Prince of Hersfeld, Count of Catzenellenbogen, Dietz, Ziegenhayn, Nidda Hanau Schaumburg, Isenburg, and Budingen, &c. &c. was performed in the Grand Saloon at the Queen's-Palace, by His Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury, in the presence of Her Majesty the Queen, their Royal Highnesses the Dukes of York, Clarence, Kent, and Gloucester; Her Royal Highness Princess Augusta-Sophia, Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Gloucester, Her Royal Highness the Duchess of York, Her Royal Highness the Princess Sophia of Gloucester, the Great Officers of State, the Ambassadors and Ministers from Foreign States, the Officers of the Household of Her Majesty the Queen, the Officers of the Household of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, and of the younger branches of the Royal Family, assisting at the ceremony.

At the conclusion of the marriage service the registry of the marriage was attested with the usual formalities.

The Great Officers of State, Nobility, Foreign Ministers, and other persons of distinction present, then paid their compliments on the occasion, after which Her Majesty the Queen, the Bride and Bridegroom, with the rest of the Royal Family retired to Her Majesty's private apartments.

Queen's Palace for His Royal Highness the Prince Regent's Lodge, Windsor Park.

Immediately after the conclusion of the marriage the Park and Tower guns were fired, and the evening concluded with other public demonstrations of joy in the metropolis.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, April 11, 1818.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room at the Queen's-Palace, on Thursday the 23d instant, at two o'clock, to celebrate His Royal Highness the Prince Regent's birth-day.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 6th of April 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, cap. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend training, and to regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewardry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewardry or stewardries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia, to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas it is deemed expedient that such training and exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended, and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

WE, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Gloucester, humbly beg your Serene Highness to accept our unfeigned condolence on the agonizing event which has destroyed the fond hopes of this nation, and has plunged your Serene Highness into the most dreadful of domestic calamities.

It is the nature of grief to keep its object perpetually in its eye, to present it in its most pleasurable views, and to dwell upon its perfections; we trust, therefore, that your Serene Highness will pardon us if, full of love and admiration for the Princess Charlotte while she was spared to us, we venture thus to express our full sense of the value of her whom we have lost. Permit us also, Sir, to hope that you will allow yourself to find some consolation in the reflection, that she was beloved and happy, and that your Serene Highness most essentially contributed to her happiness, which will ever be gratefully appreciated by an affectionate people.

Signed, by order of the Meeting.

Hy. C. Lippincott, High Sheriff.

[Transmitted by Sir Henry Lippincott, and presented by Sir Robert Gardiner.]

To His Serene Highness Leopold, Prince of Saxe Cobourg.

May it please your Serene Highness,

WE, the Inhabitants of the Borough of Derby, with sorrow of heart approach your Serene Highness, beseeching you to receive our assurances of sympathy and condolence.

When we think of the anguish which overwhelms your Serene Highness, it might appear intrusive to mention even the name of her whose loss you so affectionately deplore; yet as the image of your beloved Princess is ever before you, we trust it may be some alleviation of your sorrows to be assured that we with all His Majesty's faithful subjects participate in your grief. We will not intrude upon sorrows which should be sacred, further than to assure your Serene Highness of our esteem for the many virtues displayed by your Serene Highness during your short abode amongst us, and of our increasing gratitude for the affection with which you cherished our beloved Princess. To point out the only source of genuine consolation to your Serene Highness must be unnecessary in us, for having participated with your illustrious consort in those holy meditations to which she was devoted, your mind must be prepared to repose its trust in the Almighty.

May that all good and gracious Being, in whose hands are the issues of life and death, bind up the broken heart of your Serene Highness, and afford that peace and comfort which he alone can give.

Jno. Crompton, Chairman.

To His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg Saalfeld.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Minister, Churchwardens, and Inhabitants of the Parish of Portsmouth, within the Borough of Portsmouth, in vestry assembled, beg leave most respectfully to approach your Serene Highness with our sincere condolence on the recent loss of your Serene Highness's most beloved, illustrious, and royal consort.

We, in common with all our fellow-subjects, have hailed the union of your Serene Highness with Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte of Wales, as affording us the truest pledge for a continuance of the blessings we have enjoyed under the illustrious House of Brunswick.

It has pleased the Supreme Disposer of all earthly Events to remove Her Royal Highness from our hopes and wishes; and we earnestly pray to Almighty God to enable your Serene Highness to continue to bear this afflicting dispensation with that Christian submission and resignation, which your Serene Highness has already so eminently displayed.

Signed, on behalf of the Meeting, by

Jno. Lang, George Chambers, Churchwardens.

[Transmitted by the Mayor, and presented by Sir Robert Gardiner.]

To His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Duke of Saxe, Margrave of Misnia, Landgrave of Thuringua, Prince of Cobourg of Saalfeld.

SIR,

WE, the Mayor, Corporation, and Inhabitants of Falmouth, most respectfully beg permission to express to your Serene Highness our unfeigned sympathy and condolence on the great loss your Serene Highness and ourselves have sustained, by the afflicting death of your late illustrious consort the Princess Charlotte Augusta.

The universal grief and lamentations of the nation at large on this melancholy occasion, and which have come home to every man's business and bosom, must have reached your Serene Highness, and will not fail to convince you how tenderly their departed Princess was beloved by a loyal people, who had looked forward with the brightest hopes to her swaying the Sceptre of her illustrious ancestors; maintaining the glorious principles of the British Constitution; and transmitting them to a long line of successors—but it has pleased the All-Wise and All-Gracious God, in his unerring Providence, to exchange her expectation of an earthly throne for the enjoyment of an immortal kingdom, and we bend with submission to our loss.

We humbly pray that the Almighty will in his goodness support your Serene Highness under this heavy dispensation, and enable you to bear it with that fortitude which becomes a Christian; and that from the sacred sources of religion, your Serene Highness and all who now mourn may derive peace and consolation.

Given, under the common seal of the Corporation, this 10th day of December, in the 58th year of His Majesty's reign, and in the year of our Lord 1817,

By order of the Meeting,

[Transmitted by Lord Wodehouse, Recorder of the Borough, and presented by Sir Robert Gardiner.]

To His Serene Highness the Prince of Saxe Cobourg.

The humble Address of the Master, Officers, and Brethern of the Bedford Lodge, number 529, held in the Borough of Tavistock, in the County of Devon.

May it please your Serene Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, beg leave to approach your Serene Highness with our respectful and sincere condolence on the late severe and irreparable loss you have sustained by the sudden and lamentable death of your illustrious and royal consort.

Whilst we dwell on the virtue of our late beloved Princess, contemplating her interesting youth, her cultivated mind, and those amiable qualities which held forth the highest promise of a life of virtue, and innocence to herself, happiness to her Family, glory to England, and example to the world; when we see this bright gem of the State, the Nation's best hope, the darling of the people taken from us, at a moment when this Nation fondly anticipated occasion for universal joy, we are indeed overwhelmed. While we sincerely participate in your grief as a husband and parent, we cannot but deeply feel this afflictive dispensation of Providence which has blighted the country's dearest hopes, and bereaved it of its fairest prospects. We wish not to increase the poignancy of that sorrow which fills the bosom of your Serene Highness, by recalling to your memory the many transcendent virtues of our ever beloved Princess; mysterious are the ways of Providence; we bend with resignation to the Almighty will, and we fervently pray, that your Serene Highness may receive fortitude and strength at the hands of the Supreme Being, and that while He apportions national calamities, He may administer domestic consolation.

By order of the Lodge, H. Skinner, W. M.
Tavistock, December 19, 1817.

To His Serene Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

May it please your Serene Highness,

WE, the Provost, Magistrates, Councillors, and Deacons of Crafts of the Royal Burgh of Forfar, beg leave to express our high regard for your Serene Highness's character and virtues, and our deep sorrow and affliction at the sudden and severe calamity with which your Highness, and this nation, have been visited. While we deplore the disappointment of those hopes which the people of these realms so fondly cherished of beholding their beloved Princess enjoying a long and prosperous life, and transmitting to her descendants the succession to the British Crown, with the devotion and affection of the whole nation, we, at the same time, deeply sympathize with those more peculiar and domestic griefs which afflict your Highness; and which must attend the separation of those who were so mutually endeared, and so worthy of each other, as your Serene Highness and your most amiable Princess. We pray Almighty God, who alone can heal up the sorrows of the afflicted, to protect and comfort your Serene Highness; and we beg leave to assure you, that the respect and esteem of this nation will always accompany your Serene Highness, and that their earnest and ardent prayers will always be offered up for your welfare.

To His Serene Highness the Prince of Saxe Cobourg.

The respectful Address of the County of Selkirk.

WE, the Noblemen, Freeholders, and Heritors of the County of Selkirk, admiring your Serene Highness's truly respectable and dignified character and conduct, and grateful for that unceasing kindness with which, in the warmth of your heart, your Serene Highness cherished the late amiable and regretted object of your affections, beg leave to assure your Serene Highness, that we sincerely sympathise in your afflictions, and that we deeply deplore that severe dispensation which has involved your Serene Highness and the whole nation in sorrow.

We pray that your Serene Highness may be enabled successfully to exert that fortitude which becomes your manly character, and, that in pious resignation to the will of the Almighty, and in possessing, with the consciousness of deserving the universal love and good opinion of this country, you may in future enjoy every comfort which this world can bestow.

To His Serene Highness, Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

May it please your Serene Highness,

WE, the Magistrates and Council of the Royal Burgh of Kirkcudbright, amidst the general grief for the severe affliction with which the Almighty has visited the nation, in the death of your illustrious consort and your son, beg leave to approach your Serene Highness with our expressions of the most sincere sympathy and condolence.

When we recollect the virtues which adorned her whom we now lament, our own sorrows are augmented, and we can truly feel for that anguish which must fill the bosom of your Serene Highness both as a husband and as a father.

While the universal British Nation deplores the loss which, in common with your Serene Highness it has sustained, it also acknowledges how worthy you were of that high regard which our lamented Princess entertained for you.

That the Almighty God, from whom alone flows all consolation, may dry up your tears, and, in his own good time, restore you to happiness and comfort, is our sincere and fervent prayer.

Signed, in our name, and in our presence, this 10th day of December 1817 years.

[Transmitted by Robert Gordon, Esq. Chief Magistrate of Kirkcudbright, and presented by Sir Robert Gardiner.]

Unto His Serene Highness Prince Leopold.

May it please your Serene Highness,

WE, the Freeholders, Justices of Peace, Commissioners of the Land Tax, and other Heritors of the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright now assembled, beg leave on this most melancholy occasion, with profound respect, to approach your Serene Highness, and to present you this mournful tribute of our sincere sympathy.

The irreparable loss which your Serene Highness has sustained, whilst it agonizes the feelings of a husband and a father, spreads a mournful gloom over the British empire.

Illustrious sufferer! whilst we condole with your affliction, we esteem your virtues; and as the memory of the Princess Charlotte shall be ever embalmed in our affections, her surviving husband shall ever be dear to our hearts.

That the God of infinite Mercy may vouchsafe to your Serene Highness those Divine comforts which alone can relieve the afflicted heart; and that He may lead you through the dark shades of your present distress to the bright sunshine of prosperity and happiness, are our anxious and fervent prayers.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, in our presence, at Kirkcudbright, the 9th day of December 1817,

[Transmitted by David Lamont, Esq. and presented by Sir Robert Gardiner.]

To His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

May it please your Serene Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Commissioners of Supply, Justices of the Peace, Magistrates of Towns and Heritors of the County of Renfrew, have assembled together for the solemn purpose of uniting our deep sentiments of individual grief, for the awful affliction with which your Serene Highness has lately been visited, and while with speechless sorrow we dwell on the hallowed memory of our beloved Princess, we venture to offer the tenderest sympathies of our hearts to your Serene Highness, anxiously hoping that the first dreadful energies of grief being exhausted, your Serene Highness is now reposing in that calmness of resignation, which loves to cherish every memorial of departed excellence, and which affords us the pleasing conviction, that this our humble offering, will be no premature intrusion upon the sacredness of your solitude.

It is then with unfeigned sincerity of feeling that we beg to approach your Serene Highness, with this our public tribute of admiration for your high character, and of affection for your many amiable virtues.

It was with heartfelt pleasure, and with a long series of anticipated blessings to our country, that we beheld the union of your Serene Highness with our late illustrious Princess.—A union completed on the perfect basis of mutual affections, mutual dispositions, and mutual virtues. For a little more than one short year, all our warmest wishes, and our highest hopes, were abundantly gratified and fulfilled, and giving way to the impatient loyalty of our hearts, glowing with the bright display of royal domestic felicity, we indulged in the all but realized accomplishment of our desires, and seemed to behold in your Serene Highness the illustrious father of a splendid line of British Kings.—But, the King of Kings and Unseen Disposer of Events has ordained otherwise—we bow in suffering submission to His All-Righteous Will; and while with the strong sympathy of mutual affliction, we offer to your Serene Highness the affectionate condolence of our hearts, we would humbly seek to imitate your high example, by evincing the same perfect resignation to the unerring Will of Heaven.

And permit us to add, that, should your Serene Highness e'er long seek for that mitigation of your grief, which change of scene is wont to supply, we earnestly hope, that speedily finding such comfort to your wounded spirit, you may return, and continue long to live among the affections of a people, who must ever remember with national gratitude your devoted attachment to their beloved Princess, and who so highly estimate and revere your own exalted worth and goodness.

Signed, in our name and presence, and by our appointment, at Renfrew, the 17th of December 1817, Glasgow, Preses.

To His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

The respectful and affectionate Address of the Noblemen and Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Fife, in General Meeting assembled this 11th December 1817.

May it please your Serene Highness,

WE, the Noblemen and Gentlemen, Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Fife, beg leave most respectfully to offer to your Serene Highness the expression of our heartfelt affliction for the irreparable loss which your Serene Highness has sustained, by the death of your illustrious and beloved consort, Her Royal Highness the Princess Charlotte Augusta, an event which has spread the most poignant grief and dismay through the whole British nation, to whom those distinguished virtues so well known to your Serene Highness had endeared the illustrious and amiable Princess whose untimely fate all deplore—virtues which inspire us with confident hope that she has exchanged the prospect of an earthly for the possession of a Heavenly Crown. Most sincerely do we sympathise with your Serene Highness's sorrows on this calamitous event. We hope that your Serene Highness's grief may receive some degree of alleviation from the manner in which the whole nation has received this awful visitation, and we humbly pray that He who has thought fit to inflict it may grant to your Serene Highness that consolation which He alone can give.

Signed, in the name, and by the appointment of the said Meeting, Morton.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Morton, K. T. and presented by Sir Robert Gardiner.]

To His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Duke of Saxe, Margrave of Meissen, Landgrave of Thuringen, Prince of Cobourg of Saalfeld.

The Address of the Noblemen, Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply, of the County of Haddington, in a General Meeting, assembled this 9th day of December 1817.

IN approaching your Serene Highness on the deep and irreparable loss which your Serene Highness and the British nation has sustained, we feel that it were in vain to adopt the language of consolation. It has pleased the Almighty Disposer of all Events to deprive your Serene Highness of the object of your fondest affection, and the British Empire of one of its best hopes and brightest ornaments. The prospect held out to us by the virtues of our departed Princess endeared her to the hearts of every Briton. It is now only left to us to think, that those virtues, under the blessings of Divine Providence, have insured to her a far higher and more glorious destiny than even that which seemed to open to her in this transitory world; and when time shall have soothed the poignancy of your Serene Highness's grief, you will have a satisfaction in reflecting, that your affection towards her formed a principal source of her blessings here; and that it has left an indelible impression on the minds of all classes of this empire, which will ever make them feel sincerely interested in the happiness and prosperity of your Serene Highness.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that in the night of Thursday the 19th of March last an atrocious robbery was committed upon Richard Savory, the lock-keeper and collector of the City's tolls, at Teddington lock, by three men (from their language and manner supposed to be barge-men of the lowest class) who entered the toll-house, situate in the hamlet of Ham and Hatch, in the county of Surrey, one of them having previously induced him, under a false pretence, to open the door, violently beat and ill-treated him, and stole, took, and carried away about £17. in Bank notes and silver;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the atrocious act above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the Committee for Improving the Navigation of the River Thames, to any person or persons who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders to conviction, or cause them or any of them to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid. The said reward to be paid on such conviction, by Mr. Stephen Leach, Clerk of the Works, at the City Navigation Barge, near Kew-Bridge.

Whitehall, March 30, 1818.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that some evil-disposed persons did, on the 8th day of February last, assemble in the yard adjoining the dwelling-house of Mr. Dyball, at Edgefield, in the county of Norfolk, and after having proceeded to break the lower windows of the house, they fired a gun or pistol, loaded with slugs and shot, into the bed-room of the said Mr. Dyball;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired the said gun or pistol), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered, by the parish of Edgefield, to any person or persons (except as before excepted) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence, the said reward to be paid by Mr. Richard Funnell, of Stodey.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that about five o'clock on the morning of Monday the 27th January last, the corn stacks, barn, stables, and other buildings belonging to Mr. John Barns, of Lessingham, in the county of Norfolk, were wilfully set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons;

And whereas it hath also been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness, that between seven and eight o'clock on the evening of Wednesday the 28th January last, the straw stack belonging to Mr. Philip Betts, of Happisborough, in the said county, was wilfully set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felonies, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set the said corn and straw stacks, &c. on fire) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Gentlemen, owners and occupiers of land in the neighbourhood where the offences were committed, to any person or persons (except as is before excepted) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

Whitehall, March 6, 1818.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that between the hours of two and three o'clock on the morning of Wednesday the 18th ultimo, the house of Mrs. Harpur, of Falkenham, in the county of Suffolk, was burglariously entered by three persons disguised in masks, who went up stairs to the chamber of Mrs. Harpur, and after demanding her money by threats (they standing on each side of her bed, armed), proceeded to rifle the house, and took away 55l. in Bank of England notes, and other property;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the robbery above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence. The said reward of one hundred pounds to be paid by Mr. William Harpur, of Stratton Hall, near Ipswich.

Whitehall, February 28, 1818.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, on the night of Saturday the 14th instant, a barn and stack of oats, belonging to Mrs. Dehany, at Pickhurst Farm, in the parish of Hayes, near Bromley, in the county of Kent, were feloniously set on fire, whereby a large barn, with some implements of husbandry and a large quantity of oats, were totally consumed;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said barn and stack of oats), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as is before excepted) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—One half of the reward above-mentioned to be paid by the said Mrs. Dehany, and the other half thereof to be paid by the Phoenix Fire Office, in London.

Whitehall, February 10, 1818.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, about nine o'clock on the evening of Monday the 20th of January last, some evil-disposed person maliciously fired a gun, loaded with a leaden bullet, at Mr. William George, foreman to the journeymen Fullers, employed at Crawley-Mill, in the county of Oxford, the property of Mr. Robert Collier, jun. whereby the life of the said William George was in imminent danger;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired the said gun), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Master and Corporation of Blanket Weavers, at Witney, in the said county, to any person or persons (except as is before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, January 31, 1818.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that about two o'clock, on the morning of Wednesday the 14th instant, two men knocked at the door of one William Hindry, of Filby, in the county of Norfolk, who is employed for the purpose of protecting the game belonging to Charles Lucas, Esq. upon which the said William Hindry and two persons who were with him, as his assistants, were induced to go out of doors, and after proceeding about thirty yards, they were attacked by a body of men, consisting of about fourteen, with blacked faces, and their persons otherwise disfigured, and armed with guns, bludgeons, and other weapons, who, with violent threats, compelled the said William Hindry and his two assistants to shew them over the grounds for the purpose of killing game;

No. 17348.

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said daring outrage, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them who shall discover his accomplices therein, so that they, or some of them, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Charles Lucas, Esq. to any person or persons who shall discover the men concerned in the daring outrage before mentioned, so that they, or some of them, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

On Tuesday the 21st of April,

Those at 1s. 10½d. per day and upwards, and those pensioners who have been admitted on account of blindness.

It is also ordered and directed, that all the out-pensioners belonging to the said Hospital, do pay particular attention to their instructions, which they are required to produce at the time of payment, by which they are ordered to transmit to the Paymaster-General of His Majesty's Land Forces in London, their affidavits as therein prescribed, on, or immediately after every quarter-day, without which their names will not be entered on the pay-lists for the subsequent quarter, and they are not afterwards to change their place of abode, as specified in their affidavits, without unavoidable necessity, and duly notifying the same.

And further to take notice, that, in consequence of various frauds having been committed by pensioners in the receipt of pension and prize-money, it is ordered that all pensioners so offending shall be struck off the pension list, and forfeit for ever all benefit arising from this Establishment.

Richard Neave, Secretary and Registrar.

Exchequer Bill Office, April 10, 1818.

TO BE PAID OFF.

All Exchequer Bills dated in the Month of April 1817.

THE Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having given directions for paying off the principal of the above-mentioned Exchequer Bills, with the interest due thereon, at the Exchequer Bill Office in the Receipt of Exchequer, New Palace-Yard, Westminster, on Tuesday the 28th day of April instant, attendance will be given daily (Sundays and holidays excepted) until, and including, Wednesday the 22d instant, from ten o'clock in the morning till one in the afternoon, for the purpose of receiving the same. And, for the greater dispatch, the bearers of the said bills are desired to place the bills in lists (which are to be obtained at this Office), classing them in the order of their respective dates, such as are for the same amount being numerically arranged, and specifying the principal sums and interest due thereon, computed from, but excluding the days on which they are respectively dated, to the said 28th day of April inclusive, when the interest will cease; and the said bearers, should they be acting as the agents of holders whose names are inserted in the bills, are previously to procure the endorsements of such holders; and the bearers are also indispensably required to indorse each bill with their usual signatures, and to write their names and residence at the bottom of the list; and they are moreover required to attend the Exchequer Bill Office for payment, and to receive the new bills, and give the receipts for the same.

If any of the holders of the aforesaid bills should be desirous of receiving payment of the principal and interest, previous to the said 28th day of April, they may be accommodated on computing the interest to the day on which they wish to be paid, and leaving the said bills for examination one day prior thereto.

Such persons as may be desirous of having new Exchequer Bills in whole or in part of payment of principal, upon marking new bills, and mentioning the amount at the bottom of their lists, delivered on or before Wednesday the 22d instant, may be accommodated with new bills, payable to or order, carrying an interest of two pence by the day, on every one hundred pounds, which said new bills will bear date the said 28th day of April, and will be delivered, together with the interest due in respect of the bills so desired to be exchanged, on Wednesday the 29th day of April, and the following days.

The Exchequer Bills to be issued in exchange and made payable to or order, as abovementioned, may be either transferred by endorsement, or will be paid to the bearer if the blank shall not be filled up.

N.B. All Exchequer Bills dated prior to April 1817, have been advertised to be paid off, and the interest thereon has ceased.

Custom-House, London, April 1, 1818.

KING'S PLATES.

THIS is to give notice, that His Majesty has been graciously pleased to give the sum of one hundred guineas to be run for by horses, mares, or geldings, this season, at each of the following places, viz. Newmarket (three), Salisbury, Ipswich, Guildford, Nottingham, Winchester, Lincoln, York (two), Lewes, Canterbury, Lichfield, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, Doncaster, Carlisle, Chelmsford, Ascot-Heath, and Warwick.

The particular days of running will be notified at proper times.

Form of a Certificate.

These are to certify, that His Majesty's plate of a hundred guineas was won at — day of — 1818, by Mr. A. B.'s chesnut horse called —.

C. D. Clerk of the Course.
E. F. Steward.
G. { * Lord Lieutenant of the County.

To the Master of the Horse to His Majesty, at his Office in the King's Mews, London.

* The signature of the Lord Lieutenant alone is sufficient, but, in order to obtain that, it is necessary that he be shewn a certificate, signed by the Steward and the Clerk of the Course.

If the Lord Lieutenant be out of the kingdom, the signature of the person regularly deputed by him is admissible.

The certificate of the Ascot-Heath plate must be signed by the Master of His Majesty's Buck Hounds, instead of the Lord Lieutenant of the County.

N. B. The certificates, when properly signed, are payable at sight to the winner of the plate, (or to any other person, if indorsed by the winner,) at the Office of the Master of the Horse, in the King's-Mews, London; but, as according to the Receipt Act, the stamp is to be paid for by the person giving the receipt, it is expected that a half-crown one be brought with each certificate when presented for payment.

By order of His Grace the Duke of Montrose, Master of the Horse to His Majesty.

WILLIAM PARKER, Clerk of the Stables.
The King's-Mews, April 11, 1818.

MR. HENRY KELWAY'S RELATIONS.

Plymouth, April 3, 1818.

WHereas, Henry Kelway, a native of Saltash, in Cornwall, but late of Plymouth, Apothecary, deceased, by his will, gave a considerable real and personal estate to Trustees, who were to employ the produce thereof in educating, in Plymouth, two or more children, boys or girls, of Testator's relations, and in providing for them schooling, diet, clothing, and books, till fit to be placed out, who are then to be sent abroad to trades or professions, and maintained till 24, if boys, or if girls, till they attain that age, or sooner marry; and whereas, the next of kin, and those of Mr. Kelway's surname, are to be preferred, if equal in merit, of which the Trustees are to be the Judges, and if no relations, or a competent number of them, apply, the Trustees are in like manner to educate some proper objects of the Towns of Plymouth or Saltash.

This Trust having been established by decree in Chancery, the Trustees do hereby give notice, that such relations of Mr. Kelway as are willing to have the benefit of this Trust, are desired to send their claims to Mr. Thomas Cleather, Solicitor, Plymouth, before the 1st day of June next, or in default of such claims being made, the Trustees intend to admit to the benefit of this Trust, other children, who are not relations to the Testator.

THE Creditors (if any) of Captain Henry Wood, late of His Majesty's 17th Regiment of Foot, and formerly Lieutenant in the 35th Foot (who died at Berhampore, in Bengal, on the 1st of October 1815), are requested forthwith to send the Particulars of their claims to the Office of Mr. R. Skynner, No. 62, Great Portland-Street, in order that the same may be examined and settled.

ESTATES, COAL, and IRON WORKS, at and near BILLINGSLEY, SHROPSHIRE.

TO be sold by auction, before the major part of the Commissioners in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded against George Stokes, late of Oldswinford, in the County of Worcester, Iron-Master, pursuant to an Order of the Right Hon. the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, at the Talbot Inn, in Stourbridge, in the said County of Worcester, on Friday the 24th day of April instant, at Three o'clock in the Afternoon, in the following or such other lots as the said Commissioners shall direct, and subject to such conditions as shall be then produced:

Lot 1. A freehold messuage or farm-house with the out-buildings, sixteen dwelling-houses and gardens for workmen, and several pieces of good arable, meadow, and pasture land, called New England, situate in the Parish of Higley, in the County of Salop, containing by estimation forty-seven acres or thereabouts, now or late in the occupation of Mr. William Sheel and the Billingsley Company, their tenants or under-tenants.

Lot 2. A freehold messuage or tenement, with the out-buildings and several pieces or parcels of good arable and pasture land thereunto belonging, called Scotts, situate in the Parish of Stotherton, otherwise Stotterden, in the said County of Salop, containing by estimation forty-six acres or thereabouts, now or late in the occupation of Mr. Thomas Rigby or his under-tenants: this lot is considered to abound with coal and iron-stone of excellent quality.

Lot 3. The materials of two blast furnaces and one air furnace, one capital blast engine working cylinder, fifty-six inches diameter, with an extra piston, two boilers, cast metal beam pipes and other appurtenances.

Lot 4. One large steam engine for un-watering mines, with two boilers, working cylinder, thirty-eight inches diameter, wood beam pipe, and other appurtenances.

Lot 5. Two double and one single horse gins.

Lot 6. The materials of one newly erected dwelling-house and of several ware-houses, bridge-houses, casting-houses, carpenters' and blacksmiths' shops, and various other buildings; a quantity of railway waggons; a quantity of wood patterns, fireclay and common bricks.

The four last lots are in the coal and iron works, at Billingsley aforesaid.

Lot 7. About fifty tons of cast iron rails, sleepers, &c. now upon a rail road connecting the said works with the river Severn, from the inclined Plane to the river, in extent about two miles and half; about one thousand tons of red iron stone, and about thirty tons of lime-stone, now lying upon the banks of the river Severn.

The above estates and works are well situated about 7 miles from Bridgnorth, 6 miles from Bewdley and Clesbury Mortimer, and 4 miles from the river Severn.

There is reason to believe that Lord Darlington, the proprietor of the works, would be induced to grant a beneficial lease of them to a responsible tenant to whom all the above property would be peculiarly desirable.

Mr. Rigby at the Scotts farm will shew the whole, and any further information may be had from him, or on application to Mr. Robins, Solicitor, in Stourbridge aforesaid; to Mr. Fisher, Solicitor, or to Mr. Brooke, Solicitor, both of Newport, Shropshire.

GOSPORT AND ALVERSTOKE, HANTS.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. Isaac Hobson, by order of and before the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued against John Tayler, late of Gosport, in the County of Southampton, Pawn-Broker, Dealer and Chapman, at the Crown Inn, in Gosport aforesaid, on Tuesday the 21st day of April instant, at Two o'clock in the Afternoon;

Lot 1. All that substantial freehold dwelling-house, situate near the centre and on the South side of South-Street, in Gosport aforesaid, containing a front shop communicating by a staircase with a commodious store-room, a large parlour, warehouse, cellars, drawing-room, and six good-bed rooms, paved yard wherein is a pump and good spring water, an excellent garden nearly sixty feet square, in which is a cow-house, stable, and tool-house, in the wash-house a rainwater tank and pump, as the same premises were late in the occupation of the said John Tayler. The business of a pawn-broker has been carried on for upwards of fifty years in the premises, which from their situation and extent are well adapted for that or any other business requiring room.

Lot 2. All that excellent freehold garden, surrounded by lofty walls, situate in Bingham Town, in the Parish of Alverstoke, late in the occupation of Mr. Thomas Hoskins, and admeasuring in depth 140 feet or thereabouts, and in width 60 feet or thereabouts. The above garden is in a high state of cultivation and well stocked with choice fruit trees: immediate possession can be given of all the above premises, and the purchaser of the first lot may be accommodated with a considerable part of the purchase money on mortgage.

For a view of the respective properties and for further particulars apply to the Auctioneer, High-Street, Gosport.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 26th of November 1807, made in a Cause wherein George Walter and others are plaintiffs, and John Walter and others are defendants, the Creditors of the Reverend Dr. Alleyne Walter, late of Cheltenham, in the County of Gloucester, deceased, the testator in the said Decree named (who died on or about the 26th day of March 1806), are, on or before the 18th day of May 1818, to come in and prove their debts before Sir John Simeon, Bart. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 31st day of January 1818, made in a Cause wherein John Abram (on behalf of himself and all other the Creditors of John Davies, late of Essex-Street, in the Strand, in the County of Middlesex, and also of Teddington, in the same County, Attorney at Law, deceased), is plaintiff, and Samuel Davies and others are defendants, the Creditors of the said John Davies, the testator in the said Decree named (who died on or about the 7th day of March 1815), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before Sir John Simeon, Bart. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.
