WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting certain goods imported into Great Britain, to be secured in warehouse without payment of duty," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees, of any goods, wares, or merchandise enumerated or described in the table hereunto annexed marked (C), and which shall be legally imported or brought into the port of London, to land any such goods without payment at the time of the first entry of such goods, wares, and merchandise, of the duties of Customs due on the importation thereof; and such goods may be lodged and secured at or in such places, and under such rules, regulations, and restrictions as the Commissioners of the Customs in England, or any four or more of them, shall approve and direct, upon the said importer, proprietor, or consignee entering into bond to His Majesty, his heirs, and successors, with one sufficient surety, to be approved of by the Collector and Comptroller of the Customs of the said port of London, in double the amount of the full duties due and payable on the importation of such goods, wares, and merchandise, with condition that such goods, wares, and merchandise shall be either duly exported in the manner and under such rules, regulations, and restrictions, so far as the same are applicable thereto, as by this Act are directed in respect of goods, wares, or merchandise secured in warehouses as aforesaid, and exported directly from thence, or that the full duties due and payable on the importation of such goods, wares, or merchandise shall be paid to the Collector, or other proper Officer of the Customs, within the space of twelve months from the date of the first entry of such goods; and it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them, shall deem it expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to any goods, wares, and merchandise not enumerated or described in either of the tables annexed thereto, and shall cause a list of such goods, wares, and merchandise to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend, and be construed to extend, to such goods, wares, and merchandise, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said tables respectively, at the time of passing the said Act:

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the powers vested in us in and by the said Act, do hereby declare, that it appears to us expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to the article of legally imported or brought into the port of London (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies); and that such rape seed should be added to the list of goods, wares, and merchandise enumerated and described in the table annexed to the said recited Act marked (C); and that such rape seed should be lodged and secured at or in such places as the Commissioners of the Customs in England, or any four or more of them, shall approve and direct, under the regulations and directions of the said Act: and we do further declare, that from and after the publication of this our certificate in the London Gazette, conformable to the directions of the said Act, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend, and be construed to extend, to all such rape seed in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the table annexed to the said Act marked (C), at the time of the passing the same Act.

Whitehall, April 4, 1818.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that in the night of Thursday the 19th of March last an atrocious robbery was committed upon Richard Savory, the lock-keeper and collector of the City's tolls, at Teddington lock, by three men (from their language and manner supposed to be barge-men of the lowest class) who entered the toll-house, situate in the hamlet of Ham and Hatch, in the county of Surrey, one of them having previously induced him, under a false pretence, to open the door, violently beat and ill-treated him, and stole, took, and carried away about £17. in Bank notes and silver;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the atrocious act above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.
