Lord Chamberlain's Office, April 11, 1818.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room at the Queen's-Palace, on Thursday the 23d instant, at two o'clock, to celebrate His Royal Highness the Prince Regent's birth-day.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 6th of April 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, cap. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend training, and to regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewartry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewartry or stewartries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia, to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas it is deemed expedient that such training and exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended, and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

Chetwynd.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Serene Highness Leopold George Frederick, Prince of Saxe Cobourg.

WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Monmouth, at the County Meeting assembled, most humbly solicit your Serene Highness to accept our sincere condolence on the loss of a Princess, who was dear to England as to yourself; and we regret that this universal sentiment of sorrow cannot be conveyed to your Serene Highness without adding to those poignant feelings which pervade your breast.

We will forbear to enumerate those perfections which our lamented Princess possessed, and which so eminently qualified her for the exalted station we had fondly hoped she was doomed to fill; but England knew them.

That your Serene Highness may be restored to that composure of mind, and be enabled to bear the heavy misfortune with which it has pleased Providence to afflict you, is the fervent hope of His Majesty's most loyal and attached people.

In the name and on the behalf of the Meeting,

Robert Thompson, Sheriff and Chairman.

[Transmitted by the High Sheriff, and presented by Sir Robert Gardiner.]

To His Serene Highness the Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

May it please your Highness,

WE, the Mayor, Deputy Recorder, Magistrates, Aldermen, Freemen, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Dumbleton, otherwise Launceston, in the County of Cornwall, beg leave with feelings of the deepest sorrow to approach your Serene Highness, offering our sincere condolence on the death of your amiable and illustrious consort, the Princess Charlotte Augusta of Wales, and your royal son.

In her death the nation has been deprived of a splendid example of public and private worth.
