

Notice is hereby given, that the Partnership lately carried on and subsisting between Joseph Barney and Nathaniel Bevins, of Wolverhampton, in the County of Stafford, Tin-Plate-Workers and Japanners, under the firm of Barney and Bevins, was dissolved on the 26th day of July last past by mutual consent; and that the said business in future will be carried on by the said Nathaniel Bevins, who will discharge all debts and demands due and owing by the said Partnership.—Witness our hands this 11th day of August 1818.

*Joseph Barney.
Nathaniel Bevins.*

WE, Richard Walter, of Denham, near Uxbridge, Edward Vaisey, of Grove, near Marlborough, Algernon Brown, of Monkton, near Marlborough, having for seven years been joint traders as Farmers, Dealers and Chapmen, do hereby by mutual consent dissolve the Partnership existing between us; and all debts due to the estate, or from the estate, are hereby agreed to be discharged by Algernon Brown, who from this time conducts the concern for his own separate use and advantage.

*Richard Walter.
Edward Vaisey.
Algernon Brown.*

MISS TEMPLE'S CREDITORS.

ALL persons who have any demand upon Miss Temple, late of Northwood-Place, Beccles, in the County of Suffolk, are requested to transmit an account thereof, with the nature of their securities (if any), to Messrs. Withers, Solicitors, Hoit, postage paid.

22, Norfolk-Street, Strand, London,
August 13, 1818.

ALL persons who have any just demand against George Brydges Thomas Rodney, Esq. late a Lieutenant in the Royal Navy (and who is supposed to have died in the service of the Allied Powers at the battle of Leipzig, in July 1813, are desired to give an account thereof, and make claim thereto, to me, in writing, before the 30th of September next ensuing, preparatory to closing an account of his personal property.

F. M. OMMANNEY, Executor.

I ROBERT OLDHAM, of the City of Chester, Inn-keeper, being the eldest son, and heir at law, and devisee in fee, and sole executor, [under the will of the late Lienesley Oldham, of the City of Chester, Gentleman, who was the heir at law, and residuary devisee, and legatee, of the real and personal estate of the late Mrs. Mary Done, of the said City; Widow, after the payment of funeral expenses, debts by special and simple contract, and of the legacies, by her bequeathed, by her last will and testament, bearing date on or about the 24th day of June 1797 (duly proved in the Ecclesiastical Court of the Bishop of Chester), by which, her said will, she appointed John Wilbraham, of the City of Chester, Gentleman, who was up to the time of the death of the said Mary Done her attorney, and the said Lienesley Oldham, and their heirs and assigns, and the survivor, and his heirs and assigns, the trustees and executors of her real and personal estate.—And whereas the said John Wilbraham, survived the said Lienesley Oldham, and became the sole trustee and executor of the said Mary Done's real and personal estate for the purposes aforesaid.—And whereas the said John Wilbraham lately departed this life, and by his last will and testament hath appointed the Rev. — Johnson and Thomas Sudworth, Gentleman, the trustees and executors of the said will.—I, Robert Oldham, do hereby give notice to all persons having any demand on the estate of the late Mary Done, or upon the estate of my late father Lienesley Oldham, or upon me Robert Oldham, to personally appear at the Pied Bull Inn, in the City of Chester, on Tuesday the 29th day of September 1818, at the hour of Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon, and come prepared with their respective accounts, and then and there lay the same before John Hawkey Ackerley, Esq. Barrister at Law, for his inspection and approval if found correct.—And such of the debts, as are established to the satisfaction of the said John Hawkey Ackerley, will be immediately discharged by me Robert Oldham.—And all those who stand indebted to the before-mentioned estates, and to Robert Oldham, are also hereby required by me to attend at the above place and hour.

ROBERT OLDHAM.

ESTATES, COAL; and IRON WORKS, at and near BILLINGSLEY, SHROPSHIRE.

To be sold by auction, before the major part of the Commissioners in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued against George Stokes, late of Oldswinford, in the County of Worcester, Iron-Master, pursuant to an Order of the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, at the Talbot Inn, in Stourbridge, in the said County of Worcester, on Friday the 11th day of September 1818, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, in the following or such other lots as the said Commissioners shall direct, and subject to such conditions as shall be then produced:

Lot 1. All those sixteen workmens' dwelling houses and gardens, with the barn and appurtenances thereto belonging, and sundry pieces of land, called New England, in the Parish of Higley, containing by estimation 28A. 1R. 1P. or thereabouts, (more or less,) now or late in the occupation of Mr. Wm. Sheel and the Billingsley Company, their tenants or under tenants.

Lot 2. A freehold messuage or tenement, with the out-buildings, and several pieces or parcels of good arable and pasture land thereunto belonging, called Scotts, situate in the Parish of Stotherton, otherwise Stottesdon, in the said County of Salop, containing by estimation 46A. or thereabouts, now or late in the occupation of Mr. Thomas Rigby, or his under tenants.

Lot 3. The materials of two blast furnaces and one air furnace.

Lot 4. The materials of one blast engine, working cylinder fifty-six inches diameter, with an extra piston, two boilers, cast metal beam, pipe, and other appurtenances.

Lot 5. The materials of two double and one single horse gins.

Lot 6. The materials of one newly erected dwelling-house, with a stable, piggery and other appurtenances, in the occupation of ——— Stokes.

Lot 7. The materials of two bridge-houses.

Lot 8. The materials of two casting-houses.

Lot 9. The materials of three warehouses and houses adjoining.

Lot 10. The materials of one carpenters' shop.

Lot 11. The materials of one blacksmiths' shop and office.

Lot 12. The materials of twenty-four workmens' houses, stone.

Lot 13. The Materials of sixteen workmens' houses, brick.

Lot 14. The materials of four workmens' houses.

Lot 15. A quantity of railway waggons.

Lot 16. A quantity of common bricks in the brick yard.

Lot 17. A quantity of fire clay bricks in casting-house.

Lot 18. About one thousand tons of red iron-stone, now lying on the banks of the river Severn.

Lot 19. Iron castings at the inclined Plane.

The above estates are well situated about 7 miles from Bridgnorth, 6 miles from Bewdley and Cleobury Mortimer, and 4 miles from the river Severn.

Mr. Rigby at the Scotts will shew the whole, and any further information may be had from him, or on application to Mr. Robins, Solicitor, in Stourbridge aforesaid: to Mr. Fisher, Solicitor, or to Mr. Brookes, Solicitor, both of Newport, Shropshire.

To be peremptorily sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Lechmere against Brasier, on Saturday the 24th day of October next, at Four of the Clock in the Afternoon, before Thomas Drake, Gentleman, the person appointed by John Campbell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the George Inn, in Droitwich, in the County of Worcester, in three distinct lots;

The estates of Samuel Brasier, late of Crowle, in the said County of Worcester, Farmer, Grazier, and Dealer in Cattle, deceased; consisting of a capital messuage and farm, called Upper Perry's, situate in the Parish of Dodderhill, in the said County of Worcester, with the barns, stables, and other out-buildings, and three tenements or cottages contiguous thereto, and 92A. 2R. 23P. or thereabouts, of rich arable, meadow, and pasture land, now in the possession of Mrs. Ann Brasier, widow.

Also one moiety or half-part of the titles of corn, grain, and hay, arising from the whole of the said estate, except about 16 acres.

The whole of the above premises are freehold of inheritance, except about 36 acres, which are leasehold, for the remainder of long terms of years.