SATURDAY, AUGUST 29, 1818.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 3d of August 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, that the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, do issue writs for proroguing the Parliament, which was appointed to meet on Tuesday the fourth day of this instant August, to Friday the second day of October next; and also for proroguing the Convocations of Canterbury and York, which were appointed to meet on Wednesday the fifth day of this instant August, to Saturday the third day of October next.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 3d of August 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the forty-ninth year of His present Majesty's reign, chap. 25, intituled "An Act to permit, until the twenty-fifth day of March one thousand eight hundred and eleven, the importation of tobacco into Great Britain from any place whatever," and which has been revived and continued by subsequent Acts, until the twenty-fifth day of March one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, it is enacted, that it shall and may be lawful, by Order in Council, to permit the importation into Great Britain (as provided in the said Act) of unmanufactured tobacco, being the produce of the East Indies, or of any of the Spanish or Portuguese colonies or plantations in South America, packed in any sort of packages whatsoever, upon such conditions, and under such regulations and restrictions as shall be imposed and provided in any such Order; and whereas it is expedient to allow, until the twenty-fifth day of March next, the importation into Great Britain of unmanufactured tobacco, being the produce of the East Indies, according to the provisions in the said Act contained, in such packages, and under and subject to such regulations and restrictions as are hereinafter mentioned; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, is therefore pleased, in pursuance of the said Act, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the third day of this instant August, and until the twenty-fifth day of March next, any unmanufactured tobacco, being the produce of the East Indies, which shall be imported from any of the British territories or possessions in the East Indies, according to the provisions in the said Act contained, in any British ship or vessel, armed, navigated, and registered according to law, into any of the ports of Great Britain where tobacco can now by law be imported, may be imported and brought, packed in legal packages, or packed in bags or packages within any hogshead, cask, chest, or case, provided every such hogshead, cask, chest, or case does not weigh less than one hundred pounds net; and provided that the master, or other person having the charge or command of the ship or vessel importing the said tobacco, shall have on board a manifest or manifests, content or contents, in writing, made out and signed by such master or other person, in the same manner as is directed by an Act, passed in the fifty-fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty, cap. 36, intituled "An Act to repeal the duties of Customs payable on goods, wares, and merchandises imported into Great Britain from any port or place within the limits of the charter granted to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, and to grant other duties in lieu thereof, and to establish further regulations for the better security of the revenue on goods so imported, and to alter the periods

“ of making up and presenting certain accounts “ of the said Company to Parliament; to con“ tinue in force until the tenth day of April one “ thousand eight hundred and nineteen:” And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly. Chetwynd.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 27th
of May 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled “ An Act “ to allow for three years, and until six weeks “ after the commencement of the then next ses“ sion of Parliament, the importation into ports “ specially appointed by His Majesty within the “ provinces of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, “ of the articles therein enumerated, and the re-“ exportation thereof from such ports,” it is enacted, that it shall and may be lawful, in any British-built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to import into, and export from, such ports within the provinces of Nova Scotia or New Brunswick, as shall be specially appointed for that purpose, certain articles in the said Act enumerated, any thing in any law to the contrary notwithstanding; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, by virtue of the powers vested in His Majesty by the above-recited Act, is pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty’s Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this Order, and during the continuance of the Act above recited, until further order made thereon, it shall be lawful, in any British-built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to import into the port of Halifax, in Nova Scotia, and the port of Saint John, in New Brunswick, any scantling, planks, staves, heading-boards, shingles, hoops, horses, neat cattle, sheep, hogs, poultry, or live stock of any sort, bread, biscuit, flour, peas, beans, potatoes, wheat, rice, oats, barley, or grain of any sort, pitch, tar, turpentine, fruits, seeds, and tobacco; provided that such articles shall, in all cases where the same shall be imported in foreign vessels, be of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the country to which the vessels importing the same shall belong; and that it shall be lawful, in any British-built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, to export from the said ports any of the said articles either to the United Kingdom or to any other of His Majesty’s possessions:

And it is hereby further ordered, that it shall and may be lawful, in any British-built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to export from the ports of Halifax, in Nova Scotia, and Saint John, in New Brunswick, any gypsum, grind-stones, or other produce or manufacture of the said provinces, and also any produce or manufacture of the United Kingdom, or of His Majesty’s colonies or plantations in the West Indies, or any goods whatever, which shall have been legally imported into the said provinces; provided that none of the said articles shall be exported from the ports above-named, to any foreign country or place, in any foreign vessel, unless such foreign vessel shall belong to the country to which the said articles shall be exported:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty’s Treasury, and the Lords-Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 13th
of May 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the tenth of October last, for prohibiting the exportation of gunpowder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant May;
and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty’s Privy Council, doth, therefore, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty’s service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth of this instant May), presume to transport any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty’s territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America, (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt-petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 30th day of December 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for regulating the trade between the subjects of His Majesty's colonies and plantations in North America and in the West India Islands and the countries belonging to the United States of America, and between His Majesty's said subjects and the Foreign Islands in the West Indies," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty in Council, by Order or Orders to be issued and published from time to time, to authorise, or by Warrant or Warrants under His sign manual, to empower the Governor of Newfoundland for the time being, to authorise, in case of necessity, the importation into Newfoundland of bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, from any of the territories belonging to the said United States, for the supply of the inhabitants and fishermen of the Island of Newfoundland, for the then ensuing season only; provided always, that such bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, so authorised to be imported into the Island of Newfoundland, shall not be imported except in conformity to such rules, regulations, and restrictions as shall be specified in such Order or Orders, Warrant or Warrants respectively, and except by British subjects, and in British-built ships, owned by His Majesty's subjects, and navigated according to law:

And whereas it is expedient and necessary, that provision be made for fully supplying the inhabitants and fishermen of the Island of Newfoundland, for the ensuing season, with bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, His Royal Highness the Prince Regent doth thereupon, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, hereby order and declare, that for the supply of the inhabitants and fishermen of the Island of Newfoundland, for the ensuing season only, bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, may be imported into the said island from any of the territories belonging to the said United States, by British subjects, and in British-built ships, owned by His Majesty's subjects, and navigated according to law, and which within the space of nine months previous to the time of such importation, have cleared out from some port of the United Kingdom of Great Britain or Ireland, or other His Majesty's dominions in Europe, for which purpose a licence shall have been granted by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England or Scotland, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Revenue in Ireland, or any other person or persons who may be duly authorised in that kingdom respectively, in the manner and form herein-after mentioned; which licence shall continue and be in force for nine calendar months from the day of the date upon which such licence is respectively granted, and no longer; provided that no such licence as aforesaid, granted after the thirtieth day of September next, shall be of any force or effect: and His Royal Highness is hereby further pleased to order, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that the master or person having the charge or command of any ship or vessel to whom such licence shall be granted, shall, upon the arrival of the said ship or vessel at the port, harbour, or place in the said Island of Newfoundland where he shall discharge such bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, deliver up the said licence to the Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs there, having first indorsed on the back of such licence the marks, numbers, and contents of each package of bread, flour, Indian corn, and the number of live stock, under the penalty of the forfeiture in the said Act mentioned; and the Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs at Newfoundland, is hereby enjoined and required to give a certificate to the master or person having the charge or command of such ship or vessel, of his having received the said licence so indorsed as before directed, and to transmit the same to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England or Scotland, or to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Revenue in Ireland respectively, by whom such licence was granted. Chetwynd.

FORM OF LICENCE.

By the Commissioners for managing and causing to be levied and collected His Majesty's Customs, Subsidies, and other Duties in [where]

WHEREAS [the name of the person] one of His Majesty's subjects, residing at [place where] hath given notice to us the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs [in Great Britain, or Revenue in Ireland] that he intends to lade at [some port of the United States of America] and import into [some port of Newfoundland] in the [ship's name] being a British-built ship [describing the tonnage and what sort of vessel] navigated according to law, whereof [master's name] is master, bound to [where]; and it appearing by the register of the said ship [ship's name] whereof [master's name] is master, that the said ship, the [ship's name] was built at [place where] and owned by [owner's name] residing at [place where] all His Majesty's British subjects, and that no foreigner, directly or indirectly, hath any share, part, or interest therein.

Now be it known, that the said [person's name] hath a licence to lade on board the said ship, [ship's name] at and from any port or place belonging to the United States of America, bread, flour, Indian corn, or live stock, the produce of the said United States, and no other article whatever; and to carry the said bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, to some port or place in the Island of Newfoundland; and on the arrival of the said ship at any port, harbour, or place of discharge in Newfoundland, the master or person having the charge or command of the said ship, is required and enjoined to deliver up the said licence to the Collector or other proper Officer of His Majesty's Customs there, and to indorse on the back thereof the marks, numbers, and contents of each package of bread, flour, Indian corn, and the number of live stock, and shall thereupon receive a certificate thereof from the said Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs.

This licence to continue in force for calendar months from the date hereof.

Signed by us the _____ at the _____ this day of _____ one thousand eight hundred and _____ Licence to import bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, into the Island of Newfoundland.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, August 28, 1818.

The Lord Chamberlain has appointed George Frederick Albert, Esq. to be Surgeon Extraordinary to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent.

Commission in the Stockport Troop of Prince Regent's Regiment of Cheshire Yeomanry Cavalry, signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Chester.

John Howard, Gent. to be Cornet, vice Henry Edward Howard, promoted. Dated 17th August 1818.

Whitehall, August 25, 1818.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, in the night of Sunday the 26th day of July last, the mills and manufactory called the New Mills, near Witney, in the county of Oxford, were destroyed by fire, and that there is reason to suppose the same were wilfully and maliciously set on fire;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set the said mills on fire) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as before excepted) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by Mr. Charles Leake, Attorney at Law, Witney.

Whitehall, August 8, 1818.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on Sunday morning last, about five o'clock, Ely Cox, gamekeeper to James Tessier, Esq. at Woodcot-Park, Epsom, Surrey, was most inhumanly murdered in the said park by some person or persons at present unknown;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said murder, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually committed the same) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person making such discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted), or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted thereof. The said reward to be paid by Mr. John Everest, Clerk to the Bench of Magistrates at Epsom.

Whitehall, June 23, 1818.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on Tuesday the 26th and Saturday the 30th days of May last, the woods belonging to Sir Thomas Edward Winnington, Bart. in the manor of Bewdley, in the county of Worcester, called the Yard Coppice and Hitterell Coppice, were maliciously set on fire;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said woods), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, the following rewards are hereby offered to any person or persons (except as before excepted) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence, viz.

The sum of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be paid by Mr. Bury, Solicitor, in Bewdley; and

The like sum of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be paid by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods and Forests.

Whitehall, May 9, 1818.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that for some time past great dissensions have prevailed, and turbulent meetings have been held in the parish of Melcombe Regis, in the county of Dorset, respecting the election of a Mr. Mayne to be Lecturer in the Church of the said parish; and that on Sunday the 19th day of April last, a letter signed, "A Friend to the Church Rites," was addressed to the Rev. Thomas Deason, threatening death to the Rev. Thomas Wyndham, L. L. D. Rector of the said parish, if the said Mr. Mayne were not permitted to perform the evening service;

For the purpose of upholding the said Rector in the exercise of his undoubted rights, and of marking with the severest censure, dissensions so contrary to all true sense of Religion, and so subversive of Church discipline, and for bringing the author of the said letter to condign punishment, His Royal Highness is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any person privy to the writing or sending the said letter, who shall discover the person or persons who actually wrote and sent the same, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And as a further encouragement a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by the said Rev. Thomas Wyndham, L. L. D. Rector of the said parish, to any person who shall give such information as shall lead to the conviction of the person or persons guilty of writing and sending the said letter.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting certain goods imported into Great Britain, to be secured in warehouse without payment of duty," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees, of any goods, wares, or merchandise enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed marked (C), which shall be legally imported or brought into the port of London, to land any such goods without payment at the time of the first entry of such goods, wares, and merchandise, of the duties of Customs due on the importation thereof; and such goods may be lodged and secured at or in such places, and under such rules, regulations, and restrictions as the Commissioners of the Customs in England, or any four or more of them, shall approve and direct, upon the said importer, proprietor, or consignee entering into bond to His Majesty, his heirs, and successors, with one sufficient surety, to be approved of by the Collector and Comptroller of the Customs of the said port of London, in double the amount of the full duties due and payable on the importation of such goods, wares, and merchandise, with condition that such goods, wares, and merchandise shall be either duly exported in the manner and under such rules, regulations, and restrictions, so far as the same are applicable thereto, as by this Act are directed in respect of goods, wares, and merchandise secured in warehouses as aforesaid, and exported directly from thence, or that the full duties due and payable on the importation of such goods, wares, and merchandise shall be paid to the Collector, or other proper Officer of the Customs, within the space of twelve months from the date of the first entry of such goods; and it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them, shall deem it expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to any goods, wares, and merchandise not enumerated or described in either of the tables annexed thereto, and shall cause a list of such goods, wares, and merchandise to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend, and be construed to extend, to such goods, wares, and merchandise, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said tables respectively, at the time of passing the said Act:

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the powers vested in us in and by the said Act, do hereby declare, that it appears to us expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to the article of legally imported or brought into the port of London (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies); and that such foreign linseed should be added to the list of goods, wares, and merchandise enumerated and described in the table annexed to the said recited Act marked (C); and that such foreign linseed should be lodged and secured at or in such places as the Commissioners of the Customs in England, or any four or more of them, shall approve and direct, under the regulations and directions of the said Act: and we do further declare, that from and after the publication of this our certificate in the London Gazette, conformable to the directions of the said Act, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend, and be construed to extend, to all such foreign linseed in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the table annexed to the said Act marked (C), at the time of the passing of the same Act.

Arthur Woolf's Patents for his Invention of certain Improvements in Steam Engines.

Notice is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament in the ensuing session on behalf of Arthur Woolf, formerly of Wood-Street, Spa-Fields, in the county of Middlesex, but now of the parish of Camborne, in the county of Cornwall, engineer, for leave to bring in a Bill and obtain an Act, for prolonging the term of fourteen years granted to him by letters patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, bearing date the 2d day of July 1805; and by other letters patent under the seal appointed to be used instead of the Great seal of Scotland, bearing date the 23d day of October 1805, for his invention of certain improvements in steam engines, by which the temperature of the working cylinder or cylinders of a steam engine may be raised to any required degree, without admitting steam from the boiler, into a steam case or jacket; and means are provided for preventing steam of high temperature from escaping past the piston.—Dated this 21st of August 1818.

F. Abbott, Solicitor, Chancery-Lane.

Notice is hereby given, that the Commissioners for paving, cleansing, lighting, and watching the streets, lanes, passages, and places, within the east division of the town and borough of Southwark, and certain parts adjacent, in the county of Surrey, and for preventing annoyances therein, and also for opening, widening, and better regulating the same, intend to apply to Parliament in the next Session for an Act to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers of an Act passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for paying the streets and lanes within the town and borough of Southwark, and certain parts adjacent, in the county of Surrey, and for cleansing, lighting, and watching the same, and also the courts, yards, alleys, and passages adjoining thereto, and for preventing annoyances therein." And also of another Act passed in the eleventh year of the reign of His said Majesty, intituled "An Act to explain and amend so much of an Act of the sixth year of His present Majesty, for paving the town and borough of Southwark, in the county of Surrey, as relates to the Commissioners of Sewers, and for regulating the manner of taxing churches and other public buildings within the limits of the said Act." And also of another Act passed in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of His said Majesty, intituled "An Act for enabling the Commissioners for putting in execution an Act made in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, for paving the streets and lanes within the town and borough of Southwark, and certain parts adjacent in the county of Surrey, and for cleansing, lighting, and watching the same, and also the courts, yards, alleys, and passages adjoining thereto, and for preventing annoyances therein; to open, widen, and better regulate the several streets, lanes, and passages, within the east division in the said Act described." In which said bill provision is intended to be made for defining the boundaries of the said east division and parts adjacent, and other places comprised, or which ought to be comprised within the limits of the said Acts, and to or over which the jurisdiction of the said Commissioners, and the powers and provisions of the said Acts, with respect to the laying and levying of rates and otherwise, extend, or ought to extend; which east division and parts adjacent is or are situate in the several parishes of Saint Olave, Saint John, and Saint Thomas, in the borough of Southwark, and part of the parish of Saint Mary Magdalen, Bermondsey, in the county of Surrey.—17th August 1818.

ALL persons having claims on the estate of Richard Hanks, formerly of Ratcliffe-Cross, in the County of Middlesex, Timber-Merchant, and late of Brixton-Hill, in the County of Surrey, Esq. deceased, are hereby required to furnish the particulars thereof, without delay, to William Jackson, Fenchurch-Buildings, London, Solicitor to the Executors, that the same may be inspected and paid; and all persons who are indebted to the said estate are desired forthwith to pay the amount of their debts as above.

Kennet and Avon Canal Conveyance to and from London and Bristol.

London, July 14, 1818.

PARSONS, BETTES, and Co. return their acknowledgments for the favours they have received, and beg to apprise the public they have established Fly Barges, which leave Trig-Wharf, Upper Thames-Street, London, and Queen-Street-Wharf, Bristol, every Monday and Thursday, and will perform the passage in eight or ten days, and all intermediate places in proportionate time, unavoidable detentions excepted.

P. B. and Co. hold themselves responsible for goods admitted to their care, according to the notice and conditions subjoined, which are publicly exhibited at their offices and wharfs where they receive and deliver goods.

The Proprietors give public notice, that they will not hold themselves answerable or accountable for fire, or any loss or injury the goods may sustain by any accident to their barges on the rivers and navigation of whatever nature or kind soever (neglect excepted), or for any article, unless the same shall be entered by the book-keeper, or marked, as received, by one of them on the book or paper of the porter, or other person, who may deliver it.

They will not be accountable for any money, plate, watches, rings, jewels, writings, glass, china, marble, prints, paintings, or other valuables, unless entered as such, and an insurance paid above the common rate of carriage, according to the value, upon delivery to them.

Any claim for loss or damage that is not made within three days after the delivery of goods will not be allowed.

Leakage, arising from bad casks or cooerage, will not be accounted for.

All goods which shall be delivered for the purpose of being carried, will be considered as general liens, and subject not only to the money due for the carriage of such particular goods, but also to the general balance due from the respective owners to the Proprietors of the said conveyance.

Further particulars may be obtained by applying as above, or to John Salmon, Quay, Bath; Timbrell and Long, Bradford, Wilts; D. Phipp, Devizes; P. B. and Co's. Wharf, Newbury; D. Leggat, Reading; and Mr. Mason, Windsor.
