

we humbly presume to declare, That we will lay our Lives at Your Majesties Feet, in the defence of Your Sacred Person and Authority, the Rights of Your Lawfull Successors, and the true Protestant Religion as it is Established by Law, against all Oppoblers of the same, without exception of any Quality, Principles, or Perswasions whatsoever.

And in a further justification of our Practices and Intentions, we take the boldness to subjoin this Protestation, That we reckon our selves concerned as English-men and Loyal Subjects, and even under the Character of Loyal Young Freemen and Apprentices of this Your Famous City of LONDON, with our Bloods, and utmost hazards, to assert this Monarchy, and the Rights of the Imperial Crown, in Detestation of that Rebellious Paper of ASSOCIATION that was produced at the Old-Baily in the Case of the Earl of SHAFTS-BURY, expressly purporting a design to Dethrone Your Sacred Majesty, and to set up a Traiterous number of our own Fellow-Subjects to Rule over us.

May God Preserve Your Majesty, Your Royal Family, the Church, and the Laws, and Bleis the Parties to this Address no longer than, while they make good every Title of this Declaration, Signed by about 12000 Hands.

Whitehal, July 13. The Ambassadors from the King of Bantam having taken their leave of His Majesty, (who gave them His Letter to their Master with His own hand) did both of them receive the Honour of Knighthood, and each of them the Sword wherewith it was conferred, and Embroidred Belts, which were Buckled about them in His Majesties Presence: The next day they were conducted to Greenwich, where they went aboard the Cleveland Yacht, which carries them to Chatham, to see the Navy Royal, and from thence on board the Kempborne, an East-India-Man, of above 700 Tun, wherein they are to make their Voyage home.

Whitehal, July 14. This day the Ambassador from the Emperor of Morocco was conducted to take his Leave of the King, and to receive the Letter to his Master from His Majesties own hand, to whom he made many acknowledgments of the great Honours and Favours he had received during all his stay in England, but most especially now at his departure.

London, July 15. Yesterday the Common-Hall met, pursuant to the Adjournment made that day Sevensnight, where the Lord Mayor and Aldermen being come down to the Hustings, the following Order of His Majesty in Council was read.

At the Court at Whitehal, July 13. 1682.

Present

The Kings most Excellent Majesty, &c.

His Majesty having been informed by the Lord Mayor, and divers of the Aldermen of London, That the Disorders and Riots arisen in that City upon the day appointed for the Election of Sheriffs, have been chiefly occasioned by the Proceedings of the Common-Hall in an irregular way, contrary to what hath been anciently accustomed, His Majesty, by the Advice of His Council, hath thought fit, for the better keeping of the Peace of the City, to Direct, and hereby Require the Lord Mayor, to maintain and preserve intire the Ancient Customs of the City; and for the better doing thereof, to take effectual order, that at the Common-Hall to be held to morrow, all Proceedings be begun anew, and carried on in the usual manner, as they ought to have been upon the 24th of June last.

PHI. LLOYD.

This done, the Lord Mayor and the Aldermen withdrew, and the Honourable Dudley North Esq; Elected by my Lord Mayor, according to ancient Custom, to be one of the Sheriffs of the City of London and County of Middlesex for the year ensuing, was put up by the Common-Sergeant to be confirmed, which was done accordingly; and then Mr. Papillion, Mr. Dubois, and Mr. Box were likewise put up in order to the choice of the other Sheriff; and the Election not being able to be determined by the View, a Poll was demanded, which being Reported to my Lord Mayor in the usual form, his Lordship with the Court of Aldermen came down to the Hustings, and having first called out Mr. North to take upon him the Office of Sheriff, ordered a Poll, as was demanded, between the other three, which his Lordship afterwards Adjourned till this morning, that the Proceedings might be orderly and regular, and Right done to all Parties; and appointed the Common-Sergeant, the Town-Clerk, the two Secondaries, and the four Attorneys of the Mayors Court, the sworn Officers of the City, to take the Poll, which being taken and cast up in the presence of Mr. Ellis, and others appointed by the Sheriffs in behalf of Mr. Papillion and Mr. Dubois, Report thereof was made by the Common-Sergeant to the Lord Mayor and Aldermen, in the Mayors Court, according to ancient usage; and thereupon his Lordship and the Aldermen came down to the Hustings, and Declared the Election by majority of Voices to have fallen upon Mr. Box, who after Proclamation, was called out, to take upon him the Office of Sheriff. The other Proceedings, by way of Polling in another place, being contrary to the ancient Usages of the City, and without any Warrant or Authority from my Lord Mayor.

Mr. North and Mr. Box being thus declared Sheriffs for the year ensuing, the Common-Hall was Dissolved, and my Lord Mayor returned to his House, accompanied with the Aldermen, and several hundred of the most eminent and substantial Citizens.

Advertisements.

☞ The Works of St. Cyprian, with Annotations and Various Readings of MSS. likewise the Tracts of several later Writers, commonly attributed to him, and usually Printed with his Works; with divers added, never before Published: as also the Life of Cyprian lately written by the Right Reverend Father in God John Lord Bishop of Chester, in a large Folio. Price to Subscribers, 15s.

☞ The Harmonics of Ptolemy Greek and Latine, with the Version and Notes of the Reverend Dr. John Wallis Savilian Professor of Geometry in the University of Oxford, never before Published: In Quarto, so Printed as to suit with the Authors put forth by Meibomius. Price to Subscribers 3s. 6d.

☞ The Treatise of John Scotus Erigena, de Divina Nature, and the Scholia of Maximus upon select passages in Greg. Nazianzen Greek and Latine, with the various Readings of MSS. and version of the Reverend Dr. T. Gale, Doctor in Divinity, never before Published, in Folio. Price to Subscribers 5s.

These being finish'd at the Theater-Press in Oxford, this notice is given thereof, that Justice may be done to the Subscribers for the said Editions: and they who expect the said Books, or any of them, are desired within three Weeks after the date hereof, to signify to Mr. Richard King at the Theatre aforesaid their claim and pretension, as also the name of the Friend or Agent who is employed to receive and pay for their Book or Books: it being resolv'd that Copies shall not be dispos'd of during the Time prefixt. The said persons are desired within three Weeks following those first assign'd, actually to receive their Books; which shall be deliver'd by the Warehouse-keeper upon the sight of a Ticket under the hand of the said Mr. Richard King, attesting the said person to be either a Subscriber or employ'd in the behalf of one. After the whole prefixt term of six Weeks is elapsed, the Undertakers for the Press will think themselves free to dispose of the said Books as they shall find occasion, without farther consideration of Subscribers. They who according to the Proposition made about a year since, take upon them the care of disposing Books to others, shall upon signification of their pleasure therein, have their Books sent whithersoever any Carrier goes from this place, without their trouble or expence JULY 7. 1682.

Lost on the 15th Instant at Night, out of Thomas Farrels Ground, near Finchley Church, two brown bay Coach Geldings, about 16 hands high, the one having a star in his Forehead, a little swelling behind upon his Rump, the off Foot behind a little white; the other has a little star upon his Forehead, and has lost one of his Teeth; being both had Tail'd Whoever gives notice of the said Geldings to Mr. Allan of Finchley in Middlesex, or to Mr. Price, a Merchant in Sherborn Lane, London, shall be very well Rewarded.

Printed by Tho. Newcomb in the Savoy, 1682.