SATURDAY, APRIL 25, 1818.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 6th of April 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, cap. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend training, and to regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewartry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewartry or stewartries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia, to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas it is deemed expedient that such training and exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended, and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

Chetwynd.

THE following Address has been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Address His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgesses, Recorder, and Town Clerk, of the Borough of New Windsor, in the County of Berks, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and affectionate subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgesses, Recorder, and Town Clerk, of the Borough of New Windsor, beg to offer our warmest congratulations to your Royal Highness, on the nuptials of your Royal sister the Princess Elizabeth, with His Serene Highness the Hereditary Prince of Hesse Hombourg.

Every event that can add to the felicity of your Royal Highness is a source of unceasing satisfaction to us—we contemplate with pleasure the happiness this alliance will produce to your Royal Highness and your august Family, and we participate in the joy excited by the union of Her Royal Highness with a Prince, whose character and renown stands so conspicuously recorded in the page of history for his martial and valorous exploits.

We are most anxious to assure your Royal Highness, that we feel a lively interest in this auspicious union, because we consider that it will conduce to the happiness and welfare of your Royal House; at the same time we humbly entreat your Royal Highness to accept our unfeigned professions of the most unbounded duty, loyalty, and respect for your Royal Highness's Person and Government.

Chas. Knight, Mayor.
