Whitehall, April 14, 1818

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, about one o'clock in the morning of Thursday the 2d instant, a stable, three lodges, and part of the dwelling-house belonging to Mr. Thomas Morgan, of the parish of Ightham, in the county of Kent, were feloniously set on fire, whereby the stable, with a horse in it, and the lodges were consumed, and the dwelling-house considerably damaged;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as before excepted) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid by Messrs. Reardon and Davis, Corbet-Court, Gracechurch-Street, London.

Whitehall, April 4, 1818.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that in the night of Thursday the 19th of March last an atrocious robbery was committed upon Richard Savory, the lock-keeper and collector of the City's tolls, at Teddington lock, by three men (from their language and manner supposed to be barge-men of the lowest class) who entered the toll-house, situate in the hamlet of Ham and Hatch, in the county of Surrey, one of them having previously induced him, under a false pretence, to open the door, violently beat and ill-treated him, and stole, took, and carried away about £17, in Bank notes and silver;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the atrocious act above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the Committee for Improving the Navigation of the River Thames, to any person or persons who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders to conviction, or cause them or any of them to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid. The said reward to be paid on such conviction, by Mr. Stephen Leach, Clerk of the Works, at the City Navigation Barge, near Kew-Bridge.

Whitehall, March 30, 1818.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that some evil-disposed persons did, on the 8th day of February last, assemble in the yard adjoining the dwelling-house of Mr. Dyball, at Edgefield, in the county of Norfolk, and after having proceeded to break the lower windows of the house, they fired a gun or pistol, loaded with slugs and shot, into the bed-room of the said Mr. Dyball;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired the said gun or pistol), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered, by the parish of Edgefield, to any person or persons (except as before excepted) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be ap-
