SATURDAY, AUGUST 1, 1818.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION,

For Declaring the Calling of a new Parliament.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS We, acting in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, have thought fit, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to dissolve, and have, by such advice as aforesaid, this day dissolved, the Parliament begun and holden at Westminster the twenty-fourth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and twelve, in the fifty-third year of His Majesty's reign, and from thence continued, by several prorogations, to the twenty-seventh day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighteen, and which on the said twenty-seventh day of January was holden and sat, and continued sitting from thence until and upon this tenth day of June, when it was by Us dissolved as aforesaid: And We being desirous and resolved, as soon as may be, to meet His Majesty's people, and to have their advice in Parliament, do hereby make known to all His Majesty's loving subjects Our will and pleasure to call a new Parliament; and do hereby further declare, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, that, with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, We have this day given order that the Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, and the Chancellor of Ireland, do respectively forthwith issue out writs, in due form and according to law, for calling a new Parliament: And We do hereby also, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, by this Proclamation under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, require writs forthwith to be issued accordingly by the said Chancellors respectively, for causing the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons who are to serve in the said Parliament, to be returned to, and give their attendance in, the said Parliament; which writs are to be returnable on Tuesday the fourth day of August next.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the tenth day of June one thousand eight hundred and eighteen, and in the fifty-eighth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 27th of May 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to allow for three years, and until six weeks after the commencement of the then next session of Parliament, the importation into ports specially appointed by His Majesty within the provinces of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, of the articles therein enumerated, and the re-exportation thereof from such ports," it is enacted, that it shall and may be lawful, in any British-built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to import into, and export from, such ports within the provinces of Nova Scotia or New Brunswick, as shall be specially appointed for that purpose, certain articles in the said Act enumerated, any thing in any law to the contrary notwithstanding; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, by virtue of the powers vested in His Majesty by the above-recited Act, is pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this Order, and during the continuance of the Act above recited, until further order made thereon, it shall be lawful, in any British-built ship or vessel, owned and navi-
