To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the City of Norwich.

WE, His Majesty's loyal subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, in Common Council assembled, humbly beg leave to offer you our most hearty congratulations on the nuptials of your Royal Sister, the Princess Elizabeth, with His Serene Highness the Hereditary Prince of Hesse Hombourg.

We ardently hope that the many amiable qualities, and the ingratiating manners which have long endeared the Princess Elizabeth to her native country, will excite an uniform regard and affection in that of her illustrious consort, and be productive of mutual and permanent happiness.

Permit us to assure your Royal Highness of our constant wish and endeavour to promote the welfare and prosperity of this United Kingdom.

Given under the common seal of the said city, the 3d day of May, in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, and in the year of our Lord 1818.
