St. James's, June 10, 1818.

THIS day His Royal Highness the Prince Regent proceeded in state from St. James's Palace to the House of Lords, where he arrived at two o'clock; and, having alighted from the state coach, he was received at the portico by the Great Officers and others, and proceeded to the robing room in the usual manner; His Royal Highness was there robed, his hat on his head, and the procession moved into the house in the usual order.

His Royal Highness being seated on the throne, the Great Officers and others standing on the right and left, Sir Thomas Tyrwhitt, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a message from His Royal Highness to the House of Commons, commanding their attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Royal Highness, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, was pleased to give the Royal assent to

An Act for applying certain monies therein mentioned, for the service of the year one thousand eight hundred and eighteen:

An Act to continue for the term of two years, and until the end of the session of Parliament, in which that term shall expire, if Parliament shall be then sitting, an Act of the fifty-sixth year of His present Majesty, for establishing regulations respecting aliens arriving in or resident in this kingdom, in certain cases.

An Act to prevent aliens, until the twenty-fifth day of March one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, from becoming naturalized, or being made or becoming denizens, except in certain cases.

An Act to explain and amend an Act, passed in the fifty-first year of His Majesty's reign, for rendering more effectual an Act, made in the forty-seventh year of His Majesty's reign, for the abolition of the slave trade.

An Act to afford relief to the bonâ fide holders of negotiable securities, without notice that they were given for a usurious consideration.

An Act to continue, until the twenty-ninth day of September one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, and to amend an Act, passed in Ireland, in the thirty-sixth year of His present Majesty, for the improvement and extension of the fisheries on the coasts of Ireland.

An Act for appointing Commissioners to inquire concerning charities in England for the education of the poor.

An Act to consolidate and amend the provisions of several Acts, passed in the fifty-first and fifty-second years respectively of the reign of His present Majesty, for enabling wives and families of soldiers to return to their homes.

An Act to regulate the election of Coroners for counties.

An Act for altering and amending an Act made in the fifty-fifth year of His present Majesty, to amend an Act made in the forty-eighth year of His present Majesty, to improve the land revenue of the crown so far as relates to the great forest of Brecknock, in the county of Brecknock, and for vesting in His Majesty certain parts of the said forest, and for inclosing the said forest.

An Act for vesting in His Majesty certain parts of the hayes of Brickland and Billagh, and of certain commonable lands and open uninclosed grounds in the township of Edwinstowe, within the Forest of Sherwood, in the county of Nottingham.

An Act for building a chapel of ease in the township of Pendleton, and parish of Eccles, in the county palatine of Lancaster.

An Act for lighting with gas the town of Bright-helmstone, in the county of Sussex.

And one private Act.

After which His Royal Highness delivered the following most gracious speech to both Houses of Parliament:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

IT is with deep regret that I am again under the necessity of announcing to you, that no alteration
