Carlton-House, July 27, 1818.

Mayor, Aldermen, Recorder, Sheriffs, Common Council, and Officers of the City of London, waited upon the Prince Regent with the following Address; which was read by Sir John Silvester, Bart, the Recorder:

To His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble and loyal Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, humbly approach your Royal Highness with unfeigned congratulations on the recent marriages of your Royal Brothers, the Duke of Clarence with the Princess of Saxe Meiningen, eldest daughter of the late reigning Duke of Saxe Meiningen, and the Duke of Kent with the Princess of Leiningen, consort of the late Prince of Leiningen, sister of the reigning Duke of Saxe Cobourg, and of His Royal Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

We rejoice in every occurrence which strengthens our reliance in the preservation and continuance of the inestimable blessings we enjoy under the auspicious Government of the House of Brunswick; and we confidently hope and trust, that these happy alliances will increase the firm and loyal attachment of the people of these realms to His Majesty's Crown and Government; and that your Royal Highness will derive much additional felicity from these propitious events.

Signed, by order of Court,

Henry Woodthorpe.

To which Address His Royal Highness was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

1 thank you for your loyal and dutiful Address, Adelaide of Saxe Meiningen.

"It is highly satisfactory to me to receive this testimony of your sentiments on an occasion so interesting to me and my family, and so important to the nation."

They were all received very graciously, and had the honour of kissing the hand of His Royal Highness.

Clarence-House, July 27, 1818.

THIS day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Recorder, Sheriffs, Common Council, and Officers of the City of London, waited upon the Duke of Clarence with the following compliments of congratulation; which were read by Sir John Silvester, Bart, the Recorder:

To His Royal Highness the Duke of Clarence.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, have great pleasure in attending your Royal Highness with our unfeigned congratulations on your marriage with the Princess of Saxe Mciningen, eldest daughter of the late reigning Duke of Saxe Meiningen.

On all occasions we are most happy to shew our firm and loyal attachment to the illustrious House of Brunswick, and we are much gratified in testifying the lively satisfaction we feel at the union of your Royal Highness with this amiable Princess.

We confidently hope that uninterrupted felicity to your Royal Highness and your royal consort will be derived from this auspicious alliance.

Signed, by order of Court,

Henry Woodthorpe.

To which compliments of congratulation His Royal Highness was pleased to return the following answer:

" My Lord and Gentlemen,

"I receive with the highest pleasure your congratulations on my marriage with the Princess Adelaide of Saxe Meiningen.

. " I consider the satisfaction you express at my union with this truly amiable Princess, an additional proof of your firm and loyal attachment to His Mujesty's family.

I look forward with perfect confidence that my union with the Duchess will be the source of uninterrupted happiness to us both."

" William."

HIS day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Recorder, Sheriffs, Common Council, and Officers of the City of London, waited upon the Duchess of Clarence, with the following compliments of congratulation; which were read by Sir John Silvester, Bart, the Recorder:

To Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Clarence.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, beg leave to congratulate your Royal Highness on your marriage with His Royal Highness the Duke of Clarence.

Long may your Royal Highness enjoy the advantages of an union which we earnestly hope will tend to secure to our latest posterity a continuation of those blessings which we have so long enjoyed under the rule of the illustrious House of Brunswick.

Signed, by order of Court,

Henry Woodthorpe.

To which compliments of congratulation Her Royal Highness was pleased to return the following answer:

" My Lord and Gentlemen,

I return you my sincere thanks for your congratulations on my marriage, and trust our union may be productive of every advantage to the interests of Great Britain, and to our mutual hap-

Kensington-Palace, July 27, 1818.

HIS day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Recorder, Sheriffs, Common-Council, and Officers of the City of London, waited upon the Duke of Kent with the following compliments of congratulation, which were read by Sir John Silvester, Bart, the Recorder:

To His Royal Highness the Duke of Kent.

Moy it please your Royal Highness, WE, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, beg leave to congratulate your Royal Highness on your marriage with the Princess Leiningen, consort of the late Prince of Leiningen, sister of the reigning Duke of Saxe Cobourg and of His Royal Highness Prince Leopold of Saxe Cobourg.

Happy as we are to embrace every opportunity to shew our loyalty and attachment to the illustrious House of Brunswick, we feel great pleasure in testifying our joy at the union of your Royal Highness with a Princess, the sister of Prince Leopold, whose distinguished merit has obtained him a large share in the affections of the people of England. At the same time we recollect that your Royal Highness has been graciously pleased to accept the freedom of the City of London, and to exert yourself in promoting numerous objects of benevolence throughout the United Kingdom, and especially within this City, adding thereby to the lustre of your high birth, and meriting the sincere regard of the citizens of London.

And we most ardently wish that so auspicious an alliance may long be a source of uninterrupted. felicity to your Royal Highness and your Royal Signed, by order of Court, Consort.

Henry Woodthorpe.

To which compliments of congratulation His Royal Highness was pleased to return the following answer:

" My Lord, and Gentlemen,

" I request your acceptance of my most grateful acknowledgments for the notice you have taken of my recent marriage, and that you will be assured I particularly appreciate the manner in which you have thought proper to allude to my illustrious Brother-in-law, Prince Leopold, of whom it is most flattering to me to perceive so favourable an opinion is entertained. With respect to myself, as you have had the kindness to advert to the honour conferred upon me by the vote of the freedom of the City of London, as also to those exertions which I have been enabled to make in support of various charities that form the brightest ornament of this great metropolis, it becomes meto declare how proud I feel in having been thoughts worthy of the former, and that the allusion you have so obligingly made to the latter will prove an. additional stimulus to me to continue my best endeavours towards promoting the cause of bene-volence. And I now cannot take my leave of you without assuring you, that the good wishes you so warmly express for the future happiness of the Duchess and myself are most cordially reciprocated by us, as we must ever feel the liveliest interest in the welfare and prosperity of the City of London. " Edward, Duke of Kent."

Kensington-Palace, July 27, 1818.

HIS day the Right Honourable the Lords Mayor, the Aldermen, Recorder, Sheriffs, Common Council, and Officers of the City of London, waited upon the Duchess of Kent, with thefollowing compliments of congratulation; which, were read by Sir John Silvester, Bart, the Recorder :

To Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Kent.

May it please your Royal Highness, WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loval subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, beg leave to congratulate your Royal Highness on Royal Highness the Duke of Kent.

We feel the highest interest in this alliance with your Royal Highness, the sister of Prince Leopold, whose exemplary conduct has endeared him to the whole British people.

And we most sincerely wish this union of your Royal Highness with a Prince of the House of Brunswick, may be productive of the most lasting and uninterrupted felicity.

> Signed, by order of Court, Henry Woodthorpe.

To which compliments of congratulation Her Royal Highness was pleased to return the following

" My Lord Mayor and Gentlemen,

"I have to regret being as yet so little conversant with the English language, which obliges me to say in a very few words that I am most grateful for your congratulations and good wishes, and highly flattered by your allusion to my brother; may I only be as fortunate as him in meriting your attachment.

" Victoire Maria Louise, Duchess of Kent." They were all received very graciously, and had the honour of kissing the hand of Her Royal High-

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

- A PROCLAMATION,

For Declaring the Calling of a new Parliament.

GEORGE, P. R.

HEREAS We, acting in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, have thought fit, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to dissolve, and have, by such advice as aforesaid, this day dissolved, the Parliament begun and holden at Westminster the twenty-fourth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and twelve, in the fifty-third year of His Majesty's reign, and from thence continued, by several prorogations, to the twenty-seventh day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighteen, and which on the said twenty-seventh day of January was holden and sat, and continued sitting from thence until and upon this tenth day of June, when it was by Us dissolved as aforesaid: And We being desirous and resolved, as soon as may be, to meet His Majesty's people, and to have their advice in Parliament, do hereby make known to all His Majesty's loving subjects Our will and pleasure to call a new Parliament; and do hereby further declare, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, that, with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, We have this day given order that the Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, and the Chancellor of Ireland, do respectively forthwith issue out writs, in due form and according to law, the happy occasion of your marriage with His | for calling a new Parliament : And We do hereby also, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty. by this Proclamation under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, require writs forthwith to be issued accordingly by the said Chancellors respectively, for causing the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons who are to serve in the said Parliament, to be returned to, and give their attendance in, the said Parliament; which writs are to be returnable on Tuesday the fourth day of August next.

> Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the tenth day of June one thousand eight hundred and eighteen, and in the fifty-eighth year of His Majesty's reign.
